»2014 HUSKER OFFENSE

The Husker offense has the ability to be one of the nation's most explosive units in 2014. The unit is headlined by a dynamic duo of senior playmakers in I-back Ameer Abdullah and receiver Kenny Bell.

A first-team All-Big Ten selection in 2013, Abdullah is poised to contend for the Heisman Trophy, Doak Walker Award and All-America honors this fall. Abdullah is the nation's third-leading career rusher with 2,977 career rushing yards. Abdullah ran for 1,690 yards in 2013, the most by a Husker since the 1997 season.

Abdullah also has the ability to impact a game as a receiver and return man. Entering the 2014 season, Abdullah is the nation's career active leader in all-purpose yardage with 4,914 yards. He is poised to surpass Heisman winners Mike Rozier and Johnny Rodgers and become Nebraska's all-time leader in all-purpose yardage.

Bell is on pace to rewrite the Nebraska receiving record book during his senior season. Bell will enter 2014 ranked third in school history in receiving yardage with 1,901 yards, leaving him less than 600 yards from the top spot on the NU career list. He is also just 33 catches from ascending to the top of the career receptions list.

Also one of the nation's top kickoff return men, Bell has a flair for the big play. Each of his last 13 receiving touchdowns have covered at least 20 yards, including four touchdown receptions in 2013.

Sophomore Tommy Armstrong Jr. is the frontrunner to be the Huskers' signal caller in 2014. After being thrown into the starting role in 2013, Armstrong posted a 7-1 record as a starter, including a 4-0 record in games decided by seven or fewer points.

Up front, Nebraska will rely on seniors Jake Cotton, Mike Moudy and Mark Pelini to provide leadership to a re-tooled, but talented offensive front.

HIGHLIGHTING THE HUSKER OFFENSE

» Nebraska's top three running backs—Abdullah, Imani Cross and Terrell Newby—combined for more than 2,400 rushing yards last season. The Huskers' returning rushing yardage total as a team is the sixth-most in the country.

» Abdullah has rushed for more than 1,000 yards each of the past two seasons and is poised to become the first player in school history with three 1,000-yard rushing seasons.

» Nebraska has had at least one 1,000-yard rusher each of the past five seasons, the longest streak for the Huskers since having a 1,000-yard rusher for five straight seasons from 1991 to 1995.

» Nebraska has ranked in the top 20 nationally in rushing each of the past four seasons.

» Nebraska has a total of 12 offensive players with starting experience, led by Kenny Bell's 37 career starts and Ameer Abdullah who has made 20 career starts.

backs combined to rush for 2,459 yards last season. The yardage total is the third-most combined rushing yards by a group of returning running backs.

The Nebraska offense is in its fourth season under the direction of Offensive Coordinator Tim Beck. In Beck's first three seasons, the Husker offense has shown great diversity and explosiveness. The highlights include:

- » Nebraska has rushed for an average of more than 200 yards per game in each of Beck's first three seasons and the past four seasons overall. Nebraska has ranked among the top 20 teams nationally in rushing each of the past four years.
- » In 2012, Nebraska was one of only 19 teams in the nation to average more than 200 yards per game both on the ground and through the air. The Huskers just missed duplicating that feat in 2013, rushing for 215.7 yards per game, while compiling 196.7 yards per game through the air.
- » Nebraska has had at least one 1,000-yard rusher each of the past five seasons. That is the longest streak since the Huskers had a 1,000-yard runner for five straight seasons from 1991 to 1995.
- » Nebraska's returning running

QUARTERBACKS

- » In the past six seasons, Nebraska quarterbacks have produced four of the top eight single-season marks for total offense in school history.
- » Quarterback Taylor Martinez guided the Nebraska offense from 2010 to 2013 and finished as the holder of 37 Nebraska school records. Among Martinez's school records are career passing yards, career total offense, career passing touchdowns and season total offense.
- » Martinez is one of only 12 players in FBS history to pass for 6,000 yards and rush for 2,500 yards in a career.
- » Over the past six seasons, Nebraska quarterbacks have produced 10 of the top 20 single-game total offense efforts in school history.
- » Behind the leadership of Husker quarterbacks, Nebraska has won nine straight games decided by seven or fewer points.

RUNNING BACKS

- » Nebraska has had 24 first-team all-conference running backs since 1980.
- » Nebraska has had a running back rush for at least 1,000 yards each of the past five seasons, Roy Helu Jr. in 2009 and 2010, Rex Burkhead in 2011 and Ameer Abdullah in 2012 and 2013.
- » Helu Jr. and Burkhead each completed their career in the top five on the NU career rushing list, and Abdullah is poised to break into that group this season.
- » Abdullah rushed for 1,690 yards in 2013, the most by a Nebraska running back since 1997.
- » Nebraska I-backs have produced 36 100-yard rushing games in the past four seasons.
- » Following his Nebraska career, Helu Jr. was named to the 2011 NFL All-Rookie team with the Washington Redskins. Burkhead spent the 2013 season with the Cincinnati Bengals.
- » Nebraska I-backs have 30 1,000-yard rushing seasons in school history, including one in each of the past five years.

RECEIVERS

- » Nebraska receivers have 11 40-catch seasons in the past six years. Kenny Bell and Quincy Enunwa posted back-to-back seasons with both players cracking 40 catches in 2012 and 2013.
- » Bell and Enunwa are two of just five players in school history with a pair of 40-catch seasons.
- » Senior Kenny Bell enters the 2014 season poised to become Nebraska's all-time leader in receiving yards and receptions.
- » Bell was the second-fastest player in school history to reach 1,000 career receiving yards, trailing only Heisman winner Johnny Rodgers.
- » Enunwa completed his career ranked sixth in school history with 115 receptions and seventh with 1,526 career receiving yards.
- » Enunwa caught 12 touchdown passes in 2013, setting a Nebraska season record. He broke the record in style with a school-record 99-yard touchdown reception in the Gator Bowl.
- » Nate Swift, Niles Paul, Todd Peterson, Mike McNeill and Brandon Kinnie have all completed their careers since 2008 and rank among the top 13 in NU history in receptions.
- » Under Bo Pelini, Nebraska tight ends Mike McNeill and Kyler Reed have claimed the top two spots on Nebraska's career tight end receptions list.
- » McNeill finished his career with 82 receptions for 1,072 yards and 11 touchdowns, and now plays for the NFL's Carolina Panthers.

»2014 HUSKER DEFENSE

The Nebraska Blackshirt defense enters the 2014 season in a much different place than a year ago. The Husker defense was very young and untested at the start of last season. After some early-season growing pains, the Blackshirts grew into one of the Big Ten's top units during conference play.

Now Nebraska is set to be one of the top defenses in the Big Ten in 2014. It will all start up front for the Blackshirts where a stout front four awaits opposing offenses.

Junior defensive end Randy Gregory grew into one of the nation's top pass rushers during the 2013 season, finishing with 10.5 sacks and 19 tackles for loss. This season the 6-6, 240-pound Gregory should be a leading contender for Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year, as well as All-America honors and several major national awards.

Gregory is joined up front by a talented group of defensive tackles who showed flashes of dominance last fall. The group includes sophomores Vincent Valentine, Maliek Collins and Kevin Maurice, along with juniors Aaron Curry and Kevin Williams. Sophomore Greg McMullen should bookend the line opposite Gregory.

Nebraska's linebacking corps is deep and talented heading into the fall, with four players with extensive starting experience leading the way. Senior Zaire Anderson, junior David Santos and sophomores Michael Rose and Josh Banderas are all battle-tested following extensive action last fall. Senior Trevor Roach and redshirt freshmen Courtney Love and Marcus Newby should also be factors.

A pair of veterans will lead the Blackshirt secondary this fall. Senior Corey Cooper settled in at safety last fall and led the Huskers with 91 tackles. Cooper has seen action since his freshman season and has good coverage skills as well as providing a hard hitter in run support. Senior cornerback Josh Mitchell is an emotional leader on the defense who brings a tenacious attitude in pass coverage.

HIGHLIGHTING THE HUSKER DEFENSE

- » Nebraska returns 12 defenders with starting experience, including four players with 10 or more career starts.
- » Nebraska returns its top five tacklers from last season. Each of those players made at least 50 tackles in 2013.
- » Nebraska ranked seventh nationally in sacks last season and returns one of the nation's top returning sack men in Randy Gregory who had 10.5 sacks.
- » Gregory had 9.0 sacks in Big Ten Conference games, 2.5 more than any other conference defender.
- » Nebraska had at least three sacks seven times during the 2013 season.
- » Nebraska ranked fourth in total defense in Big Ten Conference games in 2013.
- » The Husker pass defense is annually among the nation's best. Last season, Nebraska allowed just 166.6 passing yards per game in conference play to lead the Big Ten. The Blackshirts also had a conference best 48.6 percent opponent pass completion percentage in league games.
- » Nebraska ranked in the top 10 nationally in third-down defense last season.

»DEFENSIVE DOMINANCE

One of the Huskers' most well-known traditions is the Blackshirts, which has become the common nickname for Nebraska's defensive unit. The term originally dates back to the early 1960s and refers to the black jerseys that Nebraska's first-string defenders wear in practice.

With the return of the two-platoon system in college football in 1964, Head Coach Bob Devaney looked for a way to distinguish the defensive units on the practice fields. Devaney dispatched Assistant Coach Mike Corgan to a local sporting goods store to find some "contrast jerseys," a sleeveless pullover that went on top of the players' practice jerseys. While the top offensive unit practiced in red jerseys and the second-string offense worked in green pullovers, the first string defense wore black pullovers and the second string wore the contrasting gold jerseys.

The term quickly caught on, and gained momentum during Monte Kiffin's tenure as defensive coordinator in the mid-1970s, before the Blackshirts earned national acclaim under Charlie McBride, who served as the Huskers' defensive coordinator from 1982 to 1999. The Blackshirts celebrated their 50th season in 2013.

BLACKSHIRT TRADITION

- » Nebraska has ranked in the top 10 nationally in total defense 22 times since 1964.
- » Nebraska has ranked among the nation's top 10 in all four major defensive categories (rush defense, pass defense, total defense and scoring defense) on five occasions, including 2009 and national title seasons in 1994, 1995 and 1997.

NEBRASKA BLACKSHIRTS

- The Blackshirt defense has thrived under Head Coach Bo Pelini and his defensive staff.
- » Pelini made his mark as defensive coordinator in 2003. Nebraska forced a school-record 47 turnovers that season, including a Big 12 record 32 interceptions. Nebraska finished second nationally in total defense in 2003, and 16 Blackshirts from that defense went on to play in the NFL.
- » In Pelini's first season as head coach in 2008, the Blackshirts were among the nation's most improved defenses. The Huskers finished second in the Big 12 in total defense, allowing 126.9 fewer yards per game than in 2007.
- » In 2009, Nebraska had a dominant defensive unit. The Huskers led the nation in scoring defense, limiting foes to 13 or fewer points 10 times in 14 games. Nebraska finished seventh in total defense that season.
- » The 2010 Blackshirts ranked in the top 12 nationally in four statistical categories, including third in pass efficiency defense, ninth in scoring defense and 11th in total defense.
- » The 2011 Nebraska defense featured Lavonte David, who was named Big Ten Linebacker of the Year and Alfonzo Dennard, who was Big Ten Defensive Back of the Year.
- » The 2012 Nebraska defense led the nation in opponents pass completion percentage at 47 percent. Only one other school held its opponent below 50 percent passing.
- » The 2013 Blackshirts made big strides during the season. Nebraska ranked in the top 10 nationally in sacks per game and third-down defense. In conference games, the Huskers led the Big Ten in passing yards allowed and opponent pass completion percentage.

THE PELINI FACTOR

Bo Pelini's college defenses have a history of dominance, not only at Nebraska, but also in his time as defensive coordinator at Oklahoma and LSU. Pelini-led defenses have been a fixture in the top 10 of numerous national categories.

During his time as Nebraska head coach, Pelini and his defensive staff have helped re-establish the Blackshirts as one of the nation's top defenses. Nebraska's combined defensive statistics from 2009 to 2013 stack up favorably in the nation.

Pelini's players have also flourished in the defensive system, including:

- » In the past six seasons, a Nebraska defensive lineman has topped 15 TFL in a season six times, including twice each by Ndamukong Suh and Jared Crick. Randy Gregory had 19 tackles for loss as a sophomore in 2013.
- » Nebraska defensive linemen have totaled at least 7.5 sacks in a season six times since 2008. Gregory had 10.5 sacks in 2013, including 9.0 in Big Ten games.
- » Nebraska has had a linebacker record at least 110 tackles three times in the past four seasons. Last season, three Husker linebackers had more than 50 tackles each.
- » Nebraska has had at least one first-team all-conference defensive back in each of the past five seasons.

"We have a great (defensive) tradition at Nebraska. As a former Blackshirt, it is basically the sense of urgency you play with. That is what it means to be a Blackshirt. It is being able to trust the guy next to you. It is 11 guys getting to the football."

Bo Pelini
Head Coach
Seventh Season
Ohio State, 1990

Head Coach Bo Pelini has assembled a Nebraska coaching staff with a championship pedigree that has strong ties to both Nebraska and Pelini's outstanding coaching background.

Pelini's success in his first six seasons as the Huskers' head coach puts him in a class with many of the elite coaches in college football history.

» Pelini has guided Nebraska to nine or more victories in each of his first six seasons. Nebraska is one of only three schools to win nine or more games each year from 2008 to 2013, joining Alabama and Oregon.

» Pelini and Alabama's Nick Saban are the only head coaches in the nation to win at least nine games each of the past six seasons.

» Among schools currently in a power conference, Pelini is just the eighth head coach in college football history to win at least nine games in each of his first six seasons on the job at that school. The group includes three Nebraska coaches (Bob Devaney, Tom Osborne and Pelini).

» When looking only at coaches in their first head coaching job at a major conference school, Pelini is one of only three to win nine games in each of their first six years, joining Osborne and Barry Switzer (Oklahoma).

» Pelini was among a group of 18 FBS head coaches who were hired for their jobs beginning with the 2008 season. Pelini leads that group of 18 head coaches in victories over the past six years with 57 wins. In fact, Pelini is one of only six coaches in the group of 18 still in the job they were hired for prior to the 2008 season.

For more than a century, the legacy of Nebraska Football has been growing. From its humble beginning in 1890 – when two games made an entire schedule – to 2014, where an established, nationally prominent program enjoys a rich history of success, Nebraska's student-athletes have excelled on all levels. Five national championships and 43 conference titles highlight the accomplishments of one of college football's most storied programs. There have been Heisman winners and Outland Trophy recipients, a nation-leading number of CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, a strong tradition of success in the classroom and many professional football stars. But underlying all of the countless accolades is a football family that does not rely on wins and losses as the final indicator of excellence. Nebraska football is much more than talented athletes and coaches taking the field to play a game – it is a family. The fans, support staff and student-athletes all Integrity, Trust, Respect, Teamwork and Loyalty. It is this commitment on and off the field that makes Nebraska unique and assures that the rich tradition of the Huskers will keep growing for years to come.

Nebraska started the new millennium the same way it ended the last – among the nation's elite. In the 1980s and 1990s, Nebraska became the first team in the history of Division I football to post 100 wins in back-to-back decades. Since the start of the 1970s, Nebraska has posted the best record of any Division I team (431-116-5). That outstanding tradition began with Bob Devaney and Tom Osborne and continues in 2014 with Coach Bo Pelini.

WINNING TRADITION

- » Nebraska is one of just eight schools with 800 or more all-time victories
- » Nebraska is one of just eight schools with a .700 winning percentage or better
- » Eight Huskers have won a nation-leading nine Outland Trophies
- » Since 1960, 78 Huskers have earned first-team All-America honors
- » Over the last 17 seasons, Nebraska is second among Big Ten Conference schools with 81 players chosen in the NFL Draft
- » The Huskers have won 34 conference titles outright and shared another nine crowns
- » Nebraska has played on television more than 320 times in the last 60 years

Top: Nebraska's first bowl game came after the 1940 season when the Cornhuskers took on Stanford in the Rose Bowl.

»CHAMPIONSHIP TRADITION

Few college athletic programs can boast the national championship resume of Nebraska football. Since 1970, Nebraska has won more games than any other team in the country, captured five national championships and played for a national title in a bowl game on four other occasions. The Huskers are one of only three college football teams to win at least five national championships since 1970, and one of only eight to capture at least three titles.

1994- Nebraska has won four of its five national championships in the Orange Bowl, including outlasting Miami, 24-17, in the 1995 game. Cory Schlesinger scored two fourth-quarter touchdowns to provide the winning margin.

1997- Grant Wistrom and Nebraska dominated Tennessee, 42-17, in the 1998 Orange Bowl to give Tom Osborne his third national title in four seasons as head coach. Wistrom and the Nebraska defense limited Vol quarterback Peyton Manning to less than 200 yards passing in the win.

1995- Nebraska ran over Florida in the 1996 Fiesta Bowl with quarterback Tommie Frazier leading an offense that produced a bowl-record 524 rushing yards.

1971- Johnny Rodgers celebrates his legendary punt return for a touchdown in the Game of the Century win over Oklahoma. The win at Oklahoma catapulted Nebraska to the Orange Bowl, where Nebraska dominated Alabama to win its second national championship.

»MEMORIAL STADIUM

One of the "Cathedrals of College Football" according to Sporting News, Memorial Stadium is one of the most iconic locations to play in all of sports. The Home of the Huskers since 1923, Memorial Stadium is universally ranked among the top 10 stadiums in college football.

The historic stadium continues to grow and improve. More than 5,000 seats were added for the 2013 season, pushing Nebraska's average attendance to more than 90,000 fans for the first time. Nebraska ranked ninth nationally by averaging 90,933 fans for eight home games in 2013.

Nebraska has continued its unmatched streak of sellouts at Memorial Stadium. The Huskers have sold out 333 consecutive games dating back to 1962. During the sellout streak, Nebraska owns a record of 287-46.

Memorial Stadium is one of the most historic venues in all of college football. The stadium opened in 1923, and while maintaining its traditional charm it has continued to evolve.

In 2013, average attendance moved past 90,000 fans for the first time with the East Stadium expansion. The expansion included new public seating areas and suites, improved fan amenities, and research areas within the East Stadium.

Memorial Stadium has been one of the more high-tech stadiums in college football since the addition of HuskerVision screens in 1994. Memorial Stadium features five replay boards, including a mammoth screen atop the North Stadium. Nearly every fan in the stadium has a clear view of a HuskerVision screen. In 2009, the facades of the East and West balconies added ribbon boards, further adding to the fan experience.

The 2014 season will debut several new fan amenities. Included in the upgrades for this season are a new sound system, complete WiFi connectivity in and around the stadium, an IPTV system and a new game-day application for smart phones.

»FOOTBALL FACILITIES

The home of five national championship football teams, Nebraska provides its players with every tool needed to be successful. The primary home for the football team is its locker room, which ranks among the most impressive in the country.

Each locker is made of solid maple and features a convenient storage system for equipment and is also customized with an iPad. The lockers are hand-made and custom designed with individual electronic security locks and a unique ventilation system that pulls air through and out of the locker.

The design of the locker room (above) allows each athlete to have a greater amount of space and personal storage while providing a convenient location next to the equipment room. The locker room received additional upgrades as part of Ndamukong Suh's generous donation to the athletic department including iPads at each locker and received upgrades again in 2013.

The Hawks Championship Indoor Center (bottom right) opened for the football team during spring practice in 2006. The facility features FieldTurf identical to Memorial Stadium's surface. The field also opens onto the practice fields of the Ed and Joyanne Gass Practice Facility (opposite page, middle), which includes one grass field and one field that was converted to FieldTurf in the summer of 2010. The indoor center is connected by a skybridge to the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex to give Nebraska the best all-around football facilities in the nation.

Players have a players lounge (opposite page, top left) to enjoy during their down time. The lounge is located on the football office floor and includes the latest technology while also paying tribute to Nebraska's current and past NFL success. The lounge received a fresh look this summer.

Nebraska's meeting space more than doubled with the completion of the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex in 2006. The large team room (below, right) provides space for nearly 160 people and allows coaches to utilize the most advanced technology as it is equipped with theatre-quality sound and video systems.

The team meeting room is one of several teaching areas on the football floor, as each position coach has a meeting room directly across the hall from his office. Players and coaches each have more space to view game or practice video, giving them a greater edge in preparing for competition.

Nebraska's rich tradition and history of success is on display throughout Memorial Stadium (right). In addition to a national championship trophy display on the football floor, (lower left) the Nebraska Football Experience Room in the Osborne Complex highlights the Huskers' three Heisman Trophy winners and major award winners are also honored (opposite page, top right).

BUILDING THE COMPLETE FOOTBALL PLAYER

The University of Nebraska Football Strength and Conditioning staff is committed to helping each student-athlete reach their physical potential through a comprehensive approach to developing the complete football player. Through individual assessment and program design, it is our objective to increase the athletic performance of each individual athlete while reducing the risk of injury.

STRENGTH STAFF

The strength and conditioning staff consists of five full-time coaches whose sole purpose is to train the football athlete. The student-athlete has a 4-5 year window to reach his potential physically, mentally and as a football player. To do so, requires the daily individual attention and interaction with the strength and conditioning staff to ensure each athlete is on the path to success. We are committed to providing the best football training environment to give our athletes the best opportunity to be successful.

INDIVIDUAL PROGRAM DESIGN

Individual program design is essential in order to completely develop an athlete. Every athlete is different; each has their own genetic profile, medical history, and training history. An initial physical assessment evaluating the areas of strength, performance, function and body composition will be done. When the data is collected and interpreted, a program will be designed to address the individual demands of the athlete.

A COMPREHENSIVE TRAINING APPROACH

Through a comprehensive approach we will develop the football athlete to overcome any obstacle they may encounter in their quest to become the best they can be. Becoming a great football player takes strength, power, speed, conditioning, and a specific skill set. We will encompass all of these areas throughout the training cycle.

STRENGTH AND POWER TRAINING

The resistance training programs are based on ground based, three dimensional, multi-joint movements. Ground based exercises are exercises done with the athlete's feet on the ground. Performing exercises with your feet on the ground mimic the athletic movements performed in the game of football and allow the athlete to produce force against the ground. The more force the athlete can exert against the ground the better the player he can become.

Three dimensional movements are movements that are performed in all three planes of movement: side to side, up and down, and forward and backward. To accomplish this, the athlete must use free weights. Free weights will develop not only the primary muscles, but the stabilizing muscles as well. Developing the stabilizing musculature will help reduce the risk of injury that is present in the game of football.

Multi-joint exercises are movements that require the body to simultaneously move multiple joints in a coordinated effort in order to produce athletic movements. It is essential to reproduce the athletic movements in training that occur in competition. Multiple-joint exercises also train more lean mass than single joint exercises. This allows for more efficient and productive training sessions.

Explosive, powerful training is essential for the game of football. The body's ability to apply force quickly will help determine the athlete's success on the field. Explosive training takes the strength an athlete has and improves their ability to deliver that strength forcefully and rapidly.

CONDITIONING

It is important to condition like a football player. The game has specific conditioning demands that need to be met. Football is a game that consists of short bursts of all out activity followed by a specific rest interval. It is important to follow this pattern when performing conditioning drills. General and position specific conditioning are essential.

SPEED TRAINING

The game of football is dominated by acceleration and agility and will be a focal point during speed training. Acceleration is the ability to get to top speed in the smallest amount of time possible and agility is the ability to change direction without losing speed. Possessing great acceleration and agility is critical to the success of the football player.

POSITION SPECIFIC TRAINING

It is important to develop the skills that each position requires. Developing position specific skills will be addressed year-round to ensure that technique and skill sets are enhanced to help with on-field performance.

THE INJURED ATHLETE

The Strength and Conditioning Staff and the Sports Medicine Staff work together in order to plan a successful training program to get the athlete promptly and safely back to competition.

"This incredible facility helped me earn all the honors I was so privileged to receive while I was at Nebraska. When you combine the facility with Coach Dobson and his outstanding staff, there is not a better strength and conditioning program in the country."

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL IN THE NFL

Nebraska owns one of the most impressive histories of any school with players in the National Football League. Over 300 former Huskers have represented Nebraska in the NFL. Over the past 18 years, Nebraska ranks second among all Big Ten Conference programs with 81 players chosen during the NFL Draft. The Huskers have been especially impressive with defensive players, with 51 former Huskers chosen since 1997.

As of July 1, Nebraska had 33 former players on NFL rosters, including 13 players with four or more years of experience and two with a decade of time in the league. Nebraska is represented on 18 rosters of NFL teams.

"I had a fantastic football career at Nebraska and thanks to my coaches and support staff, I have learned the value of hard work, teamwork and life skills."

HEISMAN TRADITION

Nebraska is a hotbed for exceptional athletes to earn national honors. In 2001, Nebraska quarterback Eric Crouch became Nebraska's third Heisman Trophy winner, while also taking home the Davey O'Brien Award and the Walter Camp Player-of-the Year Award. Husker players have won a nation-leading nine Outland Trophies, five Lombardi Awards and three Heisman Trophies. In 2009, defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh became one of the nation's most decorated defensive players. Suh captured the Outland, Lombardi, Bronko Nagurski and Chuck Bednarik awards, while also being named the Associated Press College Player of the Year. He was also the first defensive lineman to be a finalist for the Heisman in 15 seasons and finished fourth in the voting for the award.

* Permanently retired numbers

Following the 1949 season, the N Club voted to retire jersey No. 60 in honor of Tom "Train Wreck" Novak's stellar career with the Cornhuskers. Novak, the first Nebraska player to earn this honor, had been a four-time All-Big Seven choice and a 1949 All-American.

For 55 years, Novak was the only NU player to have the distinction of a retired number. In 2004, that finally changed as College and Pro Football Hall of Famer Bob Brown's No. 64 joined Novak's hallowed No. 60 among the only two permanently retired numbers at Nebraska. Brown, whose jersey retirement ceremony occurred in 2004.

All major national award winners at Nebraska automatically have their jerseys retired, but their numbers will still be available to active Huskers.

Nebraska's group of 17 players with retired jerseys certainly ranks among the best in the nation. Huskers who have earned the distinction of jersey retirement include three Heisman Trophy winners (Johnny Rodgers, Mike Rozier, Eric Crouch), eight Outland Trophy winners with nine awards (Larry Jacobson, Rich Glover, Dave Rimington (2), Dean Steinkuhler, Will Shields, Zach Wiegert, Aaron Taylor, Ndamukong Suh), five Lombardi Award winners (Rich Glover, Dave Rimington, Dean Steinkuhler, Grant Wistrom, Ndamukong Suh), one Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award winner (Tommie Frazier), one Davey O'Brien Award winner (Crouch), one Butkus Award winner (Trev Alberts) one Rimington Trophy winner (Dominic Raiola), one Bednarik Award Winner (Ndamukong Suh) and one Nagurski trophy (Ndamukong Suh).

In 2009, Ndamukong Suh (top) earned his spot alongside the Cornhusker legends of the past. Suh won the Outland Trophy, the Rotary Lombardi Award, the Chuck Bednarik Award and the Bronko Nagurski Trophy. He was also named the Associated Press College Player of the Year and was a finalist for the Heisman Trophy. Suh became the 17th player in Husker history to have his jersey retired when his No. 93 was retired on Nov. 26, 2010.

The 17 Huskers to have their jerseys retired combined for 23 All-America awards and seven are members of the College Football Hall of Fame.

The names and numbers of players with retired jerseys are all displayed directly below the HuskerVision video screen on the north end of Memorial Stadium.

»BOWL TRADITION

NU-24 GEORGIA-19

The holiday plans of Nebraska football teams and thousands of Husker fans have traditionally included travel to a bowl game. Nebraska made its 50th all-time bowl appearance in the 2014 Gator Bowl and is one of only three schools to play in 50 bowl games. Nebraska played in an NCAA-record 35 consecutive bowls from 1969 to 2003. The Huskers have won 11 bowl games since 1995, including three victories in national championship games.

HUSKER BOWL FACTS

- » Nebraska ranks third all-time with 50 bowl appearances in the history of the program.
- » Nebraska owns 25 all-time bowl victories, including 11 wins in its last 18 bowl games.
- » Coach Bo Pelini is 4-3 in bowl games at Nebraska, including a 17-3 win over Michigan State as the interim head coach in the 2003 Alamo Bowl. Pelini led Nebraska to its first bowl game shutout in school history with a 33-0 win over Arizona in the 2009 Holiday Bowl.
- » Pelini has bowl victories against teams from the ACC, Big Ten, Pac-12 and SEC.
- » During the past three decades, Nebraska has played in nine Orange Bowls, five Fiesta Bowls, two Sugar Bowls and one Rose Bowl.
- » The Huskers have played a top-five opponent in 16 of their last 26 bowl games.
- » Nebraska made its first-ever bowl appearance in the 1941 Rose Bowl. Nebraska has played in 14 different bowl games.

Above: Receiver Quincy Enunwa earned Most Valuable Player honors in the Huskers' 2014 Gator Bowl victory. Enunwa had two touchdown receptions, including an NCAA bowl record 99-yard touchdown catch (lower left).

The Husker band and cheerleaders took part in the Gator Bowl parade and are annually a part of the tradition and pageantry of a Nebraska bowl trip.

Nebraska players enjoyed their time in Jacksonville during Gator Bowl week. The Huskers had the opportunity to spend time on the Jacksonville beaches, and a group of Nebraska players took time out of their busy schedule to visit a local children's hospital.

COVERING THE BOWLS

The images on these pages represent the bowl program covers from each of Nebraska's 50 all-time bowl games. The Huskers' rich bowl tradition dates back 74 years to their first bowl appearance in the 1941 Rose Bowl. Nebraska made its first of 17 Orange Bowl appearances in 1955. The Huskers have won four national championships in Miami, including their most recent title in the 1998 game. Nebraska added a national title in the 1996 Fiesta Bowl, one of six trips to Arizona. In Coach Bo Pelini's six years at Nebraska, the Huskers have played bowl games in Florida and California.

»MEDIA ATTENTION

Nebraska football is among the most recognized college programs in the nation. Television, newspapers, magazines, websites, radio and social media keep Nebraska in the national spotlight.

NEBRASKA IN THE SPOTLIGHT

When Nebraska joined the Big Ten in 2011, the Huskers were assured of having every game televised on a national basis. Nebraska has long been a fixture on television, averaging more than eight television appearances per year since 1980.

The Big Ten Network was the first internationally distributed television network dedicated to covering one of America's premier collegiate conferences. BTN is on the air 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. The network is available to an estimated 90 million households through its cable/satellite affiliates.

BTN ensures that every home Big Ten football game will be nationally televised. Each year's schedule is comprised of nearly 50 football games. BTN also features studio shows around its live game telecasts, feature host Dave Revsine and analysts Gerry DiNardo and Howard Griffith. In addition to live games, the network also airs numerous studio shows and classic games.

In addition to the exposure from BTN, the Big Ten Conference also has an expansive television deal with ESPN and ABC, giving conference teams as much exposure as any other school in the nation.

Nebraska football can be heard statewide and across the nation on the Husker Sports Network. The games can also be heard on satellite radio and live worldwide on the Internet at Huskers.com. Approximately 4 million fans per month visit Huskers.com during football season.

Nebraska football has been regular programming on national television for more than 60 years, since being featured on the first-ever television broadcast of a college game by NBC on Sept. 19, 1953. Since then, the Huskers have played on TV 344 more times, including 160 appearances on ABC.

The Huskers are also often in the spotlight during postseason bowl appearances. Last season, Nebraska played in the TaxSlayer.com Gator Bowl, a game that was televised nationally on ESPN2.

"You always want to play your best, no matter who you're playing. That's why you come to Nebraska – to play in big bowl games, championship games, nationally televised games."

»GAMEDAY ATMOSPHERE

Game days at Nebraska are unlike any in college football. Fans line the streets of Lincoln waiting to enter the "Sea of Red," while the marching band parades up Stadium Drive as thousands of red-clad fans look on. The Huskers emerge from the famous "Tunnel Walk" to the sound of "Sirius" and the fans stay at a frenzied pitch until the final play of the game when they graciously cheer for the opposing players as they exit the field.

The Tunnel Walk, which began in 1994, has become an integral part of Memorial Stadium's game-day experience. It was created as a way for fans to share in the excitement of the team emerging from the locker room, something only a few could do before HuskerVision's cameras and big screens came to Memorial Stadium. The sounds of the Alan Parsons Project's "Sirius," and the roar of more than 90,000 frenzied fans rock the stadium as the Huskers burst through the locker room doors and into the tunnel on their way to the Memorial Stadium FieldTurf. For as long as anyone can remember, the Huskers have touched a lucky horseshoe on their way from the locker room to the field. The horseshoe hangs above the door as Nebraska leaves the North Stadium.

"After the game, I've never heard so many positive people walking off the field. They were congratulating them on a great game, for playing hard, telling our guys good luck and that's the type of atmosphere that is great."

Pat Hill
former Fresno State Head Coach

"This is a great place to come play."

UCLA Head Coach Jim Mora

"I'll tell you the biggest difference between the state of Nebraska and any other state in football. I think the fan's loyalty, the noise factor that's on the field and the Sea of Red when you look out."

Brent Musburger
ESPN/ABC Commentator

»DEVOTED FANS

"No fan base has more passion or dedication."

Tom Dienhart, Big Ten Network

Nebraska fans are perhaps the most loyal in college football. The entire state follows the Huskers, along with a truly national fan base. Cornhusker fans have packed Memorial Stadium for every home game since 1962, and in 2009 Nebraska fans celebrated the 300th consecutive sellout at Memorial Stadium. Nebraska has extended its NCAA record sellout streak to 333 as it enters the 2014 season.

Husker fans bring their show on the road as well. More than 60,000 red-clad fans trekked to Pasadena for the 2002 Rose Bowl, and in 2001, more than 30,000 Huskers swarmed South Bend for a matchup with Notre Dame. In 2006, the Husker Nation again outdid itself as nearly 30,000 fans descended on the Coliseum in Los Angeles to watch the Husker contest with USC. Opposing stadiums throughout Big Ten Country began to see the invasion of the Big Red fans in 2011. More than 15,000 Nebraska fans traveled to Wisconsin in 2011, and at Northwestern in 2012 the stadium was nearly half-full of fans in red.

Every entrance at Memorial Stadium welcomes Nebraska fans with the following phrase:

"Through these gates pass the Greatest Fans in College Football"

In 2013, Nebraska had season ticket holders from 49 of 50 states.

"I think Nebraska fans are the greatest fans in college football, no question in my mind. The enthusiasm here is as good as any place, but the integrity here of the fans is the best in America."

Lee Corso
ESPN College Football Analyst

»WALK-ONS

"Loyalty. Motivation. Willingness to Sacrifice."

Tom Osborne, Hall of Fame Coach from 1973 to 1997 and Nebraska's Athletic Director from 2007 to 2012, has used those words to describe Nebraska's walk-on program.

The tradition of the Cornhusker walk-on program is one-of-a-kind in college football. Hundreds of young men from towns in all corners of the state have come to Nebraska with big dreams. Many players have excelled beyond their biggest dreams. Head Coach Bo Pelini has made a priority of building on the past success of the Husker walk-on program. Pelini has placed 27 former walk-ons on scholarship during his first six seasons as head coach.

»FOOTBALL FAMILY

Family. It is a word that is synonymous with Nebraska Football. No one takes more pride in the Nebraska football program than its former players.

Head Coach Bo Pelini and his staff have made embracing the tradition of the storied Husker program a priority, making a strong effort to connect with former players through a variety of activities.

CORNHUSKERS FROM COAST TO COAST

The family atmosphere of Nebraska football brings together players from all across the United States. The Huskers have taken a national approach to recruiting and the family setting in Lincoln makes players from all corners of the country feel at home.

The 2014 Nebraska roster has players from 25 states, plus Canada, including 60 homegrown Huskers. Next on the list is Texas with 13 players on the Cornhusker roster. The Husker roster includes at least five players from six additional states. Nebraska has signed players from 25 states and Canada in its last three recruiting classes.

In the history of the program, Nebraska's 96 football All-Americans hail from 24 states and the District of Columbia. Homegrown Cornhuskers have accounted for 38 of Nebraska's All-Americans. All time, Nebraska football letterwinners come from 45 states, Washington D.C. and six foreign countries (Australia, Canada, Finland, South Korea, Germany and Mexico).

While fighting brain cancer, Hoffman ran for a touchdown during the 2013 Red-White spring game at Memorial Stadium. Hoffman was honored later in the year with an ESPY. He was joined on stage at the awards program by Husker quarterback Taylor Martinez.

"There is no in-state player, no out-of-state player, no walk-on player and no scholarship player. We were all equals when we got here, and we all came here for the same reason – to contribute to something much bigger than all of us. At Nebraska, all lettermen are the same. We're hundreds of guys who paid the price to be part of one of the greatest traditions in all of college football. And the greatest honor any of us ever achieved was being able to say: 'I played for Nebraska!'"

LETTERWINNERS CLUB

Former and current Huskers connect through a variety of N Club activities.

N CLUB MISSION STATEMENT

Provide opportunities to letterwinners from all sports for connection, engagement and involvement through events, special reunions and communication while supporting the athletic, academic and career success of Husker student-athletes.

N CLUB ADVISORY COUNCIL

Letterwinner alumni meet monthly to provide feedback and assistance with upcoming events insuring a commitment to the N Club mission. Approximately 15 alumni from various sports and generations volunteer to meet with the N Club Director and additional athletic staff.

N CLUB PROGRAMMING/EVENTS

Memorial Stadium N Club Gameday Lounge – located in the southeast corner of Memorial Stadium, letterwinner alums and guests with a gameday ticket can enjoy connecting with fellow Huskers, athletic staff and Student-Athlete Advisory Committee members. Open 90 minutes prior to kickoff through halftime, the lounge features snacks, Pepsi products and flat screens to enjoy other games.

Social Events – The N Club will host several social functions allowing letterwinner alums from all sports the opportunity to come back to campus, see facilities, meet athletic staff and reconnect.

Letterwinner Induction Ceremony – held once each semester, first-time letterwinners are presented with their Husker letter jacket by their Head Coach and a letterwinner alumni. The banquet features comments from past Husker greats along with a special video tribute.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ENGAGEMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Striving to connect the past with the present, letterwinner alumni are invited back to campus to participate in the annual Student-Athlete Career Fair, Networking Night and Inner Circle Leadership group. Additionally, letterwinner alumni serve as email mentors providing life and career insights. Letterwinner alumni will also have an opportunity to volunteer with current student-athlete leaders for various service projects including a service abroad trip in May.

CHAMPIONSHIP REUNIONS

Championship teams and those finishing at an elite national level are invited back to campus 10 years from the date of the accomplishment. Six teams are scheduled to be honored in 2014 including an event dinner and recognition at a home Husker football game.

Nebraska's first-time letterwinners were honored at a Letterwinner Induction Ceremony following the 2013 season. The banquet includes letterwinner alumni and comments from past Husker greats.

"Truly there are no words to describe what this means to Jack and our entire family. Our heart overflows with gratitude for what Coach Pelini and his staff have done for our son."

University of Nebraska student-athletes produced another outstanding year in competition, in the classroom and in the community, continuing NU's tradition of success in 2013-14. The Huskers increased their nation-leading total of all-time CoSIDA Academic All-Americans to 314 with a Big Ten-best seven academic All-Americans across all sports, while also claiming a Big Ten-leading four NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships in 2013-14.

Nebraska's seven CoSIDA Academic All-Americans ranked among the highest totals in the nation across all divisions. The Huskers maintained their lead of 76 all-time CoSIDA Academic All-Americans over national No. 2 Notre Dame. The only school in the nation with 300 academic All-Americans, Nebraska is one of just three schools across all divisions with 200 or more, joining Notre Dame and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT). NU leads the nation in CoSIDA Academic All-Americans since 2000 with 124, extending its nation-leading streak to 43 consecutive years with at least one academic All-American.

The Huskers also increased their nation-leading total of NCAA Top Ten Award winners to 17, as former women's tennis All-American Mary Weatherholt was honored during the 2013-14 academic year. Nebraska also ranks among the nation's best in the total of NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship winners, including four during the fall and winter seasons of 2013-14. Spencer Long (Football), Eric Schryver (Men's Gymnastics), Emily Wong (Women's Gymnastics) and Sunny Russell (Rifle) all claimed the prestigious national awards. NCAA awards for the spring sports season have not been announced.

A total of 675 awards were issued for the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Fall (354) and Spring (321) Honor Roll, recognizing Husker student-athletes who produced a 3.0 GPA or better during a semester. Among that group, Huskers produced 87 perfect 4.0 GPA semesters. A total of 62 Nebraska student-athletes also were honored as Big Ten Distinguished Scholars for posting 3.7 grade-point averages or better and lettering in their respective sports in 2013-14.

Nebraska's CoSIDA Academic All-America success continues to set the standard for the approximately 1,400 member institutions. The Husker football team leads all individual sport programs in the nation with 107 all-time CoSIDA Academic All-America awards, including 2013 first-team honoree Spencer Long and second-team selections Jake Long and C.J. Zimmerer. Spencer Long added a prestigious National Football Foundation Postgraduate Scholarship worth $18,000, along with prestigious NCAA Postgraduate ($7,500) and Big Ten Wayne Duke Postgraduate ($10,000) scholarships before being chosen in the third round of the 2014 NFL Draft. Zimmerer added a spot on the AFCA Good Works Team and claimed Nebraska's Big Ten Sportsmanship Award for his extensive community involvement.

The Nebraska men's and women's track and field program added three academic All-Americans, including first-teamers Levi Gipson and Anne Martin, along with second-team pick Cody Rush. Martin and John Welk swept the NCAA Elite 89 awards for the Huskers as the student-athletes with the top grade-point averages competing at the NCAA Outdoor Track & Field Championships for the second consecutive season. Nebraska's 38 combined CoSIDA Academic All-America honors since 2002 for the men's and women's track and field program lead the nation.

Emily Wong, an 11-time All-American in competition for the Nebraska women's gymnastics team, added a first-team CoSIDA Academic All-America award to cap one of the greatest all-around careers for a student-athlete in Husker history. A two-time academic All-American, Wong was named the winner of the 2014 AAI Award presented to the top student-athlete in collegiate women's gymnastics. The Honda Award finalist and Big Ten Gymnast of the Year earned prestigious NCAA Postgraduate ($7,500) and Big Ten Wayne Duke Postgraduate ($10,000) scholarships. Her achievements earned her Nebraska's Female Student-Athlete-of-the-Year Award and the Big Ten Medal of Honor. Men's track and field student-athlete Seth Wiedel was Nebraska's Male Student-Athlete of the Year and Big Ten Medal of Honor winner.

NEBRASKA'S NATION-LEADING FOOTBALL ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA TOTAL GROWS TO 107

Senior offensive lineman Spencer Long, senior tight end Jake Long and senior fullback C.J. Zimmerer claimed CoSIDA Academic All-America honors for Nebraska football in 2013, pushing the program's nation-leading total to 107 all time.

Nebraska's football academic All-America total is massive, considering Penn State football ranks third all-time and second in the Big Ten with 52. In fact, only 25 schools in the nation across all divisions have produced 100 or more CoSIDA Academic All-Americans across all of their sports in history.

The Husker football program has earned 11 CoSIDA Academic All-America awards in six seasons under Coach Bo Pelini, the most under any coach during that span.

NEBRASKA CLAIMS 208 ACADEMIC ALL-BIG TEN AWARDS

Across all sports, Nebraska student-athletes captured 208 academic All-Big Ten selections, an increase of 20 awards over the 2012-13 campaign.

Nebraska lead the Big Ten in the number of academic all-conference selections in men's track and field (23), women's gymnastics (9), men's tennis (8), bowling (6) and sand volleyball (3), while tying for the Big Ten led in men's golf (7). The Huskers also ranked second in the Big Ten in academic all-conference selections in men's basketball, men's gymnastics, wrestling and rifle. Husker teams ranked among the top two in the conference in academic All-Big Ten choices across 10 sports in 2013-14.

Over the past six years, Nebraska has amassed more than 1,100 academic all-conference certificates across all sports. Husker student-athletes also earned 675 spots on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll during the fall or spring semesters of 2013-14. To earn a spot on the honor roll, a student-athlete must earn a 3.0 grade-point average during the semester. During the fall or spring semesters, 87 Husker student-athletes produced perfect 4.0 semester GPAs.

A total of 62 Husker student-athletes captured Big Ten Conference Distinguished Scholar awards. Those student-athletes produced 3.7 or better grade-point averages during the fall and spring semesters of 2013-14, while also earning letters in their respective sports.

HUSKERS CELEBRATE GRADUATIONS OF 123 STUDENT-ATHLETES IN 2013-14

Across all sports, a total of 123 Husker student-athletes earned their bachelor's degrees from the University of Nebraska from August of 2013 through May of 2014. Nebraska's May graduating class of 57, joined a large group of 52 student-athlete graduates in December of 2013, while 14 Huskers earned their degrees in August of 2013.

HUSKERS HONORED AT STUDENT-ATHLETE RECOGNITION BANQUET

The University of Nebraska Athletic Department took one special night to honor its own student-athletes at the 24th annual Student-Athlete Recognition Banquet. A total of 279 honor medallions were presented to Husker student-athletes.

In addition to Seth Wiedel and Emily Wong earning Nebraska's top individual honors as Student-Athletes of the Year, Coach Bill Spangler's men's golf team (3.250 GPA) and Coach Scott Jacobson's women's tennis team (3.485 GPA) claimed the 20th annual Herman Awards. The awards are presented to the Husker teams with the top team grade-point averages. It marked the sixth award for the women's tennis program in the past 10 years, while the men's golf team claimed its fifth award in the history of the program, including the fourth consecutive honor.

»THE NEBRASKA ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

From the day student-athletes decide the University of Nebraska is the right place to be, the athletic academic counseling unit provides personal and academic support to ensure that student-athletes will get the most out of their years as Huskers. Featuring one of the most innovative and comprehensive academic support systems in the country, Nebraska is dedicated to helping its student-athletes become outstanding leaders in their chosen fields. The academic support team is comprised of 14 full-time staff members and a tutorial staff of approximately 100 tutors addressing all subject areas.

ACADEMIC COUNSELING

Seven academic counselors, three learning specialists and two assistant academic counselors are in place to monitor daily academic progress, receive consistent course feedback, assist with the advising/registration process and monitor continuing eligibility and progress toward graduation. Essentially, academic counselors assist student-athletes in navigating the University of Nebraska system.

TUTORIAL SUPPORT

A tremendous resource for all academic abilities, unlimited tutorial support is available from day one up to college graduation. Subject and mentor tutors help provide academic support and study strategies to be successful. Supplemental Instruction, a sub-component of the tutorial program, provides targeted group review sessions to help ease the transition to college academics while improving study strategies and building academic self-esteem.

STUDY HALL

Nebraska's study hall program is housed in the DJ Sokol Enrichment Center within the Student Life Complex. Student-athletes attend a supervised, flex-time study hall that features day, evening and weekend hours. Each student-athlete is required to complete a specific number of study hours each week as determined by their academic counselor and/or coach. In addition, weekly study hall reports are provided to the coaching staff. Additional performance-based or tutor-based study hall may also be determined by the academic counselor.

MENTORING

Many student-athletes meet with a mentor on a weekly basis to assist in making a smooth transition from high school to college. Mentors collect syllabi, gather and report academic progress information and teach academic success strategies.

EDUCATIONAL ASSESSMENTS

Assessments are administered upon the request of the student-athlete, academic counselor, or coach to determine student strengths and areas for improvement. Results allow academic counselors to develop a personalized academic support program and to determine if more in-depth testing is warranted. When additional assessments are necessary, referrals are made to a consulting psychologist who conducts the assessments. If it is determined that a student-athlete has a learning disability, appropriate accommodations are made through the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ORIENTATION

The academic staff coordinates New Student-Athlete Orientation to help newcomers adjust to the multiple demands of being a college student-athlete. Presentations are made by academic counselors, compliance officials, NU faculty and administrators, business/community professionals and student-athletes.

PERSONAL COUNSELING

Student-athletes will find a supportive and caring environment at Nebraska. Transitional issues, stress management, time management, academic focus and problem resolution are all addressed in a proactive manner throughout the year. If necessary, counseling referrals are also made to designated practitioners.

COMPUTER RESOURCES

Student-athletes enjoy a state-of-the-art computer lab and technology center with 58 computers and professional supervision. Laptops are also available during team travel. Student-athletes have the benefit of ongoing education and assistance from a full-time computer technician.

The Dick and Peg Herman Family Student Life Complex also features a new technology center and a dedicated Life Skills area and the Papik Computer lab.

"You definitely get the total package of an experience from athletics, academics, community outreach and campus life. Everybody on staff within the program makes sure that the student-athletes reach their fullest potential and that is why there is no place like Nebraska."

Rex Burkhead
2013 NFL draftee

»LIFE SKILLS

The Nebraska Life Skills program is committed to providing proactive education, resources and support throughout college and beyond, best preparing Husker student-athletes for life after sports. Services foster transition, retention, responsible decision-making, leadership, volunteerism and career development.

Nebraska has long been considered a pioneer in life skills support and programming. In 1998, Nebraska was one of five Division I schools nationally to win the prestigious Program of Excellence Award recognizing a strong commitment to total person development. In 2005, Keith Zimmer, Associate A.D. for Life Skills, was the recipient of the Dr. Gene Hooks Award recognizing him as the top life skills administrator in the country

LIFE SKILLS COMPONENTS PROACTIVE EDUCATION

Husker Life Seminar – All incoming student-athletes complete a 13-week fall semester seminar addressing a variety of life skills topics ranging from leadership to money to relationships and study skills. Team Workshops – Campus and community experts facilitate team-specific life skills education workshops. Student-Athlete Assemblies – Meetings featuring remarks from nationally recognized life skills trainers.

PERSONALIZED SUPPORT/INDIVIDUAL SESSIONS

Resume Development – Each student-athlete is assigned a Life Skills counselor who assists in the creation of a personalized resume for the student-athlete. Periodic follow-up meetings will take place through graduation to ensure a well-rounded college experience and marketability to realize career goals.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Nebraska student-athletes combine to impact over 100,000 people statewide on an annual basis. Team Service Requirement – Each team participates in a minimum of two service projects per year. School Outreach – Individuals participate in numerous school outreach campaigns in both classroom and assembly settings. Hospital Visits – Huskers are frequent hospital visitors providing cheer and encouragement to a variety of patients. Miscellaneous Outreach – Outreach requests are received daily from the entire state requesting involvement from Husker student-athletes. Mentoring Programs – Typically requires one hour of service per week serving as a youth mentor.

LEADERSHIP/CITIZENSHIP

Life Skills promotes leadership development and provides recognition opportunities for extraordinary citizenship. Student-Athlete Advisory Committee – Elected team representatives from each of the 24 sports serve as the “voice” of the entire student-athlete population discussing student-athlete welfare, legislation and service events. HERO Leadership Award – Individual recognition to Huskers who have consistently gone above and beyond serving as an exemplary role-model. Heart and Soul Award – Presented annually to the top senior student-athlete leaders for extraordinary service throughout their college careers. Brook Berringer Citizenship Team – Annual “Good Works” team honoring football players for dedicated service in memory of late Husker Brook Berringer. Tom Osborne Citizenship Team – Individual recognition to Huskers across all sports who have completed at least six service projects during the academic year. Nebraska Football Uplifting Athletes – A newly recognized UNL student organization initiated in 2012, Nebraska football players and UNL student leaders work collaboratively to raise funds and awareness for those with rare diseases. Nebraska running back Rex Burkhead was named the 2012 recipient of the National Rare Disease Champion Award for his mentoring of Jack Hoffman and C.J. Zimmerer received the award in 2014. The Life Skills Award of Excellence recognizes team services and leadership with the top men’s and women’s programs being honored on an annual basis.

CAREER COMMITMENT

In addition to the creation of a personalized resume and game plan, the following career resources are available to every Husker. Student-Athlete Career Fair – Attended by approximately 25 companies. Networking Night – Former Husker student-athletes and other professionals thriving in their chosen career fields share valuable insights with sophomore student-athletes. Assessments – On-line assessments to help individuals discover talents and match with a major and career. Practical Experience – Programs in place to facilitate shadowing and internship placements. Job Preparation – Expert advice on cover letter writing, interviewing skills and evaluating the job offer.

POSTGRADUATE ASSISTANCE

Commitment to helping student-athletes pursue postgraduate plans and scholarships. Career Nights – Learn from the experts to gain valuable insight on timelines, application procedures, entrance requirements, personal essays and more. Scholarships – Seniors in their final season of athletic eligibility can apply for numerous postgraduate awards.

»ATHLETIC MEDICINE

Providing expert care to more than 600 Husker student-athletes, Nebraska features one of the most well-trained and highly skilled athletic medicine staffs in the country.

Under the guidance of Director of Athletic Medicine Dr. Lonnie Albers, Head Athletic Trainer and Physical Therapist Jerry Weber and Football Athletic Trainer Mark Mayer, the 2014-15 Nebraska athletic medicine staff consists of five doctors, two therapist/athletic trainers, 11 athletic trainers and six graduate assistant athletic trainers.

The Hydroworx 1000 Treadmill Pool is equipped with two cameras underwater for evaluation and assessment, while hot and cold plunge tanks are also available to the Huskers.

Nebraska's medical facilities have long been among the nation's best, and NU's athletic medicine center within the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex will keep the Huskers on the front line of technology for decades to come. In addition to Nebraska's North Stadium facility, the NU Coliseum, Haymarket Park, the Bob Devaney Sports Center and Pinnacle Bank Arena all feature athletic medicine areas. The Devaney Center's Athletic Medicine facility underwent an extensive expansion as part of the Hendricks Training Complex addition in 2011.

»ALL-SPORT FACILITIES

Nebraska's top facilities are not limited to the football program. Nearly every Husker sport enjoys a venue that ranks among the nation's best.

Nebraska provides its student-athletes top-notch game-day and practice atmospheres in every sport. In 2013-14, the Nebraska men's and women's basketball programs moved into the Haymarket and played at the new Pinnacle Bank Arena. Volleyball, wrestling and men's and women's gymnastics competed in the newly renovated Devaney Center.

Nebraska's track and field team competes at the Devaney Center Indoor Track, one of the nation's premier venues.

Bowling Stadium is home to Nebraska's softball team, which made a run to the Women's College World Series in 2013 and earned a share of the Big Ten regular-season title in 2014. The Huskers set a record for the World's Largest Tailgate at a softball game in 2012, broke the record in 2013 and again in 2014 with 2,204 fans for their game against Ohio State.

Nebraska's tennis programs and women's soccer teams are scheduled to move into new facilities north of the Devaney Center. The facility will open in 2015.

Bottom: Memorial Stadium's capacity grew to nearly 90,000 in 2013 with the completion of the East Stadium Expansion Project. The Huskers averaged 90,933 fans per home game in 2013, ranking ninth in the country. The East Stadium also houses approximately 50,000 square feet of research space in a joint effort between Athletics and Academics. The Nebraska Athletic Performance Lab is on the north end of the facility and is run by the Athletic Department, while the south end houses UNL's Center for Brain, Biology and Behavior.

»NEBRASKA ATHLETIC PERFORMANCE LAB

The Nebraska Athletic Performance Laboratory (NAPL) and the Center for Brain, Biology and Behavior (CB3) at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln have forged a new model for health and performance research, thanks to an unprecedented partnership between research and athletics at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. In 2013, a 50,000-square-foot expansion of Nebraska's East Memorial Stadium brought together athletic and academic researchers in NAPL and CB3 under one roof to study human behavior and performance.

This collaboration promises to expand understanding of performance, safety, brain function, and long-term health and well-being that benefits student-athletes, military and society.

The NAPL positions Nebraska as a leader in research on student-athlete performance, safety, long-term health and well-being. The NAPL team draws together researchers with diverse areas of expertise, including biomechanics, computer sciences, endocrinology, engineering, ergonomics, exercise physiology, nutrition, physical rehabilitation, psychology, sports science and vision. Researchers collaborate with Nebraska Athletics coaches and staff, as well as colleagues from around the world to address areas that are critical to athletes and society.

NAPL's broad research agenda includes investigating the impact of training techniques, therapeutic interventions, and nutrition on performance and recovery, assessing the biomechanical impact of performance on the athlete's body, harnessing biomarkers in saliva and blood to guide training, developing technologies to reduce injury and improve performance, and identifying and reducing factors that lead to injuries and chronic conditions later in an athlete's life.

NAPL EQUIPMENT AND CAPABILITIES

- » A 20-camera, three-dimensional, motion-analysis system quantifies joint and whole body movement patterns across indoor and outdoor environments
- » Twelve force plates, embedded in a variety of surfaces including field turf, mondotrack, and hardwood flooring, precisely measure forces generated by the body during activities
- » Wireless electromyography system and triaxial accelerometers evaluate muscle activation and limb acceleration patterns across different activities
- » Metabolic testing technology assesses resting metabolic state and cardiovascular fitness
- » Isokinetic dynamometer and weight lifting technology quantify strength
- » Research grade ultrasound assesses muscle, tendon, ligament and organ morphology
- » iDXA scanner quantifies the mass of bone, lean tissue and fat
- » Transcranial doppler evaluates blood flow changes in response to training and injury
- » Endocrinology laboratory jointly operated with CB3 captures level of salivary and blood biomarkers
- » Treatment rooms for blood draws and testing procedures

The NAPL features a wide range of indoor testing environments, including a batting cage, golf swing area, turf field, half-court basketball and volleyball area, running lanes, power lifting racks and track and field throws cage.

The NAPL has close collaboration with researchers from Madonna's Institute for Rehabilitation Science and Engineering to address issues of importance to student-athletes' long term well-being.

»CENTER FOR BRAIN, BIOLOGY AND BEHAVIOR

Concussion research is a cornerstone of the Center for Brain, Biology and Behavior and a major focus of combined research efforts with the NAPL.

CB3 is the world's only lab to simultaneously capture functional magnetic resonance imaging, high-density EEG and eye fixations. These features enable researchers to use neuroscience to explore questions in a new way. A highly interdisciplinary center, CB3 brings together faculty in the life, behavioral and social sciences and engineering. The capacity to capture high-resolution brain images before and after a concussion is expected to yield better ways to assess injury, boost safety and help student-athletes safely return to their studies and sport.

Main photos (right): One of the main features of CB3 is a Siemens 3T fMRI brain imaging system that rapidly captures high-resolution images of the brain's internal structure.

Lower Right: The combined research of CB3 and the NAPL shows the power of collaboration for improvement in student-athlete safety.

Leaders from the University and State of Nebraska gathered for the ribbon cutting ceremony to celebrate the completion of the East Stadium Expansion Project in the fall of 2013.

»NATIONAL POWERS

Nebraska produced its most All-Americans in more than a decade with 42 Husker student-athletes capturing national honors across all sports in 2013-14.

Nebraska's 42 All-Americans included 29 first-team award winners in their respective sports, led by 2014 NCAA 400-meter hurdles champion Miles Ukaoma. The Big Red's All-Americans came from 17 U.S. states, including eight from the Cornhusker State, and three foreign countries to claim a total of 51 All-America awards.

The Husker All-Americans helped Nebraska compete at the highest levels, producing top-25 national finishes in 14 of their 24 varsity sports. Nebraska was also one of only two NCAA Division I schools to advance to the NCAA Championships in the six major team sports of men's and women's basketball, baseball and softball, women's soccer and women's volleyball, while also playing in a football bowl game. The Huskers won NCAA Tournament games in five of those sports, while also winning their bowl game, a feat no other school in the country matched in 2013-14.

Not only did the Huskers enjoy success across many fields of competition, Nebraska produced historic success at the turnstiles. The Big Red football team averaged a school-record 90,933 fans per game to rank No. 9 in the nation in home attendance. The Huskers extended their NCAA-record sellout streak to 333 games in 2013. The Nebraska volleyball program led the nation in attendance for the first time with 8,175 fans per match in its first season at the Devaney Center, while extending its NCAA-record sellout streak to 200 – all while nearly doubling capacity from its storied tradition at the NU Coliseum. Men's and women's basketball shattered records in the first seasons for the programs at Pinnacle Bank Arena. The men sold out each of their 16 home games at the arena, averaging a school-record 15,419 fans per game to rank 13th nationally. The women shattered season ticket sales records of their own, while ranking 11th in the nation with an average home attendance of 6,161.

The Huskers ranked 15th nationally in average home attendance for baseball with 3,241 fans per game at Hawks Field, while drawing an NCAA all-time conference tournament record crowd of 19,965 to the Big Ten Championship Game at TD Ameritrade Park on May 25. The Husker softball team also ranked in the top 20 nationally in attendance by averaging a school-record 963 fans per game at Bowlin Stadium, including a school-record 2,204 fans for a doubleheader with Ohio State on April 19.

Coach Bo Pelini's Nebraska football program notched its sixth consecutive nine-win season by defeating Georgia in the Gator Bowl. The Big Red closed the season with a 9-4 record and finished at No. 25 in the USA Today Coaches Top 25.

Coach Tim Miles claimed Big Ten Coach-of-the-Year honors in his second season at Nebraska by leading the Huskers to their first NCAA Tournament appearance since 1998. The Big Red closed the year with a 19-13 overall record that included an 11-7 Big Ten mark in one of the nation's most powerful men's basketball conferences.

Coach Darin Erstad led the Nebraska baseball team to the NCAA Tournament in his third season at his alma mater. The former Major League Baseball All-Star, World Series champion and Gold Glove winner guided the Huskers to a 41-21 season and runner-up finishes in both the Big Ten regular season and at the tournament held at TD Ameritrade Park.

It marked the first time in school history that the Nebraska men's basketball team and the baseball team advanced to NCAA Tournament play in the same season.

On the women's side, Coach John Cook's traditionally powerful volleyball program marched to the NCAA Elite Eight and finished No. 7 nationally in the AVCA Top 25. The Huskers finished second in the Big Ten with a 16-4 mark and closed the year with a 26-7 overall record. NU featured Big Ten Player of the Year and first-team AVCA All-America outside hitter Kelsey Robinson.

Connie Yori claimed Big Ten Coach-of-the-Year honors for the second straight season while leading the women's basketball program to its first-ever conference tournament title. The Huskers advanced to the NCAA Tournament second round and finished with a 26-7 overall record that included a 12-4 Big Ten mark. The Big Red, who featured Big Ten Player of the Year and first-team WBCA All-America forward Jordan Hooper, finished No. 13 in the final Associated Press Poll and No. 17 in the final USA Today Coaches Top 25.

John Walker added Big Ten Coach-of-the-Year honors of his own for leading the Nebraska soccer program back to prominence. The Huskers swept the Big Ten regular-season and tournament crowns before advancing to the second round of the 2013 NCAA Tournament. NU finished with a 19-4-1 overall record that included a 10-1 Big Ten mark, while finishing 13th in the final NSCAA Top 25. Jordan Jackson was named the Big Ten Midfielder of the Year, while Ari Romero captured Big Ten Defender-of-the-Year honors.

Big Ten Coach of the Year Rhonda Revelle nearly led the Husker softball team back to the Women's College World Series for the second straight season, advancing to a Super Regional at eventual NCAA runner-up Alabama. The Big Red shared the Big Ten regular-season title after going 18-5 in conference action. The Huskers finished with a 44-18 overall record to finish 17th in the final national rankings, while featuring first-team All-America catcher Taylor Edwards and her twin sister, third-team All-America pitcher Tatum Edwards.

The growing success in those seven team sports only tell part of the story of Nebraska's overall athletic success in 2013-14. The traditional national power Husker bowling team took second at the NCAA Championships with first-team All-American Elizabeth Kuhlkin leading the way for Coach Bill Straub's team. Great America Rifle Conference Coach of the Year Stacy Underwood kept the Husker rifle program on the rise. The former Husker shooter led her alma mater to a fifth-place finish at the NCAA Championships with young All-Americans Lauren Phillips, Denise Martin and Rachel Martin leading the way.

One of the greatest women's gymnasts in Nebraska history, Emily Wong powered Coach Dan Kendig's squad to the NCAA Super Six. Wong, who finished her career as an 11-time All-American, captured three All-America awards after being named the Big Ten Gymnast of the Year. She was also the AAI Award winner as the nation's top gymnastics student-athlete. Teammates Hollie Blanske, Jessie DeZiel and Jamie Schleppebach added first-team All-America awards for the Huskers.

Nebraska's young sand volleyball program was ranked among the top 10 teams in the nation throughout the season, while the women's outdoor track and field team capped the season with a 19th-place finish at the NCAA Championships thanks to first-team All-America performances by Maggie Malone (Javelin), Jazmin McCoy (Long Jump) and Ellie Ewere (Triple Jump).

On the men's side, Coach Chuck Chmelka's gymnastics team took ninth at the NCAA Championships behind a first-team All-America performance in the all-around from Wyatt Aycok. Coach Mark Manning guided the wrestling team to an outstanding season. The Husker wrestlers finished 11th at the NCAA Championships after posting a 12-2 overall dual record on the season that included a 6-2 mark in the powerful Big Ten. All-Americans James Green (3rd, 157) and Robert Kokesh (4th, 174) return to lead the Big Red in 2014-15.

Nebraska capped its 2013-14 campaign by receiving the top individual performance of the year from senior hurdler Miles Ukaoma at the NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships. Ukaoma raced to the 2014 NCAA title in the 400-meter hurdles to help the Husker men take 12th as a team at the outdoor championships. Coach Gary Pepin's squad also tied for 17th at the NCAA Indoor Championships. Overall on the season, eight Husker men's track and field athletes captured first-team All-America honors, including Ukaoma, Chad Wright, Drew Wiseman, Cody Rush, Patrick Raedler, Ricco Hall, Levi Gipson and Jacob Bender.

Top: Connie Yori's women's basketball team captured the program's first conference tournament title with a 72-65 win over Iowa at the Big Ten Tournament. The Huskers went on to compete in the NCAA Tournament for the sixth time in the last eight seasons.

Bottom: A unanimous All-Big Ten pick in 2013-14, Terran Petteway led the Big Ten in scoring at 18.1 points per game. Petteway and the Huskers made an appearance in the NCAA Tournament season, for the first time since 1998.

Jordan Hooper capped her illustrious career at Nebraska in 2014 by becoming just the third player in program history to earn first-team WBCA All-America honors. The Alliance, Neb., native finished her career as the school-record holder with 295 three-pointers, while also ranking second in both points (2,357) and rebounds (1,110).

As one of the nation's premier public institutions, the University of Nebraska is committed to undergraduate learning and world-class research. Quality instruction is emphasized in Nebraska's 157 undergraduate majors, which are spread through nine undergraduate colleges.

Nebraska, which officially joined the Big Ten Conference on July 1, 2011, is a member of the Committee on Institutional Cooperation, a consortium of Big Ten universities and the University of Chicago, which has generated unique opportunities for students and faculty by sharing expertise, leveraging resources and collaborating on programs.

The University of Nebraska was chartered by the Nebraska Legislature in 1869 as the state's public university and land-grant institution. Founded in Lincoln, the University of Nebraska was expanded in 1968 into a state educational system now comprising four campuses under the guidance of a Board of Regents and a central administration.

HEAD COACH
SEVENTH SEASON | OHIO STATE | 1990

An elite coach, Bo Pelini has won at least nine games in each of his six seasons at Nebraska. One of only two coaches nationally to lead his team to six consecutive nine-win seasons, Pelini ranks ninth nationally with 57 victories since his hiring in 2008. But Pelini's process is about more than winning, it's about developing outstanding men. To that point, Pelini has coached 11 academic All-Americans in six seasons, more than any other coach in the country.

One of the nation's most successful coaches over the past six seasons, Pelini enters his seventh season at Nebraska in 2014. Under Pelini's direction Nebraska has won at least nine games each of his first six seasons, one of only three schools in the nation to win nine or more games each year in that time period.

Pelini joins Alabama's Nick Saban as the only coaches in the country to guide their teams to at least nine wins each of the past six seasons. In fact, every team Pelini has been a part of during his 11 seasons as a college head or assistant coach has won at least nine games.

But Pelini isn't focused on his individual accomplishments. His focus is on the team and the process. Pelini's process is working, as he owns a 58-24 record as the head coach of the Huskers. He has directed his teams to three 10-win seasons and three appearances in conference championship games at Nebraska.

In Nebraska's 2013 season-opening victory over Wyoming, Pelini picked up his 50th victory as Cornhusker head coach, making him the fifth Nebraska coach to reach that milestone, joining Tom Osborne, Bob Devaney, Frank Solich and Dana X. Bible. Pelini's 57 wins from 2008 to 2013 are the ninth-most for any coach in the country in that time period.

Pelini's performance in his first six seasons in Lincoln has put him in impressive company. Among schools currently in one of the five power conferences (Big Ten, ACC, Big 12, Pac-12, SEC) Pelini is just the eighth head coach in college football history to win at least nine games in each of his first six seasons on the job at that school. The group includes two Nebraska coaches (Osborne, Pelini).

When looking only at coaches in their first head coaching job at a BCS school, Pelini is one of only three to win nine games in each of their first six years, joining Osborne and Barry Switzer (Oklahoma).

The 46-year-old Pelini was among a group of 18 FBS head coaches who were hired for their jobs beginning with the 2008 season. Pelini leads that group in victories over the past six years with 57 wins. In fact, Pelini is one of only six coaches in the group of 18 still in the job they were hired for prior to the 2008 season.

Pelini's success at Nebraska has come after inheriting a Husker team that finished 5-7 the season before his arrival. In 2013, Pelini directed Nebraska to a 9-4 record despite a rash of injuries in the second half of the season. Nebraska posted a 5-3 mark in the Big Ten, marking the sixth straight season Nebraska has had a winning conference record. The Huskers are one of only eight schools in the country to accomplish that feat.

Nebraska showed mental toughness throughout the season, winning all five games that were decided by seven or fewer points. Three of those victories came in the month of November, beginning with a win over Northwestern on the game's final play at Memorial Stadium. The Huskers also went on the road in November and posted victories at Michigan and Penn State, joining an elite group of Big Ten teams to win in both of those road stadiums in the same season. The campaign concluded with a 24-19 victory over Georgia in the TaxSlayer.com Gator Bowl.

Pelini's 2013 Huskers continued to excel individually on and off the field. I-back Ameer Abdullah rushed for 1,690 yards last season, the most rushing yards by a Husker since 1997. Abdullah was a first-team All-Big Ten selection, a semifinalist for the Doak Walker Award and a third-team All-America choice.

Senior Spencer Long earned first-team CoSIDA Academic All-America honors and a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award. Spencer's twin brother, Jake Long, and C.J. Zimmerer earned second-team Academic All-America recognition, giving Nebraska 11 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, the second-most in the nation in that span.

2 Bo Pelini and Alabama's Nick Saban are the only two coaches nationally to lead their respective teams to six consecutive nine-win seasons.

Nebraska also had 30 student-athletes named to the academic All-Big Ten team, and 19 of NU's 23 seniors participated in the Gator Bowl as graduates. Entering the 2014 season, all 13 members of the Huskers' 2014 senior class are on track to earn their degrees by the end of the fall semester.

Pelini guided Nebraska to a 10-4 mark in 2012 against the nation's fifth-toughest schedule, according to the NCAA. As a testament to Pelini's process, Nebraska excelled in close games in 2012. The Huskers were 5-1 in games decided by fewer than 10 points. His team showed great resiliency to rally from second-half deficits in five of its seven Big Ten victories. Included in those totals were rallies from four double-digit second-half deficits. NU's rally from a 12-point fourth-quarter deficit at Northwestern tied for the largest fourth-quarter comeback in school history and marked the second time a Pelini team had pulled off a 12-point fourth-quarter comeback.

The 2012 Huskers saw five players earn first-team All-Big Ten honors. Quarterback Taylor Martinez and Spencer Long were Nebraska's first-team all-conference selections by the league's coaches, while Long completed his journey from walk-on to All-American, earning second-team All-America honors from the Walter Camp Foundation. Joining Long as All-Big Ten honorees by the media were linebacker Eric Martin, safety Daimion Stafford and kicker Brett Maher.

In 2011, Pelini faced the challenge of preparing Nebraska for its first season in the Big Ten Conference. Pelini was up to the task, leading the Huskers to a 9-4 record. Nebraska faced one of the nation's most challenging schedules, highlighted by facing 11 new opponents. Four of Nebraska's eight conference foes were ranked at the time of the game, including the Huskers' 24-3 victory over No. 9 Michigan State that gave Nebraska a win over a top-10 opponent for the second straight season. In addition to the ranked teams, 10 of NU's 12 FBS opponents played in a bowl game. Lavonte David was chosen as a first-team All-American and the Big Ten Linebacker of the Year in 2011, and he also became just the fourth Husker to be named a finalist for the Butkus Award. David, who became only the fifth Blackshirt to post back-to-back 100-tackle seasons, was also a semifinalist for the Chuck Bednarik Award and the Lott Trophy. Despite playing only two seasons at Nebraska, David posted the fourth-highest tackle total in school history.

Fellow Blackshirt Alfonzo Dennard battled through injuries to earn the Big Ten Defensive Back of the Year award. David and Dennard's honors came on the heels of a Husker being named the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year in both the 2009 and 2010 seasons.

Maheer was also named the Big Ten Punter and Place-kicker of the year, becoming the first player to win both awards. Maheer also became the first player to earn first-team All-Big Ten recognition as the punter and place-kicker in the same season since 2001. Maheer earned the Bakken-Andersen Big Ten Kicker-of-the-Year Award again in 2012.

Pelini's leadership helped NU overcome the challenge of a new conference in 2011, while featuring a first-time offensive coordinator and four new assistant coaches. The Huskers also dealt with their share of injuries, among them playing without Dennard for the beginning of the year and losing 2010 All-American Jared Crick for the year in October.

In 2010, Pelini guided Nebraska to its third Big 12 North Division title in his three years as head coach in the conference. He is the only coach in Big 12 history to win at least a share of a divisional title in each of his first three seasons. NU finished with a 10-4 record, giving the Huskers consecutive 10-win seasons for the first time since 2000 and 2001.

During the Huskers' 2010 run, Pelini guided Nebraska to wins over ranked teams in back-to-back weeks knocking off Oklahoma State and Missouri in late October to take control of the Big 12 North. The victories marked the first time NU had defeated top-20 teams in consecutive games since 1999. The win at No. 17 Oklahoma State was the highest ranked team NU had defeated on the road since 1997, while the victory over seventh-ranked Missouri in Lincoln was the highest-ranked team NU had defeated in nine seasons.

Pelini's expertise has always been defense, and the 2010 Blackshirts reflected his defensive acumen. The Huskers ranked 11th nationally in total defense, after finishing seventh in that category in 2009. Nebraska also finished in the top 10 in pass efficiency defense, passing yards allowed and scoring defense for the second straight year in 2010. In 2009, Pelini guided Nebraska to a 10-4 record and the Big 12 North championship. The Huskers posted their first 10-win season in six years and were ranked No. 14 in both final national polls, NU's highest final ranking since 2001.

NU fell just one point and one second short of its first Big 12 title in a decade, dropping a 13-12 decision to second-ranked Texas in the Big 12 Championship Game. Nebraska capped the year with a dominant 33-0 shutout of Arizona in the Holiday Bowl, giving Pelini the third of three straight bowl wins to open his head coaching career.

Nebraska's path to the conference title game was not an easy one. After a pair of disappointing October losses, Nebraska stood 4-3 overall and just 1-2 in Big 12 play. However, the Huskers reeled off five straight wins to end the regular season, including three road victories, and captured the division title by two games.

The Huskers' resurgence under Pelini has been due in large part to defensive improvement. Just two seasons removed from ranking near the bottom of several Big 12 and national defensive categories, the Blackshirts ascended to a position as one of the nation's most dominant defenses in 2009.

Nebraska led the nation in scoring defense in 2009, allowing just 10.4 points per game, while pitching a pair of shutouts. The 10.4 points per game marked the lowest average allowed by Nebraska since the Blackshirts also led the nation by allowing 9.5 points per game in 1984. The 2009 season also marked the first time NU posted two shutouts since 2003 when Pelini served as defensive coordinator, and the 2009 Huskers held eight of 14 opponents to 10 or fewer points.

The Blackshirts also topped the pass efficiency defense and red zone defense lists and ranked in the top 10 nationally in sacks, rushing defense and total defense. The 272.0 yards per game allowed ranked as NU's best since 1999.

Under Pelini's guidance, defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh was one of the most decorated defensive players in college football history. The first defensive lineman to be a finalist for the Heisman Trophy in 15 seasons, Suh finished fourth in the voting. He was also the first defensive player to be named the Associated Press Player of the Year, and was a unanimous All-American. Suh's hardware included the Outland, Lombardi, Nagurski and Bednarik awards. The award-winning season for Suh came just two seasons after LSU defensive tackle Glenn Dorsey won three major national awards and was an All-American while Pelini served as LSU's defensive coordinator. Suh and Dorsey are the only players in the past 15 seasons to sweep the Nagurski and Bednarik awards.

THE PELINI FAMILY

Pelini guided the Huskers to a 9-4 record in 2008, capped by victories in the Huskers' final four games and six of the season's final seven contests. The late-season surge allowed Nebraska to earn a share of the Big 12 North championship, and the Huskers picked up their ninth win with a 26-21 come-from-behind victory over Clemson in the Kona Minolta Gator Bowl. The win was a fitting conclusion for a team that developed a toughness that was a direct extension of its head coach.

Pelini's nine wins were the most nationally among first-time head coaches in 2008. Nebraska won its final four games of 2008 to carry the longest winning streak into a season since 2000. The 6-1 run to close the year tied for the best by an NU team since 1997, and Nebraska won its final four games for just the second time since 1997.

The success under Pelini in 2008 was attributed to both sides of the football. The Husker offense continued to rank among the nation's best, finishing in the nation's top 20 in passing offense, scoring offense and total offense.

The biggest gains were made on the defensive side of the ball, where Pelini implemented his proven defensive system. Nebraska improved its total defensive average by 126.9 yards per game and finished second in the Big 12 in total defense. The run defense allowed 116.5 yards per game, nearly cutting its average from 2007 in half and finishing in the top 25 nationally in that category. The Blackshirts also posted 35 sacks, nearly tripling the total of the previous season.

The successful first season for Pelini came as a result of his ability to quickly implement his attitude and leadership into the program. Then-Nebraska Athletic Director and Hall of Fame coach Tom Osborne named Pelini the 28th head coach in Nebraska football history on Dec. 2, 2007. Pelini wasted no time instilling a disciplined approach on and off the field, while also embracing the traditions of the Cornhusker football program. Pelini built a coaching staff with close ties to both the Pelini family and the Nebraska football family. The Nebraska staff currently includes three former Husker players.

Pelini immediately showed the discipline to handle multiple tasks following his hiring. While quickly taking charge of all aspects of the Nebraska program, Pelini was also committed to finishing what he had started at LSU. Pelini returned to Baton Rouge in mid-December of 2007 and successfully orchestrated the Tigers' defensive game plan for the BCS National Championship Game against Ohio State. The 38-24 win was keyed by a defense that forced three turnovers and had five sacks.

Following the championship victory, Pelini turned his full focus to Nebraska. Pelini began his second tour of duty at Nebraska in 2008 with a victory on his resume. His first tenure in Lincoln was capped by serving as the interim head coach for Nebraska's dominant 17-3 win over Michigan State in the 2003 Alamo Bowl. In the win, the defense held MSU to just 174 total yards and a first-quarter field goal.

During that 2003 season, Pelini engineered a dominant Blackshirt defense. The unit finished among the Big 12 and nation's best in nearly every defensive category. Nebraska finished the year ranked first nationally in pass efficiency defense, second in scoring defense and 11th in total defense. The Huskers set a school and Big 12 record with 32 interceptions and tied an NU record with 47 takeaways, helping Nebraska lead the nation in turnover margin.

In between stints at Nebraska, Pelini served as Oklahoma's co-defensive coordinator in 2004, before spending three seasons as LSU's defensive coordinator from 2005 to 2007. The Tigers finished No. 3 nationally in total defense each of his three seasons. Pelini spent nine seasons as an NFL assistant prior to taking Nebraska's defensive coordinator position. His NFL time included stints with San Francisco (1994-96), New England (1997-99) and Green Bay (2000-02). Pelini also spent the 1993 season as the quarterbacks coach for his alma mater, Cardinal Mooney High School, after serving as a graduate assistant at Iowa in 1991.

Pelini also understands the importance of the storied Nebraska walk-on program, and has integrated it as a key part of the Huskers' recruiting plan. The Cornhusker staff has welcomed more than 135 walk-ons to the program in Pelini's first seven recruiting classes, and will continue to make the walk-on program a focus in future years.

Pelini has also reached out to two groups that form the backbone of the tradition-rich Nebraska program—its former players and its passionate fan base.

Former Cornhuskers have rallied behind Pelini's blue-collar approach. In turn the head coach has opened his door to those who helped build the program. Pelini has made a strong effort to connect with former players and those past Cornhuskers have become a fixture in the football offices and at practices.

Pelini has made regular public appearances around the state, reaching out to the nation's most loyal fans. The widespread support for Pelini has been evident at every stop and his simple, humble approach is a perfect fit with Nebraskans. The support for Pelini has been evident since his arrival, beginning with 80,000 fans at the Red-White Spring Game in April of 2008 to loyal followings on the road, at bowl games in Jacksonville and San Diego and the 2009 and 2010 Big 12 Championship Games in Arlington, Texas. That continued in 2011, 2012 and 2013 as Husker fans have followed the Big Red through its first three seasons of Big Ten Conference action.

While devoting time to former players, fans and attracting talented future Huskers, Pelini's No. 1 professional priority has been, and always will be, the current players in his program. Players have responded to his straight-forward message and process: Work hard, do the right thing and success will follow.

That hard work and discipline does not end on the field. Pelini's players have excelled in the classroom as well since he took over the program. Among Nebraska's 23-player 2013 senior class, 19 student-athletes had earned their degree before the Gator Bowl, and all 23 are on track to graduate by August of 2014. Overall, 136 of the 146 players in Pelini's first seven senior classes are on track to earn their degree by December of 2014. Nebraska was

WHAT OTHERS SAY ABOUT BO PELINI

"Our football program has made significant progress under Bo's leadership. Bo is very straight-forward and very honest and this is something players like. Our football team has responded to Bo's leadership and that has been a big part of the team's success. It is obvious he has a good understanding of this football program and an understanding of the importance of football to the state."

—Tom Osborne, Hall of Fame Football Coach and former NU Athletic Director

"Bo is a great person and a great coach. He did a wonderful job for us while he was on our staff, and he has obviously been successful at his other stops, as well. He is doing an excellent job for Nebraska."

—Oklahoma Head Coach Bob Stoops

"I spent five years with Bo in the NFL. He's a great football coach. He is a success due to his work ethic, toughness and the great schemes that he brings."

—Seattle Seahawks Head Coach Pete Carroll

"Hopefully, I am an example of what a player can gain by coming to Nebraska and playing for Coach Pelini and his staff. The coaching staff taught me so much in the short amount of time I was able to work with them. As a recruit you can come in and have four years under your belt with this staff. Just imagine how much better you can become."

—Ndamukong Suh, 2009 Heisman Trophy finalist, Lombardi, Outland, Nagurski and Bednarik awards winner and 2010 No. 2 NFL Draft pick

"When Coach Pelini came (to Nebraska) he definitely established a whole new culture that kept all of us accountable and just got us ready to be young men in the future."

—Prince Amukamara, 2010 All-American and 2011 No. 19 NFL Draft pick also one of 13 Football Bowl Subdivision programs to earn APR Public Recognition in 2014 for ranking in the top 10 percent nationally.

Twenty of Pelini's players have earned CoSIDA Academic All-District honors, with 11 players earning Academic All-America honors. Offensive guard Spencer Long earned first-team Academic All-America honors in 2013, while Jake Long and C.J. Zimmerer were second-team honorees to continue Nebraska's academic excellence under Pelini.

I-back Rex Burkhead earned first-team Academic All-America honors for a second straight season in 2012, while linebacker Sean Fisher was a second-team choice for the second straight year. In 2010 and 2011, safety Austin Cassidy was a two-time first-team selection. Pelini's first two Academic All-Americans were 2008 second-team selections Todd Peterson and Tyler Wortman. Pelini has also seen 123 of his players earn first-team academic all-conference honors during the past six years.

The wide-spread success Pelini has enjoyed in his first six seasons in Lincoln should come as no surprise. Prior to being named head coach, Pelini enjoyed five seasons as college football's most successful defensive coordinator. But the success story started much earlier during Pelini's youth. The youngest of eight children, Pelini grew up in the hard-nosed town of Youngstown, Ohio. Pelini's parents instilled the discipline at a young age that has guided him to success both in and out of athletics.

Pelini's passion for athletics began in Youngstown. After a standout prep career at Cardinal Mooney High School, Pelini went on to Ohio State. A hard-hitting safety, he was known for his passionate and relentless play. Teammates recognized his leadership and elected Pelini a team captain as a senior.

The tradition of being part of winning programs did not end after Pelini's playing career. His coaching career has featured success at every stop along the way. A Super Bowl ring and a national championship are part of Pelini's impressive resume.

That coaching resume included a one-year stop as defensive coordinator at Nebraska. During the 2003 season, Pelini quickly learned the traditions of Nebraska football and its passionate fan base. In turn, Husker fans recognized the discipline and passion instilled by Pelini in the Blackshirt defense. His first stop in Lincoln marked Pelini's first full-time college coaching job.

More defensive dominance followed in Pelini's next two stops at Oklahoma and LSU. Pelini served as the co-defensive coordinator on Bob Stoops' staff at Oklahoma in 2004, helping the Sooners win a Big 12 title and reach the national championship game against USC. Oklahoma finished the season ranked sixth nationally in rush defense, 11th in scoring defense and 13th in total defense.

In his three seasons as the defensive coordinator at LSU from 2005 to 2007, Pelini's dominant defenses helped the Tigers compile a 34-6 record, including the 2007 BCS national championship and the Southeastern Conference championship. The BCS title game in January of 2008 marked the third time in four years that Pelini was a part of a team that played in a BCS game.

The play of Pelini's defenses was a key part of LSU's success. The Tigers ranked third in the nation in total defense in 2007, surrendering an average of 288.8 yards per game. LSU also ranked in the top 25 nationally in pass efficiency defense (3rd), passing yards allowed per game (9th), rush defense (14th) and scoring defense (17th). Defensive tackle Glenn Dorsey was the nation's most decorated defender in 2007, earning the Outland Trophy, the Lombardi Award and the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, while safety Craig Steltz earned All-America honors.

Pelini's defenses have a history of swarming to the football. LSU forced 36 turnovers in 2007, the third-most in the country. The Tigers' 2007 defensive success was the standard for Pelini at LSU, as each of his three LSU defenses ranked No. 3 nationally in total defense.

Pelini's 2006 unit surrendered just 242.8 yards per game, the fewest by a Tiger team since 1976. A pair of Tigers earned first-team All-America honors, including Dorsey and safety LaRon Landry, who went on to become the sixth overall pick in the NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins.

In 2005, the Tigers allowed just 266.9 yards per game, and ranked in the top 10 nationally in all four major defensive categories, including third in total defense, scoring defense and pass efficiency defense. Kyle Williams and Claude Wroten were both first-team All-America selections.

Overall, the 11 college teams Pelini has been a part of have compiled an impressive 113-34 record, winning at least nine games every season. His defenses have posted 10 shutouts and held the opposition to seven points or less 41 times.

Before joining the Huskers in 2003, Pelini had nine years of NFL experience, one season at a Division I university, and one year in the high school ranks. Pelini broke into the NFL in 1994 as assistant secondary coach for the San Francisco 49ers. With the 49ers, Pelini coached in the Super Bowl, helping San Francisco to a 49-26 win over San Diego in Super Bowl XXIX. Pelini held that position for three years before moving to the Patriots. He spent three years as New England's linebackers coach under coach Pete Carroll, helping the Patriots to a 27-21 record and two playoff appearances.

After three years with the Patriots, Pelini moved to the Packers, coaching linebackers for three seasons. In three years in Green Bay with head coach Mike Sherman, the Packers posted a 33-15 record and advanced twice to the playoffs. In 2002, the Packer defense ranked fourth in the NFL in pass defense, allowing 188.4 yards per game.

Pelini got his start in coaching in 1991, serving as a graduate assistant coach at Iowa under Hayden Fry. Pelini then moved into the high school ranks, serving as quarterbacks coach at Cardinal Mooney High School (Ohio) in 1993 before taking the leap to the 49ers.

A standout free safety at Ohio State from 1987 to 1990, Pelini earned four letters for the Buckeyes. He was coached by Earle Bruce in 1987 and John Cooper his final three seasons. Pelini helped the Buckeyes to a 15-8 record over his final two seasons as a starter, and he was a three-time selection to the Academic All-Big Ten team. As a senior co-captain Pelini received the "Bo Rein Award," given annually to the Buckeyes' most inspirational player.

After earning his bachelor's degree in business marketing from Ohio State in 1990, Pelini completed his master's degree in sports administration at Ohio University in 1992. Pelini and his wife, Mary Pat, have three children, a 15-year-old son, Patrick, and two daughters, Kate, 13 and Caralyn, 11.

TIM BECK

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS
SEVENTH SEASON | CENTRAL FLORIDA | 1988

An innovative coach regarded as one of the nation's finest offensive minds, Tim Beck has played a large role in Nebraska's three conference title game appearances in the past five seasons. Beck's fast-paced offense scored nearly 500 points in 2012, and the Huskers have averaged more than 31 points per game in Beck's three seasons as offensive coordinator. As the quarterbacks coach, Beck helped Taylor Martinez re-write the Nebraska record book, as Martinez set 37 school records in his career.

THE BECK FAMILY

Tim Beck is in his seventh season at Nebraska and his fourth year as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. A 2012 and 2013 Broyles Award nominee, Beck spent his first three seasons on the Husker staff coaching the running backs.

NU has scored at least two touchdowns in 39 of Beck's 40 games as offensive coordinator. In 2012, Beck's offense scored 57 offensive touchdowns, the program's most since 2008. The Huskers averaged 34.8 points per game in 2012, a total that ranked 28th nationally.

In 2013, the Huskers averaged just under 30 points per game after dealing with multiple key injuries. NU started three different quarterbacks on the season in a year when it expected to rely on four-year starter Taylor Martinez, NU's all-time career passing and total offense leader.

The injuries were not limited to the backfield. NU suffered injuries to five starters on the offensive line. With the injuries, Nebraska was forced to use six different starting offensive lines in the final seven games of the regular season.

Despite the injuries, Nebraska joined Ohio State and Wisconsin as the only Big Ten teams to score at least 17 points in every game during the 2013 season.

Beck relied heavily on first-team All-Big Ten running back Ameer Abdullah, a semifinalist for the Doak Walker Award. Abdullah rushed for a Big Ten-best 1,690 yards in 2013, the highest total by a Husker since 1997. Behind Abdullah, Nebraska ranked 19th nationally in rushing at 215.7 yards per game, the fourth consecutive year Nebraska ranked in the top 20 nationally in rushing offense.

In the passing game, three Huskers threw for more than 600 yards, a first in school history. Senior receiver Quincy Enunwa hauled in a school-record 12 touchdown passes, and broke the record in style with a school and NCAA record 99-yard TD reception in the Gator Bowl.

With a healthy unit in 2012, NU was eighth nationally in rushing in (253.4 ypg) and 26th in total offense (460.8 ypg), ranking second in school history with 6,451 yards of offense. NU led the Big Ten in total offense and rushing offense.

Martinez flourished in his second season in Beck's offense. The coaches' selection as the first-team All-Big Ten quarterback, Martinez accounted for a school-record 3,890 yards of total offense in 2012. Martinez rushed for 1,019 yards in 2012 - the fourth-highest total by a quarterback in school history - and he threw for 2,871 yards, the highest total ever by a Husker junior and the third-highest mark overall.

As a testament to Beck's versatility as a play caller, Martinez posted three 300-yard passing performances and five 100-yard rushing efforts. Martinez accounted for 33 total touchdowns in 2012 (10 rushing, 23 passing), setting an NU record. In addition to the impressive season totals, Martinez also became Nebraska's career passing and total offense leader during the 2012 campaign.

Abdullah also excelled in Beck's offense in 2012, rushing for 1,137 yards, the sixth-highest sophomore total in school history. Abdullah's performance earned him second-team all-conference accolades.

Receiver Kenny Bell was another sophomore who flourished in Beck's offense in 2012. After becoming the second freshman in school history to lead Nebraska in receptions and receiving yards in 2011, Bell repeated the feat in 2012. Bell set NU sophomore records with 50 catches, 863 receiving yards and eight receiving touchdowns. Bell, who also set a Husker sophomore record with three 100-yard receiving games, was a second-team All-Big Ten selection.

Behind the trio of Martinez, Abdullah and Bell, Nebraska was one of only 19 school nationally - and the only Big Ten team - to average 200 yards passing and rushing in 2012. NU was also one of only four teams in the country to boast five players who averaged better than 5.0 yards per carry on at least 50 carries in 2012.

2 Beck has been nominated for the Broyles Award, presented annually to college football's Assistant Coach of the Year, in each of the last two seasons.

Offensive guard Spencer Long earned second-team All-America honors in 2012, in addition to being a consensus first-team All-Big Ten selection. Offensive tackle Jeremiah Sirles earned second-team all-conference honors, while tight ends Ben Cotton and Kyler Reed and center Justin Jackson were honorable-mention selections.

Beck impressed in his first year as offensive coordinator in 2011. NU averaged nearly 30 points per game, and the Huskers scored at least two touchdowns in every game in 2011, a feat NU has accomplished only twice in the past 10 seasons. NU's rushing attack flourished, averaging 217.2 yards per game to rank 15th nationally.

Individually, All-Big Ten back Rex Burkhead tied a school record by scoring a touchdown in 10 consecutive games to open the season. Burkhead finished 19th nationally in rushing (104.4 ypg), and his 1,357 rushing yards were the seventh-most in school history and the most by a Husker I-back since 1997. Martinez added 874 yards.

The Huskers also boasted an efficient passing attack under Beck. Martinez completed 56 percent of his passes and threw for 2,089 yards, the seventh-highest total in school history. Martinez also posted the top total offense season (2,963) by a Husker sophomore in 2011 and the fourth-best overall mark in school history.

As running backs coach from 2008 to 2010, Beck guided the Huskers' potent rushing attack. NU ranked first in the Big 12 and ninth nationally in 2010 at 247.6 yards per game. The Huskers ranked seventh nationally with an average of 5.47 yards per carry.

Two-time All-Big 12 selection Roy Helu Jr. ran for a career-high 1,245 yards in 2010 before being selected in the fourth round of the 2011 NFL Draft. Helu Jr. was the first Husker to post back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons in nearly two decades. Helu Jr. also set the NU single-game rushing record with 307 yards against Missouri. Burkhead earned honorable-mention All-Big 12 accolades and rushed for 951 yards in 2010.

NU's running game improved throughout 2008. Nebraska had five games with more than 200 rushing yards in league play. In Big 12 games, NU ranked third in the league in rushing (182.5 ypg).

Beck came to NU after a three-year stint on the staff at Kansas. Beck was KU's receivers coach each of his three seasons in Lawrence, and was promoted to pass game coordinator in February of 2007. Kansas finished with a 12-1 record and a No. 7 final national ranking.

JOHN PAPUCHIS

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
SEVENTH SEASON | VIRGINIA TECH | 2001

A passionate leader, John Papuchis is one of the nation's top young coaches. Papuchis has coached in one National Championship Game, two BCS Bowl Games and five conference title games in the past nine seasons. During that time, Papuchis has been a part of five teams that ranked among the top 10 nationally in scoring defense. He has also worked with five top-10 total defenses during that time. Nebraska has ranked in the top 10 nationally in scoring defense twice in Papuchis' tenure.

4 In Papuchis' first two seasons as defensive coordinator, opponents have completed only 50.6 percent of their passes against NU, a total that ranks fourth nationally.

John Papuchis is in his seventh season at Nebraska and his third year as the defensive coordinator. Papuchis has made a quick rise through the coaching ranks. When he was promoted to defensive coordinator at age 35 in 2012, Papuchis was the fourth-youngest defensive coordinator in the country and the youngest solo defensive coordinator.

Papuchis helped mold a young Husker defense in 2013, a group that made tremendous progress throughout the year. Nebraska finished the season ranked 40th nationally and fourth in the Big Ten in total defense. The unit gelled with time and during Nebraska's eight-game Big Ten schedule, the Huskers allowed an average of only 318.6 yards per game, while holding Michigan (175 yards), Purdue (216) and Iowa (282) all below 300 yards.

On the year, Nebraska's defense boasted top-25 rankings in four categories. The Huskers ranked first in the Big Ten and seventh nationally in sacks, while ranking sixth in third-down defense, 18th in tackles for loss and 21st in fourth-down defense. Nebraska achieved its lofty rankings despite its youth.

First- or second-year players combined to make 46 defensive starts for the Huskers in 2013. Eight freshmen earned starts for the Blackshirts, while sophomore defensive end Randy Gregory, a first-year transfer, made 10 starts en route to earning first-team All-Big Ten accolades.

Gregory led the Big Ten with 10.5 sacks, including a league-high 9.0 sacks in conference play, a total that ranked second all-time at Nebraska. Gregory was joined as a first-team All-Big Ten selection by senior Ciente Evans, who set a Nebraska defensive back record with 11 tackles for loss, while tying the position record with 3.0 sacks.

Under Papuchis' direction in 2012, Nebraska fielded one of the nation's top pass defenses. NU finished fourth in the nation in pass defense, ninth in pass efficiency defense and 35th in total defense. Nebraska allowed opposing quarterbacks to complete only 47.1 percent of their passes, the best mark in the nation.

The Blackshirts played a key role in Nebraska's 10-win season, holding Michigan, Minnesota and Iowa to 200 or fewer total yards, limiting the Wolverines and Golden Gophers to fewer than 100 yards passing and rushing.

From a scoring standpoint, NU held five opponents to 14 or fewer points in 2012. The Huskers held Arkansas State to 13 points, its fewest of the year and one of only two games the Red Wolves were held below 30 points. The Blackshirts held both Iowa and Michigan to their second-lowest point totals of the year and their lowest marks in conference play. Individually, defensive end Eric Martin broke through in his senior season. A first-team All-Big Ten selection, Martin had 18 TFLs and 8.5 sacks in 2012 after entering his senior season with only four career TFLs and 2.5 career sacks.

Daimion Stafford led the Big Ten with four interceptions in conference games en route to earning first-team all-conference honors. Linebacker Will Compton tallied a career-high 110 tackles in 2012, and he was a second-team All-Big Ten selection. Defensive tackle Baker Steinkuhler also earned second-team All-Big Ten honors, while defensive back Ciente Evans was an honorable-mention all-conference selection.

In his first four years on staff, Papuchis tutored the defensive line and served as special teams coordinator, while also filling the role of recruiting coordinator in 2011. Papuchis' work with the defensive line helped the Huskers rank in the top 10 in total defense and scoring defense in 2009 and 2010.

NU's defensive line had to overcome numerous injuries in 2011, but the unit persevered, combining for 226 tackles, 14.5 sacks and 26 tackles for loss. Two defensive linemen - Cameron Meredith and Steinkuhler - earned honorable-mention All-Big Ten accolades.

As defensive ends coach, Papuchis produced four all-conference ends in three years. In 2010, both Meredith and Pierre Allen were all-conference selections. Barry Turner was also an all-conference pick in 2009, and Zach Potter earned all-conference accolades in 2008. The 2009 Huskers led the nation in scoring defense.

Nebraska also owned one of the nation's top special teams units from 2008 to 2011 under Papuchis' direction. He produced two All-America kickers in his time in charge of the special teams. Alex Henery earned the title of the most accurate kicker in NCAA history and was a first-team All-American in 2010. Papuchis developed his second straight All-America kicker in 2011, when Brett Maher earned All-America accolades. Both Maher and Henery handled punting and kicking chores for the Huskers. Maher was the Bakken-Andersen Big Ten Kicker of the Year in 2011 and the Eddleman-Fields Big Ten Punter of the Year. Maher also became the first player to be selected as both the All-Big Ten first-team punter and place-kicker since 2001.

Nebraska also boasted one of the nation's top kickoff return units in 2011, ranking seventh nationally with an average of 25.5 yards per return. Ameer Abdullah set a school record with 211 kickoff return yards against Fresno State, including a 100-yard touchdown.

In 2010, Papuchis was one of four finalists for the FootballScoop Special Teams Coordinator-of-the-Year Award. That season, Henery earned first-team All-America honors while ending his career as Nebraska's all-time leading scorer and the most accurate kicker in NCAA history, establishing eight NCAA records. In 2009, Henery had an NU record 24 field goals. Henery also placed a Big 12-leading 30 punts inside the opponent 20-yard line.

The special teams unit also had a banner year under Papuchis in 2008, headlined by Henery's school-record 57-yard game-winning field goal against Colorado.

Papuchis joined Nebraska after previous stops at Kansas (2001-03) and LSU (2004-07).

The efforts of Papuchis helped LSU rank third nationally in total defense each season from 2005 to 2007. In 2007, the Tiger defense helped LSU to SEC and national titles, capped by a 38-24 victory over Ohio State in the BCS National Championship Game.

The Tigers had a pair of consensus All-Americans in Glenn Dorsey and Craig Steltz.

Ron Brown is in his 24th season at Nebraska and his seventh year on Bo Pelini's staff, after rejoining the Husker coaching staff in 2008. Brown enters his fourth year as running backs coach, after coaching tight ends his first three years on Pelini's staff. Brown previously served on the NU staff for 17 seasons from 1987 to 2003.

Under Brown's direction, junior I-back Ameer Abdullah enjoyed one of the finest seasons in school history in 2013. A first-team All-Big Ten selection and semifinalist for the Doak Walker Award, Abdullah rushed for 1,690 yards. He ranked seventh nationally in rushing yards per game and his yardage total was the fourth-best in Nebraska history and the highest since 1997.

Abdullah was a consistent performer for an injury-riddled Husker offense last fall, as he tied a school record with 11 100-yard rushing efforts while rushing for at least 85 yards in all 13 games. Abdullah added nine rushing touchdowns while averaging 6.0 yards per carry.

Abdullah enters his senior season with the opportunity to become the first player in school history with three 1,000-yard rushing seasons. He is also poised to become just the second Nebraska player with 4,000 career rushing yards and could become the Huskers' all-time leader in all-purpose yardage.

Behind Abdullah, sophomore Imani Cross ran for 447 yards and 10 touchdowns in 2013. Freshman Terrell Newby added 298 yards, as Nebraska finished the 2013 season ranked 19th nationally in rushing at 215.7 yards per game.

Brown's running backs helped NU rank eighth nationally in rushing (253.4 yards per game) in 2012. Preseason All-American Rex Burkhead missed much of the season with a knee injury, and carried the ball only 98 times, but managed 675 yards and 6.9 yards per carry. Without his top running back, Brown tweaked his I-back rotation to help the Huskers again rank among the nation's rushing leaders.

Abdullah, who had only 42 carries for 150 yards in 2011, rushed for 1,137 yards on 226 carries in 2012. He produced six 100-yard rushing efforts, including 100-yard performances in each of his first five career starts, the longest such streak by a Husker since 1993. A second-team All-Big Ten selection, Abdullah accounted for 11 total touchdowns, including eight on the ground.

In 2011, Brown helped NU rank 15th nationally in rushing and was a nominee for the Broyles Award, given to the nation's top assistant coach. Burkhead, an All-Big Ten back, led the Huskers' prolific rushing attack, ranking 19th nationally with 104.2 rushing yards per game. Burkhead finished with 1,357 rushing yards for the eighth-best rushing total in school history.

Burkhead also had a knack for finding the end zone, scoring 17 touchdowns, including 15 on the ground, and finishing in a tie for 40th nationally in scoring. Burkhead set a school record by scoring a touchdown in each of the first 10 games in 2011 and tied the overall Nebraska record by scoring a touchdown in 10 consecutive games.

Working with the tight ends in 2010, Brown's unit was a valuable asset in both the passing and running games. In the passing game, Tyler Reed emerged as a playmaker, catching 22 passes for 395 yards and an NU tight end-record eight touchdown grabs. Brown's tight ends were also a key to Nebraska's rushing attack, which led the Big 12 and ranked ninth nationally in rushing.

In 2009, Brown's tight ends combined for 46 catches, 442 yards and six touchdowns. Five different tight ends caught a pass, while tight ends grabbed six of Nebraska's 18 touchdown catches on the season.

Mike McNeill enjoyed his second straight strong season, tying for the team lead with four touchdown catches, while ranking second with 26 receptions and third with 259 receiving yards. McNeill was a second-team AP All-Big 12 selection in 2009.

In 2008, Brown assisted with an NU offense that finished 12th nationally in total offense. McNeill set an NU tight end season record with 32 receptions, including six touchdown grabs. Fellow sophomore tight end Dreu Young averaged a team-leading 15.6 yards per catch while sharing time with McNeill.

Brown served as receivers coach for his entire first tenure with the Huskers and also tutored the tight ends during his first 17 seasons on the NU staff. The blocking of Brown's wide receivers played a key role in Nebraska's nine NCAA rushing titles.

Brown is nationally respected for his ability as an intense teacher on the field. The NU receivers under Brown were long known for their tenacity and downfield blocking. Despite featuring a run-based attack from 1987 to 2003, Brown's receivers and tight ends also made their mark in the passing game, leading the Big 12 in touchdown receptions three times.

Twenty-eight of Brown's players have gone on to professional careers, including Burkhead, a 2013 NFL Draft Pick. Brown has coached 44 academic all-conference players and five CoSIDA Academic All-Americans.

Brown, a two-time first-team All-Ivy League defensive back, was selected to Brown's All-Century team and the school's Sports Hall of Fame. Brown signed with three NFL teams as a free agent from 1979 to 1981. He began his coaching career as a defensive coordinator for the semipro New Jersey Rams in 1982. He then spent four seasons at his alma mater before moving to Lincoln.

Off the field, Brown and former Husker Stan Parker are co-founders and co-directors of a statewide Christian ministry called Mission Nebraska. This ministry stewards MY BRIDGE RADIO, which consists of numerous Christian radio stations and translators across Nebraska. Mission Nebraska also facilitates a statewide Christian ministry called FreedMen Nebraska, which challenges and inspires men and boys to take a strong courageous Christian stand in the public square.

Through FreedMen Nebraska, Brown also hosts a weekly statewide cable TV show called "Truth Vision", along with daily radio spots. Brown spent the four years prior to his return to coaching serving as the Nebraska State Director of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. While he relinquished that duty to return to the Cornhuskers, he continues as a regular columnist for FCA's National Magazine "Sharing the Victory."

BARNEY COTTON

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/RUN GAME COORD./TIGHT ENDS/OFFENSIVE LINE
SEVENTH SEASON | EIGHTH SEASON OVERALL | NEBRASKA | 1983

Among his 26 years of coaching experience, veteran coach Barney Cotton owns 18 years of experience as a collegiate head coach or offensive coordinator. Cotton's work with all phases of the NU rushing attack has helped the Huskers rank in the top 20 nationally in rushing in each of the past four seasons. Husker I-backs have been the beneficiaries of Cotton's expertise, as an I-back has rushed for at least 1,000 yards in five straight seasons, including two-time All-Big Ten back Ameer Abdullah in 2012 and 2013.

4 Nebraska has ranked in the top 20 nationally in rushing in each of the past four seasons, including two top-10 finishes.

Barney Cotton is in his seventh season on Coach Bo Pelini's Nebraska staff and his eighth year overall as a Husker assistant, counting his 2003 season as NU's offensive coordinator and offensive line coach.

Cotton's role changed slightly in 2013, as he served as Nebraska's run game coordinator and tight ends coach, while continuing in his role with the offensive line and as associate head coach. Cotton has been Nebraska's offensive line coach for the past six seasons and helped NU finish in the top 20 nationally in rushing each of the past four years, while producing a 1,000-yard rusher for five straight seasons.

Nebraska's run game ranked 19th nationally in 2013 with an average of 215.7 yards per game. Cotton played a key role in the Huskers once again boasting one of the nation's top rushing attacks. I-back Ameer Abdullah thrived, rushing for 1,690 yards, while tying a school record with 11 100-yard rushing games. Paving the way was a gritty offensive line that dealt with multiple injuries and position switches, as five starters suffered injuries.

Cotton's tight ends combined for 23 catches in 2013 while contributing to the running game's success. Jake Long battled through injuries to earn second-team CoSIDA Academic All-America honors, while his twin brother Spencer, an offensive lineman, was a first-team CoSIDA Academic All-American.

In 2012, Cotton helped Spencer Long complete a journey from walk-on to All-American. A consensus first-team All-Big Ten selection, Long was named a second-team All-American by both the Associated Press and the Walter Camp Foundation. Cotton has coached the only three Husker offensive linemen to earn first-team all-conference honors since 2001, while Long was Nebraska's first All-America offensive lineman since Toniui Fonoti in 2001.

In addition to Long, former walk-on Justin Jackson, a converted defensive lineman, earned honorable-mention All-Big Ten accolades in his first year at center. Jeremiah Sirles was a second-team all-conference selection, giving Nebraska three all-conference offensive linemen in 2012. NU also had three all-conference linemen in 2013.

The line helped Nebraska rank eighth nationally with 253.4 rushing yards per game. It paved the way for Abdullah to become the first Husker sophomore to rush for 1,000 yards since 1994, helping Abdullah earn second-team All-Big Ten honors. The unit also helped Nebraska top 200 yards rushing 12 times in 2012, the highest total by a Husker team since 1997.

Cotton's line also enabled All-Big Ten quarterback Taylor Martinez to set Nebraska's junior class total offense record, throwing for 2,871 yards and rushing for another 1,019 yards and accounting for a school-record 3,890 total yards.

The 2012 season marked the third straight year Nebraska averaged more than 200 yards rushing, a first for the program since the 2001-2003 seasons. The 2011 Husker rushing attack ranked 15th nationally, averaging 217.2 yards per game.

Cotton has a knack for quickly developing players. First- or second-year players combined for 38 starts on the offensive line in 2011. Cotton also developed three current or former walk-ons who combined for 32 starts in 2011. Two of those former walk-ons were Mike Caputo and Long, both of whom earned second-team All-Big Ten honors in 2011, along with honorable-mention selection Marcel Jones.

The 2011 line paved the way for All-Big Ten I-back Rex Burkhead to post the 32nd 1,000-yard rushing season in school history. Burkhead finished with 1,357 yards to post the highest rushing total by a Husker I-back since 1997.

In 2010, NU rushed for 3,466 yards, the program's highest total since 2002, and ranked ninth nationally in rushing yards per game (247.6 ypg). Ricky Henry became the first Husker offensive lineman to earn first-team All-Big 12 honors since Toniui Fonoti in 2001, while Caputo and Keith Williams garnered honorable-mention accolades. Roy Helu Jr. ran for 1,245 yards behind the line and set the Nebraska single-game rushing record with 307 yards against Missouri. Helu became the first Husker with back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons in nearly two decades.

Under Cotton's leadership in 2009, three Husker linemen (Henry, Williams and Jacob Hickman) earned All-Big 12 accolades from the Associated Press. The line helped pave the way for I-back Roy Helu Jr. to earn All-Big 12 honors while posting the 29th 1,000-yard rushing season in Husker history.

Cotton helped Nebraska finish among the top 20 units nationally in total offense, scoring offense and passing offense in 2008. Matt Slauson was a second-team All-Big 12 pick under Cotton's guidance, while Hickman and Lydon Murtha were honorable-mention picks. The line paved the way for the Husker running game to average 169.8 yards per game and score 27 touchdowns, while protecting quarterback Joe Ganz as he threw for a single-season school-record 3,568 yards, and set the single-season school-record with 3,826 total yards.

In 2003, Cotton's offensive unit helped Nebraska to a 10-3 record and a victory over Michigan State in the Alamo Bowl. Nebraska ranked among the top 10 nationally in rushing offense and four linemen earned all-conference accolades.

Following his successful one-year stint with NU, Cotton served as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Iowa State. ISU made two bowl appearances in Cotton's tenure.

Following his stint at ISU, Cotton served as a volunteer assistant coach at Ames High School.

Before his four-year run as an offensive coordinator in the Big 12, Cotton spent the previous six seasons as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at New Mexico State. Under Cotton's direction, the Aggie offense ranked in the top 25 nationally in total offense three times in six seasons.

Cotton was head coach at Hastings in 1995 and 1996. In 1995, the Broncos won a conference title and made the NAIA playoffs, earning Cotton conference coach-of-the-year honors.

Cotton began his coaching career as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at St. Cloud State (Minn.) from 1989 to 1994.

THE ELS FAMILY

Coaching veteran Ross Els fills a variety of roles for the Huskers. In his three years working with the Husker linebackers, Els has produced a Big Ten Linebacker of the Year, an All-American and a second-round NFL Draft pick. With more than 25 years of collegiate coaching experience, Els has helped Nebraska to 28 wins in his first three seasons, including three consecutive nine-win seasons. Known for his ability to quickly prepare newcomers to be key contributors, Els also serves as Nebraska's recruiting coordinator.

Ross Els begins his fourth season coaching NU's linebackers in 2014 and his third year as recruiting coordinator. Overall he is in his 26th season in the college coaching ranks.

Els helped a young Husker linebacking corps develop throughout the 2013 season. With a two-deep featuring three freshmen, two sophomores and a junior transfer in his first full year of action in the program, Els' linebackers combined for 285 tackles last fall.

Sophomore David Santos was second on the team with 87 tackles and added seven tackles for loss and 2.0 sacks. Redshirt freshman Michael Rose tied for third on the team with 66 stops, including 17 tackles in Nebraska's regular-season finale against Iowa. Junior Zaire Anderson, a junior college transfer who was awarded a medical hardship during his first season at NU in 2012, made 52 stops, including 3.0 sacks. True freshmen Nathan Gerry and Josh Banderas combined for 60 tackles, while making an immediate impact under Els' tutelage.

The linebacking corps - like the entire defensive unit - improved throughout the season, helping NU to a sixth straight nine-win season.

The play of Els' linebackers in 2012 helped Nebraska to 10 wins and a trip to the Big Ten Championship Game. Senior Will Compton earned second-team All-Big Ten honors with a team-leading 110 tackles, including six tackles for loss and 3.0 sacks. Compton also recovered three fumbles and had an interception.

Els also helped Alonzo Whaley enjoy a breakout senior season in 2012. Whaley ranked fourth on the team with 65 tackles, and he forced a team-leading four fumbles while recording four TFLs, 1.0 sack and one interception. Whaley's pick clinched Nebraska's 13-7 win at Iowa to lock up the Big Ten Legends Division Championship. Entering the year, Whaley had made only 20 career tackles.

Santos also contributed 24 tackles and three TFLs, earning Big Ten All-Freshman honors, in addition to a Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Week accolade after he recorded a team-high 10 tackles in his only start against Michigan. Another Els pupil, Sean Fisher earned academic All-America honors for the second straight year in 2012.

As special teams coach for the first time in 2012, Els helped Brett Maher earn a repeat nod as the Big Ten Place-kicker of the Year, in addition to earning first-team All-Big Ten place-kicker accolades and second-team all-conference honors as a punter.

Els came to Nebraska in 2011 after six seasons at Ohio University. In Els' first year in Lincoln, Lavonte David was named the Big Ten Linebacker of the Year and a first-team All-American, while Compton was an honorable-mention all-conference selection.

David and Compton were Nebraska's top two tacklers in 2011, combining for 215 tackles and 20 tackles for loss. David led the team with 133 tackles, 13 TFLs, 5.5 sacks, two interceptions, three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. David posted six games with at least 10 tackles and was only the fourth Husker to record 100 tackles in consecutive seasons. David ranked third in the Big Ten in tackles per game and 18th nationally.

Under Els' instruction, David was recognized as one of the nation's best linebackers. He was one of six finalists for the Butkus Award, presented annually to the nation's top linebacker. David was Nebraska's first finalist for the award since 1994 and only the fourth Husker to be a Butkus finalist. David was also a semifinalist for the Chuck Bednarik Award and the Lott Trophy, in addition to being named the Lott Trophy national player of the week twice in 2011. Following his outstanding senior season - which saw him post the most tackles for a two-year player in school history - David was selected in the second round of the 2011 NFL Draft by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers with the 58th overall pick. He enjoyed one of the NFL's best rookie seasons in 2012.

Compton enjoyed a breakout year in Els' first season on staff. The junior linebacker entered the season with 55 career tackles and two career TFLs through 23 games. In 13 games in 2011, Compton easily eclipsed his career totals, posting 82 tackles and seven TFLs. He excelled during Big Ten play, as 55 of his 82 tackles came in NU's eight conference games, an average of nearly seven tackles per game.

At Ohio, Els served as assistant head coach for one season and tutored the Bobcat linebackers for all six seasons. In his final four seasons, he also served as Ohio's special teams coordinator.

In 2010, the Ohio defense ranked 20th nationally and second in the Mid-American Conference in rushing defense. Els' special teams were also a key part of Ohio's 8-5 season that culminated with a trip to the New Orleans Bowl. The Bobcats ranked first in the MAC in net punting, third in punt returns and fifth in kickoff returns.

In 2009, he tutored linebacker Noah Keller, who led the MAC with 155 tackles en route to earning an honorable-mention All-America award. He also coached punt returner LaVon Brazil to second-team All-America honors that season, while freshman place-kicker Matt Weller earned freshman All-America accolades after kicking a school-record 21 field goals.

Els helped Ohio to three bowl appearances and two MAC East division championships during his stay in Athens, Ohio. He also coached a total of six All-MAC linebackers, including four first-team honorees.

Els joined the Ohio staff following four seasons on Tony Samuel's coaching staff at New Mexico State. In his final two seasons, Els was the defensive coordinator for the Aggies. While in Las Cruces, Els worked with current NU offensive line coach Barney Cotton. Els had succeeded Cotton as the head coach at Hastings College, where Els compiled a 32-9 record from 1997 to 2000, including NAIA playoff appearances in 1998 and 1999. His 1999 team reached the national quarterfinals, and both his 1998 and 1999 teams posted perfect 10-0 regular seasons.

Els had spent two seasons as an assistant under Cotton in 1995 and 1996, and also served in assistant roles at Northern Iowa (1989 and 1994) and UNO (1990-93). Els is a 1988 graduate of Nebraska-Omaha, where he played safety. He is a Lincoln Northeast High School graduate.

RICH FISHER

WIDE RECEIVERS
FOURTH SEASON | COLORADO | 1993

A former national champion, Rich Fisher's wide receivers have been a strength of the team in his first three seasons on the Nebraska staff. Fisher's wideouts have helped NU post two of the top eight receiving seasons in school history. Fisher has shown the ability to develop and utilize underclassmen, as a freshman or sophomore led NU in catches and receiving yards in both 2011 and 2012. In 2013, senior Quincy Enunwa caught a school-record 12 touchdown passes before being selected in the NFL Draft.

8 Fisher's wide receivers have set eight school records, including Quincy Enunwa's NCAA-record 99-yard TD reception vs. Georgia in the 2014 Gator Bowl.

Rich Fisher coaches the wide receivers in his fourth season on Bo Pelini's staff. In his 12th overall season of coaching at the Division I level, Fisher's wide receiver unit has quickly developed into one of the most explosive and consistent groups in the Big Ten Conference.

Fisher's wide receiving corps dealt with adversity throughout the 2013 season, but still recorded a productive season. The wide receivers not only had to deal with their own injuries that sidelined Jamal Turner and Kenny Bell - two of Nebraska's three leading receivers from 2012 - for portions of the year. The unit also had to adjust to three different starting quarterbacks while combining for 160 catches and 22 touchdown receptions in 2013.

Senior Quincy Enunwa hauled in 51 catches in 2013, including a Nebraska-record 12 touchdown receptions. He set the TD reception record in style with a 99-yard touchdown catch against Georgia in the Gator Bowl. Enunwa's 51 receptions went for 753 yards, the ninth-best yardage total in school history.

Bell finished his junior season with a team-high 52 receptions, marking the third straight year he led the Huskers in catches. Bell joined Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Rodgers as the only Huskers to produce two 50-reception seasons. Bell is on track to break Nebraska's career receptions and receiving yards records.

Sophomore Sam Burtch (12) and redshirt freshmen Alonzo Moore (six), Brandon Reilly (3) and Jordan Westerkamp (20) each recorded their first career catches in 2013, with the trio of freshmen combining for 29 receptions. Westerkamp also caught two touchdown passes, including a 49-yard Hail Mary as time expired against Northwestern.

Westerkamp was named the Big Ten Freshman of the Week following his four-catch, 104-yard effort against Northwestern, while Bell repeated as an All-Big Ten selection in 2013.

Bell led the way in 2012, earning second-team All-Big Ten honors. Bell set Nebraska sophomore records with 50 catches, 863 receiving yards and eight receiving touchdowns, leading the Huskers in all three categories. Bell, who also set an NU sophomore record with three 100-yard receiving games, finished fourth overall on Nebraska's season receiving touchdowns chart, fourth in receiving yards, sixth in 100-yard receiving games, seventh in receptions and ninth in yards per reception (17.5).

In 2012, Enunwa eclipsed his previous career totals with 42 catches for 470 yards. He added a touchdown grab and a 100-yard receiving game at Northwestern, while blocking for an NU rushing attack that ranked eighth nationally. Turner hauled in 29 passes for 395 yards and two touchdowns, and played the best football of his career in the second half of the season. Senior Steven Osborne also made his first 10 career catches in 2012, totaling 91 yards and two touchdowns.

In his first season in 2011, Fisher's receivers contributed to Nebraska's success in the passing game and offered solid perimeter blocking for the Husker running game. Fisher inherited a talented but young stable of receivers. Under his direction, the group hauled in 107 passes for 1,434 yards, while averaging 13.4 yards per reception. The unit was highlighted by underclassmen who combined for 69 catches, 1,004 receiving yards and a 14.6 yard-per-catch average.

Leading the list of young receivers succeeding under Fisher's tutelage was Bell, who led NU with 32 catches and 461 receiving yards and added three receiving touchdowns as a redshirt freshman. Bell became only the second freshman in school history to lead Nebraska in both receptions and receiving yards, joining Nate Swift who accomplished the feat as a redshirt freshman in 2005.

Enunwa had 21 catches for 293 yards and two touchdowns, after recording only one reception as a freshman. Senior Brandon Kinnie had 22 catches in 2011 and finished just outside the top 10 on the NU career receptions list.

Fisher also helped Turner, a true freshman, make the transition from high school quarterback to wide receiver. Turner had 15 catches for 243 yards and averaged 16.2 yards per catch in 2011.

Fisher came to Nebraska after two highly successful seasons in the prep ranks. He spent the 2009 and 2010 seasons as the head coach at Rivers School in Weston, Mass., where he compiled a 12-5 record.

In 2010, Fisher coached Rivers School to a perfect 8-0 regular season, the school's first undefeated regular season since 1915 and its only ISL championship.

Prior to coaching at Rivers, Fisher spent several years in private business, including owning and operating New England Gridiron Football Camps from 2004 to 2009.

Fisher's collegiate coaching experience includes stops at Idaho, Colorado and Oklahoma State. He has had the opportunity to work with some of the finest coaches in the game during his coaching career. At Idaho, Fisher worked alongside Northwestern Head Coach Pat Fitzgerald and three of his fellow Vandal assistants now coach in the NFL.

At Colorado under Rick Neuheisel, Fisher coached alongside future college head coaches Karl Dorrell (UCLA), Jon Embree (Colorado) and Bobby Hauck (UNLV). Fisher also coached with former Oakland Raiders Head Coach Tom Cable.

During his time at Oklahoma State, Fisher coached with Les Miles (LSU), Mike Gundy (Oklahoma State) and Brent Guy (Utah State).

Fisher tutored the wide receivers during his first two seasons at Idaho in 1999 and 2000, then handled the inside and outside linebackers during his final three seasons.

Prior to his five seasons at Idaho, Fisher spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at Colorado, his alma mater, working with the wide receivers in 1997 and 1998. Fisher also spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at Oklahoma State in 1995 and 1996.

In 10 seasons as a coach at the collegiate level, Fisher has worked with five players who went on to play in the NFL.

Fisher was a three-year letterwinner at Colorado. An outside linebacker, Fisher lettered in 1990, 1991 and 1992 and was part of CU's 1990 national championship team. During his playing time, he also contributed to Big Eight title teams in 1989, 1990 and 1991.

OFFENSIVE LINE
FOURTH SEASON | NEBRASKA | 2003

John Garrison has helped Nebraska win at least nine games in each of his six seasons on the Husker coaching staff. As a former Husker lineman himself, Garrison is able to relate to his players. His close relationship with the offensive line has helped Nebraska rank in the top 20 nationally in rushing in each of the past four years. In each of Garrison's six seasons on the NU staff, his line has paved the way for an all-conference running back. During that time, six linemen have been selected in the NFL Draft.

John Garrison is in his fourth season as a full-time Nebraska assistant coach and his second as the Huskers' offensive line coach. Previously, Garrison was NU's assistant offensive line/tight ends coach in 2011 and 2012. Garrison has been a member of the Husker coaching staff for each of Bo Pelini's seven seasons as head coach, working as an intern with the Nebraska offense from 2008 to 2010.

Garrison's offensive line paved the way for another big rushing season for the Huskers in 2013. Nebraska ranked 19th nationally with an average of 215.7 rushing yards per game. Junior I-back Ameer Abdullah was the beneficiary of the line play, rushing for 1,690 yards, the highest total by a Husker since 1997. A first-team All-Big Ten selection and third-team All-American, Abdullah rushed for at least 85 yards in every game behind Garrison's line, including a school-record 11 100-yard efforts.

Nebraska's line has also protected the passer well, allowing an average of only 1.3 sacks per game in 2013, a total that ranked 23rd nationally. The line was led by three all-conference performers. Senior Jeremiah Sirles battled through injuries to earn all-conference honors for the second straight season, while seniors Cole Pensick and Andrew Rodriguez each earned their first All-Big Ten accolade in their final season.

The trio of Sirles, Pensick and Rodriguez helped anchor an offensive line that had six of its top eight players injured at one point in the season, including 2012 second-team All-American Spencer Long.

Garrison was also recently honored for his exceptional work on the recruiting trail, as Rivals.com tabbed Garrison as one of the nation's top 25 recruiters in 2014.

The offensive line helped Nebraska rank eighth nationally with 253.4 rushing yards per game in 2012. It paved the way for Abdullah to become the first Husker sophomore to rush for 1,000 yards since 1994, helping Abdullah earn second-team All-Big Ten honors.

Garrison's line also helped All-Big Ten quarterback Taylor Martinez set Nebraska's junior class total offense record, throwing for 2,871 yards and rushing for another 1,019 yards while accounting for a school-record 3,890 total yards.

Individually, Garrison helped guard Long complete a journey from walk-on to All-American. A consensus first-team All-Big Ten selection, Long was named a second-team All-American by both the Associated Press and the Walter Camp Foundation. Long became Nebraska's first All-America offensive lineman since Tionio Fomoti in 2001 and only the second first-team all-conference offensive lineman since Fomoti in 2001.

In addition to Long, former walk-on center Justin Jackson, a converted defensive lineman, earned honorable-mention All-Big Ten accolades from the league's coaches in his first full season as an offensive lineman. Sirles was a second-team all-conference selection, giving Nebraska three all-conference offensive linemen in 2012.

Garrison has played a key role in quickly developing players in his first two seasons. In his first full-time season in 2011, Garrison and veteran offensive line coach Barney Cotton developed an offensive line that paved the way for a Husker rushing attack that ranked 15th nationally, averaging 217.2 yards per game. In addition to his overall work with the line, Garrison has played a key role in the development of several underclassmen and walk-ons.

First- or second-year players combined for 38 starts on the offensive line in 2011. In addition to the youth, Garrison helped three current or former walk-ons combine for 32 starts in 2011. Two of those former walk-ons - Mike Caputo and Long - were All-Big Ten honorees. Senior Marcel Jones was also an honorable-mention All-Big Ten pick in 2011.

15 In his six seasons working with the offensive line, Garrison has helped 15 Husker offensive linemen earn all-conference recognition.

The line helped All-Big Ten back Rex Burkhead post the 32nd 1,000-yard rushing season in school history. Burkhead also produced the highest rushing total by a Husker I-back since 1997.

Before being elevated to a full-time role in 2011, Garrison spent the previous three seasons as a football intern with the offensive line in conjunction with the strength and conditioning staff.

In five total seasons working with the Husker offensive line, 12 linemen have earned all-conference honors. In 2010, Ricky Henry became the first Husker to take home first-team all-conference accolades since 2001, as Nebraska led the Big 12 and ranked ninth nationally with nearly 250 rushing yards per game.

The offensive line has helped pave the way for an all-conference back in each of Garrison's five seasons working with the unit. In 2010, senior Roy Helu Jr., became the first running back to surpass 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons since 1992 and 1993, while Burkhead topped the 1,000-yard mark in 2011.

Garrison joined the Nebraska staff in March of 2008 after spending four years at Blue Springs (Mo.) High School as an assistant coach and special education teacher. Garrison served as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator. Garrison also conducted and managed the weight room activities for multiple sports at Blue Springs.

Garrison was a four-year letterman for Frank Solich at Nebraska from 1999 to 2002, and earned honorable-mention All-Big 12 accolades at center as a junior and second-team accolades as a senior. Garrison was Nebraska's starting long snapper as a true freshman in 1999, helping the Huskers to a 12-1 record and Big 12 title. He was a backup center and guard, and handled long snapping duties in 2000.

Garrison was the Huskers' starting center in 2001 and 2002, helping Nebraska play for the 2001 BCS National Championship. That year, he helped quarterback Eric Crouch win the Heisman Trophy. In his senior season, Garrison was elected by his teammates as one of three co-captains.

A native of Blue Springs, Mo., Garrison is Nebraska's lead recruiter for the Kansas City metro area.

RICK KACZENSKI

DEFENSIVE LINE
THIRD SEASON | NOTRE DAME | 1997

Rick Kaczenski brings a complete understanding of both offensive and defensive line play to the Husker coaching staff. A former Notre Dame center with experience as an offensive line coach, he possesses a unique perspective that has helped his defensive linemen thrive in his first two seasons at NU. His extensive knowledge helped Nebraska rank seventh nationally in sacks in 2013 and 18th in TFLs. Individually, Kaczenski's defensive linemen have earned 13 All-Big Ten awards in the past seven seasons.

7 Despite a defensive line that featured six first-year players in the regular rotation, Kaczenski's line helped Nebraska rank seventh nationally in sacks in 2013.

Rick Kaczenski is in his third season as Nebraska's defensive line coach and his 10th season coaching in the Big Ten Conference.

Behind first-team All-Big Ten selection Randy Gregory, NU led the Big Ten and ranked seventh nationally in sacks with 3.0 per game in 2013. Nebraska also led the Big Ten and finished 18th nationally in tackles for loss.

Gregory, a first-year junior college transfer, thrived under Kaczenski's tutelage. Gregory led the Big Ten with 10.5 sacks, including 9.0 sacks in eight Big Ten Conference games. Gregory's 10.5 sacks were the most ever by a first-year Husker, while his 9.0 conference sacks ranked second all-time at Nebraska.

Jason Ankrum enjoyed a productive senior season under Kaczenski, earning honorable-mention All-Big Ten accolades. Ankrum produced 36 tackles with nine tackles for loss and 4.0 sacks, including two sacks in a Gator Bowl victory over Georgia.

Combined, Kaczenski's defensive line produced 247 tackles, 50 tackles for loss and 24.0 sacks in 2013. Five freshmen contributed immediately, combining for 90 tackles, 19 TFLs and 7.5 sacks.

Kaczenski faced a challenge in his first season in Lincoln in 2012, dealing with multiple injuries on the defensive line, a unit that was down to a rotation of six healthy regular contributors at the end of the year. Despite the challenges, Kaczenski's line helped NU rank first nationally in opponent pass completion percentage, fourth in passing yards allowed, ninth in pass efficiency defense and 35th in total defense. Led by end Eric Martin, the line helped the Huskers rank second in the Big Ten and in the top 50 nationally in sacks.

Martin, who entered the 2012 season with 64 tackles, four TFLs and 2.5 sacks in his career, developed into a first-team all-conference performer in his only season working with Kaczenski. In 2012, Martin recorded 59 tackles, 18 TFLs and 8.5 sacks. He ranked third in the Big Ten and among the nation's top 50 players in sacks.

Baker Steinkuhler earned second-team All-Big Ten honors with 47 tackles and seven TFLs before a season-ending injury at Iowa. With two selections in 2012 and two more in 2013, Kaczenski's defensive linemen have won 13 All-Big Ten awards the past seven seasons.

Kaczenski joined NU's staff after building an impressive resume on Kirk Ferentz's staff at Iowa. The performance of Kaczenski's defensive lines played a key role in Iowa's success in his five seasons from 2007 to 2011. Iowa reached a bowl game in each of his final four seasons, including an appearance in the Orange Bowl following the 2009 season. His defensive linemen earned nine first- or second-team All-Big Ten awards in only five seasons.

In 2010, Iowa ranked sixth nationally in rushing defense (101.5 ypg) and seventh in scoring defense (17.0 ppg). A year earlier, the Hawkeye defense ranked in the top 10 nationally in four statistical categories, including pass efficiency defense, total defense, scoring defense and passing yards allowed. The effort of the front line played a big part in the defensive success, as Iowa posted an 11-2 overall record and a victory over Georgia Tech in the Orange Bowl.

The 2008 Iowa defense also ranked high across the board. Kaczenski's defensive front keyed a group that limited opponents to just 94.0 rushing yards per game to rank ninth in the country. Iowa also ranked fifth in scoring defense, fifth in pass efficiency defense and 12th in scoring defense. In his first season as a full-time assistant in 2007, Iowa ranked third in the Big Ten and 13th nationally in scoring defense, while also leading the conference in turnover margin.

Under Kaczenski, Iowa produced outstanding individual performers on the defensive line. End Adrian Clayborn became the 21st Hawkeye to earn consensus All-America honors in 2010 after totaling 11.5 sacks and 20 TFLs. Clayborn was named the national Defensive Performer of the Year by College Football Performance Awards in 2009.

Clayborn was the 20th pick in the first round by Tampa Bay in the 2011 NFL Draft, and was one of three Hawkeye defensive linemen selected in that draft.

Defensive tackles Mitch King and Matt Kroul led Iowa's defense in 2008. King (15.5 TFL) was named Defensive Lineman of the Year in the Big Ten while earning first-, second- and third-team All-America honors. Kroul earned second-team All-Big Ten honors after setting an Iowa record with 50 consecutive starts. Both King (Tennessee) and Kroul (N.Y. Jets) signed free agent contracts immediately following the 2009 NFL Draft. In 2007, King was named first-team All-Big Ten and senior defensive end Bryan Mattison earned second-team recognition.

Overall, 12 of Kaczenski's defensive linemen have been drafted or signed NFL free agent contracts over the past five seasons, including four draftees in the past three years.

Before taking over as defensive line coach, Kaczenski served two seasons as a graduate assistant at Iowa in 2005-06, working specifically with the offensive line. Kaczenski joined the Iowa staff after serving as the offensive line and tight ends coach at Elon University in 2004. He served in the same capacity at East Tennessee State in 2003 and was the offensive line coach at South Carolina State in 2002.

Kaczenski was on the staff at South Carolina from 1999 to 2001 under Head Coach Lou Holtz. Kaczenski was a graduate assistant with the Gamecocks, working in recruiting while assisting with the offensive line and wide receivers. Kaczenski began his coaching career in 1998 as an assistant coach at Erie (Pa.) Cathedral Prep, his high school alma mater.

Kaczenski played collegiately at Notre Dame from 1993 to 1997, where he was a three-year starter at center from 1995 to 1997. While with the Irish, Kaczenski helped Notre Dame to four bowl appearances, including a trip to the 1995 Fiesta Bowl and the 1996 Orange Bowl. Kaczenski played in a total of 40 games, and during his career Notre Dame finished in the top 20 in rushing three times, including sixth in 1995 and eighth in 1996.

Kaczenski earned a Bachelor of Science degree in sociology from Notre Dame in 1997, and he is a graduate of Cathedral Prep High School in Erie, Pa. He was elected to the Erie Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame in 2007. His brother, Bob, was a member of Penn State's 1986 national championship team.

CHARLTON WARREN

SECONDARY

FIRST SEASON | AIR FORCE | 1999

Charlton Warren brings impressive credentials to Lincoln as the newest member of the NU staff. He spent the past nine seasons at Air Force, including the final two seasons as associate head coach and defensive coordinator. Warren worked directly with the Falcon secondary, a unit that ranked in the top 10 nationally in passing yards allowed in two of the last four seasons. Warren also boasts NFL experience, as he was selected to serve a training camp internship with the Houston Texans in 2007.

Charlton Warren is in his first season on the Nebraska coaching staff, where he will lead the Husker secondary. Warren came to Nebraska after nine years on the defensive staff at the Air Force Academy, including the past two seasons as associate head coach and defensive coordinator. Warren was also a standout defensive back for the Falcons in the late 1990s.

Warren inherits a Nebraska secondary that returns a pair of starters in 2014 seniors Corey Cooper at safety and Josh Mitchell at cornerback. Nebraska has a history of ranking among the nation's top pass defenses, and led the Big Ten in passing yards allowed and opponent pass completion percentage during conference games in 2013.

Warren spent the past nine seasons coaching at Air Force, working directly with the defensive backs all nine years with the Falcons. Warren also earned a reputation as the Falcons' top recruiter and coordinated Air Force's recruiting efforts for six seasons from 2006 to 2011.

Air Force's secondary was a strong point for the Falcon defense during Warren's time in Colorado Springs. The Air Force pass defense often ranked among the best in the country, helping the Falcons to six bowl games in Warren's nine seasons as an assistant coach.

In 2011, the Air Force defense ranked sixth in passing yards allowed per game at 166.8 yards per game. In 2010, the Falcon secondary was even better, ranking second nationally by allowing just 147.8 passing yards per game and finishing 10th nationally in pass efficiency defense. The play of the defensive backfield helped Air Force to a 9-4 record, capped by a victory over Georgia Tech in the Independence Bowl.

The 2009 defense also excelled against the pass under Warren's direction, helping the team to a trip to the Armed Forces Bowl. Air Force ranked seventh nationally with 20 interceptions, helping the team lead the nation in turnover margin. The 2009 Falcons also ranked in the top 20 nationally in passing yards allowed (fifth), total defense (11th) and pass efficiency defense (17th).

Warren was also a member of the Air Force staff for 2007 and 2008 trips to the Armed Forces Bowl, when the Falcons posted 9-4 and 8-5 records, respectively.

Individually, several Falcon defenders excelled under Warren's direction. Air Force produced a first-team All-Mountain West defensive back for three straight years from 2009 to 2011. In 2010, Reggie Rembert capped an outstanding career, earning first-team All-America honors from the American Football Coaches Association and third-team All-America honors from the Associated Press. Rembert was also a two-time first-team all-conference pick and was selected as the NFLPA Service Academy Player of the Year in 2010.

Anthony Wright was a second-team all-conference pick in 2011 and finished his career with 12 interceptions to rank fourth in Air Force history. Chris Thomas also excelled under Warren's coaching, earning all-conference honors three times and ranking among the school's all-time leaders in tackles and interceptions. Warren also coached Carson Bird to first-team all-conference and All-America honors in 2007.

In addition to his nine seasons of experience at Air Force, Warren was selected by the Houston Texans to participate in the NFL's minority internship program in 2007. Warren spent time in training camp with the Texans, and took part in defensive and special teams sessions.

Warren graduated from the Air Force Academy in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in human factors engineering. He was a standout defensive back for the Falcons, earning three letters. Warren won the team's Mr. Intensity Award as a senior, and helped the program to consecutive 10-win seasons in 1997 and 1998, including a 12-1 record and outright conference title in 1998.

Following his college career, Warren performed his active service as a systems acquisitions program manager at both Warner Robbins AFB in Georgia and Elgin Air Force Base in Florida. Warren earned his MBA from Georgia College and State University in 2003.

JEFF JAMROG

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC DIRECTOR FOR FOOTBALL OPERATIONS
SEVENTH SEASON | NEBRASKA | 1987

Former Nebraska player and assistant coach Jeff Jamrog is in his seventh year as the Assistant Athletic Director for Football Operations for the Husker program in 2014.

A finalist for the 2012 FootballScoop.com Director of Football Operations of the Year, Jamrog plays a key role in the administrative aspects of the football program and serves as a liaison with other parts of the athletic department. He works closely with Coach Bo Pelini and Director of Athletics Shawn Eichorst on all football operations and assists with NU's recruiting efforts.

Jamrog also coordinates the travel, budget and staffing for the football office, spearheading football scheduling, overseeing the compliance, strength training, equipment and academic support units regarding football issues and also supervising football support staffs. Jamrog also serves on the AFCA's Director of Football Operations committee.

A former walk-on himself, Jamrog has played a lead role in the resurgence of Nebraska's walk-on program. Since Pelini has taken over the program, 26 former walk-ons have been placed on scholarship.

Former walk-on Spencer Long earned second-team All-America honors from the Associated Press and Walter Camp Foundation in 2012, while Brett Maher was the 2012 co-Big Ten Place-Kicker of the Year after sweeping the honors as the conference's best punter and kicker in 2011. Walk-on offensive linemen combined to start 51 games the past four seasons and overall, 10 members of NU's 23-player 2013 senior class began their career as walk-ons.

On the scheduling front, Jamrog has taken the lead in securing several future non-conference series. Nebraska has recently agreed to future games with fellow Big Eight rivals Colorado and Oklahoma and as well as recent BCS qualifiers Northern Illinois and Oregon.

Jamrog returned to NU after spending four seasons as Minnesota State-Mankato's head coach. He guided the Mavericks to a 17-27 record, including a 6-5 mark in 2004, the first winning season since 1994. The team boasted a six-game improvement, which was not only a school record but tied for the fifth-largest single-season jump in NCAA Division II history.

The Maverick players coached by Jamrog also distinguished themselves in the classroom. Defensive lineman Spencer Dickinson earned a spot on the CoSIDA Academic All-America team in both 2006 and 2007. While leading the Maverick program, Jamrog handled many of the duties he encounters on a daily basis with the Huskers.

His four-year run at Minnesota State came after a brief stint as the defensive coordinator at Western Illinois in the spring of 2004. Prior to that appointment, Jamrog had spent the previous four seasons as the defensive line coach on Frank Solich's staff at Nebraska.

Jamrog tutored the Huskers' interior defensive linemen each of his four years on the defensive staff. In his final season, Jamrog also coached the defensive ends and was named special teams coordinator for the 2003 Huskers. During his time with the Huskers, Jamrog helped Nebraska play for the national championship in the Rose Bowl following the 2001 season, along with two trips to the Alamo Bowl (2000, 2003) and an appearance in the Independence Bowl (2002).

The 2003 Nebraska defense led the country in takeaways, while ranking second nationally in scoring defense. Jamrog's special teams units were also among the nation's best, totaling 21 blocked kicks and 11 punt returns for touchdowns in four years. With Jamrog as special teams coordinator in 2003, Nebraska led the Big 12 and ranked ninth nationally in net punting.

Before his first tenure on the Nebraska coaching staff, Jamrog spent three years as defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach at New Mexico State. He helped Head Coach Tony Samuel turn around a program that had just two winning seasons in the previous 31 years.

Jamrog served as the defensive coordinator at Nebraska-Omaha from 1994 to 1996, and helped the Mavs to the 1996 North Central Conference title - the first outright title in school history. UNO earned a No. 4 national ranking, and improved by seven wins over 1995, the second-largest turnaround in Division II history. Jamrog was the inside linebackers coach and special teams coordinator at the University of South Dakota from 1990 to 1993. He began his coaching career at Nebraska in 1988 and 1989 as a graduate assistant.

Originally a walk-on for the Huskers, Jamrog played for the freshman team in 1983, redshirted in 1984, then lettered for three years as a defensive end. As a senior, Jamrog started and had 66 tackles, eight sacks and 13 tackles for loss. Jamrog was a first-team CoSIDA Academic All-American in 1987 and was an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship recipient. He was also the winner of the 1987 Guy Chamberlin Trophy.

He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Nebraska in 1987 and his master's in business administration in 1990.

James Dobson is in his seventh season on the Nebraska football staff as Head Football Strength Coach. Dobson oversees all aspects of the Husker strength and conditioning program for football, which includes winter conditioning, summer workouts and in-season training.

In 2012, Dobson was one of 15 strength and conditioning coaches certified as a Master Strength and Conditioning Coach by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association.

In Dobson's six seasons directing Nebraska's strength and conditioning efforts, the Huskers have had impressive gains both on and off the field. Outstanding conditioning has been a key factor in NU ranking among the nation's top fourth-quarter teams. The 2013 Huskers showed their stamina late in close games, winning all five games decided by seven or fewer points. In 2012, Dobson's strength and conditioning efforts helped Nebraska rally from double-digit second-half deficits four times in Big Ten play, including tying for the largest fourth-quarter comeback in school history with a 12-point rally at Northwestern.

In 2008, Nebraska outscored its opponents 155-52 in the fourth quarter. Nebraska's point total and scoring differential in the fourth quarter were both second best in the nation. The Huskers again dominated the fourth quarter in 2009. Nebraska outscored its opponents 96-32 in the fourth quarter. The 32 points allowed in the fourth quarter tied for the fewest in the nation, while the 64-point differential was fourth. Overall in the second half, Nebraska outscored its opponents 154-55, as the 55 second-half points were the fewest allowed by any team in the nation.

Prior to Nebraska, Dobson was part of the Iowa Hawkeye football program. He was in Iowa City during one of the most successful periods in school history. Iowa appeared in bowl games in six of seven seasons and won 38 games from 2002 to 2005. Iowa won 25 Big Ten games in that same period, including Big Ten titles in 2002 and 2004.

Dobson has had a history of working with some of the top college football players in the country over the past decade. Top pupils Dobson has worked with include defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh, cornerback Prince Amukamara and linebacker Lavonte David at Nebraska along with safety Bob Sanders, tight end Dallas Clark, offensive tackle Robert Gallery and linebacker Chad Greenway at Iowa.

Suh was a Heisman finalist and the most decorated defensive lineman in nearly two decades while earning national player-of-the-year honors for the Cornhuskers in 2009. The impact of Dobson and the NU strength and conditioning program on Suh is evident. Following the completion of his career, Suh showed his appreciation by donating $2 million to enhance the four-year old Nebraska strength and conditioning facility.

Amukamara developed into a first-round NFL Draft pick in 2011 after earning first-team All-America honors for the Huskers in 2010. He went on to win the Super Bowl with the New York Giants in his first season in the league. Dobson helped prepare David to make a seamless transition to major college football. After starring as a junior college All-American, David recorded the most tackles in school history as a junior in 2010, before earning All-America honors in 2011. David was selected in the second round of the 2012 NFL Draft.

Sanders earned All-America honors at Iowa in 2003, and was the 2007 NFL Defensive Player of the Year with the Indianapolis Colts. Clark began his Hawkeye career as a walk-on linebacker, but moved to tight end and went on to earn All-America honors in 2002, before being a first-round draft pick. Gallery came to Iowa as a 240-pound tight end, and through the strength program, he left as a 320-pound offensive tackle, won the 2003 Outland Trophy and was the second overall selection in the 2004 draft. Greenway earned All-America honors as a senior in 2005, and was a first-round pick of the Minnesota Vikings in 2006.

In addition to his time at Iowa, Dobson spent two years as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Southern Methodist, working with the football, volleyball and basketball teams.

Dobson attended the University of Wisconsin-Madison, where he worked as a student assistant with the Badger football team for three seasons. He earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Wisconsin in 1996, and his master's of science and administration degree from Central Michigan in 2004.

A certified strength and conditioning specialist and a member of the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association and the National Strength and Conditioning Association, Dobson is a native of Mt. Horeb, Wis.

KYLE BREY
GRADUATE ASSISTANT | OFFENSE

Kyle Brey is in his second season as an offensive graduate assistant at Nebraska, where he works extensively with the tight ends.

In 2013, Brey worked with a Husker offense that averaged more than 30 points per game, despite being forced to use three different starting quarterbacks due to injury. Nebraska's tight ends combined for 22 catches and 379 receiving yards in 2013, while also blocking for a Husker rushing attack that ranked 19th nationally.

Prior to Nebraska, Brey spent two seasons on the coaching staff at Kansas, where he served as graduate assistant for the offense in 2012, and a quality control coach with the special teams in 2011.

Brey earned four letters at Buffalo, playing both tight end and fullback. Brey played in 38 games for the Bulls who were coached by former Husker Turner Gill for his first three seasons. Brey had eight catches in his career.

Brey comes from a coaching background. His father, Mike, is the head men's basketball coach at Notre Dame. His grandfather was a high school athletic director, while his grandmother was the swimming coach at George Washington University.

Brey received his bachelor's degree in sociology from Buffalo in December of 2010. Brey is married to the former Shea Fluegge.

AUSTIN CASSIDY
GRADUATE ASSISTANT | DEFENSE

Austin Cassidy is in his first season as a Nebraska defensive graduate assistant and his third season on the Husker staff. Cassidy was also a member of the Husker defensive staff in 2012 and 2013. Cassidy will work primarily with the safeties in 2014.

In his first two years on the Huskers' defensive staff, Nebraska boasted strong secondaries. In 2013, NU ranked 33rd nationally in pass defense after ranking fourth in the country in 2012. In 2012, senior safety Daimion Stafford ranked 30th nationally in interceptions before being selected by the Tennessee Titans in the 2013 NFL Draft.

Cassidy was a safety himself for Nebraska from 2008 to 2011, after redshirting in 2007. Cassidy earned 20 starts in his career, helping the Huskers to 38 wins in his four seasons. He totaled 128 tackles with three interceptions and five breakups. He was an honorable-mention All-Big Ten selection as a senior in 2011, when he ranked fourth on the team with 70 tackles and tied for the team lead with two interceptions. Cassidy also scored a touchdown on a fumble return at Minnesota.

Cassidy was one of the top student-athletes in the history of Nebraska football. He was a two-time, first-team CoSIDA Academic All-American. Only the 14th Husker to be a two-time, first-team academic All-American, Cassidy was a semifinalist for the 2011 William V. Campbell Trophy, considered to be the equivalent of the "academic" Heisman Trophy.

Cassidy received his bachelor's degree in psychology from Nebraska in May of 2011. He is married to the former Alex Ball. Cassidy's father, Tim, was Nebraska's Associate Athletic Director for Football Operations from 2004 to 2007, and Tim currently serves as the Senior Associate Athletic Director of Football at Arizona State.

JOE GANZ
GRADUATE ASSISTANT | OFFENSE

Joe Ganz is in his third year in a graduate assistant role in 2014 and his fifth year overall on the Nebraska coaching staff. Previously, Ganz served as a football intern and graduate manager in 2010 and 2011. Ganz works extensively with the Husker quarterbacks, in addition to helping offensive coordinator Tim Beck in a variety of roles.

Ganz helped Taylor Martinez re-write the Nebraska record books, despite missing most of his senior season due to injury. Working with Ganz every year of his career, Martinez left Nebraska as the Huskers' all-time leader in passing yards (7,258), passing touchdowns (56), completions (573) and total offense (10,233). Martinez set 37 school records under Ganz's tutelage, including season records for touchdowns and total offense.

Ganz was the perfect mentor for Martinez, as Ganz was a record-setting Husker quarterback himself from 2004 to 2008. Although he had to wait until the latter half of the 2007 season for his chance to shine, Ganz ended his career owning 23 Nebraska school records. He established Husker records with 510 passing yards, 528 yards of total offense and seven passing touchdowns against Kansas State in 2007 in only his second career start. Ganz also holds Nebraska game records for pass completions, and attempts and total offense attempts. As the Huskers' full-time starting quarterback in Bo Pelini's first season in 2008, Ganz set school records with 3,568 passing yards and 25 touchdowns.

In the classroom, Ganz was a 2008 first-team academic All-Big 12 selection. He earned his degree in business administration from Nebraska in December of 2008.

MAX ONYGBULE
GRADUATE ASSISTANT | DEFENSE

Max Onyegbule is in his first season on the Nebraska staff in 2014, and he serves as a defensive graduate assistant. Onyegbule will primarily work with a talented Husker defensive line this fall, a unit that helped Nebraska rank seventh nationally in sacks in 2013.

Onyegbule spent the 2013 season as a defensive graduate assistant at Kansas, his alma mater.

As a defensive lineman for Kansas from 2006 to 2009, Onyegbule registered 67 tackles as a three-year letterwinner. As a senior in 2009, Onyegbule totaled 37 tackles, including 16 solo stops. He added 11 tackles for loss and 6.0 sacks. Kansas enjoyed great success during Onyegbule's career, including a 12-1 record in 2007, when the Jayhawks earned an Orange Bowl victory over Virginia Tech and finished with a No. 7 final national ranking. Nebraska Offensive Coordinator Tim Beck was a member of the Kansas offensive coaching staff from 2005 to 2007.

Onyegbule earned his bachelor's degree in economics from Kansas in December of 2010.

AUSTEN EVERSON
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Austen Everson is in his fifth season as a full-time member of the Nebraska football staff. He is in his second season as the assistant director of football operations, after serving as the director of high school relations for three years from 2010 to 2012. A native of Brentwood, Tenn., Everson previously served as a football operations intern at NU from June 2008 to January 2009.

In his current role, Everson assists Assistant Athletic Director for Football Operations Jeff Jamrog in a variety of duties, including a key role in team travel.

Everson earned his bachelor's degree in 2007 in management from Ohio University, where he was a four-year letterwinner at quarterback and two-year team captain during his junior and senior seasons under former Nebraska coach Frank Solich. During his undergraduate career, Everson was a two-time academic All-MAC selection, a National Football Foundation National Honor Society inductee and a Draddy Trophy semifinalist while also earning accolades in the weight room as the All-American Strength and Conditioning Athlete of the Year.

Following graduation, Everson served as a development intern for the Ohio Athletic Department in the summer of 2007, before becoming a graduate assistant in the administration office. He worked with Ohio's senior woman administrator for nearly two years while earning master's degrees in business administration in 2008 and sports administration in 2009.

Everson married the former Leah Luther of Lexington, Neb., in May of 2014.

JAKE WESCH
RECRUITING MANAGER

A former Husker walk-on, Jake Wesch is in his second season as Nebraska's recruiting manager after spending two seasons as NU's assistant director of football operations in 2011 and 2012. Wesch fills a variety of recruiting roles, including developing and supervising a marketing plan, organizing on-campus visits, securing the student-athlete transition to Nebraska and the hiring and supervision of student workers.

A native of North Bend, Neb., Wesch was the Huskers' kickoff specialist in 2005 and 2006, while also serving as the starting holder during his final three seasons. He was a five-time Brook Berringer Citizenship Team selection. As a senior, Wesch handled the holding duties in all 13 games, as sophomore place-kicker Alex Henery was 56-of-57 on extra points and 18-of-21 on field goal attempts. The field-goal unit capped the year with Henery's school-record 57-yard field goal against Colorado.

Wesch also punted in three games, putting one punt inside the 20-yard line against Missouri, along with a career-best 55-yarder against Texas Tech and a 50-yarder at Iowa State. Wesch also connected on a 17-yard touchdown pass to Hunter Teafatiller on a fake field goal against Kansas State. He added an eight-yard pass to tight end Mike McNeill on a fake field goal against Texas Tech, allowing NU to score a touchdown on the next play. Wesch also executed a fake field goal pitch to Alex Henery for a first down late in the Kansas game.

After finishing his Husker career in 2008, Wesch continued to work in various areas of the athletic department. He worked specifically with the football department prior to the 2010 season as one of the program's interns.

Wesch earned his bachelor's degree in communication studies from Nebraska in December of 2008 and went on to earn a master's in educational administration in the summer of 2011. Wesch and his wife, Brittany, were married in August of 2013.

AARYN KEARNEY
DIRECTOR OF RECRUITING OPERATIONS

Aaryn Kearney joined the NU football staff in February of 2009 as a recruiting staff assistant. He was promoted to director of recruiting operations in January of 2014. In his position, Kearney directs the day-to-day operations of Nebraska's recruiting staff and is responsible for the implementation of the Huskers' recruiting plan. He oversees the evaluation process for the football staff. He assists the staff with roster management, the initial eligibility of prospective student-athletes and organizing NCAA compliance records pertaining to recruiting activities and campus visits. Kearney also serves as the program's NFL liaison for pro personnel.

In addition to assisting the football staff in recruiting, Kearney is actively involved with the Big Red Football School and coaching clinics. Kearney had worked in the recruiting office as a student worker for the previous year before his full-time appointment.

A native of Auburn, Neb., Kearney has been associated with the Husker football program since 2003, serving as a football student manager for five seasons. Kearney served as the head student manager during the 2007 season and was awarded the Tom and Terri Burnell Student Manager Scholarship that year. Kearney graduated from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln in December of 2008 with a bachelor's degree in communication studies.

BRIAN CRIST
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Brian Crist joined the Nebraska football staff as the Huskers' director of player personnel in 2014. Crist is responsible for the development of the student mentoring program, in addition to coordinating the football team's Life Skills outreach programs and community service efforts. Crist also serves as a liaison to NFL scouts visiting campus, among other duties.

Before coming to Nebraska, Crist spent the 2013 season coaching the wide receivers at Bridgewater College in Virginia. Crist owns nearly 20 years of coaching experience. He spent more than 10 seasons at UMass, working with the quarterbacks, wide receivers, tight ends and special teams. Crist earned his first full-time coaching job with UMass from 1996 to 2001. In his second stint coaching the Minutemen wide receivers from 2007 to 2010, Crist coached New York Giants wide receiver Victor Cruz.

In between stints with the Minutemen, Crist spent five years working with the wideouts at Louisiana-Lafayette from 2002 to 2006. In his final two seasons, Crist served as the Ragin' Cajuns passing game coordinator. Crist earned his first coaching job as an offensive graduate assistant at Virginia Tech in 1994 and 1995.

Crist earned his bachelor's degree in economics and math from Hampden-Sydney College in Virginia in 1994. He and his wife Amy have four children, Jackson (11), Ali (9), Caroline (5) and Logan (3).

DREW SOUKUP
REGIONAL RECRUITING ASSISTANT

Drew Soukup was named a regional recruiting assistant in the spring of 2014 after previously serving as an intern on the Nebraska football staff for the 2012 and 2013 seasons. In his new role, Soukup is responsible for identifying potential recruits within his assigned region, and serving as an on-campus host for visitors from that region.

Soukup earned his bachelor's degree in marketing from Nebraska in May of 2010 and his master's degree in educational administration with a higher education focus in August of 2013. While completing his undergraduate degree, Soukup worked as a student assistant in the Huskers Athletic Fund office, the fundraising arm of the Nebraska Athletic Department.

KENNY WILHITE
REGIONAL RECRUITING ASSISTANT

Kenny Wilhite joined the Nebraska football staff as a regional recruiting assistant in the spring of 2014. Wilhite is responsible for identifying potential recruits within his assigned region, and serving as an on-campus host for visitors from that region.

Wilhite came to Nebraska after spending six seasons coaching defensive backs at Southeast Missouri State under former Husker player and coach Tony Samuel. A native of St. Louis, Mo., Wilhite previously gained coaching experience at New Mexico State, Dodge City Community College, Emporia State, Kentucky State and Central Arkansas.

A standout defensive back for the Huskers under Coach Tom Osborne, Wilhite earned All-Big Eight honors in 1991 after leading the team in interceptions. Wilhite played professionally for four seasons in the Canadian Football League. Wilhite was a CFL all-star in 1996, when he finished third behind Doug Flutie in voting for the league's player-of-the-year award.

Wilhite earned his bachelor's degree in human development from Nebraska in 1992.

MIKE CUNNINGHAM
FOOTBALL STAFF ASSISTANT

Mike Cunningham is in his first season as a Nebraska football staff assistant. Cunningham assists the Husker offensive coaches in a variety of duties, and he has collegiate coaching experience as an offensive assistant.

Cunningham came to Nebraska after serving as the offensive line coach at North Dakota in 2013. He worked with the Minnesota State-Mankato football program from 2006 to 2012, after previously serving on the football staff at Concordia St. Paul in 2004 and 2005.

Cunningham earned his bachelor's degree in family sciences from New Mexico State in 2001. He and his wife Andrea have three children, Trevin (10), Alyssa (7) and Alex (3).

JONI DUFF
FOOTBALL STAFF ASSISTANT TO BO PELINI

Joni Duff began her association with the Nebraska football office in 1980. After previously serving as an assistant to the defensive coordinator and the defensive assistant coaches, she will now also serve as Bo Pelini's administrative assistant. Duff also handles multiple office functions.

She is married to Craig Duff, and the couple has two sons, Alex and Nathan.

TERI RIGGINS
FOOTBALL STAFF ASSISTANT

Teri Riggins has served as an assistant in the football office since 1998 and began her association with the athletic department in 1996. Riggins is in her 10th year as a football staff assistant, where she assists the Husker offensive coaches, among other duties. Previously she served as the recruiting staff assistant for six years, in addition to two seasons as the track and field office secretary.

Before joining the athletic department, she worked at Nebraska-Kearney for the Dean of the College of Education, in the Student Services office at Iowa Western CC and at Duncan Aviation.

An alumnus of the American Institute of Business in Des Moines, Iowa, Riggins and her husband, Jim, are the parents of Brenda Riggins and the late Jamie Riggins-Bayer. Teri and Jim have four grandchildren Josh, Victoria, Sam and Marc and one great-granddaughter.

MIKE NOBLER
VIDEO COORDINATOR

Mike Nobler is in his sixth year on the Nebraska staff in 2014, where he serves as football video coordinator. Nobler's primary responsibility lies in overseeing Nebraska's 45-client XOS coaching video network that is utilized by the football coaching staff on a daily basis. Nobler was honored for his work in the spring of 2012, when he was named the 2011-12 Big Ten Conference Video Coordinator of the Year, in addition to being a finalist for the Bob Matey National Video Coordinator of the Year Award.

Along with a video staff of eight, Nobler implements the video system for the day-to-day use by coaches, including the taping and editing of practice and games along with opponent video breakdowns. Nebraska was one of the first two schools to begin shooting, editing and distributing practice video in HD in the spring of 2011.

Nobler previously spent two years as a field representative for the maker of the Huskers' current video system, XOS Digital. He provided on-site support, installations of all software and hardware as well as staff training on the video system in college football and basketball and NFL video departments.

Nobler returned to a college football video department after spending four years as assistant video director at Oklahoma. Nobler also spent one year in a similar position at Illinois. A year earlier, he served a 12-month internship with the St. Louis Rams.

A native of Lake Villa, Ill., Nobler graduated from Western Illinois University in 2001 with a degree in communications. He is married to the former Heather Saluri, and the couple has a daughter, Madeline.

TATE GUILLOTTE
ASSISTANT VIDEO COORDINATOR

Tate Guillotte is in his fourth season as the assistant football video coordinator. Guillotte assists in providing all technology needs for the Husker coaching staff, including film exchange and breakdown of practice and game footage. Guillotte helps facilitate the filming and editing of all games and practice, as well as support digital playbooks for the entire Husker football team.

Guillotte came to Nebraska after spending two years as an intern with XOS and the SEC Digital Network. He also has previous experience working with a collegiate football team, as Guillotte was a student videographer at LSU from 2006 to 2010, where he was a part of the Tigers' 2007 national championship team.

Guillotte is originally from New Iberia, La. He and his wife, Melynnda, have one son, Carson.

TYLER CLARKE
ASSISTANT STRENGTH COACH

Tyler Clarke is in his sixth season as an assistant strength coach for the Nebraska football program in 2014. Like Head Football Strength Coach James Dobson, Clarke came to Nebraska from the University of Iowa, where he spent three seasons as an assistant strength and conditioning coach.

With the Huskers, Clarke assists Dobson with all aspects of the Nebraska strength and conditioning program for football, which includes winter conditioning, summer workouts and in-season training.

Previously, Clarke served as a student assistant with the Hawkeye strength and conditioning staff while working toward his degree. He earned his bachelor's degree in health and sports studies from Iowa in 2005 and his master's degree in administration from Central Michigan in 2008. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist through the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association. Clarke is also certified in CPR through the American Red Cross.

2014 SEASON MARKS NEBRASKA'S 125TH YEAR OF FOOTBALL

The 2014 season will mark the 125th year of intercollegiate football at Nebraska. Since the school's first football season in 1890, Nebraska has earned its place as one of the traditional national powers in college football.

The Huskers have won five national championships, 43 conference championships and last year became just the third school to appear in 50 bowl games. Since 1962 alone, Nebraska has produced nine or more wins in 46 of 52 seasons.

Nebraska will be celebrating its 125th season throughout 2014, most notably as part of the Homecoming festivities on the weekend of Sept. 27, when NU takes on Illinois at Memorial Stadium.

Nebraska will also honor the 20th anniversary of the 1994 national championship team. The team will gather for a reunion on the weekend of Sept. 19-20 when Nebraska hosts Miami at Memorial Stadium. The 1994 Huskers capped a perfect 13-0 season with a 24-17 victory over Miami in the Orange Bowl to give Tom Osborne his first national championship.

HUSKERS BID FOR SEVENTH STRAIGHT NINE-WIN SEASON

Nebraska posted a 9-4 record in 2013, capped by a victory over Georgia in the Gator Bowl. The nine-win season in 2013 was Nebraska's sixth straight under Head Coach Bo Pelini's leadership and put Nebraska in elite company.

»Nebraska is one of three schools that has won at least nine games each of the past six seasons, joining Alabama and Oregon.

»Pelini has guided Nebraska to 10-win seasons in three of his six seasons.

»Nebraska has 48 nine-win seasons in school history, including 40 since 1969.

PELINI STACKS UP WELL WITH PEERS

In guiding Nebraska to a 58-24 record, Pelini has put himself in impressive company.

» Among schools currently in a power conference, Pelini is just the eighth head coach in college football history to win at least nine games in each of his first six seasons on the job at that school. The group includes three Nebraska coaches (Bob Devaney, Tom Osborne, and Pelini).

» When looking only at coaches in their first head coaching job at a major conference school, Pelini is one of only three to win nine games in each of his first six years, joining Osborne and Barry Switzer (Oklahoma).

» Pelini was among a group of 18 FBS head coaches who were hired for their jobs beginning with the 2008 season. Pelini leads that group of 18 head coaches in victories over the past six years with 57 wins. In fact, Pelini is one of only six coaches in the group of 18 still in the job he was hired for prior to the 2008 season.

NEBRASKA AMONG BIG TEN'S BEST PAST THREE SEASONS

Nebraska finished 5-3 in Big Ten play in 2013 and has won 17 of 24 regular-season Big Ten games since joining the conference in 2011. Nebraska is the only team in the Big Ten to have a winning conference record each of the past three seasons. Overall, Nebraska has had a winning conference record each of the past six seasons, and is one of only eight schools in the country to accomplish that feat.

Nebraska's 17 conference wins since the start of the 2011 season are the third-most regular-season Big Ten victories in that time period. Nebraska captured the Legends Division crown and made a trip to the Big Ten Conference title game in 2012. The Huskers have won 11 of their last 14 regular-season Big Ten games.

BIG TEN TO FEATURE NEW DIVISIONS, BOWL DESTINATIONS IN 2014

When Nebraska joined the Big Ten in 2011, the conference began divisional play with the Legends and Leaders divisions. Nebraska competed in the Legends Division the past three seasons, including winning the divisional title in 2012.

With the addition of Maryland and Rutgers to the Big Ten for 2014, the conference once again has a new divisional alignment. This fall will mark the debut of the Big Ten East and West divisions.

Nebraska will compete in the West Division along with Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Northwestern, Purdue and Wisconsin. The East Division is comprised of Indiana, Maryland, Michigan State, Ohio State, Penn State and Rutgers.

In 2014 and 2015, the Big Ten will play an eight-game conference schedule before moving to a nine-game league slate in 2016. The next two seasons, Nebraska will play the other six members of the Big Ten West, as well as Michigan State and Rutgers from the East Division.

The divisional winners will meet in the Big Ten Championship Game at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis on Dec. 6, 2014.

The Big Ten will also debut new bowl agreements following the 2014 campaign. The most notable change is the new College Football Playoff which will pit the top four teams in semifinal games in the Rose Bowl and Sugar Bowl, followed by a national championship game at Cowboys Stadium. Other bowl games involved with the College Football Playoff in future years include the Fiesta Bowl, Orange Bowl, Cotton Bowl and Chick-Fil-A Peach Bowl.

The Big Ten will also continue its affiliations with the Capital One, Outback and Gator Bowls, with those games all played in January. The conference also has contracts with the Holiday Bowl, San Francisco Bowl, Music City Bowl, Pinstripe Bowl, Detroit Bowl, Heart of Dallas Bowl and the Armed Forces Bowl.

2014 SCHEDULE TO FEATURE SEVEN BOWL TEAMS

In 2014, Nebraska will face seven teams that participated in bowl games a year ago. The Huskers' non-conference schedule will open with home games against Florida Atlantic (Aug. 30) and 2013 FCS playoff participant McNeese State (Sept. 6).

NU will take to the road for the first time in 2014 on Sept. 13 with a trip to Fresno State for a matchup with a Bulldog team that won 11 games in 2013. The Fresno State game is the first of five straight prime-time contests for the Huskers. Nebraska closes non-conference play against Miami on Sept. 20 in Lincoln. The game will feature programs that combined for eight national championships from 1983 to 2001.

The Huskers open Big Ten action with Homecoming against Illinois on Sept. 27, followed by prime-time road games at defending Big Ten champion Michigan State on Oct. 4 and at Northwestern on Oct. 18. Nebraska will welcome both Rutgers (Oct. 25) and Purdue (Nov. 1) to Lincoln for the first time on back-to-back weekends.

The home stretch of the 2014 season will feature road trips to Wisconsin (Nov. 15) and Iowa (Nov. 28) sandwiched around the home finale against Minnesota on Nov. 22.

WARREN JOINS NEBRASKA COACHING STAFF

Pelini had just one change in his full-time coaching staff during the offseason. Charlton Warren joined the Huskers as secondary coach after spending the past nine seasons at Air Force, including the past two years as defensive coordinator.

Warren worked directly with the defensive backs all nine years with the Falcons. He also earned a reputation as the Falcons' top recruiter and coordinated Air Force's recruiting efforts from 2006 to 2011.

Air Force's secondary was a strong point for the Falcon defense during Warren's time in Colorado Springs. The Air Force pass defense often ranked among the best in the country, helping the Falcons to six bowl games in Warren's nine seasons as an assistant coach.

Warren joined a defensive staff led by John Papuchis, who enters his third season as defensive coordinator and seventh year overall on the Husker staff. Ross Els in his fourth season as the linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator, while defensive line coach Rick Kaczinski enters his third year at Nebraska.

On offense, Tim Beck is in his fourth season as offensive coordinator and seventh season overall on Pelini's staff. Ron Brown (running backs) and Barney Cotton (offensive line/tight ends) have also been on staff for each of Pelini's seven seasons. Rich Fisher (receivers) and John Garrison (offensive line) each enter their fourth season.

2014 HUSKER ROSTER REPRESENTS ALL PARTS OF UNITED STATES

Nebraska's 2014 roster will again be one of the most geographically diverse rosters in the country. The roster features players from 25 states as well as Canada.

Homestate Huskers dominate the roster with 60 players from Nebraska on the 2014 team. Texas provides Nebraska with its second-most players with 13 members of the 2014 team from the Lone Star state. Six other states have at least five players on the roster, including Illinois (7), Ohio (7), California (6), Florida (6), Louisiana (6) and Colorado (5).

Nebraska's recent recruiting classes are reflective of the Huskers' national approach to recruiting. The 24-player recruiting class in 2014 represented 13 states, including four players from Louisiana and three each from Texas, Nebraska and Florida. In fact, over the past four years, Nebraska's recruiting classes have included players from 25 states, as well as Canada.

» The Huskers have continued to make Texas recruiting a priority. Nebraska signed four players from Texas in February, marking the seventh straight year NU has had at least two players from the state. Pelini's first seven recruiting classes at Nebraska have included 37 signees from the Lone Star state.

» Nebraska signed three players from the Florida prep ranks for the second straight year. Prior to 2013, Nebraska had never signed more than two high school players from Florida in a single recruiting class.

In addition to the talented class of scholarship signees, Nebraska added 23 walk-on prospects to the program. The group of walk-ons included 18 in-state players and three out-of-state standouts. Nebraska has continued to make the walk-on program a major priority under Pelini's direction. The Husker program has added more than 130 walk-ons in seven seasons. Pelini has put 26 former walk-ons on scholarship during his time in Lincoln.

ABDULLAH LOOKS TO ADD TO HIS HUSKER LEGACY

Senior I-back Ameer Abdullah (left) enters 2014 as one of the nation's top returning rushers. He rushed for a Big Ten-leading 1,690 yards in 2013 and ranked seventh nationally in rushing yards per game. Abdullah also led the Big Ten and ranked 13th nationally in all-purpose yards per game.

Abdullah was a first-team All-Big Ten selection and was one of 10 semifinalists for the Doak Walker Award. Abdullah will be a leading contender for numerous national honors this fall, including the Doak Walker Award, first-team All-America honors and the Heisman Trophy.

Abdullah is the nation's active career leader in all-purpose yards and is third among active players in career rushing yards. His 17 career 100-yard rushing games are also the most among active players returning to the FBS ranks in 2014.

The Homewood, Ala., native not only ranks among the nation's statistical leaders, he has also put himself in lofty territory on Nebraska's career charts.

» Abdullah has topped 1,000 yards on the ground each of the past two seasons, and is one of only nine players in Nebraska history with a pair of 1,000-yard rushing seasons. This fall, Abdullah will attempt to become the first player in Husker history with three 1,000-yard seasons.

» Abdullah has 2,977 career rushing yards to rank eighth in school history. A third 1,000-yard rushing season would move him to No. 2 on Nebraska's all-time rushing list, trailing only 1983 Heisman winner Mike Rozier. Abdullah would need to rush for 1,803 yards in 2014 to match Rozier's school-record total of 4,780 yards.

» Abdullah's 1,690 yards in 2013 were fourth on the NU single-season rushing list. The rushing yardage total was the highest by a Nebraska player since 1997.

» Abdullah was the first Nebraska player to reach 1,000 rushing yards in eight or fewer games since Ahman Green in 1997.

- » Abdullah rushed for 100 or more yards in 11 of 13 games in 2013, including a career-high 225 yards against Illinois. His 11 100-yard games tied the school record, also held by Rozier, Green and Lawrence Phillips. He rushed for 100 yards in eight straight games last season, tying the fourth-longest streak in school history.
- » Abdullah has 17 career 100-yard rushing efforts, tying Eric Crouch for the third-most in school history. The 17 100-yard games, trails only Rozier (26) and Green (20) on the NU career list.
- » In addition to his running skills, Abdullah is a receiving threat out of the backfield. He had 26 receptions for 232 yards and two touchdowns in 2013 and has 51 career receptions.
- » Abdullah had 1,999 all-purpose yards in 2013, the No. 3 single-season total in school history. With 4,914 career all-purpose yards, Abdullah is 672 all-purpose yards from the top spot on the NU career list. He trails only Heisman winners Rozier and Johnny Rodgers in that category.
- » Abdullah has scored a total of 26 touchdowns during his Nebraska career, and has reached the end zone four different ways. He has 20 career rushing touchdowns, including nine in 2013, four receiving touchdowns, as well as a punt return touchdown and a touchdown on a kickoff return.

NU LOOKS TO KEEP RUNNING GAME ROLLING IN 2014

- » Nebraska has featured one of the nation's top rushing attacks over the past several seasons, and will hope to do so again this fall. Nebraska finished third in the Big Ten and 19th nationally in rushing in 2013, averaging 215.7 yards per game on the ground.
- » Nebraska topped 300 yards on the ground three times in 2013, and has reached that milestone 15 times under Pelini. The Huskers are 15-0 in those games.
- » Nebraska's 335 rushing yards against Illinois in 2013 marked its second-highest total in a Big Ten Conference game and its most since rushing for 346 yards at Minnesota in 2011.
- » Nebraska has reached at least 200 rushing yards in 17 games since the start of the 2012 season, including five times in 2013. Nebraska was 5-0 in 2013 when rushing for at least 200 yards.
- » Four Husker players ran for at least 75 yards in the season opener against Wyoming, marking the first time NU has reached that group milestone since four Huskers topped the century mark on the ground at Baylor in 2001.
- » The 2013 rushing success continued Nebraska's recent surge on the ground. Nebraska has averaged better than 200 rushing yards per game for four straight seasons, and has ranked in the top 20 nationally in that category each year from 2010 to 2013. Nebraska led the Big Ten in rushing in 2012, and topped the Big 12 in rushing offense in 2010.
- » With Ameer Abdullah posting 1,690 rushing yards in 2013, Nebraska has had a 1,000-yard rusher each of the past five seasons. That is the longest stretch for NU since the Huskers had at least one 1,000-yard rusher from 1991 to 1995.

NU RUNNING BACKS ARE AMONG NATION'S TOP RETURNING GROUPS

- » Led by Abdullah, Nebraska's returning group of I-backs for the 2014 season is regarded as one of the nation's top position groups. Four returning I-backs combined to rush for 2,459 yards in 2013. That group includes Abdullah (1,690 yards), junior Imani Cross (447), sophomore Terrell Newby (298) and sophomore walk-on Graham Nabity (24).
- » The 2,459 rushing yards by Nebraska's running backs are the third-most returning rushing yards for any group of running backs in the country. Army leads the way with 2,520 yards, followed by Alabama (2,485) and Nebraska.
- » When including all positions, Nebraska returns 2,699 rushing yards from 2013, the sixth most in the nation.

BELL POISED TO MOVE TO TOP OF NU RECEIVING LISTS

Abdullah is not the only Husker offensive playmaker poised to leave a legacy in the Nebraska statistical record books in 2014. Receiver Kenny Bell has been a regular in the starting lineup the past three seasons and is in position to break the Husker career records for receptions and receiving yards.

Bell battled through nagging injuries as a junior to lead Nebraska with 52 receptions for 577 yards and four touchdowns. His play earned the 6-1, 185-pound Bell honorable-mention All-Big Ten accolades, after he was a second-team choice as a sophomore in 2012.

Bell enters 2014 with 134 career catches for a total of 1,901 receiving yards. His 134 catches rank fifth in school history, 32 catches behind career record holder Nate Swift. Bell has 1,901 career receiving yards to rank third in school history. He sits 578 yards from Johnny Rodgers' school-record 2,479 career receiving yards.

- » Bell has led Nebraska in receptions for each of the past three seasons, becoming the first player to do so since Matt Davison from 1998 to 2000. In 2014, Bell could become the first player in school history to lead the team in receptions for four straight seasons.
- » Bell has topped 50 receptions each of the past two years and could become the first player in Nebraska history with three seasons of 50 or more receptions.
- » Bell has 15 career TD catches to rank in a tie for fourth in school history. Bell has a knack for the big play. Each of his last 13 touchdown receptions have covered at least 20 yards, including all four of his TD catches in 2013.
- » Bell was also a strong threat in the kickoff return game in 2013. He averaged 26.5 yards per return, highlighted by a 99-yard kickoff return for a touchdown at Penn State. Bell ranked first in the Big Ten and 18th nationally in yards per kickoff return.
- » Bell had a standout sophomore season with 863 receiving yards, the fourth-highest single-season total in NU history and the most by a Husker sophomore.
- » Bell had a streak of 23 straight games with a catch end at Iowa in 2012, the third-longest streak in NU history.
- » Bell reached the 1,000-yard career receiving mark in 20 games, making him the second-fastest Husker to reach that mark. Only Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Rodgers reached 1,000 career receiving yards in fewer games.

GREGORY SET TO LEAD BLACKSHIRTS

Nebraska defensive end Randy Gregory (right) immediately showed he was one of the Big Ten's top newcomers in 2013. By season's end, Gregory reached another level and was one of the nation's top overall defenders.

Gregory was a first-team All-Big Ten choice for his play and was also named the Nebraska Team Defensive MVP in his first season in the program. He is in line to contend for national honors in 2014.

The 6-6 Gregory led the Big Ten with 10.5 sacks for 69 yards in losses. Gregory's 0.8 sacks per game ranked 15th nationally. Gregory was at his best in conference play, with nine of his sacks coming in Big Ten action. Gregory's nine sacks in conference play were 2.5 more than any other Big Ten defender.

Gregory had a season-high three sacks at Michigan, and added 2.5 sacks against Purdue, with one of those resulting in a Husker safety. Gregory had at least one sack in six of eight Big Ten games, including five straight games from the Purdue through Michigan State contests. He closed the year with a sack and two tackles for loss in the Gator Bowl victory over Georgia.

Gregory finished with a team-leading 19 TFL for 101 yards in losses and had a team-high 18 hurries, including four against Michigan State. He added an interception return for a touchdown against South Dakota State and also recovered a fumble and forced a fumble.

Gregory was a dominant force at Michigan, keying a Blackshirt defense that recorded seven sacks and limited Michigan to -21 rushing yards. Gregory had three sacks for 14 yards in losses, including a key sack on the Wolverines' final offensive possession. He added a 10-yard tackle for loss. Gregory's play was recognized as he was the co-Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week.

» Gregory's 10.5 sacks were the most ever for a Nebraska newcomer, while his 9.0 sacks in league games were just one shy of the most ever by a Nebraska player in a conference season. Jim Skow had 10.0 sacks in seven Big Eight games in 1985.

» The 10.5 sacks by Gregory ranked ninth on the NU single-season chart, while his 19 tackles for loss tied for ninth, matching the total of Ndamukong Suh from his junior season in 2008.

HUSKERS SHOW ABILITY TO RALLY; WIN CLOSE GAMES

Nebraska posted a 5-0 record in 2013 in games decided by seven or fewer points, including four close wins after Nov. 1. The Huskers' posted three close Big Ten wins against Northwestern (3 points), Michigan (4 points) and Penn State (3 points, OT). Nebraska also posted a three-point victory over Wyoming in the season opener, and finished the 2013 season with a five-point win over Georgia in the Gator Bowl.

Nebraska has won nine straight games decided by seven or fewer points, dating back to the 2012 season. The nine straight wins mark the longest winning streak in the nation in games decided by seven or fewer points.

» Nebraska rallied from a 21-7 deficit for a win against Northwestern. That game marked Nebraska's fifth win in Big Ten play over the last two seasons when trailing by double digits. Nebraska also rallied from double-figure deficits for conference wins in 2012 against Wisconsin (17 points), Northwestern (12 points), Michigan State (10 points) and Penn State (14 points).

» Nebraska has won six Big Ten games in the past two seasons after trailing in the fourth quarter, including three in 2013 (Northwestern, Michigan and Penn State). Nebraska also trailed Northwestern, Michigan State and Penn State in the fourth quarter before winning in 2012.

HUSKER SENIOR CLASS MAKING THE GRADE

Nebraska has a long history of academic success, and the 2014 team is poised to carry on that tradition. Nebraska leads the nation in academic All-Americans in football with 107 all-time first- or second-team selections. Nebraska also leads the way across all sports with 314 academic All-Americans.

Nebraska has had 11 academic All-Americans in Bo Pelini's six seasons as head coach, the second-most in the nation in that time period.

» All 13 members of Nebraska's 2014 senior class have already graduated or are on track to earn their degree by the completion of the fall semester.

» Among the group, safety Corey Cooper earned his degree in May, while linebacker Zaire Anderson and offensive guard Jake Cotton are expected to graduate in August. The other 10 members of the class are on pace to graduate this December.

The 2014 senior class is reflective of the academic commitment of Pelini's previous senior classes. Among his first six senior classes, 122 of 132 players are on track to earn their degree by this August.

Nebraska was also one of only 13 Football Bowl Subdivision programs to earn Public Recognition for high achievement in the Academic Progress Rate (APR). The Huskers ranked in the top 10 percent nationally among FBS schools. NU was joined by Wisconsin and Northwestern of the Big Ten, along with incoming Big Ten member Rutgers.

NCAA RECORD SELLOUT STREAK CONTINUES

One of the most remarkable streaks in collegiate sports passed its 50th anniversary in 2012. Nebraska has sold out every game at Memorial Stadium since Nov. 3, 1962, and the streak now stands at 333 games.

NU celebrated the 300th consecutive sellout at Memorial Stadium on Sept. 26, 2009, against Louisiana-Lafayette, with a then-stadium record crowd of 86,304. Notre Dame is second in all-time consecutive sellouts with 239, 94 fewer than the Huskers. Nebraska established a new stadium record for attendance against UCLA on Sept. 14 with a crowd of 91,471. The crowd ranked as the 10th-largest to see any Nebraska game.

HUSKERS OWN BIG ADVANTAGE AT MEMORIAL STADIUM

Nebraska has rewarded the loyalty of its fans with great success at Memorial Stadium through the years.

» Nebraska has won at least six home games in 22 of the past 28 seasons. Nebraska is 153-23 (.869) at home in the last 25 seasons (since 1989).

» Nebraska finished 7-0 at home in 2012 and is 24-5 at home the past four seasons. Nebraska's perfect home season in 2012 was its first since 2001.

» The Huskers are 9-3 in Big Ten home games since joining the league in 2011.

» During Nebraska's run of success at home in the past three decades, NU has had three home winning streaks of 20 or more games, and overall has posted 41 unbeaten and untied home seasons.

» The Huskers are 522-142-20 (.778, 684 games, 124 years) in Lincoln, and 397-119-13 (.762, 529 games, 90 years) in Memorial Stadium (since 1923).

» The 2013 season marked the 45th straight year NU had a winning home season.

NEBRASKA RANKS IN TOP 10 NATIONALLY IN ATTENDANCE

Memorial Stadium was once again packed for every home game in 2013, putting Nebraska in the top 10 nationally in average attendance.

Nebraska was ninth in average home attendance at 90,933 fans per game, according to 2013 attendance figures released by the NCAA. The average attendance for eight home games was the largest ever at Memorial Stadium following the East Stadium Expansion project that was completed before the start of the 2013 season.

The No. 9 ranking in average attendance was the highest for Nebraska since full attendance figures are available beginning with the 1999 season. NU has ranked in the top 20 nationally in attendance each of the 15 years with available attendance figures. NU was also in the top 10 in 2009, checking in at No. 10 in average attendance.

Nebraska was one of four Big Ten schools to rank in the top 10 in average attendance and the conference had seven teams in the top 25 nationally in attendance. Michigan was the national leader in average attendance at 111,592 fans per game with Ohio State second and Penn State fifth in average home attendance.

In terms of total attendance for home games, Nebraska was third in the nation with 727,466 fans passing through Memorial Stadium's gates for eight home games. For all games (home and away) in 2013, Nebraska ranked fifth with 1,096,097 fans in attendance during NU's 13 games in 2013.

» Nebraska's impressive football attendance is reflective of the overall support of the Husker fan base. Nebraska was the only school in the country in 2013-14 to rank in the top 15 nationally in average attendance in football, volleyball, men's basketball, women's basketball and baseball. Nebraska combined for 1,321,428 fans in those five sports last season.

800-WIN CLUB

Nebraska is one of eight programs with 800 all-time victories, and NU's 865 all-time victories are fourth nationally.

1.	Michigan	910
2.	Texas	875
3.	Notre Dame	874
4.	Nebraska	865
5.	Ohio State	849
6.	Oklahoma	842
7.	Alabama	838
8.	Tennessee	804

Entering its 125th season of football, Nebraska owns an 865-357-40 all-time record in 1,262 games (.701).

» Since the first season of Nebraska football in 1890, Husker teams have won 11 or more games 12 times, including seven times since 1993.

» Nebraska has won 12 or more games seven times, including three seasons with 13 wins (1971, 1994, 1997).

NATION'S BEST SINCE '70

Nebraska ranks as the nation's winningest program since 1970. During the past four decades, the Huskers have compiled a 431-116-5 record, for a .785 winning percentage in 552 games. NU's 431 wins in that time period are 24 more than any other school.

1.	Nebraska	431
2.	Oklahoma	407
3.	Ohio State	396
4.	Michigan	393

» Nebraska has 40 nine-win seasons and 24 10-win seasons since 1970. NU has posted six straight nine-win seasons for the first time since an NCAA-record 33 straight from 1969 to 2001.

NEBRASKA REACHES 50 BOWL APPEARANCES

Nebraska participated in its 50th all-time bowl game with its appearance in the TaxSlayer.com Gator Bowl on Jan. 1, 2014. Nebraska joined Alabama (60) and Texas (52) as the only schools to play in 50 bowl games in school history.

The Huskers have played in the postseason in 43 of the past 45 seasons, including an NCAA-record 35 straight bowl games from 1969 to 2003. Nebraska owns a 25-25 all-time bowl record. Nebraska's 25 all-time bowl victories rank seventh nationally.

Nebraska is 3-3 in bowl games during Bo Pelini's tenure as full-time head coach and 4-3 under Pelini overall, including the 2003 Alamo Bowl when he served as interim head coach.

Nebraska played the first of its 50 bowls in the Rose Bowl, when No. 7 Nebraska lost to No. 2 Stanford, 21-13, following the 1940 season. Nebraska's 35 consecutive bowls began with a 45-6 win over Georgia in the 1969 Sun Bowl, and ended following its appearance in the 2003 Alamo Bowl. The Huskers have won 11 of 18 bowl games since the 1994 season.

HUSKERS LOOK TO CONTINUE SEASON-OPENING STREAK

Nebraska will look to extend its streak of winning its season opener to 29 straight years when the Huskers take on Florida Atlantic on Aug. 30. The Owls were Nebraska's season-opening foe in 2008 in Pelini's first season as head coach. The 37-34 win over Wyoming in 2013 was Nebraska's 28th straight win in a season opener, dating back to a 1985 loss to Florida State.

The streak leads the nation, bettering Florida's 24 straight season-opening wins. Nebraska has scored at least 37 points in each of its six season openers under Coach Bo Pelini, and has scored 40 or more points in 20 of the past 28 seasons. During the win streak, NU has limited opponents to 14 points or less 18 times.

2014 OUTLOOK

I-back Ameer Abdullah heads into his senior season as a leading contender for All-America and other national honors. The 5-9, 195-pound Abdullah also has several Nebraska career records within his reach entering the 2014 season.

Abdullah put together the most prolific rushing season by a Nebraska player in more than a decade in 2013. A workhorse for the Nebraska offense, Abdullah produced his second consecutive 1,000-yard rushing season, topping 100 yards rushing in 11 of 13 games.

Abdullah finished his junior season with 1,690 rushing yards, the highest yardage total for a Husker since Ahman Green in 1997, and the fourth-best total in school history. His 11 100-yard rushing games tied the Nebraska school record.

His standout play netted Abdullah several individual awards in 2013. He was chosen as a first-team All-Big Ten performer by both the league's coaches and media panel, a year after being a second-team all-conference pick. Abdullah was also one of 10 semifinalists for the Doak Walker Award.

Abdullah enters his senior campaign with 2,977 career rushing yards, leaving him just 23 yards from becoming the eighth Husker to rush for 3,000 yards. His career rushing total is the third-most among active FBS players entering the 2014 season.

In 2014, Abdullah will attempt to become the first player in school history to post a trio of 1,000-yard rushing seasons. If Abdullah were to reach that milestone, he would also move to the No. 2 spot on the NU career rushing list. He enters 2014 with an outside chance of threatening Mike Rozier's career rushing mark of 4,780 yards.

The Alabama native has also been a receiving and return threat throughout his Husker career. He comes into 2014 with 4,914 career all-purpose yards, the most among active FBS players and third on the Husker career chart. He needs less than 700 all-purpose yards this fall to move past Heisman winners Rozier and Johnny Rodgers to the top of Nebraska's career all-purpose yardage list.

Abdullah also leads all active FBS players in career 100-yard rushing games with 17 entering 2014. The total ties Eric Crouch for third in Nebraska history, trailing only Rozier (26) and Green (20).

Abdullah's 1,859 all-purpose yards in 2013 were the sixth-most in school history.

In addition to his on-field excellence, Abdullah was named to the Academic All-Big Ten team last fall. He is on track to earn his degree in history in December, completing his undergraduate work in just 3 1/2 years. He is also one of the most active Huskers in community outreach efforts.

Abdullah ran for 1,690 yards and nine touchdowns on 281 carries during the 2013 season. Abdullah topped 100 yards in 11 of 13 games, including a career-high 225 yards against Illinois. He had a streak of eight straight games with 100 yards, and topped 85 yards in all 13 games.

Abdullah averaged 130.0 rushing yards per game to rank second in the Big Ten and seventh nationally. In conference games, he was even better, averaging 137.9 yards per game to again rank second in the conference.

Abdullah was also Nebraska's third-leading receiver with 26 receptions for 232 yards and two touchdowns. His all-around ability placed him first in the conference and 13th nationally in all-purpose yards per game, averaging 153.8 yards per game.

Abdullah averaged 6.0 yards per carry and carried the ball more than 20 times nine times in 2013, including each of the final six games. While showing the ability to carry a heavy load, Abdullah also provided a big-play threat in the running game. He had eight runs of 30 yards or more, ranking among the national leaders in that category.

Abdullah opened the year with 114 yards against Wyoming, including a career-long 62-yard run in the second quarter. He also ran for 114 yards and two touchdowns against Southern Miss. Abdullah was limited to 98 yards against UCLA, but accounted for 148 all-purpose yards in the contest. He closed non-conference play with 139 rushing yards and 185 all-purpose yards against South Dakota State.

He enjoyed a career day against Illinois, rushing for a career-high 225 yards and two touchdowns on just 20 carries, the most rushing yards for a Husker since 2010. Abdullah had three runs of 30 yards or more against the Fighting Illini, including a spectacular 43-yard TD run in the third quarter. He was named Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week for his effort.

Abdullah surpassed the 2,000-yard career rushing mark at Purdue when he rushed 20 times for 126 yards and a touchdown. Abdullah had an excellent effort in a loss at Minnesota, rushing 19 times for 165 yards.

He ran 24 times for 127 yards against Northwestern to move past 1,000 rushing yards on the season. He was the first NU player to break the 1,000-yard mark in eight games since Ahman Green in 1997. Abdullah also caught three passes for 31 yards on the game-winning drive in the final seconds, including a 16-yard catch and run to convert a 4th-and-15 and keep NU's hopes alive.

Abdullah rushed for 105 hard-fought yards on 27 carries in a 17-13 win at Michigan. He also caught a five-yard touchdown pass in the final minutes to provide the winning score. Abdullah rushed 22 times for 123 yards against Michigan State's top-ranked rushing defense. He was the first runner to top 100 yards against the Spartans since he and Taylor Martinez both did it at MSU in 2012.

Abdullah posted his eighth straight 100-yard rushing game at Penn State with 25 carries for 147 yards, including a 50-yard run to set up a tying field goal in the fourth quarter. He closed the regular season with 23 carries for 85 yards and a touchdown against Iowa. Abdullah posted his 11th 100-yard game of the season in the Gator Bowl win over Georgia, rushing 27 times for 122 yards and a touchdown against the Bulldog defense.

Abdullah played in all 14 games with seven starts and helped Nebraska lead the Big Ten in both rushing and total offense. He rushed 226 times for 1,137 yards and eight touchdowns as a sophomore after he was thrust into a leading role following an early-season injury to senior Rex Burkhead.

Abdullah ran for at least 100 yards in each of his first five starts, the first Nebraska player to accomplish that since 1994. He finished the year with six 100-yard rushing games. His 81.2 rushing yards per game were ninth in the Big Ten, and he ranked fourth in the conference in all-purpose yards per game at 134.6 yards per game. Abdullah earned second-team All-Big Ten honors from the league's coaches for his effort as a sophomore.

Abdullah carried the ball more than 15 times in eight games, including 30 or more carries against both Arkansas State and Penn State. Out of the backfield, Abdullah caught 24 passes for 178 yards and two touchdowns. He averaged 21.2 yards on 17 kickoff returns to rank in the top 10 in the conference and 13.1 yards on 16 punt returns.

After Burkhead went down early in the Southern Miss contest, Abdullah took over as the lead back and rushed 15 times for 81 yards. He also caught four passes in the game, including his first career receiving touchdown.

Abdullah earned his first career start at UCLA and responded with 16 carries for 119 yards and two touchdowns. Abdullah rushed for a season-high 167 yards on 30 carries against Arkansas State, including a season-long 45-yard run. A week later, he had an 81-yard punt return for a touchdown.

Abdullah produced one of the most prolific all-purpose games in school history against Wisconsin. He totaled 252 all-purpose yards, including five kickoff returns for 142 yards, highlighted by an 83-yard return in the first quarter. He also ran 10 times for 70 yards and had 22 receiving yards. Abdullah also had a big night in the return game at Ohio State with eight returns for 128 yards, and scored a pair of rushing touchdowns against the Buckeyes.

Abdullah helped key Nebraska's six-game win streak in the second half of the regular season. He ran 19 times for 101 yards at Northwestern in a 29-28 win, then had 24 carries for 101 hard-fought yards in a 23-9 victory over Michigan in Lincoln, including 85 rushing yards after halftime.

Abdullah ran for 110 yards on 22 carries at Michigan State and caught a touchdown pass in the game. He was a workhorse in a comeback win against Penn State, carrying a career-high 31 times for 116 yards. Abdullah carried 18 times for 79 yards against Minnesota to move past 1,000 rushing yards.

With Burkhead returning to action for the final three games, Abdullah's number of carries decreased, however he ran for a combined 127 yards on 39 carries in the final three games of the year to finish with 1,137 yards.

2011 (FRESHMAN)

Abdullah saw action in every game as a true freshman. He rushed for 150 yards and three touchdowns, reaching the end zone against Penn State, Michigan and South Carolina. He was also one of the nation's most dangerous return threats. Abdullah averaged 29.3 yards on 26 kickoff returns, including a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown against Fresno State. He set a school-record with 211 kickoff return yards against the Bulldogs. Abdullah ranked ninth nationally in kickoff return average and also averaged better than seven yards on 15 punt returns.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (HOMewood HS)

Abdullah was a running and receiving threat for Homewood High School and Coach Dickey Wright. Abdullah rushed for 1,800 yards and 24 touchdowns, while catching 33 passes for 515 yards as a senior. He also scored four touchdowns on punt returns to help Homewood to a 6-4 record.

Abdullah was named the South region player of the year by the Birmingham News. He scored the winning TD in the Mississippi-Alabama All-Star Classic, and was selected to participate in the Offense-Defense All-American bowl, where he starred as a defensive back.

As a junior, Abdullah rushed for more than 1,000 yards and had 24 catches for more than 200 yards. Rivals.com ranked him as one of the top 20 "athlete" prospects in the country and one of the top 10 players in Alabama. He was also ranked as one of the nation's top 60 running backs by Scout.com. Abdullah chose Nebraska after also visiting Tennessee and Vanderbilt, and he had a host of offers including USC, Texas A&M and South Carolina.

PERSONAL

Ameer is the son of Kareem and Aisha Abdullah, and he was born on June 13, 1993. Abdullah has volunteered time with at the Bryan LGH Kid's Health and Safety Fair, Belmont Elementary School, Randolph Elementary, Madonna Rehabilitation Center, Nebraska Sportsmanship Rally, team hospital visits, the Belmont Rec Center, and the Uplifting Athletes Road Races. For his efforts in the community, Abdullah was named to both the 2014 Brook Berringer Citizenship Team and the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team.

Abdullah was honored as a Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Award winner in both 2012 and 2014. Abdullah is majoring in history, and he has been named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll three times, in addition to his selection to the 2013 Academic All-Big Ten team.

TOLEDO, OHIO | WHITMER
ONE LETTER

- » Honorable-Mention Big Ten All-Freshman Team (BTN, 2013)
- » Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Spring, 2014)

Sophomore LeRoy Alexander is one of several young players in the Nebraska secondary expected to play an increased role for the Blackshirts in 2014. The 6-0, 195-pound Alexander earned a spot in the regular rotation at safety last season and showed the ability to be a quality performer for the next three seasons.

Alexander had an outstanding spring and is a leading contender for a starting safety job this fall. Senior Corey Cooper returns at one spot, with Alexander and fellow sophomore Nate Gerry the other two top safeties heading into fall camp. In addition to his role in the secondary last fall, Alexander also stepped up on special teams and could factor into those units this season.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Alexander played in all 13 games both at safety and on special teams. He earned his only start of the season at Purdue, when Nebraska opened with six defensive backs.

Alexander finished with 34 tackles, including 28 solo stops, and made 27 of his tackles in the final six games. He had a season-high five tackles in games against Penn State, Michigan State, Northwestern and Georgia in the Gator Bowl. Alexander also made four stops, including a tackle for loss, against Iowa.

He had his first career interception at Purdue and broke up a pass against the Boilermakers. Alexander added a fumble recovery against Illinois. Alexander was among the special teams leaders with five stops on coverage units.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Alexander redshirted in his first season in the Nebraska program in 2012.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (WHITMER HS)

Alexander was a versatile player who starred as a senior at Whitmer High School in Toledo, Ohio, helping Coach Joe Palka's team to a 13-1 record. Whitmer advanced to the Division I (largest class) state semifinals before losing to eventual state champion Cleveland St. Ignatius.

Alexander was a valuable member of the secondary, racking up 43 tackles, seven pass breakups and a pair of interceptions. He was also an explosive threat on offense, with 60 rushes for 665 yards and eight touchdowns. He also had one touchdown reception.

Alexander played at Springfield High in Holland, Ohio, as a sophomore and junior before transferring for his senior season. Alexander helped Springfield to a 9-3 record in 2010, when he was a teammate of NU junior defensive lineman Kevin Williams. Alexander also had a scholarship offer from Toledo, and was drawing strong interest from Michigan State before deciding on Nebraska. Alexander was ranked as the No. 60 "athlete" prospect in the country according to Rivals.com. A talented two-sport standout, Alexander was an honorable-mention all-state pick in basketball for Springfield High School in 2011, and he helped Whitmer to a 23-2 record and top-10 ranking in Ohio in 2012.

PERSONAL

Alexander was born on Jan. 20, 1994, and he is the son of LeRoy and Theresa Alexander. He is majoring in sociology and earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll for the spring 2014 semester. Alexander has volunteered his time with the Uplifting Athletes Road Race, the Bryan LGH Kids Health and Safety Fair, local hospital and community center outreach events, Husker Heroes and at College View Academy as a guest reader.

TAARIQ ALLEN #7
WIDE RECEIVER | 6-3 | 200 | JUNIOR
WESTON, MASS. | THE RIVERS SCHOOL
TWO LETTERS

- » Academic All-Big Ten (2012, 2013)
- » Three-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll
- » Pat Clare Award (2013)

Junior Taariq Allen is among a talented group of receivers looking to battle for playing time in the Husker offensive attack in 2014. The 6-3, 200-pound Allen showed great promise as a redshirt freshman in 2012, but suffered a serious knee injury late in the season and was not near full strength until late in the 2013 season.

Allen continued to make progress throughout the offseason and during spring practice. He will enter the fall back at full strength and ready to compete for significant playing time. Allen could provide a big target in a deep receiving corps that returns seven of its top eight players for 2014. Allen is a two-time Academic All-Big Ten selection.

Allen played in 10 games, including all eight Big Ten Conference games. In addition to providing depth at receiver, Allen also saw action on special teams. He finished the season with three catches for 22 yards, all coming against Michigan State.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Allen played in the first eight games at receiver and on special teams. He caught two passes for 11 yards at Northwestern, highlighted by an eight-yard touchdown reception in the fourth quarter. The TD catch pulled Nebraska within five points as the Huskers rallied from a 12-point deficit to win. Allen suffered a knee injury on kickoff coverage the following week against Michigan and missed the rest of the season.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

Allen redshirted in his first season in 2011.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (THE RIVERS SCHOOL)

Allen was a standout at the Rivers School in Weston, Mass., where his head coach was Nebraska receivers coach Rich Fisher. Allen was the first Husker signee from Massachusetts since Grant Miller in 2002. Allen was a key factor in 2010 for The Rivers School, which finished 8-1, with its only loss in the Norm Walker Bowl, which determined the independent school state champion.

Allen had 36 catches for 660 yards and eight touchdowns and had 69 carries for 706 yards and eight touchdowns as a senior. Allen also played defensive back and totaled 60 tackles, four interceptions, a sack and a fumble recovery. Allen earned first-team All-New England accolades and first-team all-league honors as a junior after recording more than 600 receiving yards and better than 500 yards on the ground, while combining for 15 touchdowns. He also had two interceptions and two fumbles caused on defense. In addition, Allen was a standout on the basketball court for The Rivers School.

Allen was rated as the fifth-best prospect in Massachusetts by Rivals.com and was among the top 10 recruits in New England according to SuperPrep. Allen only visited NU, but also had offers from Connecticut, Wisconsin and Tulane.

PERSONAL

Taariq is the son of Fred and Christy Allen and was born on July 26, 1992. Allen has been active in the community during his time in Lincoln. He has volunteered time with hospital visits, Husker Heroes, Make-a-Wish and Uplifting Athletes. Allen is majoring in child, youth and family sciences, and has been named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll three times.

LINEBACKER | 5-11 | 220 | SENIOR

Zaire Anderson is a key part of a deep and talented Husker linebacking corps that could be a strength for the 2014 Blackshirt defense. The 5-11, 220-pound Anderson emerged in the second half of the 2013 season as a consistent performer, helping Nebraska's defense make steady improvements throughout Big Ten action.

Anderson has the versatility to play either of Nebraska's outside linebacker spots. He is a physical defender against the run and continues to grow in pass coverage. Anderson was outstanding during spring practice, and is one of six returning letterwinners at linebacker, including five players with starting experience.

Anderson joined the Nebraska program after two seasons at Riverside (Calif.) Community College. He is on track to earn his degree in child, youth and family sciences this August.

Anderson played in 12 games, and started five of the season's final seven contests. He was fifth on the team with 52 tackles, including 28 solo stops. Anderson made 35 of his tackles over the final seven games, and had five games in 2013 with six or more tackles. He had six tackles for loss on the year, including three sacks for 22 yards.

Anderson made three tackles each against Southern Miss and UCLA in non-conference play, then had a strong performance against South Dakota State. Anderson made 10 tackles against the Jackrabbits after entering the game with 10 career tackles. He also had his first career sack in the fourth quarter.

Anderson posted a career-high 11 tackles against Minnesota's power running attack. He had a strong game at Michigan with six tackles, including five solo stops, and also had a career-high two sacks for 15 yards. He tied for the team lead with eight stops against Michigan State, including a tackle for loss. Anderson closed the regular season with six tackles against Iowa and made four tackles, including three solo stops, in the Gator Bowl.

2012 (MEDICAL HARDSHIP)

Anderson played in three games in 2012 before suffering a knee injury, and received a medical hardship. Anderson had four tackles before his injury.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (FRANKFORD HS/RIVERSIDE CC)

Anderson starred at Riverside (Calif.) City College in 2010 and 2011. He helped Coach Tom Craft's team to a 21-1 record in two years, including a perfect 11-0 record in 2011.

Anderson was a playmaker at linebacker, finishing 2011 with 95 tackles, including 19 tackles for loss, 6.5 sacks, two forced fumbles, two pass breakups and a fumble recovery. In his final game at Riverside, Anderson had 12 tackles, 4.5 tackles for loss, 3.5 sacks and forced two fumbles in a 31-14 bowl victory over Saddleback Junior College. For his play in 2011, Anderson was named a JC Gridwire All-American and the National Division East Conference Defensive Player of the Year. In 2010, Anderson had 92 tackles, 17 tackles for loss and nine sacks to earn second-team all-conference honors.

A native of Philadelphia, Pa., Anderson starred at Frankford High School where he was a first-team All-Philadelphia Public selection in his senior season. He was the first Pennsylvania native to sign with Nebraska since 1999. Anderson was regarded as the top junior college linebacker prospect and No. 13 overall JUCO player by Rivals.com, while JC Gridiron.com named him as one of its "Dirty Dozen" Outside Linebackers. Anderson only visited Nebraska but had numerous scholarship offers, including Texas Tech, Mississippi State and Kentucky.

PERSONAL

Zaire is the son of Walter Anderson and Kim Hawkins, and he was born on Aug. 18, 1992. Anderson is majoring in child, youth and family sciences. He was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll during the spring 2014 semester. He has volunteered his time with hospital visits, local community center outreach events, NFL Play 60 and at the UNL Children's Center.

2014 OUTLOOK

Tommy Armstrong Jr. was one of three quarterbacks to play a key role for the Huskers in 2013. Armstrong played in nine games as a redshirt freshman and made eight starts following an early-season injury to four-year starter Taylor Martinez.

With both Martinez and fellow 2013 senior Ron Kellogg III having graduated, Armstrong is the frontrunner to hold down the starting job this fall. Armstrong proved last season he was up to the challenge, posting a 7-1 record as the starter after being thrust into the role.

The 6-1, 220-pound Armstrong flashed his ability as both a passer and runner during his time under center in 2013. Armstrong finished the 2013 season with 966 yards passing and nine touchdowns through the air, while rushing for 202 yards and two scores. Armstrong completed 51.9 percent of his passes last fall and worked during the offseason to increase his efficiency in the passing game.

Armstrong began the season as the co-No. 2 quarterback behind Martinez, but became the Huskers' starter during the second half of the season. Armstrong saw limited action against Southern Miss in his only playing time during the first three games.

With Martinez sidelined, Armstrong made his first career start against South Dakota State, and he completed 12-of-15 passes for 169 yards and a touchdown, and rushed five times for 38 yards. He guided Nebraska to touchdowns on each of his first three drives. Armstrong completed 8-of-13 passes for 135 yards and two touchdowns against Illinois, and also rushed for 18 yards.

Armstrong split time with Kellogg in a win at Purdue and scored his first career rushing touchdown, a three-yard first-quarter run. He also passed for 43 yards. Armstrong did not play at Minnesota, then made his fourth start vs. Northwestern. He rushed 17 times for a career-high 69 yards, including a five-yard TD on the game's opening drive. He also completed 15-of-29 passes for a career-high 173 yards and a touchdown.

Armstrong showed his poise in leading the Huskers to a 17-13 win at Michigan, snapping the Wolverines' 19-game home winning streak. Armstrong threw for 139 yards, including a game-winning touchdown to Ameer Abdullah with 2:03 left. Armstrong was 5-for-7 for 59 yards passing and added seven yards rushing on the game-winning drive.

He suffered his only loss as a starter against Michigan State, when he threw for 143 yards and two touchdown passes, a 32-yard strike to Sam Burch and a 38-yard pass to Kenny Bell. Armstrong started at Penn State, but played only three series before leaving with an ankle injury. The injury kept him out of the Iowa contest.

Armstrong earned the start in the Gator Bowl against Georgia and led NU to a 24-19 win. He threw for 163 yards, including a pair of scoring strikes to Quincy Enunwa. Armstrong threw a school-record 99-yard touchdown in the third quarter to give NU a 24-12 lead. Armstrong also rushed for 26 yards, including a season-long 24-yard run.

Armstrong redshirted in his first season in the program.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (STEELE HS)

Armstrong was considered one of the nation's top dual-threat quarterbacks after leading Cibolo Steele High School to the Class 5A state championship game each of his final two seasons. Armstrong led Steele to 15 straight victories in 2011, before a loss in the state championship game. He produced huge numbers both as a runner and a passer as a senior, running for 1,281 yards and 16 touchdowns, while passing for 1,945 yards and 29 touchdowns against just two interceptions. He completed nearly 59 percent of his passes.

Armstrong threw for 279 yards and three touchdowns in the state quarterfinals, while also rushing for a touchdown. In a semifinal win, Armstrong had 139 rushing yards and four touchdowns, while passing for another score. Armstrong was named to the San Antonio Express News All-Area team as an all-purpose player and was the District 25-5A Offensive MVP.

Armstrong also earned first-team all-district honors as a junior, when he led Cibolo Steele to a 14-2 record and a Class 5A Division II state championship. Armstrong ran for more than 500 yards and eight touchdowns, while completing better than 51 percent of his passes for 1,343 yards and 19 touchdowns with just two interceptions.

Armstrong was regarded as the No. 5 quarterback in the country and 18th-best overall prospect in the state of Texas by Scout.com, while Rivals.com ranked him among the top 50 players in Texas and one of the nation's top 10 dual-threat signal callers. Armstrong played in the Offense-Defense Bowl in Arlington, Texas, following his senior season. He only visited Nebraska, but had offers from coast to coast, including Georgia Tech, Oregon, Kansas, Missouri, Mississippi State, Southern Miss, TCU and UCLA.

PERSONAL

Tommy is the son of Tommy Armstrong Sr., and he was born on Nov. 8, 1993. He has been active in NU outreach activities, including the Husker Heroes program, Husker Hotline, numerous hospital and community center visits, as well as at Randolph and Clinton Elementary schools and Lefler Middle School. He is majoring in communication studies.

CHRISTIAN BAILEY #33

WIDE RECEIVER | 5-11 | 200 | REDSHIRT FRESHMAN

SAN CLEMENTE, CALIF. | SAN CLEMENTE

» Two-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll

2014 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Christian Bailey will enter the 2014 season hoping to push for playing time in a deep Nebraska receiving corps. The 5-11, 200-pound Bailey had a strong spring for the Huskers, showing his ability as both a receiver and a perimeter blocker.

A California native, Bailey could also push for action on several of the Huskers' special teams units this fall.

2013 (REDSHIRT)

Bailey redshirted in his first season in the program and was a standout on the scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SAN CLEMENTE)

Bailey was a versatile player for San Clemente (Calif.) High School. He lined up at up both inside and outside at receiver and also at running back for the Tritons. A two-time all-league performer, Bailey hauled in 44 balls for 495 yards and four touchdowns as a senior, while also rushing for 274 yards and a six touchdowns on 46 carries. Bailey also drew interest from Oregon and Oregon State.

PERSONAL

He is the son of Jeff and Rebecca Bailey, and was born on Dec. 17, 1994. Bailey is majoring in finance/economics and was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll each of his first two semesters on campus. He has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline and at the Belmont and Calvary rec centers.

» Tom Osborne Citizenship Team (2014)

Lincoln native Josh Banderas earned extensive playing time at linebacker as a true freshman last season. Banderas started four games at MIKE linebacker in the first half of the season as a young linebacker corps continued to settle into defined roles. The unit made steady progress throughout 2013 and helped the Huskers feature one of the Big Ten's top defenses in league play.

The 6-2, 235-pound Banderas is one of five linebackers returning in 2014 that have starting experience, and the unit figures to be a strength for the Blackshirts. After his experience in the middle, Banderas showed the versatility to play multiple linebacker spots and spent much of the spring on the outside.

Banderas saw action in all 13 games both at linebacker and on special teams units and was in the starting lineup four times as a true freshman. He started non-conference games against Southern Miss, UCLA and South Dakota State at the MIKE linebacker spot, and also started against Iowa in the regular-season finale.

Banderas finished the season with 28 total tackles, including 12 unassisted stops, and added two sacks and three tackles for loss. Banderas had three tackles in his first career start vs. Southern Miss, then had 11 tackles, a sack and two tackles for loss against UCLA. He added three tackles each against South Dakota State and Northwestern, and made his second sack of the year at Purdue, as the Huskers limited Purdue to just seven points.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (LINCOLN SOUTHWEST HS)

Banderas was the lone in-state recruit in Nebraska's 2013 class after a decorated high school career at Lincoln Southwest. Banderas was a two-way standout for Coach Mark King's Silverhawks, lining up at both linebacker and running back. Banderas was a workhorse at running back as a senior, carrying the ball 189 times for 1,237 yards and 18 touchdowns. On defense, he had 119 total tackles, including 44 unassisted tackles, 11 tackles for loss and two interceptions.

Banderas rushed for better than 100 yards six times during his senior season and also made at least 10 tackles seven times, including four games with 15 or more stops. Banderas' play led Southwest to a 6-4 record and a trip to the Class A state playoffs. For his efforts, Banderas was named the honorary captain of both the Omaha World-Herald and Lincoln Journal Star all-state teams.

Banderas focused on linebacker in the first two years at Southwest. As a junior in 2011, he racked up 127 tackles to help LSW to a 9-2 record and a trip to the state quarterfinals. Banderas earned first-team Super State honors from the Lincoln Journal Star and first-team All-Nebraska honors from the World-Herald for his play. In 2010, an injury limited Banderas to just five games, but he made his mark, accumulating 30 tackles.

Banderas was also a track standout for the Silverhawks. He competed in four events in Class A as a senior in 2013, as he was sixth in the 110-meter hurdles, seventh in the 300-meter hurdles and seventh in both the shot put and discus. Banderas won the 110-meter hurdles as a junior while finishing second in the 300-meter hurdles. As a sophomore, Banderas finished third in the 110-meter hurdles.

Banderas committed to the Huskers in April of 2012, choosing Nebraska over a number of scholarship offers, including Oregon, Kansas State, Iowa, Iowa State and Vanderbilt. He was ranked among the nation's top 20 linebackers and top 300 overall players by 247 Sports, Rivals and Fox Sports. Banderas participated in the Army All-American game in San Antonio.

PERSONAL

Banderas was born on Feb. 22, 1995, and is the son of Tom and Amy Banderas. He is majoring in broadcasting, and was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2013. He earned a spot on the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team for his participation in NU's community outreach efforts. Banderas volunteered his time with the Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline and at local community center and team hospital visits. His father, Tom, played tight end at Nebraska, lettering three years from 1985 to 1987.

2014 OUTLOOK

Kenny Bell enters his senior season in a position to cement his legacy in Nebraska football history. A go-to-receiver and fan favorite since his freshman season, Bell is poised to become Nebraska's all-time leader in both receptions and receiving yards.

The 6-1, 185-pound Bell has earned all-conference accolades each of the past two seasons. He was an honorable-mention choice in 2013, after earning second-team All-Big Ten honors in 2012. This fall, Bell will be a leading contender for first-team all-conference honors.

Bell led Nebraska in receptions in 2013 with 52 catches, marking the third straight season he has led the Huskers in receptions. He could become the first player to lead Nebraska in receptions for four straight seasons. Bell has already joined 1972 Heisman winner Johnny Rodgers as the only players to record two 50-catch seasons.

Bell heads into 2014 with 134 career receptions to rank fifth on the NU career chart, leaving him 32 catches behind Nate Swift's NU record of 166 receptions. Bell ranks third in school history with 1,901 career receiving yards, leaving him 578 yards from Rodgers' school record in that category. Bell also has 15 career touchdown receptions, including four in 2012. He has shown a knack for the big play throughout his career, with each of his last 13 touchdown catches covering at least 20 yards.

In addition to being the Huskers' top receiving target, Bell is also a threat in the return game. Last year he led the Big Ten in kickoff return average at 26.5 yards per return, a mark that ranked 18th nationally. Bell had a 99-yard kickoff return for a touchdown at Penn State.

Bell is on track to earn his degree in ethnic studies in December.

Bell started 12 games and finished with a team-high 51 receptions for 577 yards and four touchdowns. He caught five or more passes five times, including each of the final three regular-season games. Bell's 52 catches ranked seventh on the NU single-season reception list, giving him two of nine 50-catch seasons in Husker history.

Bell had seven catches for 57 yards and had two kickoff returns for 72 yards against Wyoming. He had three catches and caught his first touchdown of the season against Southern Miss, hauling in a 21-yard reception in the second quarter. Bell also had a then-career-long 63-yard kickoff return.

He caught six passes for 68 yards, including a 22-yard touchdown reception against UCLA. Bell caught two passes against South Dakota State to reach 100 career receptions. In the Big Ten opener, Bell had four catches for 65 yards, including a highlight reel 37-yard touchdown catch in the third quarter.

After two receptions at Purdue, Bell made three catches for 45 yards at Minnesota, including a season-long 42-yard catch on the game's opening drive. Bell caught two passes for 12 yards in the first quarter against Northwestern, but was forced to the sideline with an injury. Despite playing at less than full speed, Bell had three catches for 44 yards at Michigan, including a clutch 26-yard reception on fourth down to keep the game-winning drive alive.

Bell had seven catches for a season-high 81 yards against Michigan State, including a 38-yard touchdown catch in the third quarter. At Penn State, Bell had five catches for 33 yards, but made his biggest impact in the return game. Bell had a 99-yard kickoff return for a touchdown in the third quarter to give NU a 14-13 lead. The return tied for the fifth-longest in school history.

Bell tied his season high with seven receptions for 67 yards against Iowa. He closed the season with one catch for 11 yards in the Gator Bowl win over Georgia.

Bell started all 14 games and led the team in every receiving category. He caught 50 passes for 863 yards and eight touchdowns. His 50 catches ranked in the top 10 on the NU single-season chart, while his 863 yards were a sophomore record and ranked fourth on the NU season yardage list. His eight touchdown catches were the fifth-most in school history.

He averaged 17.3 yards per catch to rank among the nation's best, and his per-catch average was the 10th-best in NU history among players with at least 30 receptions. Bell had 16 catches of at least 20 yards, and all eight of his touchdown catches were from 25 yards or more.

Bell's play as a sophomore earned him second-team All-Big Ten honors from both the league coaches and media. He was also tabbed a first-team selection by several media outlets.

The Colorado native topped the 100-yard mark in receiving three times, eclipsing the century mark against Minnesota, UCLA and Ohio State. Bell had at least three catches in eight games, and had a catch in every game but the Iowa contest. Prior to going without a catch at Iowa, Bell caught a pass in 23 straight games, the second-longest streak in NU history. Bell also contributed in the return game in 2012, averaging 23.2 yards on 14 kickoff returns.

Bell's only reception in the opener against Southern Miss was a 26-yard touchdown grab. At UCLA, he set then career highs with six catches for 108 yards, all in the first half. The game marked the first 100-yard receiving effort for an NU player since 2010. Bell also had two kickoff returns for 70 yards, including a season-long 47-yard return.

Bell made the most of his three catches against Arkansas State with a 42-yard touchdown catch in the first quarter and a 25-yard TD reception in the second quarter. A week later against Idaho State, Bell caught his fourth touchdown of the season on a then-career-long 68-yard reception in the first quarter.

After grabbing four balls in a win over Wisconsin, Bell set a personal-best with 133 receiving yards on five catches at Ohio State. He grabbed a career-long 74-yard reception in the second quarter to set up a Taylor Martinez touchdown run.

Against Northwestern, Bell had six receptions for 77 yards, including a 37-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter. In the contest, he became the 20th player in school history to reach 1,000 receiving yards and the second-fastest to reach that mark. Bell had two receptions for 51 yards in a win over Michigan, including a 32-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter.

Bell combined for seven catches in wins over Michigan State and Penn State, then had a career day in a 38-14 victory over Minnesota. Bell snared a career-high nine receptions for a career-high 136 yards and two touchdowns, a 36-yarder in the first quarter and a 30-yard TD catch in the third quarter. Bell's nine receptions tied for the eighth-most in a game in NU history, and the 136 yards fell just outside of the top 10 on the single-game yardage list.

After going without a catch at Iowa, Bell caught two passes for 14 yards against Wisconsin in the Big Ten Championship Game. He closed his sophomore season with four receptions for 60 yards in the Capital One Bowl against Georgia.

Bell played in every game and started the final 11 games of 2011. A strong second half of the season allowed him to become just the second freshman ever to lead Nebraska in receptions and receiving yards (Nate Swift, 2005). Bell finished the year with 32 receptions, 461 receiving yards and three touchdown catches. His reception and yardage totals were the second-highest ever for a Nebraska freshman.

Bell averaged 14.4 yards per catch as a redshirt freshman and had eight catches of at least 20 yards. Bell made 27 of his 32 catches in Big Ten play and had at least four catches in four of the final seven games. He had six games with at least three catches as a freshman, including five each against Iowa and Northwestern. In addition to his three receiving touchdowns, Bell also scored on an 82-yard touchdown run at Minnesota, the longest ever run by a Husker freshman.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Bell redshirted in his first season and earned Scout Team MVP honors.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (FAIRVIEW HS)

Bell helped Fairview High to a 12-1 record and a state semifinal appearance in 2009. He caught 18 passes for 328 yards and three touchdowns, and added an interception and kickoff return for a touchdown. Bell missed much of the season with an injury, but scored five touchdowns in his first five games back in action. Despite his limited action, Bell's impact was recognized, as he was a first-team All-Colorado selection and first-team Class 5A all-state pick by the Denver Post.

As a junior, Bell earned first-team All-Front Range League honors, playing wingback and rushing for 958 yards and 12 touchdowns. He was ranked among the top 10 players in Colorado according to Rivals.com. Bell chose Nebraska after also visiting Minnesota and Texas Tech. He also had offers from several other schools, including Colorado, California, Arizona and Arizona State. In basketball, Bell helped his team to the state title game as a senior, and he also competed in track.

PERSONAL

Kenny was born on Feb. 25, 1992, and is the son of Tami Campbell and his stepfather is Dan Campbell. Kenny's father, Ken Bell, played for the Denver Broncos from 1986 to 1989, totaling more than 2,000 career yards in kickoff returns. Bell is majoring in ethnic studies, and was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the spring 2014 semester and the 2010 Big 12 Fall Academic Honor Roll. Bell has volunteered time with Husker Heroes, Meadow Lane Elementary, Norwood Park Elementary, the Uplifting Athletes Road Race and a UNL Sportsmanship Pep Rally.

JARED BLUM

GRETNA, NEB. | GRETNA

#83

» Two-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll

2014 OUTLOOK

Sophomore tight end Jared Blum will look to make a push for playing time during the 2014 season. The 6-4, 240-pound Blum was expected to see action in 2013, before a knee injury in fall camp sidelined him for the season. Blum returned to the field this spring and should be at 100 percent for the start of fall practice.

Blum is part of a young group of tight ends with fellow sophomores Cethan Carter, Sam Cotton and Trey Foster the only returnees with playing experience. Blum has been a standout in the weight room during his time in the program adding more than 20 pounds of muscle in his first two years.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Blum suffered a knee injury during fall practice and was sidelined for the season.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Blum redshirted in his first season at Nebraska and worked on the scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (GRETNA HS)

Blum was one of two walk-ons from Gretna in 2012, along with fullback Andy Janovich. Blum was a second-team All-Nebraska pick by the Omaha World-Herald and a second-team Super State pick by the Lincoln Journal Star on defense as a senior.

Blum recorded 44 tackles to go along with 12 sacks and helped his team reach the semifinals of the Class B state playoffs. Blum was also a threat on offense, catching 18 passes for 380 yards and six touchdowns as a tight end.

Along with being a football standout, Blum starred on the Dragons' basketball team as a second-team Super State pick by the Lincoln Journal Star. He averaged 13.4 points and 7.0 rebounds per game as a junior. Blum had football scholarship offers from South Dakota State, Nebraska-Kearney and Northwest Missouri State.

PERSONAL

Jared was born on Nov. 14, 1993, and he is the son of Dave and Kristi Blum. He is majoring in business administration and is a two-time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll selection. Blum has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline, Uplifting Athletes and was part of a hospital visit during Nebraska's Gator Bowl activities in Jacksonville, Fla.

MAURO BONDI
PLACE-KICKER | 6-0 | 210 | JUNIOR
BOCA RATON, FLA. | WEST BOCA RATON

2014 OUTLOOK

Mauro Bondi enters 2014 with hopes of earning the starting place-kicker job for the Huskers. Bondi has served as the backup place-kicker the past three seasons, including being the top reserve to Pat Smith in 2013. This spring, Bondi was the only kicker on the roster with game experience, and he will look for more consistency in fall camp.

Nebraska has a recent tradition of fielding one of the nation's best kicking units, as NU kickers have connected on 121-of-141 field goals over the past seven seasons.

Bondi's strong leg helped Nebraska field one of the nation's top kickoff units in 2013, as the 6-0, 210-pound Bondi ranked among the national leaders in touchbacks with 48. He is likely to continue in that role in 2014.

2013 (SOPHOMORE)

Bondi served as Nebraska's kickoff specialist throughout the season and booted 48 of his 77 kickoffs for touchbacks. He had seven touchbacks against South Dakota State and six against Southern Miss. His efforts helped Nebraska rank fifth in the Big Ten in kickoff coverage at 20.2 yards per return.

Bondi made his only field goal attempt, a 22-yarder against South Dakota State. He also connected on 7-of-8 PAT attempts, including 3-of-3 against the Jackrabbits.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Bondi was prepared as Brett Maher's backup, but sat out the season as a redshirt.

2011 (FRESHMAN)

Bondi appeared in four games. He handled four kickoffs, two against Chattanooga and one each against Washington and Minnesota. He also connected on his only PAT attempt at Minnesota.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (WEST BOCA RATON HS)

Bondi showcased his ability by handling place-kicking, punting and kickoff chores at West Boca Raton (Fla.) High School. As a senior, Bondi connected on 7-of-11 field goals with a long of 44 yards for Coach Willie Dodaro.

Bondi showed his leg strength by booting 45 of his 55 kickoff attempts for touchbacks. He also punted for West Boca Raton and averaged 43.2 yards per attempt. As a junior, Bondi hit on 13-of-19 field goals, with a long of 51 yards, drilled 47 kickoffs for touchbacks and also averaged better than 43 yards per punt. Bondi finished fourth in the kickoff competition at the 2010 Kohl's Scholarship Camp. Bondi was ranked among the nation's top 10 place-kickers by ESPN. He also had a scholarship offer from Wake Forest.

PERSONAL

Mauro is the son of Bruno and Connie Bondi, and he was born on Dec. 18, 1992. He is majoring in criminology and criminal justice. Bondi has volunteered his time with local hospital visits, Uplifting Athletes, Husker Heroes and the Husker Hotline.

CAREER STATS

- » Field Goals: 1-for-1 (22-yarder vs. South Dakota State in 2013)
- » PATs: 8-for-9 (1-for-1 in 2011; 7-for-8 in 2013)
- » Kickoffs: 81 career kickoffs, 48 touchbacks

» Three-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll

2014 OUTLOOK

Tyson Broekemeier (pronounced Brock-meyer) will look to add depth at the quarterback position as a junior in 2014. Broekemeier is in his fourth year in the Husker system and has good knowledge of the Nebraska offense.

Broekemeier battled injuries early in his Nebraska career, including a season-ending knee injury as a true freshman in 2011. Broekemeier is majoring in business administration and is a three-time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll pick.

Broekemeier added depth at quarterback, but did not appear in a game.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Broekemeier added depth at quarterback, but did not appear in a game.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

Broekemeier suffered a knee injury during fall camp and sat out the season. He returned quickly from the injury, taking part in non-contact drills in Capital One Bowl practices in Orlando.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (AURORA HS)

Broekemeier guided Coach Randy Huebert's Aurora squad to an appearance in the Class B state semifinals in 2010. Broekemeier completed better than 70 percent of his passes for 2,047 yards and 31 touchdowns with just three interceptions. He also rushed for 630 yards and 12 touchdowns. Broekemeier was named the Gatorade Nebraska Player of the Year, and he was the honorary captain of the Lincoln Journal Star Super State offense and the Omaha World-Herald's All-Nebraska team.

Broekemeier had better than 2,400 yards of total offense and 32 touchdowns as a junior. At the 2011 Shrine Bowl, he set records for touchdown passes, passing yards, completions and total yards, going 30-of-37 for 371 yards and five touchdowns, and running for 36 yards, giving him 407 total yards. Broekemeier had scholarship offers from FCS schools South Dakota and North Dakota.

PERSONAL

Tyson was born on Feb. 9, 1992, and is the son of Dale and Karla Broekemeier. His older brother, Joe, was a receiver for the Huskers, finishing in 2010. Tyson is majoring in business administration. He has volunteered his time on local hospital visits, School is Cool, Husker Hotline and the Husker Heroes event.

- » Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Leadership Award (2014)
- » Walk-on of the Year (2013)

2014 OUTLOOK

Junior Sam Burtch was a breakout player for the Nebraska offense in 2013, serving as part of the regular rotation at receiver. Burtch's role grew as the year progressed, and he heads into his junior season expecting to play a large role in the 2014 Husker offense. Burtch had a standout spring practice and is a leading contender to earn the starting role left open by the graduation of three-year starter Quincy Enunwa.

The 6-3, 200-pound Burtch brings a big target to a receiving corps that returns seven of its top eight players for this season. Burtch has also distinguished himself as a relentless blocker on the perimeter for the Husker running game. A former walk-on, Burtch was placed on scholarship beginning with the 2014 spring semester.

Burtch is also a standout off the field, twice earning Academic All-Big Ten honors and serving as president of Nebraska's Uplifting Athletes chapter. He carries a 3.397 cumulative grade-point average in communication studies.

Burtch played in all 13 games and made starts against Michigan State and Penn State. He finished with 12 receptions for 147 yards and three touchdowns. He was at his best late in the season, making 10 of his 12 catches in the final six games.

Burtch's first two catches resulted in touchdowns, a 26-yarder from Taylor Martinez against Southern Miss and a 16-yard catch from Ron Kellogg vs. South Dakota State. Burtch caught three passes for 20 yards against Northwestern, including two on the final drive to help set up NU's Hail Mary. He caught five passes for 86 yards, including a career-long 32-yard touchdown, against Michigan State. Burtch added two catches at Penn State.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Burtch played in four games as a reserve receiver, appearing in Nebraska's wins over Southern Miss, Arkansas State, Idaho State and Minnesota. He did not have a reception.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

Burtch walked on and redshirted in his first season in 2011.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ELMWOOD-MURDOCK HS)

Burtch starred at receiver for Coach Leigh Schmale at Elmwood-Murdock High School. Burtch earned first-team Class C-2 all-state honors from both the Lincoln Journal Star and the Omaha World-Herald in 2010. He caught 44 passes for 1,038 yards and eight touchdowns to help his team to a 9-2 record and a trip to the Class C-2 quarterfinals.

Burtch also caught 26 passes and eight touchdowns as a junior. Burtch won the Class C 800 meters at the 2010 Nebraska state track meet and was second in the 400 meters. At the 2011 Shrine Bowl, he caught four passes for 76 yards, including touchdowns of 12 and 40 yards. Burtch received recruiting interest from Northwest Missouri State before selecting NU.

PERSONAL

Sam is the son of Tom Burtch and Marie Gregoire and was born on Feb. 19, 1993. He is majoring in communication studies and is a five-time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll selection. Burtch has been active in the community and this year he has been named to the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team, the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team and received a HERO Leadership Award.

Burtch was one of the leading forces behind starting the Uplifting Athletes Road Race to benefit pediatric cancer. He has also volunteered his time with the FCA, People's City Mission, Husker Hotline and numerous hospital and school outreach events.

METAIRIE, LA. | ARCHBISHOP RUMMEL
ONE LETTER

- » Honorable-Mention Big Ten All-Freshman Team (BTN, 2013)

Sophomore tight end Cethan Carter is poised for a bigger role in the Husker offense in 2014. Carter was one of seven true freshmen to see action for the Huskers in 2013, splitting time as the starting tight end. Following the graduation of 2013 senior Jake Long, Carter is the most game-tested tight end on the roster.

The 6-4, 240-pound Carter has all the tools needed to play the tight end position, including good hands to go along with excellent size and speed. Carter, along with Sam Cotton and Trey Foster, is one of three sophomore tight ends who should provide NU quarterbacks with reliable targets in the passing game.

Carter quickly earned his way into the rotation with the top unit and saw his playing time quickly increase with senior Jake Long hampered by injuries for much of the season. Carter played in all 13 games and made six starts as a true freshman.

Carter finished with 10 catches for 127 yards in his debut season. Carter caught two passes in three games in 2013, including against South Dakota State. In that game, he had a career-high 43 yards highlighted by a 26-yard catch. Carter also had two catches at Purdue and in the regular-season finale with Iowa. Carter caught five of his 10 passes in the final four games of the season, including a 23-yard catch against Georgia in the Gator Bowl.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (RUMMEL HS)

Carter had a standout career for Coach Jay Roth at Rummel High School in Metairie, La. Carter was a versatile performer, lining up as a tight end, H-Back and fullback in the Raiders' run-based offense. He finished the 2012 season with 23 receptions for 418 yards and five touchdowns.

His play helped Rummel to a perfect 14-0 record and the Louisiana Class 5A state championship. Carter shined in the state title game at the Superdome, catching five passes for 74 yards and a touchdown in a 35-14 victory over Barbe High. For his efforts as a senior, Carter was an all-district choice and a honorable-mention all-state selection.

Carter also started for Rummel as a junior, and was again used in a variety of roles on offense. Carter chose Nebraska over offers from LSU, Miami, Memphis, Southern Miss, Louisiana Tech, Tulane, Louisiana-Lafayette and Florida International. He was ranked as the No. 13 prospect in the state of Louisiana by the New Orleans Times-Picayune and was ranked among the top 50 tight ends in the country by several recruiting services. Carter was also one of the top players for the Rummel basketball team, leading the Raiders to a 21-11 record and a trip to the state quarterfinals.

PERSONAL

Carter is the son of Shelly Carter and he was born on Sept. 5, 1993. He has not declared a major. Carter has volunteered his time with the Uplifting Athletes Road Race, Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline and outreach events at local community centers.

» Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Spring, 2014)

Byerson Cockrell was one of three members of Nebraska's 2014 recruiting class to join the program in January. The 6-0, 185-pound Cockrell used the jumpstart on his Nebraska career very well. Cockrell was impressive throughout spring ball, earning significant action with the top defensive unit. Cockrell should battle for a starting spot at cornerback, and also showed the skills to play Nebraska's nickel back position.

A native of Columbus, Miss., Cockrell will have three years to complete two seasons of eligibility after spending the past two years at East Mississippi Community College. The school was one of the nation's best, sending 11 players to the FBS ranks for the 2014 season.

Cockrell earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll during the spring semester, carrying a 3.666 grade-point average in sociology.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (COLUMBUS HS/EAST MISSISSIPPI CC)

Cockrell was a standout at East Mississippi CC, playing two seasons for Coach Buddy Stephens. In 2013, Cockrell played safety for the Lions and had three interceptions for 128 yards, including a 58-yard interception return for a touchdown. He added 33 tackles, four pass breakups, three tackles for loss and two sacks. His play helped East Mississippi to a perfect 12-0 record and the NJCAA title. Cockrell was part of a defense that ranked second nationally with 30 interceptions in 2013.

Cockrell was also a key performer for the Lions in 2012, helping the team to a 10-2 record. Cockrell finished with 20 tackles, including 16 solo stops, while picking off a pair of passes.

Cockrell attended Columbus High School, where he earned Class 6A all-state first-team honors as a senior in 2011. He had seven interceptions for 133 yards and was credited with 69 tackles, seven pass breakups and one forced fumble in his senior season. Cockrell also scored three touchdowns on offense as a senior.

He was a member of the Columbus track team, competing in the 100 and 400 meters, and the 4x100-meter relay. Cockrell was ranked among the top 10 junior college safeties in the nation by 247Sports. Cockrell also received offers from Southern Miss, Louisiana-Monroe, UAB and Middle Tennessee among others.

PERSONAL

Cockrell is the son of Elizabeth Cockrell, and he was born on March 21, 1994. Cockrell is a sociology major. He has volunteered his time at Randolph Elementary and with the Husker Hotline.

2014 OUTLOOK

Defensive tackle Maliek Collins is part of an impressive group of young players in the front seven of the Nebraska defense. The 6-2, 300-pound Collins was one of seven true freshmen to see action in 2013, and his development helped the Nebraska defense make large strides in the second half of the season.

Collins' role grew late in the 2013 season and his surge continued into spring practice. After a strong offseason in the weight room, Collins established himself as a difference maker during spring ball and is poised to earn a starting spot in 2014. In addition to having the strength and power to hold up in the middle of the defensive front, Collins showed his versatility this spring by moving outside in some pass rushing situations.

Collins played in 12 games, including a start against Georgia in the Gator Bowl. He finished the season with 12 tackles. All of his stops came in either the first three games or the final four games.

Collins registered NU's first sack of the season for 10 yards against Southern Miss. He totaled three tackles in that contest. He added a tackle for loss a week later against UCLA. Collins made eight tackles in the final four games, tying his season high with three tackles at Penn State, adding two each vs. Michigan State and Iowa, and then making one stop in the Gator Bowl.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (KANAS CITY CENTER HS)

Collins played both ways for Kansas City Center High School and posted huge numbers on defense as a senior. Collins recorded 102 tackles in 2012, including 43 tackles for loss, 15 sacks, five forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries. His play for Coach Bryan DeLong helped Center High to a 10-4 record and a trip to the quarterfinals of the Missouri Class 3A state playoffs, its deepest playoff run since 2004.

For his play as a senior, Collins was a first-team Class 3A all-state pick by the Missouri High School Coaches Association. He was also a member of the Kansas City Star's All-Metro first-team defensive unit.

Collins was also a standout performer for Center High as a junior in 2011, earning first-team all-conference honors as both an offensive and defensive lineman. Beyond the football field, Collins was also a standout wrestler for Center High School. As a senior, Collins won the Missouri Class 2A state championship with a perfect 48-0 record. Collins reached the quarterfinals at the state meet in the heavyweight class as a junior and posted a 48-5 record.

Collins was ranked among the top 20 prospects in the state of Missouri and one of the top 25 defensive tackles in the country according to Fox Sports Next. He also visited Kansas and Missouri, and had offers from numerous other schools, including Arkansas, Iowa and Iowa State.

PERSONAL

Collins was born on April 8, 1995, and is the son of Janice Davis and the late C.W. Collins. He has not declared a major. Collins has volunteered his time at the Belmont and Calvert rec centers, and also with the Husker Hotline, Husker Heroes and the Uplifting Athletes road race.

2014 OUTLOOK

Senior safety Corey Cooper will be expected to be a leader for the Blackshirt defense in 2014, following a standout junior campaign. The 6-1, 215-pound Cooper was one of Nebraska's most reliable defenders last season, starting all 13 games and leading the team with 91 tackles. Cooper missed spring practice with a minor foot injury, but is expected to be back to full speed this fall.

Cooper is likely to hold down one starting spot at safety with talented sophomores LeRoy Alexander and Nate Gerry battling for the other spot. The safety group will look to help Nebraska rank among the Big Ten's best pass defenses once again in 2014. A year ago, NU opponents completed 54 percent of their attempts, and the Huskers led the Big Ten in that category in conference games only.

Cooper has the size to provide outstanding run support from his safety spot, but also excels in pass coverage. An honorable-mention All-Big Ten choice during his junior season, Cooper is poised to contend for higher honors in 2014.

Off the field, Cooper earned his degree in ethnic studies in May and will play the 2014 campaign as a graduate student.

Cooper started all 13 games at safety, one of four defenders to start every game in 2013. He finished with a team-leading 91 tackles, including 52 solo stops. Cooper added an interception against Southern Miss, had five tackles for loss, a pair of sacks and a fumble caused.

Cooper made at least seven tackles in seven games, including double-figure totals against UCLA, South Dakota State, Illinois and Georgia. Cooper made four tackles each in the first two games against Wyoming and Southern Miss. He also had his first career interception in the fourth quarter against the Golden Eagles.

Cooper shattered his previous tackle high with a team-high 12 stops against UCLA, and also had a tackle for loss. He tied for the team lead in tackles with 10 stops, including seven solo, against South Dakota State. He had his first sack of the year against the Jackrabbits. Cooper recorded double figures in tackles for the third straight game with 10 stops against Illinois.

He had six tackles at Minnesota, then had seven tackles, including a sack, in the win over Northwestern. Cooper had five solo stops and a tackle for loss at Michigan, then tied for the team lead with eight tackles and a tackle for loss against Michigan State. Cooper made six tackles and forced a fumble at Penn State and closed the regular season with seven tackles, including four solo stops, against Iowa. Cooper recorded his fourth double-figure tackle game of the year with 10 stops, all solo, against Georgia in the Gator Bowl. He made a key tackle on Bulldog running back Todd Gurley late in the game to stop a UGA scoring threat in Nebraska's 24-19 victory.

Cooper played in all 14 games and made starts against Idaho State, Northwestern and Georgia. Cooper saw his most extensive action in nickel and dime roles, while adding depth at safety. He finished the season with 17 tackles, including eight solo stops. Cooper had a seven-yard tackle for loss against Southern Miss and shared a sack against Idaho State. Cooper had a season-high four tackles against both UCLA and Arkansas State, and he added two tackles each against Northwestern and Iowa.

2011 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Cooper played in 11 games, including a start at cornerback in NU's win over Wyoming. He moved back to safety for the majority of the year and finished with nine tackles, including eight solo stops. Cooper had three unassisted tackles at Wyoming and had two tackles against both Chattanooga and Washington.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Cooper redshirted in his first year at Nebraska in 2010.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (PROVISO EAST HS)

Cooper had 70 tackles and 16 pass breakups, while adding two interceptions as a senior at Proviso East. Cooper was also a dangerous receiver, with 43 catches for 852 yards and nine touchdowns for Coach Aaron Peppers. Cooper earned West Suburban all-conference honors and was a Chicago Tribune first-team all-state selection.

As a junior, Cooper helped his team to an 8-3 record and a trip to the second round of the state playoffs. He had 61 tackles, 14 pass breakups, an interception and forced three fumbles. He also caught 41 passes for 814 yards and eight touchdowns. He was also a two-way starter as a sophomore when he caught 35 passes for 500 yards and four touchdowns.

Cooper also competed in basketball and track for Proviso East. He was ranked among the top five prospects in Illinois and among the top 20 safety recruits in the country in 2010. Cooper chose NU after also visiting Arizona, Illinois and Notre Dame.

PERSONAL

Corey is the son of Corey Sr. and Rose Cooper and was born on July 2, 1992. Cooper earned an academic All-Big Ten honoree in 2011, and earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the spring 2014 semester. He has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes and with team hospital visits.

- » Academic All-Big Ten (2012, 2013)
- » Brook Berringer Citizenship Team (2014)
- » Tom Osborne Citizenship Team (2014)
- » Three-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll

2014 OUTLOOK

Jake Cotton stepped into a starting role on the offensive line as a junior in 2013, and this season will be looked to as a leader for a group that lost five senior regulars to graduation. The 6-6, 305-pound Cotton provides a physical presence and is a tenacious competitor.

Cotton has been a versatile lineman throughout his Nebraska career. He has spent time at both guard and tackle, but settled into the guard spot last fall and is the frontrunner to start at left guard this fall. He is likely to be joined on the left side by Colorado transfer Alex Lewis, giving Nebraska a formidable duo.

Cotton's brother, Sam, is a redshirt freshman tight end for the Huskers and his father, Barney, is the tight ends and offensive line coach. Jake Cotton is a two-time Academic All-Big Ten selection. He is expected to earn his degree in history this August and play his senior season as a graduate student.

Cotton started 11 of 13 games at left guard, while missing the Michigan and Michigan State contests with a knee injury. His play helped Nebraska average better than 215 rushing yards and more than 410 yards of total offense per game. With the offensive line providing the push, junior I-back Ameer Abdullah rushed for 1,690 yards and had 11 100-yard rushing games. As a team, Nebraska topped 250 rushing yards five times in 2013.

2012 (SOPHOMORE)

Cotton played in five games as a sophomore, serving as a reserve guard behind All-Big Ten pick Spencer Long and Seung Hoon Choi. Cotton saw his most extensive action of the year against Georgia in the Capital One Bowl.

2011 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Cotton played in wins over Chattanooga, Washington and Wyoming, helping the Huskers rack up more than 300 rushing yards against both Washington and Wyoming. He suffered a knee injury before the Ohio State game and was lost for the season. Cotton moved from defense to the offensive line during spring practice.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Cotton redshirted in his first season and worked on the defensive line.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SOUTHEAST HS)

Cotton excelled on both lines at Southeast for Coach John Larsen. As a senior, Cotton helped the Knights to a 9-2 record and a trip to the state quarterfinals. Cotton provided a physical presence at offensive tackle, while on defense he made 58 tackles, including 12 sacks, and added a pair of fumble recoveries. Cotton's play earned him first-team All-Nebraska honors from the Omaha World-Herald and first-team Super-State honors from the Lincoln Journal Star. Both papers selected him to their all-state teams as an offensive lineman. Cotton was the first scholarship signee for Nebraska from Lincoln Southeast since 2003.

Cotton gained more than 40 pounds between his junior and senior season. As a junior, he played tight end and defensive end for the Knights. Cotton was ranked among the top 50 players in the Midlands Region by Super Prep Magazine.

PERSONAL

Jake is the son of Barney and Christine Cotton and was born on July 11, 1991. Cotton is a history major and has earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll three times. He was also an Academic All-Big Ten honoree in 2012 and 2013. He has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes, School is Cool Week, Fuel Up to Play 60, Uplifting Athletes, Madonna Rehabilitation Center and team hospital and school visits. Cotton earned a spot on both the Brook Berringer and Tom Osborne Citizenship Teams in 2014 for his community outreach efforts.

His father earned three letters for the Huskers from 1975 to 1978, as both an offensive and defensive lineman. His older brother, Ben, was a four-year letterwinner at tight end for Nebraska from 2009 to 2012.

The youngest of three brothers to play for Nebraska, tight end Sam Cotton began to earn recognition for himself with his play as a redshirt freshman in 2013. Cotton was one of three tight ends to play the majority of the snaps last season, and his role in the Nebraska offense is likely to grow this fall.

The 6-4, 250-pound Cotton has added 15 pounds of muscle to his frame since the start of 2013, and has the size and strength to be an effective blocker in addition to his receiving skills. During spring ball, Cotton and fellow sophomores Cethan Carter and Trey Foster earned the majority of the snaps with the top offensive unit.

Cotton is the brother of senior offensive guard Jake Cotton, and former NU tight end Ben Cotton. Their father, Barney, is a Husker assistant coach. Sam Cotton was one of 30 Huskers who earned Academic All-Big Ten honors last fall.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Cotton played in 10 games in 2013, including a start against Purdue. He caught three passes for 22 yards, including a three-yard touchdown catch at Minnesota. He had a season-long 17-yard catch against Illinois and also had a reception at Purdue.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Cotton sat out his first season in the program as a redshirt.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SOUTHEAST HS)

Cotton played a key role in helping Southeast earn a Class A state title in 2011. The Knights finished with a 12-1 record, including a 21-9 victory over Omaha Burke in the state title game, when Cotton caught a 34-yard touchdown pass.

As a senior, Cotton had 23 receptions, including seven touchdowns. He also played defensive line for Coach Ryan Gottula's team and made 42 tackles, including 7.5 sacks. Cotton's efforts as a senior earned him first-team All-Nebraska honors from the Omaha World-Herald as a defensive lineman, and he was an honorary captain of that team. The Lincoln Journal Star also named him a co-captain of its Super State team, but listed him as a first-team selection at tight end.

Cotton also played a key role as a junior, helping Southeast to a 10-2 record and a trip to the Class A semifinals. He was an honorable-mention all-state pick by both major newspapers as a junior. Rivals.com, Scout.com and 247 Sports all ranked Cotton among the top four players in the state of Nebraska in the class of 2012. Cotton participated in track and field for Southeast, competing in shot put and discus. Cotton committed to Nebraska in June of 2011, and did not take any other visits.

PERSONAL

Sam is the son of Barney and Christine Cotton, and he was born on Jan. 27, 1994. He has volunteered his time with the NFL Fuel Up to Play 60 Event, Uplifting Athletes, Husker Heroes and school and hospital visits. He was named to both the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team and Tom Osborne Citizenship Team for his outreach efforts. He is a business administration major and is a three-time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll selection. His father earned three letters for the Huskers from 1975 to 1978, as both an offensive and defensive lineman.

2014 OUTLOOK

I-back Imani Cross has provided an excellent complement to All-Big Ten back Ameer Abdullah the past two seasons. The 6-1, 230-pound Cross has excelled in short-yardage situations the past two years, and shown the ability to be an every-down threat as a running back.

Cross is coming off an outstanding spring and is likely to once again earn his share of carries in the Huskers' powerful rushing offense. Cross, Abdullah and sophomore Terrell Newby all return for 2014 after combining to rush for more than 2,400 yards last fall. With the addition of redshirt freshman Adam Taylor to the mix, the Huskers' running back corps stacks up against any group in the country.

Cross finished as NU's second-leading rusher in 2013, and led the team with 10 rushing touchdowns, including three games with two touchdowns. Through two seasons, Cross has 17 career rushing touchdowns on 140 carries, scoring a touchdown once every 8.2 attempts.

A leader in the classroom and community, Cross was one of 30 Huskers named to the Academic All-Big Ten team in 2013.

Cross had 447 rushing yards on 85 carries, an average of 5.3 yards per attempt. Cross had 10 or more carries four times and rushed for at least 50 yards in five games, including a career-high 105 yards in the season opener against Wyoming. Cross also reached the end zone twice against the Cowboys, including a one-yard touchdown and a 31-yard TD scamper in the third quarter. Cross scored his 10th career touchdown from a yard out against Southern Miss. Against South Dakota State, he posted his second two-TD game of the season and rushed for 60 yards on 10 carries.

Cross carried 15 times for 76 yards and a touchdown against Illinois. He then carried a career-high 16 times for 56 yards and two touchdowns at Purdue, giving him three straight games with 50 or more rushing yards. Cross scored a touchdown on the game's opening drive at Minnesota. Against Michigan State, Cross had a career-long 51-yard touchdown run in the third quarter. He added eight carries for 31 yards at Penn State.

Cross played in all 14 games and was one of four I-backs to top 300 rushing yards and average better than 5.0 yards per carry. He finished with 55 carries for 324 yards, an average of 5.9 yards per carry, and carried the ball at least seven times in five games. Cross had seven rushing touchdowns, including five in Big Ten play.

Cross was impressive in his debut against Southern Miss, rushing 11 times for 62 yards. Cross rushed for 66 yards against Arkansas State, including a season-long 44-yard run. He also scored his first touchdown a two-yard run in the fourth quarter. Cross had his first 100-yard day with 100 yards on 12 carries vs. Idaho State.

Against Penn State, Cross rushed for 22 yards and two touchdowns on eight carries. Both of his scores came in the third quarter, turning a 14-point halftime deficit into a tie game. He added a pair of touchdowns a week later against Minnesota. Cross rushed three times for 35 yards in the Big Ten title game, including a 26-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (NORTH HALL HS)

Cross was Nebraska's first signee from Georgia since 2008. He piled up 1,698 rushing yards as a senior at North Hall High School, including 24 rushing touchdowns. He averaged nearly nine yards per carry, and also excelled on defense for Coach Robert Christmas, making 88 tackles as a linebacker. Cross' play earned him second-team Class AAA all-state honors in Georgia.

As a junior, Cross rushed for 600 yards and nine touchdowns, despite being limited to five games because of an injury. As a sophomore, he helped Flowery Branch High School to a 10-4 record and a playoff berth by rushing for 1,417 yards and 17 touchdowns.

Cross also competed in track and field, earning a seventh-place medal in shot put his senior season. Cross was ranked among the top 35 running backs in the country and the top 50 overall prospects in Georgia by several recruiting outlets. Cross also visited Kentucky and East Carolina, and had numerous other offers including Tennessee, South Carolina and Georgia Tech.

PERSONAL

Cross was born on Sept. 23, 1993, and he is the son of Tim and Sharon Cross. Cross is an ethnic studies major.

Cross has been one of the most active Huskers in community outreach efforts. He is a two-time member of the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team and also a 2014 member of the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team. Cross has volunteered his time with numerous organizations and events, including Uplifting Athletes, Make-a-Wish, School is Cool Week, Husker Hotline, FCA, and many school, hospital and community center outreach events. Cross was also presented a Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Leadership Award in 2013.

Cross' brother, Izaan, played defensive end at Georgia Tech, completing his career in 2012.

DEFENSIVE TACKLE | 6-1 | 280 | JUNIOR

#96

KELLER, TEXAS | FOSSIL RIDGE
ONE LETTER

2014 OUTLOOK

Aaron Curry was a starter at defensive tackle for the majority of the second half of the 2013 season, and is part of an impressive group of young talent returning on the front four this season. Curry will battle for playing time at defensive tackle along with sophomores Maliek Collins, Kevin Maurice and Vincent Valentine, and fellow junior Kevin Williams.

The 6-1, 280-pound Curry has the versatility and athleticism to move around on the defensive line. He has shown the ability to be effective at the point of attack against the run, while also being an effective pass rusher.

Curry played in every game and started all eight Big Ten games. He finished with 24 tackles, three tackles for loss and a pair of sacks, and had at least four tackles in three games.

Curry had a season-high five tackles against Michigan State and added four tackles against Minnesota and Penn State. Curry notched his first career sack with an 11-yarder against South Dakota State. He added his second sack of the year with a five-yarder on the first play of the game at Purdue. He also had a tackle for loss at Minnesota and closed the year with two tackles in the Gator Bowl. Curry added three quarterback hurries.

2012 (FRESHMAN)

Curry was one of five true freshmen to play in 2012. He played in the first four games and made three tackles before being sidelined for the season.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (FOSSIL RIDGE HS)

Curry was one of two Texans in Nebraska's 2012 signing class. As a senior, Curry had 59 tackles, three sacks and a forced fumble for Fossil Ridge High. His play helped Coach Tony Baccarini's team to a 6-5 record and a trip to the state playoffs. Curry was an all-district performer at the 5A level as a senior.

As a junior, Curry had 68 total tackles, including four sacks. Curry was ranked among the top 50 defensive tackles in the country by Scout.com and Rivals.com. In addition to Nebraska, Curry also visited Iowa, Missouri and Boise State and had dozens of other scholarship offers.

PERSONAL

Aaron was born on June 12, 1994, and is the son of Aaron Sr. and Peggie Curry. The younger Curry is a psychology major. His community outreach activities have included Husker Heroes, Uplifting Athletes and local community rec center visits. Curry's family has an athletic background. Aaron Curry Sr. played college basketball at Oklahoma. Curry is cousins on his mom's side of the family with former Illinois and NFL standout and current BTN analyst Howard Griffith and former Oklahoma gridiron standout Rod Shoate.

ZACK DARLINGTON

APOPKA, FLA. | APOPKA

2014 OUTLOOK

Quarterback Zack Darlington joined the Nebraska program for the spring semester in 2014 after a standout career in the Florida high school ranks. The 6-2, 205-pound Darlington was regarded as one of the nation's top dual-threat signal callers out of Apopka High School.

Darlington missed most of his senior season because of injury and was limited to non-contact work during spring practice. However, he should be at full speed for fall camp and ready to join a young, but talented group of Husker signal callers competing for playing time.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (APOPKA HS)

Darlington was one of three players from Florida in the Nebraska signing class after an outstanding career at Apopka High School. A preseason All-Florida selection in 2013, Darlington's senior season at Apopka High was cut short after just one game because of injury.

Darlington compiled huge numbers in his first two seasons as the starting quarterback, leading one of the dominant prep programs in Florida. Playing for his father, Rick, the younger Darlington used his strong arm and great speed to lead Apopka to a 13-2 record in 2012, and the Class 8A (largest) state title in Florida. Darlington passed for 1,725 yards and 19 touchdowns, while also rushing for 708 yards and 10 touchdowns. In the state title game victory over Weston Cypress Bay, Darlington passed for 254 yards while rushing for 130 yards and three touchdowns. For his effort as a junior, Darlington was named a Class 8A second-team all-state selection. As a sophomore, Darlington led Apopka to a 6-5 record.

Darlington was ranked among the top 15 dual-threat quarterbacks by 247 Sports, and the site also listed him among the top 50 players in Florida. Darlington also had offers from Arizona, Boston College, Minnesota, Mississippi, North Carolina State, Ohio State, Virginia Tech and West Virginia among others. Darlington committed to Nebraska in June of 2013 and did not take any other official visits.

PERSONAL

Darlington was born on March 27, 1995, and is the son of Rick and Shelly Darlington. Darlington has not yet declared a major. He volunteered his time with Husker Hotline and at the F-Street Rec Center. Zack's older brother, Ty, is an offensive lineman at Oklahoma and has seen playing time in his first two seasons in Norman.

DANIEL DAVIE

#23

BEATRICE, NEB. | BEATRICE

2014 OUTLOOK

Cornerback Daniel Davie will look to push for playing time as a junior in 2014 at a position where Nebraska lost two of its top three players to graduation. Davie's bid to earn a spot in the secondary was put on hold this spring, as he was sidelined following a knee injury he suffered in mid-November.

The 6-1, 190-pound Davie should be back at full strength for preseason practice, and will look to re-enter the battle for playing time alongside returning starter Josh Mitchell. Davie has been a key special teams performer each of the past two seasons and has added depth at cornerback.

Davie played in the first 10 games, seeing action as a reserve cornerback and several of the Huskers' special teams units. Davie had an unassisted tackle at Purdue. He suffered a knee injury against Michigan State and was sidelined for the remainder of the season.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Davie played in 13 games, primarily on special teams. He made seven tackles with six of those coming on special teams. Davie had a season-high two tackles against Idaho State and had a pass breakup in that game.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

Davie redshirted in his first season in 2011.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (BEATRICE HS)

Davie excelled at Beatrice High as a running back, defensive back and a special teams standout. He rushed for 1,556 yards and 18 touchdowns while averaging 6.5 yards per attempt. Davie helped the Orangemen and Coach Bob Sexton to a 6-5 record and capped his senior season with a 265-yard rushing performance against Holdrege in the Class B playoffs. Davie also had more than 200 receiving yards as a senior, while adding 35 tackles and an interception on defense. He also averaged nearly 30 yards per kickoff return.

Davie was selected to the offensive squad on the Lincoln Journal Star's Super-State team (athlete) and the Omaha World-Herald's All-Nebraska squad (back). He earned first-team Class B honors from both newspapers as a running back. Davie was regarded as one of the top three prospects in Nebraska by Rivals.com.

Davie also made a huge impression on the track in 2010, winning the all-class gold in both the 100 and 200 meters at the Nebraska state track meet. Davie recorded a 10.73 time in the 100 and a 21.95 time in the 200 to win both events. At the 2011 Shrine Bowl, Davie recorded a 28-yard touchdown reception. Davie committed to the Huskers in June of 2010. He received numerous offers, including Kansas and Ohio.

PERSONAL

Daniel is the son of Damon and Ruthanne Davie, and he was born on Aug. 4, 1993. Davie is majoring in criminology and criminal justice. Davie has volunteered his time with Make-a-Wish, Uplifting Athletes, local team hospital visits and a hospital visit during the Huskers' trip to the Gator Bowl in Jacksonville, Fla.

#88

PLATTSMOUTH, NEB. | PLATTSMOUTH

» Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Fall 2012)

2014 OUTLOOK

Sophomore Ross Dzuris will move into his third year in the Husker program this fall and is hopeful of earning playing time at the defensive end position. The 6-3, 250-pound Dzuris saw action with the top defensive units during spring ball and is in the mix for action behind projected starters Randy Gregory and Greg McMullen.

A walk-on from Plattsburgh High School, Dzuris has made excellent strides in the weight room during his time in Lincoln, adding more than 15 pounds of muscle.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Dzuris added depth at defensive end, but did not see action in a game.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Dzuris redshirted his first season at Nebraska.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (PLATTSMOUTH HS)

Dzuris was a force on the defensive line for Plattsburgh High School, leading the Blue Devils to consecutive playoff berths during his junior and senior seasons. As a senior, Dzuris earned second-team All-Nebraska honors from the Omaha World-Herald and was part of the Lincoln Journal Star Class B all-state football team after collecting 103 total tackles, including 45 solo stops.

During his junior season, Dzuris finished with 52 tackles and four sacks. For his efforts, he was named a first-team all-state selection by HuskerlandPreps.com and was a first-team all-area selection from the Omaha World-Herald. Dzuris was also a standout on the Plattsburgh basketball team, where he earned honorable-mention all-state recognition as a junior. He also competed in track and field. Dzuris participated in the Nebraska Shrine Bowl in June of 2012. He chose to walk on at Nebraska over scholarship offers from North Dakota and South Dakota.

PERSONAL

Ross was born on Oct. 13, 1993, and he is the son of Bob and Leesa Dzuris. He is majoring in business administration and was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2012. He has volunteered time with the Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline, Uplifting Athletes and local hospital visits.

WAVERLY, NEB. | WAVERLY

- » Two-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll
- » Brook Berringer Citizenship Team (2014)
- » Tom Osborne Citizenship Team (2014)

2014 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Erik Evans made the switch from linebacker to defensive end this spring, and will look to add depth at that position in 2014. The 6-3, 235-pound Evans is a walk-on prospect who redshirted in his first year in the program after an outstanding prep career at Waverly High School.

Evans is off to a strong start in the classroom, carrying a 3.555 grade-point average in marketing. He has also been active in Nebraska's community outreach efforts.

2013 (REDSHIRT)

Evans redshirted in his first season and worked as a scout team linebacker.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (WAVERLY HS)

Evans joined the Nebraska program as a walk-on from Waverly High School, where he was a versatile performer for Coach Mike Johnson. Evans saw action at tight end, linebacker, safety and quarterback. In his career, Evans rushed for 784 yards and 10 touchdowns, and threw for 761 yards as a quarterback. From his tight end spot, he caught 19 passes for 270 yards. On defense, Evans had a total of 180 tackles, including 116 unassisted, with seven interceptions, two fumbles caused and two fumble recoveries.

For his efforts, Evans was an honorable-mention all-state selection by both the Omaha World-Herald and Lincoln Journal Star. He also excelled on the hardwood for the Vikings, earning an honorable-mention all-state selection in basketball from both the World-Herald and Journal Star.

PERSONAL

Evans was born on Jan. 14, 1995, and is the son of Doug and Angie Evans. He is majoring in marketing. Evans' older brother, Tyler, played for the Huskers from 2010 to 2013. Erik Evans earned a spot on the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team and the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team. He has volunteered his time with Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Uplifting Athletes, Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline and local hospital visits.

JOSH FAULKENBERRY #92
LONG SNAPPER | 6-3 | 240 | REDSHIRT FRESHMAN
ARVADA, COLO. | ARVADA WEST

2014 OUTLOOK

Freshman Josh Faulkenberry joined the Husker football program as a long snapper in January and participated in spring ball. The Colorado native earned a spot on the Nebraska roster through the Huskers' open walk-on tryout last October. He will enter the fall as a backup behind sophomore Gabe Miller, who handled all of the Huskers' long snapping duties in 2013.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ARVADA WEST HS)

Faulkenberry was a member of the football team at Arvada West High School in Colorado. Faulkenberry was on the varsity roster all four years as a long snapper and also saw action at tight end. In addition to his snapping duties, he had 272 career receiving yards, and punted as a junior. Faulkenberry was also a member of Arvada West's baseball team and played power forward in basketball.

PERSONAL

Faulkenberry was born on June 9, 1994, and is the son of Brandon and Tracy Engelsman. Faulkenberry is majoring in management. He has volunteered his time with the Husker Hotline.

- » Five-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll
- » Two-Time Big 12 Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll
- » Brook Berringer Citizenship Team (2014)
- » Tom Osborne Citizenship Team (2014)

2014 OUTLOOK

Joey Felici will head into his senior season with hopes of earning playing time at cornerback for the Blackshirt defense. The Omaha native will also contend for action on the Huskers' special teams units. The 5-9, 175-pound Felici is a second-generation Cornhusker who joined the Nebraska program as a walk-on from Millard South, one of the state's top prep programs.

Felici is the son of former Husker Tony Felici, a three-year letterwinner and two-time All-Big Eight pick at defensive end from 1980 to 1982. The younger Felici is on track to earn his degree in business administration/management in December.

Felici added depth at cornerback, but did not play in a game.

2012 (SOPHOMORE)

Felici added depth at cornerback and saw action in NU's win over Idaho State.

2011 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Felici added depth at cornerback, but did not play in a game.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Felici redshirted and worked on the scout team defense.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (MILLARD SOUTH HS)

Felici helped Millard South and Coach Andy Means to two straight Class A State Championship appearances, starring on both sides of the ball as a senior. A 2009 first-team All-Nebraska pick by the Omaha World-Herald and a first-team Super State selection by the Lincoln Journal Star, Felici produced 57 tackles on defense. He also caught 29 passes for 635 yards and six touchdowns at wide receiver. Felici was part of an offense that set Class A records for points in a season with 624 and average points per game (48) as a senior.

PERSONAL

Joey is the son of Tony and Dee Felici, and he was born on Dec. 27, 1991. Felici is a five-time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll selection and was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll twice. Felici is active in Nebraska's community outreach efforts and earned a spot on both the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team and the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team. Felici has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes, Uplifting Athletes, School is Cool Week, the Husker Hotline along with numerous school and hospital outreach visits.

MATT FINNIN

2014 OUTLOOK

Junior Matt Finnin is hopeful of moving into the playing rotation at offensive tackle during the 2014 season following the graduation of three senior tackles from the 2013 Husker squad. Finnin worked primarily with the second offensive unit this spring and will enter fall with a chance for significant action.

Finnin saw limited action as a reserve last season, but possesses the prototypical size for an offensive tackle at 6-7 and 305 pounds. Finnin joined the Husker program after spending the 2012 season at the College of DuPage. He was granted an additional year of eligibility in the offseason and has two years remaining at Nebraska.

Finnin was a reserve tackle and saw action in Husker victories over Southern Miss, South Dakota State, Illinois and Purdue.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (COLLEGE OF DUPAGE/CRETE MONEE HS)

Finnin joined the Huskers after spending the 2012 season at the College of DuPage in Illinois. Finnin was a physical presence on the offensive line for Coach Gary Thomas' team in 2012, helping DuPage to a 9-2 record and a victory over Northeastern Oklahoma A&M in the Citizen's Bank Bowl. The 2012 season was Finnin's only season at College of DuPage.

Finnin graduated from high school in 2010 and signed with Western Michigan. He redshirted for the Broncos in 2010, but then returned home the following spring for family reasons. He enrolled at Eastern Illinois in August of 2011, but again left school to return home.

At Monee High School in Crete, Ill., Finnin was a member of back-to-back Southland Athletic Conference championship teams in 2008 and 2009. He was named to the Southtown Star's All-Area team as a junior and to the NWI Times All-Area squad as a senior. Finnin was a member of the Chicago Sun Times' Top 100 and was named to the EdgyTim.com all-state team. Finnin was regarded among the top 40 overall junior-college prospects by Rivals.com and among the top 10 junior-college offensive tackles. Finnin had a number of offers including Ohio State, Oklahoma, West Virginia, Maryland and Kansas before choosing Nebraska.

PERSONAL

Finnin was born on Aug. 19, 1991, and he is the son of Gary Finnin and Cathy Norton. Finnin is a history major. He has volunteered his time with the Uplifting Athletes, Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline, NFL Fuel Up to Play 60 and local rec center and hospital outreach events.

#27

GRAND ISLAND, NEB. | GRAND ISLAND

» Big Ten All-Freshman Team (BTN, 2013)

» Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Spring 2013)

2014 OUTLOOK

Punter Sam Foltz performed well in his first season as the Huskers' punter in 2013, but will look to improve his consistency in his second season as a starter. Foltz took over the punting duties in 2013 following the graduation of two-time Big Ten Punter-of-the-Year Brett Maher, and Foltz kept Nebraska among the Big Ten's best punt units.

The Grand Island, Neb., native ranked fifth in the Big Ten in punting average to help the Huskers rank in the top 40 nationally in net punting. Foltz should be a strong contender for All-Big Ten honors this season. A talented athlete, Foltz worked as both a punter and receiver as a redshirt in 2012, before focusing on punting last fall.

Foltz started all 13 games and averaged 41.6 yards per punt. He booted 16 punts of at least 50 yards, while having 22 punts downed inside the opposition's 20-yard line. Foltz's punting also helped Nebraska's punt coverage unit allow an average of just 8.1 yards on 15 punt returns. Foltz pinned Penn State inside its own 20 four times, while pinning three punts inside the 20 against both Purdue and Northwestern. Foltz had a season-long 64-yard punt at Michigan.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Foltz redshirted in his first season in the program in 2012.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (GRAND ISLAND HS)

Foltz was a dynamic performer for Grand Island, helping lead the Islanders to a 9-2 record and a trip to the Class A quarterfinals as a senior. Foltz was one of the most versatile athletes in the state, starting on both sides of the football. A first-team All-Nebraska pick as a senior defensive back, Foltz led Grand Island in tackles with 84, including 61 solo stops, and four interceptions. On offense, Foltz teamed up with fellow Husker Ryker Fyfe to make up one of the most dangerous passing duos in the state. Foltz caught 39 passes for 686 yards and 10 touchdowns as senior. He was also a valuable asset on special teams, where he was member of the Lincoln Journal Star Super State team as a senior punter. During his junior season, Foltz had 60 total tackles and five interceptions. Foltz also competed in track and field, earning a third-place finish in the 400-meter dash at the 2012 state track and field meet. Foltz was selected to participate in the 2012 Nebraska Shrine Bowl and caught a 17-yard touchdown pass from Fyfe. Foltz chose to walk on at Nebraska over scholarship offers from South Dakota State, Northwest Missouri State, Nebraska-Kearney and South Dakota.

PERSONAL

Sam was born on Jan. 21, 1994, and is the son of Gerald and Jill Foltz. He is an agronomy major and was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll during the spring 2013 semester. Foltz has volunteered his time with team hospital visits, Husker Connect and Uplifting Athletes.

2014 OUTLOOK

Senior Derek Foster will compete for playing time in the secondary during his senior season in 2014. The 5-11, 185-pound Foster has added depth at cornerback throughout his career and will look to do the same again this fall. A walk-on from Elm Creek High School, Foster could also bid for playing time on special teams.

Foster is a nutrition, exercise and health science major and he will earn his undergraduate degree in December.

Foster added depth in the secondary, but did not play in a game.

2012 (SOPHOMORE)

Foster was a reserve cornerback, but did not play in a game.

2011 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Foster added depth in the secondary, but did not appear in a game.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Foster redshirted and worked on the scout team defense.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ELM CREEK HS)

As a senior at Elm Creek, Foster was named a first-team Class C-2 all-state pick as a running back by the Omaha World-Herald and as a defensive back by the Lincoln Journal Star. Foster rushed for 1,300 yards and 19 touchdowns in his senior season.

Foster holds multiple school records at Elm Creek, including career rushing yards (3,955), career points scored (324) and career interceptions (17). On defense, Foster intercepted three passes as a senior and six as a junior. Foster also contributed on special teams, where he returned three kickoffs and a punt for scores as a senior.

Foster also starred on the track, where he finished first in Class C in the 300-intermediate hurdles. He was second in the 110-meter high hurdles as a senior and third as a junior.

PERSONAL

Derek is the son of Curt and Kelly Foster, and he was born on Jan. 27, 1992. He was named to the 2011 Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll, and is a two-time member of the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll. Foster has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes, Uplifting Athletes, Husker Hotline and team hospital visits.

- » Two-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll
- » Brook Berringer Citizenship Team (2013)
- » Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Leadership Award (2013)

2014 OUTLOOK

Trey Foster is one of three sophomores who return at tight end and are in line to earn the majority of the snaps at the position this fall. The 6-0, 245-pound Foster played primarily in Nebraska's heavy formation near the goal line or in a short-yardage formation. However, this year he hopes to join Cethan Carter and Sam Cotton as every-down tight end options for the Huskers.

A Lincoln native, Foster joined the program as a walk-on from Lincoln Southeast High School. He will be joined on the 2014 NU roster by his younger brother, Jerald, a scholarship signee on the offensive line.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Foster played in six games in 2013, primarily in short-yardage situations. He had one catch for nine yards at Purdue.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Foster redshirted in his first season in the program in 2012.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SOUTHEAST HS)

Foster earned first-team All-Nebraska accolades from both the Omaha World-Herald and Lincoln Journal Star as a defensive lineman as a senior. Foster, who helped Lincoln Southeast to the Class A state championship, had seven receptions for 105 yards and two touchdowns as a senior. From his defensive end position, Foster recorded 59 tackles, 3.5 sacks and three fumble recoveries. He was part of a defense that allowed a total of 34 points in four playoff games.

A member of the Southeast track and field team, Foster earned seventh-place finishes in both the shot put and discus at the 2012 Nebraska state track and field meet. Foster shined in the 2012 Nebraska Shrine Bowl, recording six tackles, recovering a fumble and tipping a pass that was intercepted and returned for a first-quarter touchdown. Foster turned down a scholarship offer to Southeast Missouri State for the opportunity to walk on at Nebraska.

PERSONAL

Trey was born on May 13, 1994, and he is the son of Jesse and Charlesette Foster. Foster is a marketing major and is a two-time member of the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll. Foster earned a spot on the 2013 Brook Berringer Citizenship Team and has been a regular contributor to Nebraska's community outreach efforts. Foster has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes, Make-a-Wish, NFL Fuel Up to Play 60, and numerous hospital, school and community center visits. He also volunteered for School is Cool Week and the UNL Dance Marathon. Foster was the recipient of a 2013 Nebraska HERO Leadership Award.

- » Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Leadership Award (2013)

Sophomore Ryker Fyfe has added depth at quarterback during his first two seasons in the Nebraska program and made his mark with a strong spring in 2014. The 6-2, 210-pound Fyfe spent spring ball splitting reps at the No. 2 quarterback spot with redshirt freshman Johnny Stanton, and Fyfe will enter fall camp in hopes of earning playing time this season. Fyfe has made outstanding progress in the strength and conditioning program during his time with the Huskers, adding more than 30 pounds of muscle. Fyfe has a strong arm, and the mobility to be a threat as a runner. Fyfe originally joined the program as a walk-on after a strong career at Grand Island High School.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Fyfe was a reserve quarterback and played in Nebraska's win over South Dakota State. He completed his only pass attempt for five yards, and also had a three-yard run.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Fyfe redshirted his first season at Nebraska and worked on the scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (GRAND ISLAND HS)

Fyfe guided one of the most potent offenses in Nebraska as a senior, leading Grand Island to nearly 400 yards of offense and 40 points per game. He was a first-team Omaha World-Herald All-Nebraska pick, and was the quarterback and honorary captain of the Lincoln Journal Star's Super State team. A dual-threat quarterback, Fyfe threw for 1,921 yards and 20 touchdowns as a senior, while also rushing for 746 yards and 14 scores, averaging 6.4 yards per carry.

Fyfe completed 59 percent of his passes as a senior and averaged 16.0 yards per completion. As a junior, Fyfe finished with 1,492 passing yards and 14 touchdowns. Fyfe, who also played basketball and baseball, started at quarterback for the North team in the 2012 Nebraska Shrine Bowl and threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to fellow Grand Island product Sam Foltz. Fyfe chose to walk on at Nebraska over a scholarship offer from Nebraska-Kearney.

PERSONAL

Ryker is the son of Montie and Kim Fyfe. Ryker was born on Nov. 20, 1993. He is a sociology major. Fyfe has volunteered time with team hospital visits and Uplifting Athletes.

2014 OUTLOOK

Junior Jack Gangwish is poised to make a push for playing time at defensive end this season after continuing to make great strides in the Nebraska program. The 6-2, 260-pound Gangwish has been a standout in the weight room throughout his career, adding more than 30 pounds of muscle since arriving on campus. Gangwish spent the majority of the spring working with the second unit at end and will have an opportunity to see action behind projected starters Randy Gregory and Greg McMullen. The walk-on from Wood River, Neb., has shown the relentless attitude to work his way into a position to contend for playing time.

2013 (SOPHOMORE)

Gangwish added depth at defensive end, but did not play in a game.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Gangwish was a standout on the scout team defense, working at linebacker. He did not play in a game.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

Gangwish redshirted in his first season and worked on the scout team defense.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (WOOD RIVER HS)

Gangwish walked on and followed in the footsteps of his father, Paul, who lettered for the Huskers as a walk-on in the 1980s. The younger Gangwish was a three-year starter for Wood River High School and Coach Derek Garfield. As a senior, Gangwish made 103 tackles, four quarterback sacks and forced two fumbles while recovering another. Gangwish earned honorable-mention Class C-1 all-state accolades for his play. Gangwish was also among the top-ranked wrestlers in the Class C 215-pound weight class. He had a scholarship offer from Chadron State.

PERSONAL

Jack was born on Jan. 6, 1993, and is the son of Paul and Deb Gangwish. He is majoring in agricultural economics and earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the spring of 2014. Gangwish has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline and team hospital visits. Paul Gangwish was a letterwinner at defensive end for Coach Tom Osborne in 1985.

» Honorable-Mention Big Ten All-Freshman Team (BTN, 2013)

Sophomore Nate Gerry saw significant playing time as a true freshman last fall, showing his versatility in his first year in the program. The 6-2, 205-pound Gerry played defensive back in high school, but was utilized at linebacker last year and earned playing time in every game, including three starts.

This spring, Gerry moved back to his natural safety position and is in line to compete for a prominent role for the 2014 Blackshirts. Gerry and fellow sophomore LeRoy Alexander spent the majority of the spring with the top defense, while returning starter Corey Cooper sat out with a minor injury. That trio of safeties is expected to get the majority of the snaps this fall.

Gerry's move to linebacker last fall was evidence that the coaching staff is confident in his ability in run support, and Gerry also has the speed to excel in pass coverage. Gerry was Nebraska's leader in special teams tackles last season and is likely to again contribute on NU's coverage units.

Gerry saw action in every game, playing at linebacker and also on special teams units. He was in the starting lineup in non-league play against Southern Miss, UCLA and South Dakota State. Gerry finished the season with 32 tackles, including 18 solo stops. He added a pair of tackles for loss and a quarterback hurry.

Gerry made five tackles in the season opener against Wyoming, then had a season-high seven tackles against UCLA, when he produced his first career tackle for loss. He had four tackles each against Purdue and Minnesota, and added three stops vs. Southern Miss and South Dakota State. Gerry led the Huskers with seven tackles on special teams.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (WASHINGTON HS)

Gerry joined the program from Washington High School in Sioux Falls, S.D., and was Nebraska's first scholarship signee from South Dakota since 2003 and just the Huskers' third signee from the state since 1997. Gerry's play helped Washington High and Coach Brian Hermanson to a 48-3 record and three state championships over four years.

In 2012, Sioux Falls Washington posted a perfect 12-0 record and outscored its opponents by a combined score of 549-81. Gerry rarely came off the field as a senior. As a safety on defense, he made 64 tackles, including 13.5 tackles for loss and added eight pass breakups, five interceptions and also forced two fumbles. He played running back and receiver on offense and accounted for 1,216 all-purpose yards and 22 touchdowns. Gerry also handled the kicking and punting chores as a senior. Gerry was a first-team Class 11AA all-state selection as a receiver for his play in 2012.

Gerry was also a two-way starter during his junior season when Washington posted a 10-3 record and was the state runner-up. Gerry made 73 tackles, with two sacks and three interceptions on defense, while adding 37 receptions for 647 yards and eight touchdowns as a receiver. Gerry was an All Greater Dakota Conference first-team choice in 2011, and was also selected by the high school coaches in South Dakota as one of the Elite 45 players in the state.

In addition to his versatile football talents, Gerry was a top track athlete for Washington High. Gerry won his second straight 200-meter state title as a senior in 2013 and after finishing second in the 100 meters as a junior, he took the state title as a senior. In his senior season, Gerry set the state record in the 200 meters with a time of 21.52. Gerry was widely regarded as the top prospect in South Dakota and one of the top 50 athlete prospects in the country. He did not take any other visits after committing to Nebraska, but he also had offers from Iowa, Iowa State, Michigan State, Minnesota and Arizona State.

PERSONAL

Gerry was born on Feb. 23, 1995, and is the son of Brian and Kelli Gerry. Gerry has not declared a major. He has volunteered his time with Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Uplifting Athletes, Husker Heroes and Husker Hotline.

» Two-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll

2014 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Kevin Gladney will enter fall camp with hopes of earning playing time in a deep and talented Husker receiving corps. The 6-1, 190-pound Gladney sat out his first season in the program as a redshirt and added strength through the Huskers' weight program.

Gladney has excellent size and speed and will look to see action at a position where Nebraska returns seven of its top eight receivers from last season. An Ohio native, Gladney is off to a good start in the classroom where he earned Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll accolades in each of his first two semesters.

Gladney redshirted in his first season at Nebraska.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (FIRESTONE SENIOR HS)

Gladney was one of three signees from Ohio in the Huskers' 2013 class. Gladney posted big receiving numbers for Coach Tim Flossie at Firestone High in Akron, Ohio. Gladney had 32 receptions for 536 yards and seven touchdowns as a senior. He also accounted for 110 yards on three kickoff returns. Gladney's play helped Firestone to a 5-5 record in the Ohio Division II ranks. For his play, Gladney was a second-team Division II All-Ohio choice.

Gladney posted even bigger numbers as a junior for Firestone, when he grabbed 48 receptions for 768 yards and 12 touchdowns to earn all-city honors in Akron. Gladney first made a strong impression as a sophomore when he saw extensive action for Firestone. Gladney was also a standout on the basketball court. As a junior, he averaged 19 points per game to help his team to a 15-7 record and earn all-city honors. As a senior, he led Firestone to a 13-10 record. Gladney only visited Nebraska, but did have offers from Iowa, Michigan, Michigan State, Purdue, Vanderbilt and Cincinnati to name a few. Gladney was generally regarded as one of the top 50 players in the state of Ohio and as one of the top 60 receiver prospects in the nation.

PERSONAL

Gladney is the son of Dorryea Gladney and Kevin Barnett, and he was born on Feb. 13, 1995. He has not declared a major. Gladney has volunteered his time with Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Uplifting Athletes, Husker Heroes and Husker Hotline.

2014 OUTLOOK

Defensive end Randy Gregory burst onto the scene for Nebraska in 2013 and ended the year as one of the most dynamic defenders in the nation. Gregory was a dominant pass rusher from his defensive end spot, leading the conference in sacks and ranking among the league leaders in tackles for loss.

Despite being a newcomer to the conference, Gregory was a first-team all-conference choice by both the coaches and the media and was a semifinalist for the Hendricks Award, given to the nation's top defensive end.

Gregory returns in 2014 to anchor the Nebraska defensive front, and he is expected to contend for major conference and national honors. Gregory has worked in the offseason to become a more consistent run stopper, while keeping his incredible burst off the edge on passing downs.

The 6-6, 240-pound Gregory finished 2013 with 10.5 sacks for 69 yards in losses and was in on 19 tackles for loss, totaling 101 yards. Gregory had at least one sack in seven of the final eight games, and had at least one tackle for loss in each of the final 12 games.

The 10.5 sacks were 2.5 more than Ohio State's Noah Spence for the Big Ten lead, and Gregory's sack total ranked 15th nationally. He had 9.0 of his sacks in Big Ten Conference games, including three sacks at Michigan. His conference sack total was 2.5 more sacks than any other player in the league. Gregory also ranked second in the conference in tackles for loss, trailing only OSU linebacker Ryan Shazier.

Gregory's big-play ability did not stop with tackles behind the line. He had an interception return for a touchdown against South Dakota State, and a fumble caused and recovered at Purdue. He also led the team with a team-high 18 quarterback hurries, including four each against Michigan State and Southern Miss.

Gregory joined the Nebraska program after spending the past two seasons at Arizona Western Community College.

Gregory started 10 of 13 games and finished the year with 66 tackles, including 40 solo stops. He had at least five tackles eight times, including each of the final five games. Gregory registered a season-high eight tackles in four games.

He opened the year with two tackles each against Wyoming and Southern Miss, including his first career tackle for loss against the Golden Eagles. He also had four hurries against Southern Miss. Gregory tied his season high with eight tackles against UCLA, including two tackles for loss for 12 yards, and also forced a fumble against the Bruins.

Gregory's 33-yard interception return for a touchdown against South Dakota State marked the first interception for a touchdown by a defensive lineman since Ndamukong Suh in 2008. He also made five tackles against the Jackrabbits, including two tackles for loss and split the first sack of his career.

Gregory had his second eight-tackle game of the year against Illinois, including five solo stops and a tackle for loss. He made the most of two tackles at Purdue, registering sacks on both, including a 17-yard sack for a safety in the third quarter. He also recovered a fumble in the third quarter. Gregory had one sack each against Minnesota and Northwestern, and his sack against the Wildcats forced Northwestern to kick a late field goal and keep NU's chances of victory alive.

Gregory earned Big Ten Defensive Player-of-the-Week honors for his effort at Michigan. He notched three of Nebraska's seven sacks and totaled four tackles for loss totaling 24 yards in the Husker win. Gregory matched his season high with eight tackles against Michigan State, including a nine-yard sack. At Penn State, Gregory had eight tackles, but was held without a sack for only the second time in conference play.

He closed the regular season with five tackles and a sack against Iowa. Gregory had five tackles, including two tackles for a loss, and a sack in the Gator Bowl win over Georgia.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

(ARIZONA WESTERN CC/HAMILTON SOUTHEASTERN HS)

Gregory was regarded as the nation's top junior-college defensive end prospect and one of the top 10 JUCO prospects regardless of position after his two years at Arizona Western Community College. Gregory received extensive recruiting attention even though he missed the entire 2012 season because of a broken leg.

As a freshman at Arizona Western in 2011, Gregory posted impressive numbers and was named a first-team all-conference defensive end. Gregory had 82 total tackles, including 21 tackles for loss and nine sacks, to help Arizona Western to a trip to the NJCAA title game.

He also forced three fumbles and recovered two others for Coach Tom Minnick's team. In addition to Nebraska, Gregory also visited Iowa State, and received scholarship offers from dozens of schools including Iowa, UCLA, Missouri, Arkansas, Oregon State, Washington, Illinois and West Virginia.

Gregory originally signed with Purdue after a standout prep career at Hamilton Southeastern High School in Fishers, Ind. He was ranked as one of the top 15 players in Indiana following his senior season. Gregory also had big numbers as a junior in high school, posting 92 tackles, including 17 sacks. In addition to numerous scholarship offers in football, Gregory also attracted Division I basketball interest out of high school.

PERSONAL

Gregory was born on Nov. 23, 1992, and he is the son of Ken and Mary Gregory. He is majoring in sociology. Gregory has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes and visits to the Belmont and Calvert Community rec centers.

» Two-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll

2014 OUTLOOK

Offensive tackle Sam Hahn joined the Nebraska program in January of 2013, and after a year in the program, he is hopeful of contending for playing time in 2014. Hahn made steady progress this spring at a position where Nebraska lost three veteran players. The 6-6, 300-pound Hahn was a prep standout at Tri-County High School in DeWitt, and joined the Huskers after first enrolling at North Dakota State in the summer of 2012.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Hahn added depth at tackle, but did not see game action.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (TRI-COUNTY HS/NORTH DAKOTA STATE)

Hahn enrolled briefly at North Dakota State in 2012, before transferring to Nebraska. Hahn was a four-year starter on the line for Coach John McGary at Tri-County High School. His play helped Tri-County to four straight state playoff appearances, including a trip to the Class C-2 quarterfinals and a 9-2 record in 2011. Hahn was a first-team Class C-2 all-state selection as a senior after earning an honorable-mention selection as a junior. Hahn was invited to play in the 2012 Shrine Bowl game.

On the hardwood, Hahn was a two-time all-conference pick and scored more than 1,000 career points. Hahn helped his team to a 14-9 record as a senior and earned honorable-mention Class C-2 all-state accolades. Hahn also earned four medals at the state track meet, placing in both the shot put and discus in his junior and senior seasons. Hahn was an academic all-state selection in football, basketball and track.

PERSONAL

Sam was born on June 7, 1993, and he is the son of James and Robin Hahn. He is an agronomy major. Hahn was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in each of the past two semesters. He has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes, the Husker Hotline, Husker Heroes and team hospital visits.

» Two-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Fall 2013)

2014 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Zach Hannon hopes to earn on the Nebraska offensive line after sitting out his first season in Lincoln. The 6-5, 305-pound Hannon spent the spring working at offensive guard, where several young players will push for playing time. The Kansas City product was strong in the classroom in his first year in Lincoln earning a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll each of his first two semesters.

2013 (REDSHIRT)

Hannon redshirted in his first year in the Husker program.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ROCKHURST HS)

Hannon had a standout career at Rockhurst High School under Coach Tony Severino. Hannon was a dominant force on the offensive line as a senior, helping Rockhurst to a 9-3 record and a trip to the third round of the state playoffs. Hannon did not allow a sack on the season and recorded 34 pancake blocks. For his efforts as a senior, Hannon earned first-team Class 6A all-state honors in Missouri, and he was a first-team All-Metro pick by the Kansas City Star.

In his junior season, Hannon helped Rockhurst to a 10-2 record and a trip to the Class 6A quarterfinals. Hannon participated in the Semper Fi All-Star Game in Arizona following his senior season. He was regarded as one of the top 10 prospects in the state of Missouri and among the top 50 offensive line prospects in the country. Hannon did not take any official visits beyond Nebraska, but had offers from Arkansas, Colorado, Missouri, Kansas State, Kansas, Northwestern, Iowa State and Illinois to name a few.

PERSONAL

Hannon was born on Sept. 7, 1994, and he is the son of Timothy and Deborah Hannon. He has not declared a major. Hannon has volunteered his time with Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Uplifting Athletes, Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline, and team hospital and community rec center visits.

2014 OUTLOOK

Greg Hart will look to join a group of young players battling for playing time at tight end in the 2014 season. The 6-5, 240-pound Hart has made strides in the weight room during his first year in the program and will push sophomores Cethan Carter, Sam Cotton and Trey Foster for playing time at the position.

An Ohio native, Hart was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in each of his first two semesters, and carries a 3.333 grade-point average in finance/marketing. He has also been a leader in the Huskers' community outreach efforts.

Hart redshirted in his first year in the Husker program.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ARCHBISHOP ALTER HS)

Hart was a standout two-way player for Coach Ed Domsitz at Archbishop Alter High School in Dayton. Archbishop Alter posted an 8-2-1 record in 2012 and reached the first round of the state playoffs. Hart finished his senior season with better than 20 receptions for approximately 300 yards and three touchdowns. From his defensive end spot, Hart racked up better than 60 tackles, including a league-leading 10 sacks and an interception. He earned conference defensive lineman-of-the-year honors and was an honorable-mention Division III All-Ohio choice.

Hart was also a difference-maker on both sides of the ball during his junior season, when he helped Alter to a 10-1 record. The school completed the regular season with a perfect record in 2011, before losing in the first round of the state playoffs. Hart was regarded as one of the top 30 tight end prospects in the country and one of the top 40 overall prospects in the state of Ohio. Hart committed to Nebraska in May of his junior year and did not take any other official visits. He had several offers, including Northwestern, Indiana, Pittsburgh, Purdue, Louisville, Kentucky and North Carolina State.

PERSONAL

Hart is the son of Thomas and Linda Hart, and he was born on Oct. 12, 1994. He is majoring in finance/marketing. Hart has volunteered his time with Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Uplifting Athletes, Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline and several local hospital, elementary school and community rec center visits.

2014 OUTLOOK

Sophomore Lane Hovey hopes to push for playing time in a deep receiving corps in 2014. The 6-4, 205-pound Hovey is among the Huskers' biggest receiving targets and had an outstanding spring practice session, bolstering his hopes of finding his way into the playing rotation.

Hovey is one of Nebraska's top student-athletes off the field. He carries a perfect 4.0 cumulative grade-point average in business administration, and he has also earned a spot on the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team the past two years.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Hovey added depth at receiver and appeared in the Huskers' wins over South Dakota State and Southern Miss. He did not have a reception.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Hovey redshirted his first season at Nebraska.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ADM ADEL HS)

Hovey helped lead ADM Adel (Iowa) High School to a 12-1 record as a senior in 2011, when he was a Class 3A first-team all-state selection. He was a standout for an ADM receiving corps that ranked second in the state in touchdown receptions, third in catches and fourth in receiving yards. Hovey ended his career on a strong note, leading his team with four catches and 33 receiving yards in his final game, a loss in the semifinals of the Iowa Class 3A state playoffs. Hovey also played basketball and ran track for the Tigers.

PERSONAL

Lane is the son of Kent and Sondra Hovey and was born on Oct. 8, 1993. He is a business administration major and has been named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll each of his first four semesters. Hovey is a two-time member of the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team. - » Academic All-Big Ten (2013)
- » Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Fall 2012)

Junior defensive back Charles Jackson has shown his versatility in the secondary during his first two seasons in the program. He has spent time at both cornerback and safety, and that flexibility could serve Jackson well. He is expected to compete for the starting nickel back job, a key position in the Huskers' defensive scheme.

The 5-11, 180-pound Jackson is one of the top all-around athletes on the Husker roster, and has made his biggest impact the past two years with his high-energy play on the Huskers' special teams units.

Jackson earned Academic All-Big Ten honors in 2013.

2013 (SOPHOMORE)

Jackson played in all 13 games, primarily on special teams, while also providing depth at safety. He finished with seven total tackles and ranked second on the team with six special teams stops. Jackson had three special teams tackles in the opener against Wyoming. He had two solo tackles against South Dakota State, including one on special teams. He also forced a fumble against the Jackrabbits.

2012 (FRESHMAN)

Jackson was one of five true freshmen to see action, playing in 13 games. He made 11 tackles, including six solo stops. Jackson was second on the team with seven tackles on special teams. He had a season-high two tackles in both the first meeting with Wisconsin and at Ohio State. Jackson added a pass breakup against Idaho State.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (KLEIN COLLINS HS)

One of the top secondary prospects in the state of Texas in the class of 2011, Jackson was a key performer for Coach Drew Svoboda at Collins High School in Klein, Texas. Jackson's play helped the team to an 11-1 record and a district championship in 2010, before a loss in the second round of the state playoffs. Jackson recorded 73 total tackles, including 50 solo stops in his senior season. The aggressive corner also had three interceptions and five pass breakups. Jackson earned first-team all-district honors as a senior.

Jackson was also a key performer for the Tigers as a junior, racking up 75 tackles and five interceptions on his way to second-team all-district honors. He was a prep teammate of Husker linebacker David Santos. Jackson was one of several 2011 Husker signees to participate in the U.S. Army All-America game in San Antonio. Jackson was regarded as the second-best cornerback prospect in the country by Scout.com, while Rivals ranked him among the top 10 corners in the country, and the No. 100 overall player in the nation. Jackson received dozens of offers, and also visited Arkansas and Oklahoma before choosing Nebraska.

PERSONAL

Charles was born on Aug. 16, 1992, and is the son of Rick and Yolanda Parker. Jackson is majoring in criminology and criminal justice and he was named to the Academic All-Big Ten team in 2013. He earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2012. He volunteered with Make-A-Wish, School is Cool Week, NFL Fuel Up to Play 60 and Husker Hotline, along with hospital, school and community rec center outreach events.

GRETNA, NEB. | GRETNA

» Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Spring 2013)

2014 OUTLOOK

Andy Janovich teamed with 2013 senior C.J. Zimmerer to give Nebraska two reliable options at the fullback position the past two seasons. With Zimmerer having moved on following graduation, the 6-1, 230-pound Janovich is poised to take the bulk of the snaps at the fullback spot this fall.

Janovich is one of the strongest players on the roster and provides a physical punch as a lead blocker. He is also a capable option as both a runner and receiver out of the Husker backfield. Janovich has also seen action on special teams throughout his career and is likely to contribute in that role again in 2014.

Originally a walk-on, Janovich earned a scholarship before the start of the 2013 season, earning a scholarship faster than any other walk-on in Bo Pelini's tenure as head coach.

Janovich played in all 13 games and alternated time at fullback with Zimmerer. Janovich did not have a carry on the season. He had an eight-yard kickoff return at Penn State.

2012 (FRESHMAN)

Janovich did not play in the first three games, but became a regular contributor in the final 11 games. He started against Idaho State and Ohio State and finished with three carries for six yards, all against Idaho State. He also caught two passes for 13 yards, with one reception each against Idaho State and Ohio State.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (GRETNA HS)

Janovich was named first-team All-Nebraska by the Omaha World-Herald as a linebacker and was part of the Lincoln Journal Star's second-team Super State squad, after leading Gretna to the Nebraska Class B semifinals as a senior. Janovich rushed for 799 yards and 18 touchdowns as a senior, while averaging 7.6 yards per carry. On defense, he led Gretna in tackles with 112 and finished with eight tackles for loss.

Janovich was selected to play in the Nebraska Shrine Bowl. He also starred in wrestling, where he was the 2012 Class B 220-pound champion with a 46-0 record, a year after winning the 189-pound title with a 53-0 record. Janovich chose to walk on at Nebraska over a scholarship offer from Nebraska-Kearney.

GARRET JOHNS

#50

AURORA, NEB. | AURORA

» Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Fall 2012)

2014 OUTLOOK

Sophomore Garret Johns has added depth on both offense and defense during his first two seasons in the program. The walk-on from Aurora high school began his NU career on the offensive line before switching to defense in 2013. This fall, the 6-0, 280-pound Johns will look to add depth on a young, but talented Husker defensive front.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Johns moved to defense in the spring and added depth on the line, but did not play in a game.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Johns redshirted his first season at Nebraska and worked on the scout team offensive line.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (AURORA HS)

A multi-sport athlete at Aurora High School, Johns was named to the All-Nebraska second team by the Omaha World-Herald and the Super State second team by the Lincoln Journal Star. As a senior, he helped lead the Huskies to the Class B state playoffs with an 8-3 record from his offensive line position. Johns was selected to participate in the Nebraska Shrine Bowl.

Johns was also a standout on the wrestling mat where he won Class B heavyweight state championships as a junior and senior, posting a combined 82-0 record. Johns chose to walk on at Nebraska over offers from South Dakota State, Northwest Missouri State and Fort Hays State.

PERSONAL

Garret was born on Nov. 10, 1993, and is the son of Joe and Rosemary Johns. He is majoring in agronomy. Johns was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2012. He has volunteered his time with team hospital visits, the Community Action partnership, Uplifting Athletes and Husker Hotline.

DWAYNE JOHNSON JR. #76

OFFENSIVE LINE | 6-6 | 285 | REDSHIRT FRESHMAN

HOUSTON, TEXAS | BELLAIRE

» Brook Berringer Citizenship Team (2014)

» Tom Osborne Citizenship Team (2014)

2014 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Dwayne Johnson Jr. is part of a talented group of young players on the Nebraska offensive line who will look to make their first impact in 2014. The 6-6, 285-pound Johnson spent his first year in the Nebraska program as a redshirt and added strength in the Husker weight program. This spring, Johnson spent his time at offensive tackle and will look to battle for snaps this fall.

Johnson has also established himself as a leader in Nebraska's community outreach efforts, earning a spot on both the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team and the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team in his first year in the program.

2013 (REDSHIRT)

Johnson sat out in his first season and worked on the scout team offensive line.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (BELLAIRE HS)

Johnson helped Bellaire High School and Coach Trey Sissom reach the Class 5A playoffs in 2012. Johnson's play helped his team to a powerful running attack that averaged 197 yards per game. For his efforts, Johnson was a second-team All-Greater Houston selection on the offensive line, and he earned second-team all-district honors.

As a junior, Johnson's powerful blocking helped trigger an explosive Bellaire offense that gained nearly 375 yards per game, including 260 rushing yards per contest. Bellaire had three players rush for better than 700 yards and the team posted a 7-4 record and advanced to the state playoffs. Johnson was regarded as one of the top 60 offensive tackles in the 2013 class according to 247 Sports, and the service also ranked Johnson just outside the top 100 players in Texas. Johnson chose Nebraska over offers from Arkansas, Colorado, Oklahoma, Virginia, Washington State and Purdue.

PERSONAL

He was born on March 24, 1995, and is the son of Dwayne Johnson Sr. and Fatima Brown. Johnson is majoring in business administration. He has an extensive list of volunteer activities including Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Uplifting Athletes, Red Cross, Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline, and several local hospital, school and community rec center events.

HARRISON JORDAN #38
FULLBACK | 5-10 | 235 | REDSHIRT FRESHMAN
OMAHA, NEB. | WESTSIDE

» Two-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll

2014 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Harrison Jordan will enter fall camp with a goal of earning playing time at fullback in 2014. The 5-10, 235-pound Jordan redshirted in his first season in the Nebraska program and will enter this season as one of the top options behind junior Andy Janovich, who has been a regular at fullback the past two seasons. A walk-on from Omaha, Jordan earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll each of his first two semesters. He carries a 3.689 cumulative grade-point average.

2013 (REDSHIRT)

Jordan sat out as a redshirt and worked on the scout team offense.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (WESTSIDE HS)

Jordan was a two-way standout at Westside High School, excelling as a fullback and linebacker for Coach Brett Froendt. As a senior, Jordan had 78 tackles, including 54 solo stops, and added four sacks and two fumble recoveries. He also carried the ball 16 times for 63 yards and two touchdowns. Jordan was a second-team All-Nebraska and second-team Super State choice as a linebacker. He also earned first-team Class A all-state honors from the Lincoln Journal Star and first-team All-Metro accolades from the Omaha World-Herald. Jordan also drew interest from North Dakota State, South Dakota, Augustana and Wayne State.

PERSONAL

Jordan is the son of Biz and Kristina Jordan, and was born on Dec. 17, 1994. Jordan is majoring in business administration. He has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes, Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline and team hospital visits.

BOAZ JOSEPH #1
DEFENSIVE BACK | 6-1 | 190 | REDSHIRT FRESHMAN
WESTON, FLA. | CYPRESS BAY

2014 OUTLOOK

Cornerback Boaz Joseph is hopeful of getting into the mix for playing time this fall after sitting out his first season in Lincoln as a redshirt. The Florida native will battle for playing time after the Huskers lost two of their top three corners from 2013. Only senior Josh Mitchell has extensive game experience. The 6-1, 190-pound Joseph spent the spring primarily working with the No. 2 defense.

2013 (REDSHIRT)

Joseph redshirted and was a valuable performer on the Huskers' scout team defense.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (CYPRESS BAY HS)

Joseph joined Nebraska after a standout career at Cypress Bay High School in Weston, Fla., one of the top prep programs in Florida. As a senior, Joseph had 52 tackles, 12 pass breakups and four fumble recoveries to help Cypress Bay to a 12-3 record. The school reached the finals of the Class 8A playoffs by winning four straight games by 20 points or more, before dropping a 53-50 decision to Apopka in the state finals. Joseph's play earned him third-team Class 8A all-state honors in 2012, as well as first-team All-Broward County accolades.

Joseph recorded five interceptions as a junior in 2011, helping Cypress Bay to an 8-4 record and the second round of the state playoffs. Joseph also showed his speed on the track, posting a sub-11 second 100-meter dash as a senior. Joseph was ranked as one of the top 70 corners in the nation by 247 Sports and was listed among the top 150 prospects in the talent-rich state of Florida. Joseph chose Nebraska after also visiting Louisville, Kentucky, Wisconsin and Purdue, while also receiving offers from Missouri, Minnesota and Pittsburgh among others.

PERSONAL

Joseph is the son of Jonas and Lisiana Joseph, and he was born on Sept. 8, 1994. He has not declared a major. Joseph has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes, Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline and at the Belmont Rec Center.

JOE KEELS #91
DEFENSIVE END | 6-3 | 250 | JUNIOR
KENOSHA, WIS. | BRADFORD | HIGHLAND CC

» Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Spring 2014)

2014 OUTLOOK

Defensive end Joe Keels was one of three scholarship players to join the Nebraska program in January. Keels was regarded as one of the top defensive line prospects in the junior college ranks in 2013. The 6-3, 250-pound Keels spent the majority of spring with the second defensive unit behind projected starters Randy Gregory and Greg McMullen, and Keels should push for time in the Huskers' regular defensive line rotation.

Keels earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in his first semester at Nebraska.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (HIGHLAND CC/ROCHESTER COLLEGE/BRADFORD HS/MT. ZION HS)

Keels was a dominant performer for Highland (Kan.) Community College in 2013, where he played for Coach Ryan Held, a member of the Nebraska program in the early 1990s, and a former graduate assistant for the Huskers. Keels finished the season with 20 tackles and 2.5 sacks in nine games, helping Highland to a 6-4 record. He was a second-team All-Jayhawk League selection at defensive end. Keels starred at Rochester (Minn.) College in 2012, recording 12.5 sacks. Keels began his college career at the North Dakota College of Science in 2011, but sat out as a medical redshirt.

Keels is a native of Kenosha, Wis., and attended Bradford High School as a senior before moving on to junior college. At Bradford High, Keels helped his team to a trip to the Division 1 state semifinals as a senior in 2010. Keels finished the season with 65 tackles, including eight sacks. Keels spent his first three years of high school at Mt. Zion (Ill.) High School. Keels was ranked as one of the top five defensive linemen in the junior college ranks by 247 Sports, while 247 Sports and Rivals.com also listed him among the top 30 junior-college prospects regardless of position. Keels chose Nebraska over Wisconsin and had dozens of other offers including Alabama, Arizona, Boise State, Indiana, Maryland, Missouri, North Carolina, Penn State, USC and West Virginia.

PERSONAL

Keels is the son of Reynell Jones-Gray, and he was born on June 13, 1993. He is a sociology major. He earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the spring of 2014.

CONNOR KETTER #89
TIGHT END | 6-5 | 240 | REDSHIRT FRESHMAN
NORFOLK, NEB. | NORFOLK CATHOLIC

» Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Spring, 2014)

2014 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Connor Ketter is part of a young, but talented group of tight ends who will compete for playing time over the next several seasons. A walk-on from Nebraska prep powerhouse Norfolk Catholic, Ketter has good size for the tight end spot at 6-5 and 240 pounds, and has added more than 15 pounds of muscle since arriving at Nebraska.

2013 (REDSHIRT)

Ketter was one of only a few true freshman walk-ons in the 105-man fall camp roster. He sat out as a redshirt and worked on the scout team offense.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (NORFOLK CATHOLIC HS)

Ketter was a versatile two-way player for Coach Jeff Bellar's Norfolk Catholic team. Ketter was a two-time all-state selection who helped his team to three consecutive Class C-1 state titles. As a senior, Ketter had 17 receptions for 262 yards and seven touchdowns, while posting 89 tackles, six sacks and two fumble recoveries on defense. He was a first-team Class C-1 all-state pick by the Omaha World-Herald, while the Lincoln Journal Star named him to its second-team Super State squad and made him the honorary captain of its Class C-1 all-state team.

As a junior, Ketter caught 18 passes for 256 yards and three touchdowns and had 91 tackles, including seven tackles for loss, and three sacks. He was a second-team Super State choice in 2011, and earned first-team C-1 honors from both the Journal Star and World-Herald.

PERSONAL

He is the son of Doug Ketter and was born on Feb. 21, 1995. Ketter is a pre-health major and earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll during the spring semester of 2014. He has volunteered his time with Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Uplifting Athletes, Husker Heroes and Husker Hotline.

DAVID KNEVEL #77

BRANTFORD, ONTARIO, CANADA | PAULINE S. JOHNSON COLLEGIATE

» Brook Berringer Citizenship Team (2014)
» Tom Osborne Citizenship Team (2014)

Redshirt freshman David Knevel has a bright future in the Nebraska program, and is part of a talented group of young players on the offensive line who will look to make their first impact in 2014. The 6-9, 310-pound Knevel has added more than 10 pounds of muscle to his frame since arriving in Lincoln in January of 2013.

Knevel will compete for playing time at offensive tackle this fall, a position where three veteran seniors graduated from the 2013 team. Knevel is the only player on the 2014 Husker roster from outside the United States, coming to Lincoln from Brantford, Ontario, Canada. Knevel has established himself as a leader in Nebraska's community outreach efforts, being named to both the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team and Tom Osborne Citizenship Team.

Knevel joined the Nebraska program in January after graduating from high school early. He sat out in his first season and worked on the scout team offensive line.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (PAULINE JOHNSON COLLEGIATE HS)

Knevel was the Huskers' first signee from Canada since defensive tackle Patrick Kabongo joined Nebraska in the 1999 signing class. Knevel was a standout on the offensive line for Coach Ken Chisolm at Pauline Johnson Collegiate High School. In July of 2012, Knevel helped Team Canada to a 23-17 win over Team USA at the International Federation of American Football under-19 tournament in Austin, Texas. Knevel was a member of the Team Ontario West all-star team in 2011 and attended an Under Armour Combine in 2011.

Knevel began playing football early in high school after spending the majority of his youth playing hockey. Knevel was regarded as the top overall prospect in Canada and ranked among the top 250 overall prospects by 247 Sports, which listed him among the top 20 offensive tackles in the 2013 class. Knevel chose Nebraska over Alabama and West Virginia, and he also had scholarship offers from Wisconsin, Purdue, Baylor, Missouri and Vanderbilt to name a few.

PERSONAL

David is the son of Michelle Knevel and Mark Miller, and he was born on Oct. 18, 1994. Knevel is a history major. He has volunteered his time with NFL Fuel Up to Play 60, Uplifting Athletes, Husker Heroes, Make-A-Wish, the Husker Hotline, and numerous hospital and community rec center outreach events.

CHONGO KONDOLO #70
OFFENSIVE LINE | 6-4 | 300 | JUNIOR
CARROLLTON, TEXAS | CREEKVIEW | FRESNO CITY COLLEGE

» Tom Osborne Citizenship Team (2014)

2014 OUTLOOK

Junior Chongo Kondolo will make a push for a starting spot on the offensive line this fall after sitting out his first season as a redshirt. The 6-4, 300-pound Kondolo spent the majority of the spring at the right guard position where the competition for the starting job opposite senior left guard Jake Cotton remains wide open heading into fall practice.

Kondolo joined the Huskers as a highly recruited prospect from the junior college ranks. The Texas native was prepared to play last fall on a line that suffered injuries throughout the season, but Nebraska coaches made the decision to allow Kondolo to redshirt.

Kondolo redshirted in his first season at Nebraska.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (FRESNO CITY COLLEGE/CREEKVIEW HS)

Kondolo was a standout offensive tackle at Fresno City College in 2011 and 2012. He helped Coach Tony Caviglia's team rank among the top squads in the California junior-college ranks for two seasons. In 2012, Fresno City College posted an 8-3 record behind a strong offense that averaged more than 30 points per game. Kondolo was a first-team All-America choice by the California Community College Coaches Association, and he earned first-team Valley all-conference honors. Kondolo was also a key performer in 2011, when Fresno went 10-0 in the regular season, before losing in the Northern California Football Association Championship Game.

Kondolo went to Fresno City College after a standout prep career at Creekview High School in Carrollton, Texas, where he played for Coach Kyle Geller. Kondolo was ranked among the top 30 junior college players in California and was listed as the sixth-best offensive tackle prospect by 247 Sports. Kondolo also visited BYU, Illinois, Tennessee and Utah State, and had offers from Florida State and Texas Tech.

PERSONAL

He was born on Aug. 9, 1993 and is the son of Hazel Muntemba. Kondolo is majoring in sociology. He has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline and local hospital and community rec center outreach events.

#24

» Two-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll

2014 OUTLOOK

Junior Murat Kuzu will continue to add depth at I-back in a talented Husker backfield in the 2014 season. The 5-11, 200-pound Kuzu has battled injuries during his time in Lincoln, but is hopeful of being at full strength this fall. Kuzu joined the Nebraska program as a walk-on from Plano Senior High School, the same school that produced former Husker I-back Rex Burkhead.

2013 (SOPHOMORE)

Kuzu added depth at I-back, but did not see game action.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Kuzu added depth at I-back, but did not play in a game.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

Kuzu redshirted in his first season in the program and worked on the scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (PLANO SENIOR HS)

Kuzu joined the NU program as a walk-on after a strong prep career at Plano Senior High School in Texas. Kuzu rushed for better than 600 yards and three touchdowns as a senior, and had more than 400 receiving yards and five TD receptions, while also throwing for a touchdown. Kuzu was a second-team all-district selection for his efforts as a senior. Kuzu had a scholarship offer from Doane and interest from Southern Louisiana.

PERSONAL

Murat is the son of Mustafa and Gulsum Kuzu and was born on May 19, 1993. He is a marketing major. Kuzu has been named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll twice. He has volunteered with Uplifting Athletes, Make-A-Wish, Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline and local hospital visits.

ALEX LEWIS
TEMPE, ARIZ. | MOUNTAIN POINTE | COLORADO

#71

» Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Spring 2014)

2014 OUTLOOK

Offensive lineman Alex Lewis joined the Nebraska program for the 2014 spring semester and brings Division I experience to the Husker program. The 6-6, 290-pound Lewis spent his first two seasons at Colorado, before leaving the Buff program in 2013.

Lewis was impressive during spring practice, making a strong statement to earn the starting left tackle spot. Lewis could form an impressive veteran duo on the left side, while teaming with senior guard Jake Cotton. Lewis earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll during the spring semester.

Lewis is a second-generation Husker after his father, Bill, earned All-America honors as a center at Nebraska in 1985.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (COLORADO/MOUNTAIN POINTE HS)

Lewis sat out the 2013 season after leaving Colorado. He was a two-year letterwinner for Colorado in 2011 and 2012. As a sophomore in 2012, Lewis started all 12 games at left guard and earned honorable-mention sophomore All-America honors for his performance. Lewis graded out second-best among all CU offensive linemen in 2012, and he allowed just two sacks on the season.

Lewis saw action in all 12 games in 2011, seeing time at both tackle and tight end as a true freshman, before moving to guard for his sophomore year. Lewis made three starts including one at left tackle and two at tight end. He did not have any receptions as a tight end, but was an excellent blocker.

Lewis was a standout offensive lineman at Mountain Pointe High School in Tempe, Ariz. He was a three-year starter at offensive tackle and earned first-team all-state, first-team all-city and first-team All-5A East Valley honors as a senior for Coach Norris Vaughan. Mountain Pointe averaged 315.7 yards per game on the ground behind Lewis' blocking, and the team featured a pair of 1,700-yard rushers who combined for 51 touchdowns. The team went 12-1, including 10-0 in the regular season, and earned the regional championship before falling in the third round of the playoffs.

On defense, Lewis played tackle and recorded 25 tackles, with six for losses including four quarterback sacks and one fumble recovery. The team won its 5A East Valley championship with a 26-23 win over Marcos de Niza in the final regular-season game, in one of Lewis' top career games. As a junior, Lewis earned first-team all-city and first-team All-5A East Valley honors when he played both offensive guard and defensive tackle. He had nine tackles and forced one fumble that year. He also lettered in lacrosse at Mountain Pointe.

PERSONAL

Lewis was born on April 21, 1992. His father, Bill, earned All-America honors as a center at Nebraska in 1985, and he went on to play seven seasons in the National Football League with the Los Angeles Raiders, Arizona Cardinals and New England Patriots. Alex Lewis is majoring in sociology. He has volunteered his time with NFL Fuel Up 60, Husker Hotline and local school and community rec center outreach events.

#95

- » Four-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll
- » Brook Berringer Citizenship Team (2014)
- » Tom Osborne Citizenship Team (2014)

2014 OUTLOOK

Sophomore Spencer Lindsay will enter fall practice with hopes of putting himself into the battle for the starting place-kicker position. The walk-on from Kearney, Neb., made strides during spring practice, increasing his accuracy and consistency as the spring progressed. Junior Mauro Bondi and incoming freshman Drew Brown are among the other candidates to earn the starting place-kicking job.

Lindsay has distinguished himself in the classroom and community. He carries a 3.516 cumulative grade-point average in history and was also named to the Brook Berringer and Tom Osborne Citizenship teams for his community outreach involvement.

Lindsay added depth at kicker, but did not appear in a game.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Lindsay redshirted in his first season in the program and backed up All-Big Ten kicker Brett Maher.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (KEARNEY HS)

Lindsay was one of the top kickers in Nebraska, earning honorable-mention all-state accolades from both the Lincoln Journal Star and the Omaha World-Herald as a senior at Kearney High. Lindsay connected on all 33 PAT attempts and was 6-of-9 on field goals with a long of 44 yards. Lindsay booted nearly 75 percent of his kickoffs for touchbacks and averaged 33.7 yards per punt. As a junior, Lindsay was 11-of-13 on field goals. He also shined at wide receiver his senior season for the Bearcats, catching 17 passes for 271 yards and two touchdowns.

PERSONAL

Spencer is the son of Katherine Keifer and Bill Lindsay, and he was born on Aug. 12, 1993. He is majoring in history, and is a four-time Nebraska-Scholar Athlete Honor Roll recipient. Lindsay volunteers his time with Uplifting Athletes, Husker Hotline, Husker Heroes and visits local hospitals and churches.

2014 OUTLOOK

Chris Long will look to make a push for playing time on the offensive line during his junior season in 2014. The 6-4, 300-pound Long has added depth at guard the past two seasons and worked at that spot again this spring. Long originally joined the program as a walk-on from Blair High School.

Long is a standout in the classroom and community. He is a three-time member of the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll, and he has also been honored for his work in Nebraska's community outreach efforts, earning a spot on the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team the past three years.

Long was a reserve guard, but did not play in a game.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Long added depth on the line, but did not play in a game.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

Long redshirted in his first season in the Nebraska program.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (BLAIR HS)

Long helped lead Blair High School to the Nebraska Class B semifinals as a senior. He was an All-Nebraska second-team member according to the Omaha World-Herald and was part of the Lincoln Journal Star Class B all-state team. Long anchored an offensive line that helped produce over 30 points per game for the Bears. Also a member of the Blair wrestling team, Long finished as the state runner-up in the heavyweight class as a senior with a 41-4 record. Long chose Nebraska over scholarship offers from Nebraska-Omaha and Northwest Missouri State.

PERSONAL

Chris is the son of Patrick and Stacy Long, and he was born on Feb. 25, 1993. He is majoring in child, youth and family sciences. Long has been named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll three times. He has volunteered his time with local hospital and school visits, Husker Hotline, Husker Heroes and Uplifting Athletes.

- » Defensive Scout Team MVP (2013)
- » Brook Berringer Citizenship Team (2014)
- » Tom Osborne Citizenship Team (2014)
- » Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Leadership Award (2014)

Redshirt freshman Courtney Love is a key part of a deep and talented group of linebackers that could be a strength for the 2014 defense. The 6-1, 240-pound Love redshirted last fall after joining the Nebraska program early in January of 2013. Love has shown the versatility to play multiple linebacker positions and this spring spent time playing both inside and outside.

Love has also distinguished himself as a community leader while he has been in Lincoln. Love earned a spot on both the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team and Tom Osborne Citizenship Team for his extensive outreach work. Love hails from Cardinal Mooney High School in Youngstown, Ohio, the same school that Husker Head Coach Bo Pelini attended.

2013 (REDSHIRT)

Love sat out his first season as a redshirt. He was a standout on the practice field and earned Scout Team Defensive MVP honors.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (CARDINAL MOONEY HS)

A two-time All-Ohio selection, Love posted impressive numbers for Coach P.J. Fecko as a senior, registering 110 tackles, 19 tackles for loss and nine sacks. Love also forced four fumbles and had two pass breakups, despite missing one game because of injury. Love was honored for his efforts as a first-team Division III All-Ohio selection for the second straight year.

During his junior season, Love played a key role in Cardinal Mooney winning the Division III state title. Love recorded 130 tackles, including seven sacks, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery. In the state title game victory over Springfield Shawnee, Love was Mooney's leading tackler. His play for the Cardinals in 2011 earned Love first-team All-Ohio honors and Division III Co-Defensive Player-of-the-Year recognition.

Love was regarded as one of the nation's top 30 linebackers by multiple recruiting services and was listed among the top 30 overall prospects in the state of Ohio. He chose Nebraska over dozens of offers from around the country, including Florida State, Ohio State, USC, Oklahoma, Notre Dame, Michigan State, Illinois and Indiana to name a few.

PERSONAL

Courtney was born on Sept. 28, 1994, and he is the son of Faye Madison and Cory Love. He is a business administration major. Love has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes, Husker Heroes, Make-A-Wish, Husker Hotline, and local hospital and community rec center outreach events. ONE LETTER

- » Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Fall 2013)
- » Brook Berringer Citizenship Team (2014)
- » Tom Osborne Citizenship Team (2014)

2014 OUTLOOK

Defensive tackle Kevin Maurice was one of seven true freshmen to see action for the Huskers in 2013, providing depth in a talented, but youthful defensive front. The 6-3, 275-pound Maurice has worked hard in the offseason in hopes of earning an expanded role at defensive tackle in 2014, a position that returns three players who made starts a year ago.

Maurice is expected to battle fellow sophomores Maliek Collins and Vincent Valentine, along with juniors Kevin Williams and Aaron Curry for action this fall. The group should form a solid foundation for the Blackshirt defense for the next few years.

Maurice has been a leader in the community since arriving in Lincoln, earning a spot on the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team and Tom Osborne Citizenship Team for his outreach work. He was also named to the Nebraska-Scholar Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2013.

2013 (FRESHMAN)

Maurice played in each of the first six games as a reserve defensive tackle. Maurice finished with three tackles, including single tackles against Wyoming, South Dakota State and Illinois.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (FREEDOM HS)

Maurice was regarded as one of the fastest-rising prospects in the state after a standout senior season at Freedom High School in Orlando. Maurice recorded approximately 70 tackles, including nine sacks and better than 20 tackles for loss, while also forcing two fumbles. His play helped Coach Andy Johnson's team to a 7-4 season and a trip to the Class 8A state playoffs. Maurice earned first-team Class 8A all-state honors from the Orlando Sentinel and was an all-district and All-Metro selection. He was also selected to play in the Central Florida All-Star game.

Maurice played on both sides of the ball as a junior for Freedom High. He had 50 pancake blocks as an offensive lineman, and totaled 50 tackles and six sacks on defense. Maurice also started as a sophomore in 2010 for a Freedom High team that finished with an 8-2 record. Maurice was regarded as one of the top 120 defensive tackles in the nation by several recruiting services. He also visited Boston College and chose the Huskers over BC, Florida Atlantic, North Carolina State and Memphis.

PERSONAL

Maurice is the son of Hernise Maurice, and he was born on July 19, 1994. He is a management major. Maurice has been active in community outreach efforts, volunteering his time with Uplifting Athletes, Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline, School is Cool Week, NFL Fuel Up 60, team hospital visits and at the Belmont Rec Center.

- » Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Spring 2013)

2014 OUTLOOK

Junior Mitch McCann will enter the 2014 season with hopes of earning playing time at fullback for the Huskers. McCann began his career on the defensive side of the ball, before switching to fullback prior to the 2013 season. McCann joined the Nebraska program as a walk-on from Omaha Burke High School.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

McCann added depth at fullback, but did not play in a game.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

McCann redshirted in his first season and worked as a scout team linebacker.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (BURKE HS)

McCann joined the Huskers as a walk-on after helping the Omaha Burke Bulldogs become one of the toughest defenses in the state of Nebraska. In 2011, Burke held opposing offenses to 18 points and less than 130 yards per game. A three-year starter at middle linebacker for Burke, McCann totaled 128 tackles during his senior season to go along with two sacks and two fumble recoveries. McCann helped Burke reach the Class A state championship game in 2011, where he tallied a game-high 9.5 tackles.

A first-team Super State linebacker by the Lincoln Journal Star and honorable-mention All-Nebraska pick by the Omaha World-Herald, McCann was one of 13 Husker walk-ons selected to participate in the Nebraska Shrine Bowl in 2012. McCann chose to walk on at NU over a scholarship offer from South Dakota State.

PERSONAL

Mitch is the son of Pete and Stephanie McCann, and he was born on Dec. 23, 1993. McCann is a business administration major and was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll for the 2013 spring semester. He volunteered his time with Husker Heroes, Uplifting Athletes, Husker Hotline and team hospital visits.

ONE LETTER

» Academic All-Big Ten (2013)

» Three-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll

2014 OUTLOOK

Sophomore Greg McMullen was among group of four defensive ends to see extensive playing time during the 2013 season. This season McMullen is expected to take on an expanded role. After an outstanding spring, the 6-3, 280-pound McMullen is the frontrunner to earn the starting end position opposite All-America candidate Randy Gregory.

McMullen has outstanding size and strength, allowing him to be effective against the run, while also having the ability to rush opposing passers. Only a sophomore, McMullen is also a key part of an influx of young talent on the front four that figures to provide a foundation for the Blackshirt defense for years to come. McMullen earned Academic All-Big Ten honors in 2013.

McMullen played in 11 games and totaled 16 tackles, including nine solo stops. He recorded four tackles for loss, including a 10-yard sack at Purdue. McMullen had a season-high four tackles against Southern Miss, including a pair of tackles for loss, and a forced fumble. He also recorded two tackles each against Wyoming, Michigan and Michigan State, including a tackle for loss against the Spartans. McMullen had three quarterback hurries.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

McMullen redshirted in his first season at Nebraska and was impressive on the scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (HOBAN HS)

McMullen was one of the most dominant defenders in Ohio throughout his prep career at Akron's Hoban High School. McMullen racked up more than 40 sacks during his career and was a regular in the lineup since his freshman season. McMullen capped his career with 78 tackles, 12.5 sacks and 14 tackles for loss as a senior. His play for Coach Ralph Orsini earned McMullen North Coast Blue Division Player-of-the-Year honors. He was also a first-team Division III All-Ohio selection for the second straight year.

McMullen was equally impressive as a junior, earning All-Ohio honors with 87 tackles, 8.5 sacks and an impressive 31 quarterback pressures. He also lined up at tight end and had four receptions for 70 yards. McMullen earned second-team All-Ohio honors as a sophomore when he racked up 11.5 sacks. McMullen first broke onto the scene at Hoban as a freshman, when he had 12 sacks and earned honorable-mention All-Ohio accolades.

McMullen was ranked among the top 200 players overall nationally by both Rivals.com and 247 Sports, and was also among the top 12 overall prospects in Ohio by both services. McMullen appeared in the Semper Fi Marines All-America Bowl following his senior season. McMullen only visited Nebraska, but he was highly recruited, including scholarship offers from Ohio State, Notre Dame, Michigan State, Cincinnati and North Carolina State, among others.

PERSONAL

Greg is the son of Lashaun Brown, and he was born on Oct. 13, 1993. He is majoring in criminology and criminal justice, and has been named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll three times during his career. McMullen has volunteered his time with School is Cool Week, Uplifting Athletes, Husker Heroes, and team hospital, elementary school and community rec center visits.

MISHAWAKA, IND. | PENN
ONE LETTER

» Two-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll

2014 OUTLOOK

Gabe Miller stepped into the starting role at long snapper as a true freshman in 2013 and handled the duty very well. Miller is expected to handle the duties again this fall, as Nebraska looks to maintain its recent tradition of being one of the nation's top kicking units.

Miller was part of a new group of specialists in 2013, and the group continued the Huskers' tradition of outstanding specialists. Behind the work of Miller, punter Sam Foltz ranked among the conference's leaders in punting, while the trio of Miller, Foltz at holder and place-kicker Pat Smith helped Nebraska connect on 13-of-14 field goals, the best percentage in the Big Ten.

Miller had a strong first year in the classroom, carrying a 3.511 cumulative grade-point average in broadcasting.

2013 (FRESHMAN)

A scholarship signee in 2013, Miller played in every game as Nebraska's long snapper. The Huskers' punting team ranked fifth in the Big Ten in net punting at 37.9 yards per attempt. In kicking, Miller's flawless snapping allowed Nebraska to hit 13-of-14 field goals and 50-of-53 PATs. Miller also made a tackle on punt coverage at Minnesota.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (PENN HS)

Miller was a key contributor for Penn High School in Mishawaka, Ind., for three seasons. In 2012, Miller helped Coach Cory Yeoman's team to a 9-2 record and a trip to the second round of the Class 5A (largest class) playoffs in Indiana. Miller was the team's starting center and handled the long snapping chores. For his role in Penn's success, Miller was a first-team 5A all-state selection by the Indiana Football Coaches Association. Miller also earned Academic All-State honors in 2012.

Miller was the starting center and long snapper as a junior in 2011, when Penn High went 14-1 and reached the Class 5A state finals. He served as the starting long snapper and the backup center during his sophomore season when Penn High reached the state playoffs and finished with an 8-5 record. Miller also competed in track for Penn High School until his senior year. Miller graded out as one of the nation's top three long snappers at the Rubio Long Snapping Camp. He was also ranked as one of the top three long snappers in the country by several recruiting outlets. He was also ranked as one of the top 40 overall prospects in Indiana.

PERSONAL

Miller was born on Sept. 27, 1994, and is the son of Douglas and Steffany Miller. He is a broadcasting major and was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll each of his first two semesters. Miller volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes, Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline and local hospital and community rec center outreach events.

THREE LETTERS

» Academic All-Big Ten (2012, 2013)

» Two-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll

» Big 12 Commissioner's Fall Academic Honor Roll (2010)

Senior Josh Mitchell has been a key part of the Nebraska secondary each of the past two seasons, working as one of the Huskers' top cornerbacks. This season, Mitchell's role will grow, as he will be looked to for leadership on the Blackshirt defense, as well as continuing his ball-hawking presence in the secondary.

The 5-11, 160-pound Mitchell makes up for any size disadvantages with his good speed, toughness and a tenacious attitude. He was one of three cornerbacks who took the majority of the snaps in 2013, but is the lone returnee among that group. Mitchell's play in 2013 helped Nebraska rank among the Big Ten's top pass defenses. The Huskers finished third in the Big Ten in opponent pass completion percentage, and allowed only eight touchdown passes in conference games.

Mitchell is a two-time Academic All-Big Ten selection off the field. A communications studies major, Mitchell is on track to earn his degree in December.

Mitchell played in all 13 games and made six starts at cornerback. He finished with 31 total tackles, including 23 solo stops, and added four tackles for loss. He was responsible for a pair of takeaways with an interception and fumble recovery against Georgia in the Gator Bowl. Mitchell was second on the team with six pass breakups.

He had a season-high five tackles against both Wyoming and Southern Miss in the season's first two games, including a career-high three tackles for loss against the Golden Eagles. He also had a sack on a Cowboy two-point conversion attempt. Mitchell closed non-conference play with four and three tackles, respectively, against UCLA and South Dakota State.

Mitchell had a total of 12 tackles during Big Ten play, including three tackles against Minnesota and Penn State and two each against Michigan and Michigan State. He had breakups against Purdue, Northwestern and Michigan.

He closed the year with a strong effort against Georgia. Mitchell had two tackles and his two takeaways in Georgia territory each resulted in Husker touchdowns in NU's 24-19 win.

Mitchell played in 13 games and made eight starts. He finished with 28 tackles, including 20 solo stops, while adding a pair of tackles for loss and a sack. Mitchell had five pass breakups and nabbed his first career interception against Idaho State. Mitchell also had a fumble caused for the Huskers against Arkansas State.

Mitchell made his first career sack in the opener against Southern Miss. He made seven tackles against a high-powered Arkansas State offense and also forced a fumble in the game. Mitchell had his first career interception, a pass breakup and two tackles against Idaho State.

In the Big Ten opener against Wisconsin, Mitchell had a career-high eight tackles, including six solo stops and a tackle for loss. Mitchell had four tackles against Ohio State and tied his career high with two pass breakups against Minnesota.

Mitchell played in eight games and started at corner against Washington. He had five tackles, all against Washington, including two solo stops. He added one pass breakup.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Mitchell redshirted during his first season in the NU program.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ELEANOR ROOSEVELT HS)

Mitchell had an impressive 2009 campaign, recording 41 tackles and five interceptions from his cornerback position. A versatile performer, Mitchell added a pair of punt returns for touchdowns, helping the Mustangs to an 8-3 record. His play as a senior earned Mitchell first-team All-Big VIII honors.

A four-year starter for Coach Bill Stacy at Eleanor Roosevelt High, Mitchell had 74 tackles and an interception in 2008. He finished his career with 14 total interceptions. Mitchell was ranked among the top 55 cornerback prospects in the country by Rivals and among the top 150 players in California. Mitchell also visited Colorado State and UTEP and had several other offers.

PERSONAL

Josh is the son of Gwenn Church and Mario Mitchell and was born on Jan. 7, 1993. He is majoring in communication studies and was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Fall Academic Honor Roll in 2010 and the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the spring 2012 and 2013 semesters. He has volunteered time with Uplifting Athletes, Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline, NFL Fuel Up to Play 60 and hospital and school visits.

WINNFELD, LA. | WINNFELD SENIOR
ONE LETTER

» Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Fall 2012)

2014 OUTLOOK

Sophomore receiver Alonzo Moore showed flashes of his potential as a playmaker for Nebraska in the 2013 season. A Louisiana native, Moore earned his way into the Huskers' receiving rotation and was one of Nebraska's primary kickoff return specialists.

The 6-2, 195-pound speedster hopes to find playing time in a receiving corps that returns seven of its top eight players from last season. Moore underwent offseason shoulder surgery that kept him out of spring ball, but he is expected to be at full speed for the start of fall practice.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Moore played in 10 games, making starts against Illinois and Minnesota. He finished with six receptions for 75 yards. He also had five kickoff returns for an average of 23.2 yards per return. Moore had his best day against Northwestern, grabbing four receptions for 43 yards to help fill in after injuries to Kenny Bell and Jamal Turner. Moore also had a 19-yard catch against South Dakota State and added a catch at Minnesota. He had three kickoff returns for 71 yards at Minnesota and two returns for 45 yards against Northwestern.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Moore redshirted in his first season in the program in 2012.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (WINNFELD HS)

Moore saw action at quarterback, running back and receiver for Winnfield (La.) High School, helping his team to a 14-1 record and a trip to the Class 2A state championship game in 2011. Moore rushed for 1,473 yards and 22 touchdowns on 156 carries, while throwing for another 442 yards and a touchdown. Moore was a first-team all-state pick and was chosen as the Class 2A Offensive Player of the Year. Moore totaled 26 touchdowns as a senior, including three on returns.

As a junior, Moore earned all-district honors and honorable-mention all-state accolades, while primarily playing receiver. He caught 49 passes for 1,246 yards and 17 touchdowns for Coach Andy Pyles' team, while also rushing 53 times for 591 yards and nine scores. Moore's play helped Winnfield to an 8-5 record and a trip to the state quarterfinals.

Moore spent the majority of his time at quarterback in his first two years on varsity. As a sophomore in 2009, he accounted for more than 2,100 total yards to help Winnfield to an 8-4 record. Moore was ranked among the top 50 receivers in the nation by 247 Sports, while Rivals.com listed him as the No. 22 "athlete". Both services ranked Moore among the top 20 overall prospects in Louisiana.

Moore was also an outstanding basketball player and averaged better than 20 points per game during his junior season. During the spring, Moore competed for the track and field team, capturing a gold medal in the Class 2A high jump with a clearance of 6-5 as a senior, while adding a silver medal in the triple jump and a seventh-place finish in the long jump. Moore also visited Mississippi State and Louisiana Tech, in addition to offers from Minnesota, Texas A&M, Arkansas and Ole Miss.

PERSONAL

Alonzo is the son of Janice Moore and was born on Nov. 10, 1992. He is a criminology and criminal justice major and was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2012. Moore has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes.

- » Tom Osborne Citizenship Team (2014)
- » Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll (2011)

Mike Moudy moved into the regular offensive line rotation for the Huskers during the 2013 season. After beginning the season alternating at left guard with Jake Cotton, Moudy was moved into a starting role following an injury to All-America right guard Spencer Long in mid-October.

However, the injury bug that stung the offensive line throughout the second half of the year also hit Moudy. He suffered a shoulder injury in practice in mid-November and missed the final four games. The 6-5, 305-pound senior was forced to sit out of contact drills during the spring, but is expected to battle for a starting spot at right guard once he returns to the field. He will also provide leadership to a young offensive line that lost five regulars to graduation.

Moudy has earned Academic All-Big Ten honors each of the past two seasons. He carries a 3.493 cumulative gradepoint average in English and could be a contender for Academic All-America honors this fall. Moudy is on track to earn his undergraduate degree in December.

Moudy played in the first nine games, including three starts at right guard following an injury to Spencer Long. Moudy's play helped junior I-back Ameer Abdullah rush for 1,690 yards, the most by a Nebraska player in 16 seasons. The line also solidified a Husker offense that was forced to start three different quarterbacks during the season.

2012 (SOPHOMORE)

Moudy was a reserve guard in 2012 and played in three games.

2011 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Moudy added depth on the line, but did not see action in 2011.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Moudy redshirted in his first season in the program.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (DOUGLAS COUNTY HS)

As a senior, Moudy averaged double figures in pancakes per game, helping Coach Jeff Ketron's Douglas County High School team to the Class 5A state playoffs. Moudy's play earned him first-team all-conference and first-team all-state honors from the Denver Post. Moudy was also selected to play in the USA vs. the World all-star game in Miami in January of 2010.

In 2008, Moudy helped Douglas County High to eight victories and a trip to the second round of the state playoffs. Moudy earned first-team honors in the Southern League for his play as a junior. He was ranked among the top 10 players in Colorado and the top 35 offensive tackles in the country by Rivals.com.

Moudy committed to Nebraska early in the recruiting process and did not take any other visits, but he did have offers from several other schools, including Stanford, Kansas and Kansas State.

PERSONAL

Mike is the son of David and Shannon Moudy, and he was born on Feb. 4, 1992. He is majoring in English. In addition to earning Academic All-Big Ten honors, Moudy was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll each of the past six semesters and to the 2011 Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Honor Roll. Moudy has also distinguished himself through Nebraska's community outreach efforts. He was named to both the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team and the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team in 2014. Moudy has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes, Uplifting Athletes, Husker Hotline, FCA, team hospital visits and the NFL Fuel Up to Play 60 event.

Sophomore Graham Nability will enter fall camp with hopes of earning playing time among a talented and deep group of Nebraska I-backs led by All-American Ameer Abdullah. The 6-0, 210-pound Nability earned limited action in a reserve role last season. Nability could also push to see action on the Huskers' special teams units.

Nability joined the Huskers as a walk-on from Elkhorn High School, annually one of the state's top prep programs. Nability has been a leader in the community while at Nebraska, earning a spot on the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team and a Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Leadership Award.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Nability added depth in a talented group of I-backs. He saw action against Southern Miss and South Dakota State, totaling five carries for 24 yards. He had a career-high three carries for 14 yards against the Jackrabbits.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Nability redshirted his first season at Nebraska and worked as a scout team running back.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ELKHORN HS)

Nability led the Elkhorn Antlers to the Nebraska Class B state championship as a senior, rushing for 1,532 yards on 239 carries and a Class B-leading 24 touchdowns. Nability was a second-team All-Nebraska pick by both the Omaha World-Herald and the Lincoln Journal Star, and was named the honorary captain of the Class B all-state team.

As a junior, Nability rushed for 988 yards and 11 touchdowns, while helping his team reach the state championship, where the Antlers fell to Crete. Nability chose to walk on at Nebraska over a scholarship offer from South Dakota State.

PERSONAL

Nability was born on May 12, 1993, and he is the son of David Nability. He is a construction management major and has been named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll twice. Nability has been active in community outreach efforts, volunteering his time with Uplifting Athletes, People's City Mission, Lincoln Food Bank, Husker Hotline, team hospital and community rec center visits, while also being active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

2014 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman A.J. Natter is expected to compete for playing time on the Huskers' defensive front in 2014. The 6-5, 250-pound Natter was a prep standout in Wisconsin and has the size and strength to be a productive defensive end in the Big Ten Conference. Natter will likely battle for playing time at end behind projected starters Randy Gregory and Greg McMullen. Natter missed most of spring ball with a minor knee injury, but should be back at full strength for the fall.

Natter has made his mark in NU's community outreach efforts, being named to the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team and Tom Osborne Citizenship Team.

2013 (REDSHIRT)

Natter redshirted in his first season in the Nebraska program.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (MILTON HS)

Natter was Nebraska's first scholarship signee from Wisconsin since 1997, and was a three-year standout on the defensive line for Jeff Bachinski at Milton High School. As a senior, Natter had 43 tackles, including 11 tackles for loss and 4.5 sacks, while also recording two fumbles in eight games. His play as a senior earned Natter first-team all-state honors from the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association, while he was a second-team all-state pick by the Associated Press. Additionally, Natter was named a semifinalist for the Tim Krumrie award given to the state of Wisconsin's top senior defensive lineman.

In his junior season, Natter had 80 tackles, including 21 tackles for loss and eight sacks, while also blocking two kicks. His play in 2011 earned Natter honorable-mention all-state accolades from the WFLA, and Natter also picked up all-region and all-conference honors. In 2010, Natter started as a sophomore and helped Milton High to a 7-4 record and a trip to the state playoffs. Natter earned second-team all-conference honors after making 55 tackles and recording 10 sacks. Natter was ranked as the top prospect in Wisconsin according to the 247 Sports composite rankings and was a consensus choice as one of the top three players in the state. Natter also ranked among the nation's top 25 defensive ends by 247, Rivals and Fox Sports.com. Natter was one of the first commitments in Nebraska's 2013 class, pledging his intention in April of 2012. He did not take any other visits, but had offers from Iowa, Michigan State, Missouri, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Purdue among others.

PERSONAL

Natter was born on Oct. 8, 1994, and is the son of David and Beth Natter. He has not declared a major, but was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2013. Natter has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes, Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline, Belmont Community Center and team hospital outreach events.

2014 OUTLOOK

Sophomore Jordan Nelson has provided depth at the offensive skill positions throughout his Nebraska career and will look to bid for game action in 2014. The 5-7, 180-pound Nelson has spent time at both running back and receiver, but focused on the I-back position this spring. The walk-on product from Omaha Burke could also push for action on the Huskers' special teams units.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Nelson added depth at receiver, but did not see action in a game.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Nelson redshirted his first season at Nebraska and worked as a scout team running back.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (BURKE HS)

Nelson starred in his first full healthy season at Burke High School in 2011, when he helped the Bulldogs reach the Class A state championship game. Nelson set the school single-season rushing record with 1,791 yards and tacked on 13 touchdowns, earning him a spot on the Lincoln Journal Star Super State team. Nelson also caught 25 passes for 700 yards and eight touchdowns, averaging 28.0 yards per reception.

In the spring, Nelson competed in track and field, placing in four events at the state track and field championships. Nelson was selected to participate in the 2012 Nebraska Shrine Bowl. The All-Nebraska running back and honorary captain of the World-Herald all-metro team chose to walk on over scholarship offers from several Division II programs.

PERSONAL

Jordan is the son of Ray and Tammy Nelson, and he was born on Dec. 13, 1993. He is majoring in journalism. Jordan has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes, Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline and local rec center visits.

MARCUS NEWBY

LINEBACKER | 6-1 | 220 | REDSHIRT FRESHMAN

Marcus Newby is part of an impressive group of talented young linebackers who figure to be a key part of the nucleus of the Husker defense for years to come. The 6-1, 220-pound Newby sat out last season as a redshirt, but showed this spring that he has the play-making ability to be a factor in 2014.

Newby has the versatility to play multiple linebacker positions, and this spring was also utilized in a defensive end role in pass rushing situations.

2013 (REDSHIRT)

Newby sat out his first season at Nebraska as a redshirt.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (QUINCE ORCHARD HS)

Newby was the first NU signee from Maryland since fellow Quince Orchard product Jason Ankrah joined the NU program in 2009, and he was just the third Maryland product to sign with the Huskers since 1990. As a senior, Newby recorded a team-high 132 tackles, while adding more than 15 tackles for loss, seven pass breakups, an interception, two forced fumbles and a pair of blocked kicks. Newby's play helped Quince Orchard to a 12-2 record and a second consecutive Class 4A state runner-up finish. For his work in 2012, Newby earned consensus all-state honors in Maryland for the second straight year. He was also a Washington Post All-Met first-team choice and a Montgomery Gazette first-team pick.

Newby was also a difference-maker for the Quince Orchard defense during a 13-1 campaign in 2011. Newby racked up 107 tackles, 17 tackles for loss and three sacks as a junior, while also adding eight pass breakups and two fumble recoveries. In addition to being a first-team all-state choice in 2011, Newby was also named to the all-tournament team for his impressive play during the state playoffs.

Newby broke into the varsity starting lineup as a sophomore in 2010 and earned first-team all-county honors after helping his team to a 9-3 record. Newby was selected to play in both the Maryland Crab Bowl (Maryland all-star game) and the Semper Fi All-American Bowl in Arizona in January of 2013. He was regarded as one of the top 150 overall prospects in the country by 247 Sports, which also ranked Newby among the top 10 players in Maryland and the top dozen outside linebackers in the country. Rivals.com also ranked Newby among the top 20 outside linebackers in the nation and the top 10 players in Maryland. Newby had offers from dozens of schools, including Oklahoma, Penn State, South Carolina, Virginia Tech, Arizona and Maryland.

PERSONAL

Newby is the son of Mary Lourdes and Kenneth Newby, and he was born on July 7, 1994. He has not declared a major.

#34

I-back Terrell Newby is a key part of an impressive stable of running backs in the Husker offense and will look to earn an expanded role in 2014. The 5-10, 200-pound Newby has added more than 15 pounds of muscle since he arrived on campus last summer and has the explosiveness to make plays for Nebraska in several ways.

Newby was one of two true freshmen to see action on offense last season, earning playing time at I-back behind Ameer Abdullah and Imani Cross, who both return for 2014. The talented trio of I-backs combined to rush for more than 2,400 yards in 2013, helping Nebraska feature one of the nation's top rushing attacks. Newby has shown the ability to be an effective receiver out of the backfield and could also use his speed and explosiveness on kickoff and punt returns.

Newby played in every game and rushed for 298 yards to finish third on the team in rushing yards. He averaged 5.5 yards on his 54 carries. He also caught three passes out of the backfield, had four kickoff returns for 77 yards and had a 10-yard punt return.

Newby opened the year with season highs of 15 carries and 76 yards against Wyoming. He added 60 yards against Southern Miss. Newby topped 50 yards for a third time in non-conference play with 52 yards and a season-high two touchdowns against South Dakota State. He had 61 rushing yards at Purdue, including a season-long 23-yard run. Newby had his only punt return at Michigan, and had a season-long 24-yard kickoff return vs. Iowa.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (CHAMINADE HS)

Newby posted back-to-back seasons with more than 2,000 yards rushing for Chaminade High in West Hills, Calif. In his career, Newby accounted for 105 total touchdowns for Coach Ed Croson's team. As a senior in 2012, Newby ran for 2,305 yards and 45 touchdowns and averaged 7.7 yards per carry. Newby also caught 18 passes for 176 yards and helped Chaminade to a 12-2 record and a trip to the finals of the CIF Southern Section playoffs. Newby's top game in 2012 came against Harvard-Westlake, when he rushed for 360 yards and eight touchdowns in a 78-34 victory. For his efforts as a senior, Newby was a finalist for the Cal/Hi Sports Mr. Football Award and was named to the Los Angeles Times high school football all-star team. He was also the Western Division Offensive Player of the Year and the Los Angeles Daily News Player of the Year.

Newby also topped 2,000 yards as a junior in 2011, running for 2,117 yards and 34 rushing touchdowns on 303 attempts. He also caught 18 passes for 184 yards and a touchdown, while returning punts for Chaminade, helping his team to a 10-3 record and a trip to the semifinals of the CIF Southern Section playoffs. Newby first made a splash as a sophomore when he rushed for 1,372 yards and 18 touchdowns for Chaminade, helping his team to an 11-2 record and a playoff semifinal appearance. Newby was regarded as one of the top 75 overall prospects in the country by Rivals.com, which listed him as the top running back in California and one of the top 10 overall prospects in the Golden State. Newby was among the top 150 players in the country by 247 Sports which listed him among the top 20 players in California and as the No. 11 running back prospect in the nation. Newby was an honorable-mention Parade All-American and played in the International Bowl, earning MVP honors. He chose Nebraska over UCLA, Oregon, California and Washington and had offers from dozens of other schools.

PERSONAL

He is the son of Terrell and Lorraine Newby, and he was born on July 25, 1995. Newby is majoring in business administration. He has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes, School is Cool Week, Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline and at the Belmont Rec Center.

ROBBY PAINTER #54
 OFFENSIVE LINE | 6-4 | 280 | SOPHOMORE
 CENTENNIAL, COLO. | GRANDVIEW

» Two-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll

2014 OUTLOOK

Sophomore Robby Painter will look to earn playing time on the offensive line in the 2014 season after adding depth last fall. The 6-4, 280-pound Painter spent the majority of the spring working at offensive tackle, a position where Nebraska lost three veteran seniors from the 2013 team. A walk-on from Colorado, Painter has packed on more than 30 pounds of muscle since his arrival at Nebraska.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Painter added depth in the offensive line, but did not play in a game.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Painter redshirted his first season at Nebraska and worked on the scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (GRANDVIEW HS)

Painter joined NU as a walk-on from Grandview High School, one of the top 5A prep programs in Colorado. Painter helped Grandview reach the semifinals of the Class 5A state playoffs in both 2010 and 2011. As a senior, Painter was a team captain and his play helped Grandview to an 11-2 record with an offense that averaged nearly 200 rushing yards per game. Painter also made 12 tackles and had a sack on defense.

In 2010, Painter helped Grandview to a 9-5 record and a trip to the semifinals. Painter was committed to a scholarship at Eastern Washington, and also had offers from UNLV, Northern Colorado and Colorado School of Mines.

PERSONAL

Robby was born on Oct. 8, 1993, and is the son of John and Jan Painter. He is a mechanical engineering major and has twice been named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll. He has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes, Uplifting Athletes and team hospital visits.

- » Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll (2011)

Mark Pelini has been a key member of the Nebraska offensive line the past two years, serving as the top reserve at center and seeing significant action. This season, the 6-0, 290-pound Pelini will look to help Nebraska again field one of the nation's best rushing offenses. Pelini and junior Ryne Reeves split time with the top unit at center in the spring and the competition for the starting job figures to continue into fall camp.

A fifth-year senior, Pelini will also play a leadership role on a line that lost five senior regulars to graduation. A former walk-on, Pelini earned a scholarship before the start of his junior season. Pelini has earned Academic All-Big Ten honors the past two seasons, and is on track to earn his undergraduate degree in December of 2014. Pelini carries a 3.333 cumulative grade-point average while majoring in both history and mathematics.

Pelini played in all 13 games at center, including starts against Michigan State and Penn State. He played behind senior Cole Pensick most of the season, before Pelini's role increased greatly in the second half of the season with numerous injuries to Husker offensive linemen.

His play helped running back Ameer Abdullah post 1,690 rushing yards, the most by a Husker since 1997. The line also solidified an offense that featured three starting quarterbacks.

2012 (SOPHOMORE)

Pelini played in seven games, including three non-league games and the final four contests. He took over in the first quarter at Iowa when Justin Jackson was injured, then split time at center with Pensick in the Big Ten title game and saw action against Georgia in the Capital One Bowl.

2011 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Pelini provided depth at center in 2011, but did not see game action.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

A walk-on, Pelini redshirted in his first season at Nebraska in 2010.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (CARDINAL MOONEY HS)

Pelini was a standout at Cardinal Mooney High School in Youngstown, Ohio. His play on the offensive line helped Mooney to a perfect 15-0 record and a Division III Ohio state title in 2009.

PERSONAL

Mark is the son of Vince and Diane Pelini, and he was born on Aug. 27, 1991. Pelini has been named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll each of the past six semesters. Pelini was also named to both the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team and Tom Osborne Citizenship Team in 2014 for his community outreach work. Pelini has volunteered his time with School is Cool Week, Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline, Super Hero Day, NFL Fuel Up to Play 60, and local school and hospital outreach activities.

 ONE LETTER

- » Academic All-Big Ten (2012, 2013)
- » Two-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll

2014 OUTLOOK

Junior Givens Price has continued to develop throughout his time at Nebraska and is poised to contend for playing time at offensive guard in 2014. The 6-4, 310-pound Price added depth on an injury-plagued offensive line in 2013. During spring ball, Price saw a large number of snaps with the top offensive unit at right guard, and he will be in the mix to contend for the starting job at that position this fall.

Price has also seen action on the Huskers' special teams, both as a blocker on place-kicking units and as a punt protector. Price is also a two-time Academic All-Big Ten selection.

Price played in eight games as a reserve offensive guard. His role increased late in the season with numerous injuries on the offensive line, and he became a regular on the Huskers' PAT and field goal units.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Price added depth on the line in 2012, and played in wins over Southern Miss, Arkansas State and Idaho State.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

Price redshirted in his first season in 2011.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ALIEF TAYLOR HS)

Price helped Coach J.D. Jordan and Alief Taylor High in Houston to a 10-2 record and a trip to the second round of the Class 5A state playoffs in 2010. Price's play was a key part of an explosive offense that averaged 39.6 points per game and topped the 40-point barrier seven times during the 2010 season. For his play, Price earned second-team Class 5A all-state honors.

Price also stood out during his junior season, helping the team to a 9-4 record and a trip to the third round of the 5A playoffs. Price was regarded as one of the top 70 offensive guard prospects in the country by both Scout and ESPN. Price only visited Nebraska, but also had offers from Baylor, Rice and UTEP.

PERSONAL

Price was born on Oct. 3, 1994, and was one of the youngest signees ever for Nebraska. Givens is the son of Edithmary Price. He is majoring in accounting/management and has twice been named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll. Price has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline, Uplifting Athletes, Make-A-Wish and local hospital visits.

» Two-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll

2014 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Gabe Rahn will look to add depth in a deep Nebraska receiving corps during the 2014 season. The 6-1, 190-pound Rahn joined the Huskers as a walk-on last summer and worked on the scout team. In addition to working at receiver, Rahn could also push for time on special teams.

Rahn has excelled in the classroom since arriving in Lincoln, carrying a 3.858 grade-point average in nutrition, exercise and health science.

2013 (REDSHIRT)

Rahn redshirted in his first season at Nebraska.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (LE MARS HS)

Rahn was one of the top weapons in all three phases of the game for Le Mars High School in 2012, leading the Bulldogs to a 7-3 record and a playoff berth. He headed the Bulldogs' offensive attack through the air with 27 catches for 572 yards and six touchdowns. He was a force on defense at the cornerback position, racking up 22 solo tackles, picking off three passes and causing a fumble. As a kickoff returner, he gained 391 yards on 14 returns, including one 89-yard touchdown. He added 330 yards on 17 punt returns, highlighted by a 46-yard touchdown. For his performance on the field, Rahn garnered third-team Class 3A All-State honors from IowaPreps.com as a wide receiver. He also earned Class 3A, District 2 All-District honors, both as a wide receiver and defensive back.

In addition to football, Rahn was a standout on the court and the track for the Bulldogs. He earned honorable-mention all-conference accolades in basketball, while his 4x200 team took home the gold in the 2013 Iowa Boys State Track Meet with a time of 1:29.52. Rahn excelled in the classroom, as well, earning Academic All-State honors in track his senior year.

PERSONAL

Rahn is the son of Jim and Roxanne Rahn, and he was born on July 11, 1994. Rahn was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll each of his first two semesters. Rahn has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes and Husker Hotline.

Sophomore defensive lineman Logan Rath made a push for playing time with an impressive showing during spring practice. The 6-4, 280-pound Rath added depth in a group of young and talented defensive linemen and could see the field this fall. A native of Aurora, Neb., Rath sat out the 2013 season at Nebraska after transferring from South Dakota State.

Rath has been strong in the classroom at Nebraska, carrying a 3.416 cumulative grade-point average in agricultural economics.

2013 (REDSHIRT)

Rath sat out the 2013 season after transferring from South Dakota State.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SOUTH DAKOTA STATE/GILTNER HS)

Rath redshirted during the 2012 season at South Dakota State, while working on the defensive line. At Giltner High School, Rath played eight-man football and helped the Hornets to a 10-0 start in 2011, before falling to Howells, 26-20, in the D-2 state quarterfinal. Rath was a two-time first-team all-state selection and a three-time all-district pick at Giltner.

PERSONAL

Rath is the son of Jack and Gail Rath, and was born on April 7, 1993. 2014 OUTLOOK

Ryne Reeves got an opportunity to show his potential late in the 2013 season as he played a key role in an injury-ravaged offensive line. The 6-3, 300-pound Reeves saw extensive action in the final three regular-season games after Nebraska's top four offensive guards were all sidelined or slowed by injury.

The Crete, Neb., native heads into the fall looking to secure a starting spot of his own for the 2014 season. Reeves worked primarily at center during the spring, and he and senior Mark Pelini will continue to compete for the starting role in preseason practice. Reeves also could also battle for playing time at guard on an offensive line that graduated five key seniors from the 2013 team.

Reeves has earned Academic All-Big Ten honors each of the past two seasons.

Reeves suffered a broken ankle in spring practice, but recovered in time to play in 10 games as one of the Huskers' top reserves at offensive guard. Reeves helped the Nebraska offense excel against strong Michigan State and Penn State defenses, as I-back Ameer Abdullah topped 100 yards in both of those games. He was also a regular on PAT and field-goal units as a blocker.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Reeves was a reserve guard and appeared in Nebraska's wins over Southern Miss, Arkansas State, Idaho State and Minnesota.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

Reeves redshirted in his first season and was a standout on the scout team line.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (CRETE HS)

Reeves was one of four in-state players in Nebraska's 2011 class, and was a key figure in a Class B state championship season for Crete High School in 2010. Reeves helped Coach Chuck McGinnis' team rack up more than 3,900 rushing yards en route to a perfect 13-0 record. In addition to his dominant lead blocking, Reeves was also a force on the defensive side, recording 73 tackles and two tackles for loss from his tackle spot. He also forced a fumble in the Class B state title game, a 34-0 victory over Elkhorn.

Reeves was a Super State selection by the Lincoln Journal Star and an All-Nebraska pick by the Omaha World-Herald. Reeves was also named the honorary captain of the Class B all-state offensive unit by the Lincoln Journal Star.

Reeves was a first-team All-Nebraska pick by the World-Herald as a junior in 2009. He lined up at guard for the Cardinals, but was named to the Rivals.com All-America team as a center. He was regarded as one of the top five center prospects in the country by both Rivals and Scout, and Rivals listed him as the second-best prospect in Nebraska. Despite an early pledge to NU, Reeves received an offer from Stanford and interest from several schools, including Miami, USC and UCLA.

PERSONAL

Reeves was born on July 14, 1992, and is the son of John and Mary Ellen Reeves. He is an economics/management major and has been named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll three times. » Academic All-Big Ten (2013)

» Four-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll

Lincoln native Brandon Reilly emerged in the 2013 season and added even more depth to a talented Nebraska receiver corps. The 6-1, 195-pound Reilly saw his playing time increase as the 2013 season progressed following injuries to several Husker wideouts.

Reilly's surge continued into 2014, as he was one of the breakout players during spring practice, regularly making plays in the passing game. Reilly, who has added 15 pounds of muscle in the past year, has likely earned a spot in the Huskers' regular receiving rotation as a sophomore. In addition to his ability as a receiver, Reilly has the speed and athleticism to contribute on special teams, both as a returner and on coverage units.

Reilly was an Academic All-Big Ten honoree in 2013. He carries a 3.411 cumulative grade-point average in marketing.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Reilly played in 10 games as a reserve at receiver. He caught three passes for 24 yards, including two catches for 19 yards at Penn State and a five-yard reception against South Dakota State. Reilly also saw action on the Huskers' special teams units.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Reilly redshirted in his first season in 2012.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SOUTHWEST HS)

A standout on both sides of the ball for Lincoln Southwest, Reilly earned honorable-mention all-state accolades as a senior from the Omaha World-Herald. Reilly caught 18 passes for 339 yards, and was also a threat on special teams, amassing over 650 kickoff and punt return yards, including three returns for touchdowns. Reilly showed big-play ability as a senior, with eight of his nine touchdowns covering 50 yards or more.

On defense, Reilly totaled 59 tackles and three interceptions to earn a spot on the first-team Lincoln Journal Star Super State team as a defensive back. Reilly capped his prep career by catching six passes for 117 yards and one touchdown en route to earning offensive MVP honors at the 2012 Nebraska Shrine Bowl. Also a member of the Southwest basketball team, Reilly chose to walk on at Nebraska after receiving interest from Nebraska-Kearney, Southeast Missouri State and South Dakota.

PERSONAL

Reilly was born on Sept. 24, 1993, and is the son of Paul Reilly and Julie Matthes. Reilly is majoring in marketing and earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll each of his first four semesters. Junior Anthony Ridder will head into preseason camp with hopes of earning playing time in the Husker secondary in 2014. The 6-2, 200-pound Ridder spent time with the second defensive unit during spring ball, and he will also contend for playing time on Nebraska's special teams units.

A walk-on from West Point, Neb., Ridder began his career as a quarterback before making the switch to defense in 2012. Ridder's father, Dave, played defensive end for Nebraska, lettering three times from 1981 to 1983. Dave also joined the program as a walk-on from West Point Central Catholic.

Ridder added depth at cornerback, but did not play in a game.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Ridder made the switch to defensive back and added depth, but did not play in a game.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

Ridder redshirted and worked on the scout team offense at quarterback.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (WEST POINT CENTRAL CATHOLIC HS)

Ridder joined the NU program as a walk-on, following in the footsteps of his father, Dave Ridder. Anthony starred on both sides of the ball for his father at West Point Central Catholic, helping his team to the Class D-1 state title in the school's first year of eight-man competition. As a quarterback, Ridder passed for more than 1,700 yards and 38 touchdowns with just two interceptions. He also rushed for more than 800 yards and 20 touchdowns. Defensively, he led Central Catholic with 106 total tackles.

Ridder was the offensive honorary captain of the Class D-1 all-state team by both the Omaha World-Herald and the Lincoln Journal Star. Anthony had scholarship offers from Augustana and Wayne State.

PERSONAL

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Roach redshirted and worked on the scout team in his first season in 2010.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ELKHORN HS)

Roach came to Nebraska as a linebacker/running back from state high school power Elkhorn. He amassed 100 tackles for the Antlers in 2009, and starred on the offensive side of the ball where he rushed for 1,042 yards and 17 touchdowns. Roach missed the majority of his junior year with a knee injury he suffered in the first game of the season.

A first-team All-Nebraska (Omaha World-Herald) and second-team Super State (Lincoln Journal Star) selection, Roach chose to walk on at Nebraska over scholarship offers from Northwest Missouri State and Nebraska-Omaha and a walk-on invitation from Iowa State.

PERSONAL

Roach is the son of Thomas and Teri Roach, and he was born on March 6, 1992. Roach is majoring in finance/management, and has been named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll each of the past six semesters. He was also named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll on two occasions.

Roach has also established himself as a leader with his outreach activities, earning a spot on both the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team and Brook Berringer Citizenship Team, as well as a Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Leadership Award. Roach has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes, Husker Heroes, Teammates, Husker Hotline and local team hospital, school and church outreach events.

JONATHAN ROSE

#14

LEEDS, ALA. | LEEDS | AUBURN

2014 OUTLOOK

Jonathan Rose is expected to compete for a starting job at cornerback this fall, a position where the Huskers lost two of their top three players from the 2013 defense. Rose contributed in the Husker secondary and on special teams in his first season of playing action in the Nebraska program in 2013. The 6-1, 195-pound Rose began his college career at Auburn in 2011, but transferred after seeing action as a true freshman with the Tigers.

Like 2013 starter Stanley Jean-Baptiste, Rose gives Nebraska great length at corner to match up with taller opposing receivers. This spring, Rose and newcomer Byerson Cockrell split time with the top defensive unit opposite two-year starter Josh Mitchell. Rose also made contributions on the Huskers' special teams last fall and could continue in that role.

Rose played in 10 games as a reserve cornerback and on Nebraska's special teams units, including action in each of the final six games. Rose had a fumble recovery against South Dakota State.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Rose sat out the 2012 season as a transfer from Auburn.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (AUBURN/LEEDS HS)

Rose played in nine games as a true freshman at Auburn in 2011. He recorded two tackles on the season, a pair of solo stops in a win over Ole Miss. Before Auburn, Rose was one of the nation's top prep cornerbacks at Leeds High School in Leeds, Ala. He finished fourth in the voting for Alabama Mr. Football as a senior. He led Leeds to the Class 3A state title in 2010, returning an interception 84 yards for a touchdown and scoring on a 38-yard pass reception in the title game. He totaled 73 tackles and five interceptions during his senior year after recording 62 tackles with three interceptions and 29 pass break-ups as a junior. Rose also had six catches for 237 yards (39.5 ypc) and four touchdowns as a junior, averaging 24.7 yards on punt returns and 38.3 yards on kickoff returns.

He was named the nation's No. 3 cornerback, the No. 2 player from the state of Alabama and the No. 66 player nationally by Rivals.com as a senior. He was also rated as the No. 8 cornerback in the nation, the No. 3 recruit from Alabama and the No. 88 player overall nationally by 247 Sports.

In addition to being selected as a SuperPrep All-American, he was chosen to play for the East squad at the U.S. Army All-American Bowl following his senior season. Locally, Rose was named to the Super 12 team and tabbed as the 2010 3A Back of the Year by the Alabama Sports Writers Association as a senior, when he was also No. 2 on the Birmingham News' list of the Alabama Super Seniors. Rose participated in the Alabama-Mississippi All-Star game, breaking up three passes and intercepting another.

PERSONAL

Rose is the son of Charles and Felicia Rose. He was born on July 19, 1993. Rose is majoring in ethnic studies. He has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes, team hospital visits and community rec center visits.

2014 OUTLOOK

Linebacker Michael Rose emerged during the second half of the 2013 season to become a reliable performer in the middle of the Nebraska defense. Rose's play in the season's final few games coincided with the Huskers' improved defensive effort down the stretch.

The Kansas City native began his redshirt freshman season playing multiple positions, but thrived once he settled into the MIKE linebacker spot. He finished the season with a Nebraska freshman record 66 tackles, including 49 tackles in the season's final five games.

Rose was recognized for his efforts by being named to the BTN all-freshman team. The 5-11, 240-pound Rose is one of five returning linebackers with starting experience, and the group has the ability to be a strength for the 2014 Huskers.

Rose was also one of 30 Huskers named to the Academic All-Big Ten team in 2013.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Rose played in 12 games with seven starts. After beginning the year as a reserve at outside linebacker, he moved to the middle. Rose's 66 tackles shattered the previous Nebraska freshman tackle record of 49 by Barrett Ruud in 2001. Rose had at least seven tackles in six games, including each of the season's final five games. He added six tackles for loss.

Rose had just two tackles in non-conference play, with both tackles coming against UCLA, including a two-yard tackle for loss. He made his first career start against Illinois and led the team with 11 tackles, including a tackle for loss. He made two tackles over the next two games, before settling into the MIKE linebacker spot.

Rose had two tackles in his second career start against Northwestern, then made eight tackles, including four solo stops, at Michigan. He had seven tackles, including five solo stops against Michigan State, then added eight tackles, including six solos, in a win at Penn State. Rose had a breakout game against Iowa in the regular-season finale, tallying 17 tackles, including four tackles for loss. His tackle total was the most by a Husker in 2013, and the most by a Husker defender since Lavonte David had 17 at Michigan in 2011.

Rose closed his redshirt freshman season with nine tackles in the Huskers' Gator Bowl win over Georgia.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Rose redshirted in his first season in the program in 2012.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ROCKHURST HS)

Rose was a playmaker for Coach Tony Severino at Rockhurst (Mo.) High School, helping his team to a 10-2 record and a trip to the Class 6 quarterfinals in 2011. Rose made 104 tackles as a senior, including three sacks, while adding a pair of interceptions, four pass breakups, two forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries. Rose was named a first-team Class 6 all-state pick by the Missouri Coaches Association and an All-Metro selection by the Kansas City Star.

Injuries limited Rose to just six games as a junior, but he made a big impact when he was on the field, averaging nearly three tackles for loss per game. Rose first played a key role as a sophomore, when he had a team-high 95 tackles, two sacks, an interception and a pair of fumble recoveries. Rose played in the Under Armour All-America Bowl in Florida and was one of the defensive standouts in the game. Rose was the first player to commit to NU's 2012 class, making his intentions known before his junior season, and he did not take any other visits. He did have dozens of offers, including Iowa, Ohio State, Missouri, USC, Kansas and Indiana to name a few. Rose was ranked among the top five players in the state of Missouri by both Rivals.com and 247 Sports, while 247 Sports and ESPNU listed him among the top 150 overall prospects in the country. Rose was listed among the top 15 inside linebackers in the country by Rivals, Scout and 247 Sports. Rose was also on the preseason watch list for the high school version of the Butkus Award.

PERSONAL

Rose was born on Aug. 30, 1993, and he is the son of Michael Rose Sr. He is majoring in journalism and earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2012. Rose was also a member of the 2013 Brook Berringer Citizenship Team and received a Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Leadership Award for his efforts in the community. Rose has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes, NFL Fuel Up to Play 60, School is Cool Week, numerous hospital, school and community rec center outreach events and is active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

#41

SPRING, TEXAS | KLEIN COLLINS
TWO LETTERS

- » Big Ten All-Freshman Team (BTN, 2012)
- » Big Ten Co-Freshman of the Week (vs. Michigan, 2012)

2014 OUTLOOK

David Santos was a key part of the improvement made by the Nebraska linebacking corps during the 2013 season. The youthful group struggled early in the season, but Santos' continued development was a major key to Nebraska featuring one of the Big Ten's best defenses in conference play.

Santos began the season as Nebraska's starting MIKE linebacker, but later settled into a more comfortable starting role at the WILL spot. Santos played in all 13 games and made 10 starts on the year, including the final six games at the WILL linebacker position. Santos was second on the team with 87 tackles, including 48 solo stops, and also had seven tackles for loss and two sacks.

Santos' versatility gives him an excellent chance of playing a key role again in 2014. He and fellow returnees Zaire Anderson, Josh Banderas and Michael Rose give Nebraska flexibility throughout the linebacking corps.

Santos made four starts at middle linebacker in the first half of the season, before starting the final six games on the outside. Santos made at least eight tackles in five games, including a pair of double-figure tackle games.

He opened the year with 12 tackles in just his second career start against Wyoming. Santos came off the bench the next two games before making six tackles, including his first career sack, against South Dakota State.

Santos had nine tackles from his spot in the middle against Illinois and led the team with five tackles at Purdue, including four solo stops. Santos led the Huskers with a career-high 13 tackles at Minnesota, including seven solo stops. Against Northwestern, Santos had six tackles, including a tackle for loss, and added his first career breakup.

Santos started at WILL linebacker at Michigan and made five tackles, including a pair of tackles for loss, to help limit the Wolverines to -21 yards rushing. He tied for the team lead with eight tackles and two tackles for loss against Michigan State, then led NU with nine tackles and a key sack at Penn State. Santos capped the year with six tackles in the Gator Bowl win over Georgia.

Santos played in 13 games making his first career start against Michigan. He made 24 tackles, including 11 solo stops and three tackles for loss. Santos had a season-high 10 tackles and a tackle for loss against Michigan, earning Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Week honors for his effort. He made four tackles and a TFL against Penn State and forced a fumble to prevent a Nittany Lion touchdown in the fourth quarter. Santos made three tackles each against Arkansas State and Northwestern.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

Santos sat out as a redshirt in his first season in 2011.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (KLEIN COLLINS HS)

Santos was a standout at Klein Collins High School, and was one of five Texans in the Huskers' 2011 signing class. Santos' play helped Collins High to an 11-1 record and district championship in 2010, before a loss in the second round of the Class 5A state playoffs.

Santos was a key part of the success of Coach Drew Svoboda's team, as Santos racked up 136 total tackles in 2010, including 86 solo stops. He also had 13 tackles for loss, six sacks and a pair of pass breakups. Santos earned District 13 Defensive MVP honors for his efforts and was also the Houston Touchdown Club's Defensive Player of the Year. He was also a first-team Class 5A all-state selection according to OldCoach.com. He participated in the Offense-Defense All-America Game in South Carolina following his strong senior season.

Santos made 107 total tackles, including 75 solo stops, 25 tackles for loss and had four sacks for a 12-1 team in 2009. Overall, Santos was a four-year letterwinner for the Tigers. He was a prep teammate of Husker safety Charles Jackson.

Santos was ranked among the nation's top 15 outside linebackers by Rivals.com, which also ranked him among the top 40 overall players in Texas. Santos committed to NU early and did not take any other visits, but had a host of offers, including Arkansas, Kansas and Utah.

PERSONAL

Santos was born on June 22, 1992, and is the son of Rosalind and David Santos Sr. He is an ethnic studies major. Santos has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes, Belmont Rec Center and Husker Heroes.

GRANT SCHUMACHER #47
PLACE-KICKER | 5-9 | 165 | REDSHIRT FRESHMAN

LINCOLN, NEB. | PIUS X

- » Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Fall 2013)

2014 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Grant Schumacher will be among the candidates to replace Pat Smith as the starting place-kicker for Nebraska in 2014. The walk-on from Lincoln Pius X High School redshirted last season and performed well during spring ball. He will compete with junior Mauro Bondi, sophomore Spencer Lindsay and incoming freshman Drew Brown for kicking duties.

2013 (REDSHIRT)

Schumacher sat out his first season at Nebraska as a redshirt.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (PIUS X HS)

Schumacher was one of the top place-kickers in the state of Nebraska, and was a talented multi-sport athlete for the Thunderbolts. Schumacher connected on 10-of-13 field goals and all 30 PAT attempts as a senior for Coach Tim Aylward's team. Schumacher also averaged better than 40 yards per punt and saw action at receiver and defensive back. Schumacher was chosen as the second-team Super State place-kicker by the Lincoln Journal Star and was an honorable-mention All-Nebraska choice by the Omaha World-Herald. Schumacher also earned honorable-mention accolades from both the Journal Star and World-Herald as a junior. Schumacher was also a key member of the Bolts' basketball team and one of Pius' top golfers.

PERSONAL

Schumacher is the son of Jeff and Laura Schumacher and was born on Feb. 23, 1995. Schumacher has not declared a major, but was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor during the fall of 2013. He has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes, Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline and team hospital visits.

BRAD SIMPSON

#56

OMAHA, NEB. | RALSTON

2014 OUTLOOK

Sophomore Brad Simpson made a contribution on special teams in 2013, and will look to play an expanded role for the Huskers this fall. The 6-0, 220-pound Simpson adds depth in a deep Nebraska linebacking corps and hopes to earn defensive playing time. He also figures to be a core member of the Huskers' special teams. Simpson joined the Nebraska program as a walk-on from Ralston High School.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Simpson added depth at linebacker and saw action on special teams in 2013. Simpson played in four games, appearing against Wyoming, Southern Miss, UCLA and Georgia, but did not have a tackle. He was a regular member of the Huskers' travel squad.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Simpson redshirted in his first season at Nebraska and worked on the scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (RALSTON HS)

Simpson shined on both sides of the football for Ralston High, where he led the Rams to the second round of the Nebraska Class B state playoffs and an 8-3 overall record in 2011. Simpson tallied 98 tackles, including 65 solo stops, three interceptions and two fumble recoveries for Coach Tyler Zahn, a former Husker linebacker. For his efforts, Simpson was named to the Class B all-state team by the Lincoln Journal Star and the Omaha World-Herald as a senior. Simpson also led the Ralston offense at quarterback, finishing with 802 yards rushing and 15 touchdowns, while throwing for 881 yards and seven scores. On special teams, Simpson averaged more than 34 yards a punt and had a long of 57 yards. At the 2012 Nebraska Shrine Bowl, Simpson was named the game's defensive MVP after recording a sack and intercepting a pass and returning it 21 yards for a touchdown. Simpson chose to walk on at NU over scholarship offers from both Central Missouri and Nebraska-Kearney.

PERSONAL

Simpson is the son of Dan and Carrie Simpson and was born on Oct. 24, 1993. He is a communication studies major. Simpson has volunteered his time with the Community Action partnership and team hospital visits.

D.J. SINGLETON

#8

JERSEY CITY, N.J. | ST. PETER'S PREP

2014 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman D.J. Singleton spent his first season in the Nebraska program as a redshirt learning the Huskers' defensive scheme. This season, the 6-1, 200-pound Singleton will make a bid for playing time at safety where he worked with the second defense throughout the spring. Singleton should also contend for action on the Huskers' special teams units.

A New Jersey native, Singleton joined the Nebraska program in January of 2013 to get a headstart on his college career. Singleton originally signed with Wisconsin out of high school in February of 2012, but did not enroll at the school and re-opened his recruitment before deciding on the Huskers.

Singleton redshirted in his first season in the program after enrolling early in January of 2013.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ST. PETER'S PREP)

Singleton graduated from St. Peter's Prep in Jersey City, N.J., in 2012 and was one of the top defensive prospects in the Garden State. As a senior, Singleton posted 53 tackles, four sacks, 12 tackles for loss and three forced fumbles for Coach Rich Hansen. Singleton's play earned him second-team All-New Jersey selection by the Newark Star-Ledger, as well as all-metro and all-county honors.

As a junior, Singleton made 40 tackles, including three sacks, and forced three fumbles. His play earned him all-county honors in 2010. He first saw varsity action with 43 tackles as a sophomore in 2009. Following his senior season, Singleton was ranked as one of the top 30 safety prospects in the 2012 class by Rivals.com and 247 Sports. He was also regarded as one of the top 20 players in the state of New Jersey by several recruiting services. Singleton played in the Semper Fi All-Star game in January of 2012 and was selected to the USA Today International Bowl. Singleton was also a two-year letterwinner in track and field at St. Peter's Prep.

Singleton chose Nebraska over Wisconsin and Rutgers. In 2012, he had scholarship offers from dozens of schools, including Michigan, Michigan State and Illinois to name a few.

PERSONAL

Singleton was born on Jan. 7, 1994, and he is the son of Dwayne Sr. and Bernadette Singleton. He has not declared a major. Singleton has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes, Uplifting Athletes and at the F Street Community Center.

RANCHO SANTA MARGARITA, CALIF. | SANTA MARGARITA CATHOLIC

» Brook Berringer Citizenship Team (2014)

» Tom Osborne Citizenship Team (2014)

2014 OUTLOOK

Talented dual-threat quarterback Johnny Stanton will enter his redshirt freshman season with the Huskers with hopes of competing for the starting quarterback job. The 6-2, 230-pound Stanton spent the majority of the spring working as the co-No. 2 quarterback along with sophomore Ryker Fyfe, with returning starter Tommy Armstrong Jr. working primarily with the top unit.

Stanton provides a physical running threat from his quarterback spot and also has a strong arm. Stanton also carries the leadership qualities needed to be a successful college quarterback.

Stanton has distinguished himself in the classroom and community during his year in Lincoln. Stanton carries a 3.518 cumulative grade-point average in nutrition science. He was also named to both the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team and Tom Osborne Citizenship Team for his extensive community outreach work.

2013 (REDSHIRT)

Stanton redshirted in his first season at Nebraska and was a standout on the Huskers' scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SANTA MARGARITA CATHOLIC HS)

Stanton was a game-changing quarterback both as a passer and runner for Coach Harry Welch at Santa Margarita Catholic High School. Stanton's senior season was cut short by a knee injury in week five. Before he was injured, Stanton helped his team to a consensus ranking among the nation's top five prep teams. In his shortened season, Stanton completed 59-of-88 passes for 949 yards and 12 touchdowns, while rushing for 386 yards and 10 touchdowns on just 47 carries. Stanton's efforts earned him September's National High School Coaches Association/GTM Sportswear Athlete of the Month award. Santa Margarita was 5-0 at the time of Stanton's injury and went on to finish with a 9-3 record.

Stanton was one of California's most dynamic offensive players in the 2011 season, helping Santa Margarita to a 13-2 record and the CIF Southern Section Division I state title. Stanton completed better than 60 percent of his passes for 2,439 yards and 13 touchdowns, while rushing for 1,428 yards and 21 touchdowns. Stanton was the first-team quarterback on the Los Angeles Times All-Area team and was the MVP of the SouthernCaliforniaPreps.com All-Pac 5 football team. As a sophomore in 2010, Stanton started at safety for the Santa Margarita defense and also logged time at quarterback. Stanton made 72 tackles on defense, while posting 375 passing yards and 223 rushing yards. Stanton showed his quarterback ability in leading a comeback win against St. John Bosco as a sophomore, throwing for 185 yards and three touchdowns in the second half. Stanton was generally regarded as one of the nation's top dual-threat QB prospects, ranking among the top 15 overall dual-threat quarterbacks in the nation by both 247 Sports and Rivals.com, while Fox Sports Next ranked him among the nation's top 30 quarterbacks overall. He was also regarded as one of the top 40 players in California. Stanton was also a finalist at the prestigious Elite 11 Quarterback Camp in 2012 in California.

Stanton committed to Nebraska in the summer of 2012 and did not take any other visits, but had offers from California, Oregon, Oregon State, Utah, Washington and Wisconsin among others.

PERSONAL

Johnny Stanton IV is the son of John III and Lori Stanton, and he was born on Sept. 7, 1994. Stanton is majoring in nutrition science and earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll each of his first two semesters. Stanton has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes, Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline, School is Cool Week, the People's City Mission, FCA and local school, hospital and community rec center outreach events.

2014 OUTLOOK

Junior Zach Sterup is among a group of Nebraska offensive linemen who are poised to step into a bigger role for the Huskers in 2014. The 6-8, 320-pound Sterup provided depth at offensive tackle last season, but was thrust into an important role in November as injuries ravaged the offensive line. Sterup responded well to his opportunity and showed he has the ability to be a productive Big Ten tackle the next two years.

Nebraska must replace three 2013 seniors who handled the majority of snaps at tackle last fall, and Sterup is a big part of that equation. The Hastings native spent the majority of spring practice holding down the right tackle spot with the top offensive unit. Sterup has added more than 50 pounds of muscle to his frame since he arrived in Lincoln three seasons ago. Sterup has also earned Academic All-Big Ten honors each of the past two seasons.

Sterup played in 11 games, seeing action both at offensive tackle and on the Huskers' field goal and PAT units. He saw extensive action at tackle in the final five games of the year when injuries ravaged the offensive line. The play of the offensive line helped Ameer Abdullah rush for 1,690 yards in 2013.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Sterup was a reserve at tackle and appeared in Nebraska's wins over Southern Miss, Arkansas State, Idaho State and Minnesota.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

Sterup redshirted in his first season and was a standout on the scout team line.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (HASTINGS ST. CECILIA HS)

Sterup was a standout performer for Coach Carl Tesmer at Hastings St. Cecilia High School, helping the Bluehawks to back-to-back state championships in 2009 and 2010. As a senior, Sterup led an offensive line that paved the way for more than 3,500 rushing yards en route to a second straight 13-0 season. In addition to his dominant play on the offensive line, Sterup also saw time on defense and racked up 58 tackles and four sacks.

Sterup was a first-team All-Nebraska pick by the Omaha World-Herald and a Super-State selection according to the Lincoln Journal Star. He was also the honorary captain of the C-2 all-state team by both newspapers. Sterup earned first-team defensive all-state honors in Class C-1 as a junior, helping St. Cecilia to a perfect campaign before it moved classes in 2010.

Sterup was regarded as one of the top 30 offensive tackle prospects in the country by Rivals.com, which also listed him as the top player in Nebraska. Sterup was among the tallest Husker recruits ever, with 6-8 offensive tackle Tom Punt (1988-90) the tallest known football letterwinner in school history before Sterup's arrival. Sterup has since been passed by fellow offensive tackle David Knevel who stands 6-9.

Sterup also starred in basketball where he was among the team leaders in scoring and rebounding and helped the Bluehawks to a 19-6 record. St. Cecilia captured three straight Class C-1 basketball titles from 2008 to 2010. Sterup only visited Nebraska but had numerous other offers, including Iowa, Wisconsin, Notre Dame, Minnesota, Stanford and UCLA.

PERSONAL

Sterup was born on May 14, 1992, and is the son of Doug Sterup and Mary Sterup-Walsh. He is majoring in economics/finance and was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the spring of 2012 in addition to being a two-time Academic All-Big Ten selection. Sterup has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes, Husker Hotline and team hospital visits.

LINCOLN, NEB. | SOUTHEAST

- » Three-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll

2014 OUTLOOK

Junior David Sutton is one of several tight ends who will battle for action for the Husker offense in 2014. Sutton suffered through an injury-plagued 2013 season that limited his chances to compete for playing time at the position. The 6-3, 240-pound Sutton saw action throughout the spring and will compete for playing time with several other players, including fellow Lincoln Southeast products Sam Cotton and Trey Foster.

Sutton has also continued to put in outstanding work in the classroom, being named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll three times.

Sutton added depth at tight end and played in three games in a reserve role, but did not have a reception.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Sutton provided depth in a veteran tight end corps. He played against Southern Miss, Arkansas State and Idaho State, but did not have a catch.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

Sutton redshirted and worked on the Nebraska scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SOUTHEAST HS)

Sutton was one of four Nebraskans in the Huskers' 2011 recruiting class. He starred on both sides of the ball for Lincoln Southeast High School, helping the Knights to a 10-2 record and a trip to the Class A state semifinals in 2010. From his defensive end spot, Sutton recorded 105 tackles as a senior, including 12 sacks. On offense, he caught 16 passes for 311 yards and four touchdowns as a tight end.

Sutton was a first-team Super-State pick on defense by the Lincoln Journal Star and an All-Nebraska selection by the Omaha World-Herald. During his junior season, Sutton racked up 75 tackles and earned honorable-mention all-city accolades from the Lincoln Journal Star, helping the Knights to the state quarterfinals. Sutton also visited Ohio and had an offer from South Dakota State.

PERSONAL

Sutton is the son of Mark and Jayne Sutton, and he was born on Jan. 13, 1993. He is majoring in management/marketing and has been named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll three times. Sutton has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes, Belmont Rec Center, School is Cool Week, Husker Heroes, the Husker Hotline and local school and hospital visits.

ADAM TAYLOR
I-BACK | 6-2 | 210 | REDSHIRT FRESHMAN
KATY, TEXAS | KATY

#28

» Nebraska Scout Team Offensive MVP (2013)

2014 OUTLOOK

Texas native Adam Taylor is part of a talented group of Nebraska I-backs who have the ability to give the Huskers one of the nation's top rushing attacks in 2014. The 6-2, 210-pound Taylor sat out his first season at Nebraska as a redshirt, but was very impressive during his work on the practice field.

Taylor has the tools to be a complete back, combining good size, speed and vision. This spring, Taylor earned a high number of practice repetitions with the second offense, and will look to earn carries at I-back along with All-American Ameer Abdullah, junior Imani Cross and sophomore Terrell Newby.

2013 (REDSHIRT)

Taylor sat out the 2013 season as a redshirt and earned Scout Team Offensive MVP honors.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (KATY HS)

Taylor posted prolific rushing numbers during his prep career at Katy High School in the Houston area, and helped the school to a Class 5A state title in 2012. Taylor ran for 2,754 yards and 45 touchdowns in his senior season, leading Coach Gary Joseph's team to a perfect 16-0 record and a Class 5A Division 2 state title. Katy High was regarded as one of the nation's top 20 teams following its championship season. Taylor was at his best in the state title run, first rushing 40 times for 226 yards in the state semifinals against Cibola Steele. In the state title victory over Cedar Hill at Cowboys Stadium, Taylor ran 30 times for 276 yards and five touchdowns.

For his play in 2012, Taylor was named the Houston Chronicle's Greater Houston Offensive Player of the Year, and was the OldCoach.com Class 5A State MVP. Taylor was also an honorable-mention Class 5A Texas all-state selection.

Taylor missed nearly all of his junior year because of injury, rushing just 20 times for 106 yards before being sent to the sideline. Taylor first showed his ability for Katy High School as a sophomore in 2010, helping the team to a 13-1 record and a trip to the state quarterfinals. Taylor was the District 19-5A Newcomer of the Year after rushing for 1,553 yards and 18 touchdowns. His skills helped the powerful Katy offense average more than 325 rushing yards per game. Taylor ranked among the nation's top 250 overall prospects in the 247 composite rankings and by Rivals.com. He was a consensus choice as a top 25 running back in the country by 247 Sports, Rivals and Fox Sports Next and was also ranked among the top 45 prospects overall in the state of Texas. Taylor had dozens of offers before choosing Nebraska, including Alabama, Arkansas, Baylor, Florida State, Kansas State, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Stanford and Wisconsin.

PERSONAL

Taylor is the son of Barry and Fedora Taylor, and he was born on July 19, 1995. He is a business administration major. Taylor has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes, Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline and local community rec center outreach events.

#55

2014 OUTLOOK

Sophomore Paul Thurston will head into fall camp looking to earn playing time on a deep and veteran Nebraska offensive line. The 6-5, 295-pound Thurston has the versatility to play multiple positions on the line, but has settled into the center position over the past year. Thurston will head into fall camp looking to compete with senior Mark Pelini and junior Ryne Reeves for playing time at the center spot.

Thurston came to the NU program after a standout prep career at Arvada West High School in Colorado.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Thurston added depth on the offensive line, but did not see action in a game.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Thurston redshirted in his first season at Nebraska.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ARVADA WEST HS)

Thurston was a dominant blocker for Arvada West High each of his final three seasons. As a senior, Thurston was a Class 5A (largest class) first-team all-state selection by the Denver Post. During his junior year for Coach Casey Coons, Thurston helped Arvada West to a 6-5 record and a trip to the second round of the Class 5A playoffs. Thurston was a first-team all-conference selection as a junior, when he also played some on the defensive line. Thurston was also a member of the varsity team as a sophomore, when Arvada West posted an 11-2 record and advanced to the Class 5A state semifinals.

Thurston was regarded as one of the top five players in Colorado by both Rivals.com and 247 Sports. He was also listed among the top 150 overall prospects in the country by both Rivals and Scout.com, and was generally regarded among the top 20 offensive tackles nationally. Thurston committed to Nebraska in the summer before his senior year, and did not take any other visits. He did receive numerous offers including Michigan, Notre Dame, Oregon, Stanford, Colorado, Northwestern, Kansas State and UCLA to name a few.

PERSONAL

Thurston is the son of Greg and Janet Thurston, and he was born on June 25, 1993. He is a broadcasting major, and earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2012. Thurston has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes, Husker Hotline and team hospital and community rec center visits.

JAMAL TURNER
WIDE RECEIVER | 6-1 | 190 | SENIOR
ARLINGTON, TEXAS | SAM HOUSTON

#10

- » Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Fall 2011)
- » Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll (2011)
- » Jet Award Watch List (2013)

2014 OUTLOOK

Jamal Turner will look to return to being an explosive threat for the Husker offense and special teams as a senior in 2014. The 6-1, 190-pound Turner entered the 2013 season coming off a breakout finish to his sophomore year, but after a solid performance early in the year, injuries sidetracked him for the remainder of the season.

Turner was healthy during spring ball and was back to his play-making ways. When healthy, Turner provides a veteran receiver to the offense capable of making tough receptions and making big plays after the catch. Turner enters his senior year with 60 career receptions for 762 yards and four touchdowns. He joins fellow senior Kenny Bell in giving Nebraska two veteran, battle-tested players who will lead a deep and talented group of receivers.

Turner has also shown flashes of explosiveness as a return man for the Huskers, averaging better than 21 yards per kickoff return.

Turner is majoring in criminology and criminal justice and is on track to graduate in December, despite not having the benefit of a redshirt year.

2013 (JUNIOR)

Turner played in the first seven games before missing the final five games of the regular season with a leg injury. He had 13 catches for 102 yards and a touchdown, and also served as the Huskers' top punt returner early in the season.

Turner opened the year with four catches for 43 yards and a touchdown against Wyoming, then added one catch against Southern Miss and a season-high five passes for 23 yards against UCLA. He had a catch against South Dakota State and two receptions at Minnesota before being injured. He returned to action against Georgia in the Gator Bowl and had one rushing attempt.

Turner played in all 14 games with four starts, including the last three games, when NU opened with three receivers. He had 32 catches for 417 yards, an average of 13.0 yards per reception. Turner had six games with three or more catches, including a career-high six receptions against Minnesota. Eighteen of his catches and all three touchdowns came in the final six games.

The first two touchdowns of Turner's career were both game-changers. The first came on a six-yard TD catch with six seconds remaining to give NU a 28-24 win at Michigan State. The second came in the fourth quarter a week later against Penn State, giving Nebraska its first lead of the day in a comeback victory. He also had four rushing attempts, while averaging 5.7 yards on six punt returns and 22.1 yards on seven kickoff returns.

In the opener against Southern Miss, Turner had two catches for 46 yards, including a season-long 36-yard catch. He made his first career start at UCLA and had one reception and two rushing attempts. Turner combined for four catches in the first two Big Ten games, before being a part of a big passing day at Northwestern with three catches for 56 yards, including a 25-yard catch to set up Nebraska's game-winning touchdown.

Turner had two receptions at Michigan State, including the game-winning touchdown, then added two catches the following week against Penn State. Turner caught a career-high six passes for 83 yards against Minnesota, just one yard shy of his career high. Turner started against Wisconsin in the Big Ten title game and led NU with 63 yards on five catches, highlighted by a 32-yard third-quarter catch. Turner capped the season with three catches for 22 yards against Georgia, including a 14-yard TD reception in the first quarter.

Turner played in 12 games and was fifth on the team with 15 receptions for 243 yards, and his average of 16.2 yards per reception was second on the team. Turner had at least one reception in each of the first five games. He caught three passes for 63 yards, including a season-long 43-yard catch against Fresno State.

Turner had a season-high five receptions for a career-high 84 yards at Wisconsin, including two catches of at least 25 yards. He had two receptions each against Washington, Wyoming and Minnesota. He added one kickoff return for 17 yards against Washington.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SAM HOUSTON HS)

Turner had a prolific high school career at Sam Houston High School in Arlington, Texas. He was one of the nation's top dual-threat quarterbacks for Coach Danny Edelman, racking up more than 10,000 yards of total offense in three years as a starter.

As a senior, Turner rushed for 1,888 yards on 267 carries and 35 rushing touchdowns. He completed better than 60 percent of his passes for 1,551 yards and eight touchdowns. Turner earned first-team All-DFW area accolades from the Dallas Morning News as a utility player, and he was also an honorable-mention Class 5A all-state pick. Turner produced similar statistics as a junior with 1,809 yards and 19 touchdowns rushing, while averaging better than eight yards per carry. He also threw for better than 1,800 yards and 13 touchdowns earning second-team All-DFW area honors and second-team 5A all-state honors.

Turner first stepped into the starting quarterback role as a sophomore and posted big passing numbers. He threw for 2,611 yards and 21 touchdowns, while also rushing for better than 400 yards and nine touchdowns. Turner was chosen to play in the Under Armour All-

American game in Florida, and he showed his all-around ability by lining up at receiver in the game. ESPN ranked Turner among the top 50 overall prospects in the country, while Rivals ranked Turner among the top 140 players in the nation and the top 20 prospects in Texas. Turner only visited Nebraska, but had numerous offers, including Missouri, Oklahoma, TCU, Texas A&M and USC.

PERSONAL

Turner is the son of the late Rusty Turner and Jeffery Turner and was born on Feb. 1, 1993. He is a criminology and criminal justice major and was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll in 2011 and the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2011. Turner has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes, Make-A-Wish, at Madonna Rehabilitation Center, local hospital visits and Husker Hotline.

PAPILLION, NEB. | PAPILLION-LA VISTA

Sophomore Dylan Utter will look to compete for playing time at offensive guard this fall. The 6-1, 285-pound Utter has made good strides on the field and in the classroom since his arrival on campus, and earned some reps with the second offensive unit during spring ball. Utter joined the Nebraska program after an outstanding prep career at Papillion-LaVista High School.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Utter provided depth along the offensive line, but did not appear in a game.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Utter redshirted and worked on the scout team in 2012.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (PAPILLION-LAVISTA HS)

Utter helped Papillion-LaVista High School reach the semifinals of the Class A state championships as a senior in 2011. Utter was a mainstay on both sides of the line of scrimmage, totaling 40 tackles and two sacks to earn a spot on the Lincoln Journal Star Super State second team as a senior. On offense, Utter helped the Monarchs average more than 38 points and 258 passing yards per game.

As a junior, Utter recorded 47 tackles, 12 tackles for loss and three sacks on defense. In the spring of his senior year, Utter earned a second-place finish in shot put at the 2012 Nebraska state track and field championships. Also a member of the Omaha World-Herald All-Nebraska second team, Utter was selected to participate in the 2012 Nebraska Shrine Bowl. Utter walked on after receiving scholarship offers from North Dakota and Army.

PERSONAL

Utter was born on Feb. 19, 1994, and is the son of Dinah Fiest. He is a social science education major. Utter has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes, Husker Hotline, Community Action Partnership and team hospital visits.

- » Honorable-Mention Big Ten All-Freshman Team (BTN, 2013)
- » Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Fall 2012)

2014 OUTLOOK

Sophomore Vincent Valentine is part of an impressive group of young players on the Nebraska defensive front and showed his potential in his first year of action in 2013. A year after Valentine and his young defensive line teammates worked through growing pains, the group is ready to make defensive tackle a position of strength this fall.

Valentine solidified a spot with the top defense in the spring, but Nebraska also returns several players with game experience, meaning the competition at defensive tackle will continue into fall camp.

The 6-3, 320-pound Valentine was part of the regular defensive tackle rotation throughout 2013, and played his best football in the final few games of the season. Valentine spent the offseason continuing to make strides in the Husker weight room and appears ready for big things in 2014 and beyond.

Valentine played in all 13 games with six starts, including the first four games and the final two contests of the regular season. Valentine finished with 21 tackles, including 11 solo stops. He added five tackles for loss and a sack. He opened the year with four tackles against Wyoming and then was at his best in the final two games of the regular season.

Valentine had eight tackles combined against Penn State and Iowa, including a season-high five stops against the Hawkeyes. He also had three of his five tackles for loss in the last two games. He had two TFLs against Iowa, including an eight-yard sack.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Valentine redshirted in his first season in the program in 2012.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (EDWARDSVILLE HS)

Valentine was one of four defensive linemen in NU's 2012 signing class, and he and fellow Illinois product Jordan Westerkamp gave NU two signees from that state for the first time since 2004. Valentine was a second-team all-state, all-class pick in Illinois by the Chicago Tribune as a senior. Valentine had 35 tackles, including 11 tackles for loss, and three sacks for Edwardsville, helping Coach Matt Martin's team to a 5-5 record and a trip to the Illinois state playoffs. Valentine was also chosen as a first-team Class 7A all-state performer by the Illinois High School Coaches Association, and earned first-team All-Southwest Conference honors for the second straight season.

As a junior, Valentine made 33 tackles, while adding two sacks, forcing two fumbles and recovering a fumble. Valentine was also a starter as a sophomore when he racked up 29 tackles, two sacks and had a fumble recovery. Valentine was ranked among the nation's top 50 defensive tackles by both Rivals.com and 247 Sports, and both services ranked him among the top 15 overall prospects in the state of Illinois. Valentine chose Nebraska over Florida and Illinois, and had dozens of other offers including Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Penn State, Purdue and Wisconsin in the Big Ten.

PERSONAL

Valentine was born on Feb. 23, 1994, and he is the son of Vincent Sr. and Angreha Valentine. He is a journalism major, and earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2012. Valentine has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes and part of team hospital visits.

2014 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman linebacker Chris Weber has made a solid impact on and off the field during his first year in the Husker program. The 6-3, 220-pound Weber earned a spot in the 105-man fall practice roster a year ago, a rarity for an incoming freshman walk-on. This fall, the Elkhorn High School product will add depth in the linebacking corps and should compete for action on special teams. Weber carries a 3.964 cumulative grade-point average after his first two semesters of college.

2013 (REDSHIRT)

Weber redshirted and worked on the scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ELKHORN HS)

Weber was a defensive standout and contributed on offense for Coach Mark Wortman's Elkhorn team, helping the Antlers to the Class B quarterfinals in 2012. Weber had 121 total tackles, including 66 solo stops and four quarterback sacks as a senior. On offense, he caught 18 passes for 338 yards and two touchdowns. Weber was a second-team All-Nebraska selection by the Omaha-World Herald and earned first-team Class B all-state honors from both the World-Herald and the Lincoln Journal Star. Weber was also a member of Elkhorn's 2011 Class B state title team. A recipient of a UNL Regents Scholarship, Weber had recruiting interest from North Dakota State and South Dakota State before choosing to walk on.

PERSONAL

Weber was born on Jan. 25, 1995, and is the son of Tom and Cindy Weber. He has not declared a major, but earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll each of his first two semesters. Weber has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes, Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline and local rec center and hospital outreach events.

- » Big Ten Freshman of the Week (vs. Northwestern, 2013)
- » Academic All-Big Ten (2013)
- » Two-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll

2014 OUTLOOK

Receiver Jordan Westerkamp is set for significant playing time in a deep Nebraska receiving corps in 2014. The 6-0, 195-pound Westerkamp spent much of the spring working with the No. 1 offense at the slot receiver position, but he has the versatility to play multiple spots.

Westerkamp earned a permanent place in Nebraska football history last season, catching a game-winning Hail Mary pass on the final play of a victory over Northwestern. However, one catch was far from the only contribution by the Chicago native as a redshirt freshman.

Westerkamp is blessed with great hands, and was a dependable receiving target for Husker quarterbacks. He finished the year fourth on the team in receptions and third in receiving yards. He made 16 of his 20 catches in Big Ten play, including four games with at least three catches.

Westerkamp earned Academic All-Big Ten honors for Nebraska in 2013.

Westerkamp played in all 13 games and started the Gator Bowl against Georgia. He finished as Nebraska's fourth-leading receiver with 20 receptions for 283 yards, an average of 14.1 yards per catch. Westerkamp was Nebraska's top punt returner for the second half of the season and had 19 returns for 51 yards.

Westerkamp caught four passes for 30 yards in the season's first five games, before becoming a bigger part of the passing game. He made three receptions for 53 yards at Purdue and added three catches at Minnesota. Westerkamp had a career-best day against Northwestern with four catches for 104 yards, and capped the day with his only touchdown of the season on the Hail Mary catch to supply the winning points.

He caught a 27-yard pass at Michigan, then had a season-high five catches for 62 yards at Penn State. Westerkamp had a season-long 19-yard punt return at Minnesota, and had a 17-yard return vs. Michigan.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Westerkamp redshirted in his first season in the program in 2012.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (MONTINI CATHOLIC HS)

Westerkamp was a record-setting receiver at Montini Catholic High School in Illinois. Westerkamp is the state's all-time leader in receptions (235), receiving yards (4,618) and receiving touchdowns (68). Westerkamp helped lead Coach Chris Andriano's team to state titles each of his final three seasons, capped by a memorable performance in his final prep game. In the 2011 Class 5A state title game against Joliet Catholic, Westerkamp had 12 catches for 353 yards and five touchdowns, leading his team to a 70-45 victory.

The championship game effort capped a senior year that saw him catch 91 passes for 1,659 yards and 29 touchdowns. Westerkamp received numerous honors, highlighted by being chosen a first-team USA Today All-American. He was also the Illinois Player of the Year by both the Chicago Tribune and ESPN Chicago, the Suburban Christian Conference Player of the Year and an all-state and all-metro selection.

As a junior, Westerkamp caught 89 passes for 1,631 yards and 23 touchdowns, helping Montini to a 12-2 record and a Class 5A state title. He had seven catches for 146 yards and three touchdowns in the 2010 state championship game. His play as a junior earned Westerkamp first-team 5A all-state honors from the Illinois Coaches Association.

Westerkamp burst onto the scene with 51 receptions for 1,156 yards and 16 touchdowns as a sophomore, including a 99-yard touchdown. He had a touchdown catch in the Class 5A state title game, helping Montini cap a 10-4 season and the first of three straight titles.

Following his senior season, Westerkamp participated in the Semper Fi Marines All-America Bowl in Arizona. He was listed among the top 10 players in Illinois by both Rivals.com and 247 Sports, and was regarded as one of the top 50 receivers in the country, while Scout.com listed him among the nation's top 250 overall prospects. Westerkamp chose Nebraska over Notre Dame and had dozens of other scholarship offers, including Illinois, Iowa, Michigan State, Northwestern and West Virginia.

PERSONAL

Westerkamp is the son of Robert and Kimberly Westerkamp, and was born on June 23, 1994. His father also starred at Montini Catholic and collegiately at Illinois. Westerkamp is a business administration major, and has twice earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll. Westerkamp has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes, Husker Hotline, NFL Fuel Up to Play 60 and team hospital and community rec center outreach events.

COREY WHITAKER #58
OFFENSIVE LINE | 6-4 | 290 | SOPHOMORE
MURRIETA, CALIF. | VISTA MURRIETA

2014 OUTLOOK

Sophomore Corey Whitaker will enter fall camp with a goal of competing for playing time on the offensive line. The California native is part of an outstanding collection of young talent on the line that should provide a foundation for the Husker offense in the coming years. The 6-4, 290-pound Whitaker spent the spring working at offensive guard, a position where NU must replace three-year starter Spencer Long.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Whitaker added depth on the offensive line, but did not see action in a game.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Whitaker suffered a knee injury and redshirted his first season at Nebraska.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (VISTA MURRIETA HS)

Whitaker starred at Vista Murrieta High School, and his play helped fuel a prolific offense that led Coach Coley Candaele's team to the finals of the CIF Southern Section Inland playoffs in both 2010 and 2011. In Whitaker's senior year, Vista Murrieta finished with a 10-4 record, with all four losses by forfeit, and it capped its season with a 35-28 victory over Corona Centennial in the playoff finals. Whitaker's play helped the offense average 235.9 rushing yards and 37.0 points per game.

As a junior, Whitaker paved the way for an offense that averaged 38.8 points and better than 200 rushing yards per game en route to a 12-2 record and a berth in the finals of the CIF Southern Section playoffs. He was a two-time first-team all-league, All-CIF and All-Valley selection, and was named to the 2011 All-Inland team by SouthernCaliforniaPreps.com. Whitaker was regarded as one of the nation's top 100 offensive line prospects by 247 Sports. Whitaker also drew heavy interest from Oregon, visited Nevada and San Jose State, and had offers from Fresno State and San Diego State among others.

PERSONAL

Whitaker was born on Feb. 14, 1994, and is the son of Corey Whitaker and Tammy Reisdorph. Whitaker is a business administration major. He has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes, Husker Hotline and community rec center outreach events.

AUSTIN WILLIAMS

- » Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Fall 2012)
- » Brook Berringer Citizenship Team (2014)
- » Tom Osborne Citizenship Team (2014)
- » Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll (2011)

2014 OUTLOOK

Austin Williams heads into his senior season with a goal of earning playing time at linebacker while continuing to play a key role on special teams. The walk-on from Omaha helped the Huskers field one of the Big Ten's top kickoff coverage units in 2013, while also adding depth at linebacker.

Williams will compete for playing time at outside linebacker and helps make the linebacking corps one of the deepest on the Husker roster. Williams began his career in the secondary before moving to linebacker during the 2012 season.

Williams is on track to earn his degree in finance this December.

2013 (JUNIOR)

Williams played in 10 games and made a tackle on kickoff coverage at Penn State and forced a fumble on the play. He added a tackle on special teams against Georgia.

2012 (SOPHOMORE)

Williams played in 13 games on special teams and as a reserve linebacker. He made four tackles, with single tackles in four games.

2011 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Williams added depth in the secondary, but did not play in a game in 2011.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

A walk-on, Williams redshirted and worked on the NU scout team in 2010.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (BURKE HS)

Williams was an honorable-mention Class A all-state selection by both the Omaha World-Herald and Lincoln Journal Star. As a senior, he made 102 total tackles, 22 tackles for loss, nine sacks, two forced fumbles and six pass breakups from his linebacker spot. On offense, Williams rushed 48 times for 450 yards and seven touchdowns and caught seven passes for 60 yards and three scores.

Williams chose to walk on to NU over several Division II scholarship offers and invitations to walk on from Iowa State and Kansas State.

PERSONAL

Williams is the son of Rodney and Marg Williams, and was born on Oct. 2, 1991. He is a finance major and was selected to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2012, and the 2011 Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll. Williams has been active in Nebraska's community outreach efforts, earning a spot on the 2014 Brook Berringer Citizenship Team and Tom Osborne Citizenship Team. Williams has volunteered with Uplifting Athletes, School is Cool Week, NFL Fuel up to Play 60, People's City Mission, Husker Hotline, Husker Heroes and at local hospital visits.

- » Two-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll

2014 OUTLOOK

Defensive tackle Kevin Williams looks to get back on the field in 2014, and be a part of a talented group of interior defensive linemen. The 6-2, 275-pound Williams contributed up front in 2012 and was poised to see significant action last fall, however he suffered a knee injury during fall camp and was lost for the season.

Williams returned to the practice field during the spring and should be back at full strength in time for fall practice. The Ohio native will team with fellow junior Aaron Curry and sophomores Maliek Collins, Kevin Maurice and Vincent Valentine to form the foundation of the NU defense.

Williams began his Nebraska career early in January of 2011, enrolling at mid-semester. A management major, Williams is set to earn his degree this August prior to his junior season on the field.

Williams suffered a knee injury during fall camp, underwent subsequent surgery and missed the 2013 campaign.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Williams played in five games as a reserve at defensive tackle. He made four tackles, including two tackles and a tackle for loss against Idaho State. Williams saw his most extensive action in non-conference play against UCLA, Arkansas State and Idaho State.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

Williams suffered a knee injury in 2011, and sat out the season as a redshirt.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SPRINGFIELD HS)

Williams was a standout at Springfield High School in Holland, Ohio. Williams racked up more than 260 total tackles and 25 sacks in his final two seasons. As a senior, Williams had 111 tackles, including 36 solo stops and 10 sacks. His play earned Williams Division II co-defensive player-of-the-year honors in Ohio, and first-team All-Ohio accolades.

Williams earned honorable-mention Division II all-state recognition as a junior when he recorded better than 150 tackles, including 15 sacks and 15 other tackles for loss. Williams was regarded as one of the top 20 defensive tackles in the nation by ESPN, and among the top 20 players in Ohio by Rivals.com. Williams committed to Nebraska in April of 2010, and did not take any other visits, but had offers from Michigan, Michigan State, Wisconsin, Oregon, Illinois and Stanford to name a few.

PERSONAL

Williams is the son of Lisa and Mark Deel, and was born on May 8, 1993. Williams is a management major, and he has twice been named to the NU Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll. He has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes and at local school and hospital visits.

SOUTHLAKE, TEXAS | SOUTHLAKE CARROLL

Drew Brown will bring a familiar name to the Nebraska kicking game after a standout career at Southlake Carroll High School in the Dallas area. Brown is the younger brother of former Husker kicker Kris Brown, who ranks second at Nebraska in career scoring with 388 points from 1995 to 1998. The younger Brown is one of three Texans in Nebraska's 2014 recruiting class, marking the seventh straight year the Lone Star State has supplied the most players to the NU recruiting class. Brown was named the first-team kicker on the DFW all-area team as a senior and earned honorable-mention Class 5A all-state honors. He connected on 9-of-11 field goals as a senior, with a long of 51 yards, and made 89-of-90 PAT attempts, helping Coach Hal Wasson's team to an 11-2 record and trip to the third round of the 5A Division 1 playoffs. Brown was perfect on 97 PATs as a junior, while hitting on 9-of-10 field goals, as Carroll posted a 12-2 record and reached the quarterfinals of the state playoffs. Brown was also one of the state's top kickers during his sophomore season, helping Southlake Carroll to a perfect 16-0 record and the Class 5A Division 1 state title. Brown hit on 17-of-21 field goals with a long of 49 yards, and made 63-of-64 extra points. He also played baseball at Southlake Carroll as a catcher and outfielder, helping the Dragons to a 34-6 record during his senior season. Brown committed to Nebraska in June of 2013 and did not take any other visits. He is ranked among the top dozen kickers in the nation by 247 Sports. Brown is the son of Hobert and Terri Brown, and was born on Oct. 30, 1995.

Dual-threat quarterback AJ Bush was one of the final pieces in Nebraska's 2014 signing class, committing to the Huskers just days before Signing Day. The 6-3, 210-pound Bush posted outstanding numbers as a senior, helping Georgia prep powerhouse Norcross High School to a state title in the AAAAAA ranks. The left-handed Bush completed 139-of-259 passes for 2,101 yards and 16 touchdowns for Coach Keith Maloff's team. Bush was also a big threat with his feet, rushing for 764 yards and 13 touchdowns on 168 carries. Norcross was widely regarded as one of the top 50 prep teams in the nation in 2013. Bush spent his junior season at Milton High School, helping the Eagles to the first round of the AAAAAA playoffs. Bush ran for approximately 900 yards in 2012, while passing for 1,000 yards. Bush is regarded as one of the nation's top 50 dual-threat quarterbacks in the 247 Sports composite rankings. He also visited Boston College and Marshall, and had additional offers from Cincinnati, Kansas State, Toledo, Troy and Georgia State. Bush is the son of Alvin and Karen Bush, and he was born on Jan. 26, 1996.

#63

Tanner Farmer joins the Nebraska program as one of the top offensive line prospects in the country. One of three players in the class expected to begin their career on the offensive line, the 6-4, 310-pound Farmer was a standout for Coach Jim Warnecke Jr. at Highland High School in Illinois. Farmer was a dominant player on the offensive line, and his blocking helped the Bulldogs to an 11-1 record and a trip to the Class 5A quarterfinals. For his play as a senior, Farmer was a first-team Illinois Class 5A all-state selection by the Illinois High School Football Coaches Association. Farmer's play throughout his prep career helped Highland make great improvement from 2011 to 2013. Highland was 0-9 during Farmer's sophomore season, then improved to 5-5 and a state playoff berth in 2012, when Farmer was a standout offensive lineman. Farmer was also an outstanding wrestler at Highland, where he finished his career with back-to-back Class 2A state crowns at 285 pounds in 2013 and 2014. Farmer went 39-0 as a junior before completing a 26-0 mark as a senior. InterMat ranked Farmer as the No. 5 wrestler in the country at 285 pounds, while The Open Mat ranked him No. 8 in the nation. Farmer was one of the top performers at "The Opening" all-star camp last summer, and participated in the Under Armour All-American game in January. Farmer committed to Nebraska in June of 2013 and did not take any other visits, but did have scholarship offers from Missouri, Illinois and Minnesota, among others. Rivals.com lists Farmer as the No. 4 offensive guard prospect in the country and the 82nd-ranked 2014 recruit overall. In composite recruiting rankings, Farmer is ranked among the top 10 prospects in Illinois. Farmer was born on March 1, 1996, and he is the son of Brian and Connie Farmer.

#67

Lincoln product Jerald Foster is one of three in-state signees in Nebraska's 2014 recruiting class. The three in-state players are the most for the Huskers since signing four homegrown products in 2011. Foster is joined in the 2014 class by his Lincoln Southeast teammate Luke Gifford. The 6-3, 310-pound Foster is also one of three players in the 2014 class who are expected to play on the offensive line for the Huskers. Foster was a dominant two-way player for Coach Ryan Gottula at Southeast the past three seasons. As a senior, Foster earned first-team All-Nebraska honors from the Omaha World-Herald and first-team Super State accolades from the Lincoln Journal Star, as he helped the Knights to a Class A state playoff appearance. Foster was a dominant blocker on offense, while recording 53 tackles, including three sacks from his defensive line spot. Foster was also a first-team All-Nebraska and first-team Super State pick as a junior when he helped Southeast to a 9-2 record and a trip to the Class A quarterfinals. Foster first starred for the Knights in 2011, when he earned first-team Super State honors as a sophomore offensive lineman. His dominant effort on the offensive line helped Southeast to the Class A state championship and a 12-1 record. Foster also competed for the Knights' track and field team, where he threw shot put and discus. As a senior in 2014, he finished third in shot put at the Class A State Championships, while taking 15th in discus. He added a fifth-place shot put finish at the 2013 state championships. Foster is regarded as the top prospect in the state of Nebraska by Rivals.com, and is ranked as one of the nation's top 25 guards in the nation by Rivals.com, ESPN and Scout.com. Foster was one of the nation's most sought-after offensive line prospects. He committed to Nebraska in June of 2013 and only visited the Huskers, but had offers from a number of schools, including Florida, Georgia, Iowa, Iowa State, Missouri, UCLA, Vanderbilt and Wake Forest. Jerald's older brother, Trey, is a sophomore tight end for the Huskers in 2014. Foster is the son of Jesse and Charlie Foster, and he was born on Sept. 14, 1995.

Las Vegas product Nick Gates is part of an impressive group of offensive line recruits in the Huskers' 2014 class. The 6-5, 290-pound Gates is one of three players in the class expected to begin their NU career on the offensive line. Gates is Nebraska's first scholarship signee from Nevada since Mike Smith in 2006. Gates was a dominant force on the offensive line for Coach Tony Sanchez at Bishop Gorman High, helping his team to three straight state titles. As a senior, Gates paved the way for a powerful rushing offense that averaged better than 275 yards per game en route to a 13-2 record and a Division I state championship. Gates also saw time on defense, recording 13 tackles, a tackle for loss, three breakups and a fumble recovery. Gates earned first-team All-Nevada honors from the Las Vegas Review-Journal and was an All-Southwest League pick. Gates earned second-team all-state honors from the Review-Journal in 2012, helping Gorman to a 13-1 record, including a 63-10 victory in the state title game. Gates' play helped Gorman average better than 270 rushing yards per game, and he also saw some action on defense. Bishop Gorman was a perfect 16-0 in the 2011 season and averaged more than 280 rushing yards per game. Gates is regarded as one of the top 25 offensive tackles in the country by Rivals.com, 247 Sports and Scout.com. He is also generally regarded as the top player in Nevada, and is listed among the top 300 overall players nationally. Gates also visited Texas A&M, and had offers from dozens of schools, including Alabama, Arizona, Arizona State, Baylor, Colorado, Duke, Oklahoma, Oregon, Oregon State, UCLA, Washington and Washington State. Gates was also a standout player for Bishop Gorman's baseball team, where he helped the Gaels to a state title in 2012. Gates compiled a .385 batting average in three seasons on the varsity team, while registering nine home runs and 77 hits. As a senior in 2014, he hit .408 in 27 games, and earned 29 hits, 14 RBIs and two home runs. On the mound, Gates made 16 career appearances and collected a 4-2 record in 41.2 innings of work. During his final season, Gates earned a 2.33 ERA. Gates is the son of Taylor and Sonya Gates, and he was born on Nov. 27, 1995.

A versatile athlete, Luke Gifford is one of two Lincoln Southeast products in Nebraska's 2014 signing class, and one of three homegrown players in this year's class. Gifford joins prep teammate Jerald Foster among Nebraska's signees. The Huskers' three in-state players are the most since NU inked four in-state products in 2011. The 6-3, 200-pound Gifford was one of the state's top players the past two years and was a standout on both sides of the ball for Coach Ryan Gottula at Southeast. As a senior, Gifford guided the Knight offense from the quarterback spot and helped Southeast reach the Class A state playoffs. Gifford passed for 970 yards and five touchdowns, while rushing for 742 yards and eight touchdowns. On defense, Gifford starred in the secondary, making 50 tackles with two interceptions and five pass breakups. Gifford was a first-team All-Nebraska defensive back selection by the Omaha World-Herald and also earned Super State accolades from the Lincoln Journal Star. Gifford was also a key performer for the Knights as a junior in 2012, when his play helped Southeast to a 9-2 record and a trip to the state quarterfinals. On offense, Gifford caught seven passes for 125 yards, while also starring in the secondary. He was a first-team Super State selection as a junior, while earning second-team All-Nebraska honors in 2012. Gifford was also a member of the varsity in 2011, when the Knights posted a 12-1 record and captured the Class A state title. Gifford is ranked among the top three prospects in the state by several recruiting outlets, while also ranking among the top 40 athlete prospects in the country by Rivals.com. A three-sport athlete, Gifford was also a key member of the Knights' basketball and baseball teams. Gifford was the first player to commit to the Huskers' 2014 class, announcing his plans in mid-March of 2013. Gifford did not take any other visits, but had offers from Iowa, Ohio and Toledo among others. Gifford is the son of Sam and Shannon Gifford, and was born on Aug. 28, 1995.

Defensive line prospect Peyton Newell will join the Nebraska program after starring on both sides of the football at Hiawatha (Kan.) High School. The 6-3, 270-pound Newell is Nebraska's first high school scholarship signee from the state of Kansas since Kyler Reed in 2008. Newell started every game of his high school career on both sides of the ball, and posted record defensive numbers. In his career for Coach Chris Diller, Newell set school records with 257 tackles, 105 tackles for loss and 33 sacks, while registering 16 forced fumbles, five fumble recoveries, 12 blocked kicks and two defensive touchdowns. From his tight end spot on offense, Newell totaled 37 catches for 583 yards and seven touchdowns. As a senior in 2013, Newell led Hiawatha to a 7-4 record and a bi-district championship, culminated by a trip to the second round of the Class 3A playoffs. Newell had 76 tackles, including a school-record 12 sacks, 32 tackles for loss and four forced fumbles. He also caught seven passes for 118 yards and a touchdown. Newell was named to the CBS Sports/MaxPreps Small School First-Team All-American squad. He was also named to the Topeka Capital Journal and Wichita Eagle's Top 11 All-State and was the all-class defensive lineman of the year by both papers. Newell was also named the St. Joseph News-Press Defensive Player of the Year for the second straight year, earned unanimous Big 7 All-League honors and was chosen to participate in the 2014 Kansas Shrine Bowl. As a junior, Newell had 61 tackles, including a school-record 37 tackles for loss, and 10 sacks. He added five forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries and caught 14 passes for 162 yards and three scores. His play led Hiawatha to an 8-3 record, a district title and state playoff appearance. Newell was a MaxPreps Junior All-American in 2012, while earning all-state honors in Kansas and unanimous all-league accolades. Newell had 76 tackles, including 26 tackles for loss and six sacks in 2011, while adding 12 catches for 246 yards and three touchdowns. Newell was a first-team all-area defensive pick in 2011, and was an honorable-mention Kansas all-state pick, while earning all-conference honors. Newell earned a spot in the varsity lineup as a freshman and made 44 tackles, including 10 tackles for loss, five sacks, forced three fumbles and had a blocked kick. He also caught four passes on offense. Newell had more than 30 scholarship offers, including Clemson, Georgia, Kansas, Kansas State, Michigan State, Missouri, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Penn State, South Carolina, UCLA, USC and Wisconsin to name a few. He was regarded as the top defensive prospect in Kansas by all of the major recruiting services, and was regarded as one of the nation's top 25 defensive tackles by 247 Sports and Scout.com. Newell is the son of Frank and Stacie Newell and the late Melissa "Malter" Newell, and he was born on Nov. 18, 1995.

Jaevon Walton was the first of three teammates from Edna Karr High School in New Orleans to join the Huskers' 2014 recruiting class, committing to Nebraska last fall. He was later joined by high school teammates Glenn Irons and Jariah Tolbert, marking the first time since 1989 Nebraska has signed three players from the same high school. The 6-0, 235-pound Walton was a highly productive player from his linebacker spot for Coach Nathaniel Jones at Edna Karr. As a senior, Walton made more than 100 tackles, including seven in the state championship game at the Superdome. Walton earned first-team Class 4A LSWA all-state honors and was an All-Metro selection by the New Orleans Advocate. Walton first emerged as a starter at linebacker for Edna Karr as a sophomore in 2011, when the school finished with an 11-4 record and a runner-up showing in the Class 4A playoffs. Walton then moved to Alabama for his junior year to live with his father, former Alabama and NFL standout John Copeland. After one year in Alabama, Walton returned to New Orleans for his senior season. Walton is ranked as the No. 28 player in Louisiana by Rivals.com, and he is listed among the nation's top 60 inside linebackers in the 247 Sports composite rankings and by Scout.com. Walton took his only official visit to Nebraska, but also had offers from Missouri, Southern Miss, Tulane and Louisiana-Lafayette. Walton was born on July 27, 1995, and is the son of John Copeland. Walton's father was an All-American at Alabama, and helped the Crimson Tide to the 1992 national championship. He was the fifth pick in the 1993 NFL Draft by Cincinnati, and went on to play eight seasons with the Bengals, recording 24 career sacks.

On defense, Meduna racked up 62 tackles, including 22.5 tackles for loss and four sacks, and he forced two fumbles, while recovering three others. Meduna served as the punter for the Cavaliers, averaging better than 36 yards per boot. Meduna's play helped Bishop Neumann to a 7-4 record and a trip to the quarterfinals of the Class C-1 playoffs. Meduna was a first-team Class C-1 all-state defensive player by the Associated Press and the Lincoln Journal Star. The Fremont Tribune named him to its All-Area team as a punter. Meduna was also an academic all-state selection. He was born on Feb. 22, 1996, and is the son of Jeff and Kelly Meduna.

TRENT ORTMEIER

#59

Trent Ortmeier is part of a strong group of in-state line prospects in Nebraska's 2014 walk-on class. The 6-6, 270-pound Ortmeier was a standout on both lines for Coach Dave Ridder at Guardian Angels Central Catholic in West Point. Ortmeier helped pave the way for a powerful offensive attack, while disrupting opposing offenses from his defensive line spot. Ortmeier's play as a senior helped the Bluejays to an 8-2 record and a trip to the second round of the Class D-1 state playoffs. Ortmeier helped Guardian Angels to a 7-2 record as a junior and was a part of teams that advanced to the state finals in both 2010 and 2011. As a senior, Ortmeier earned first-team Class D-1 all-state honors as an offensive lineman from both the Omaha World-Herald and the Lincoln Journal Star. He is the son of Steve and Mary Ortmeier, and was born on March 22, 1996.

DYLAN OWEN

#76

Dylan Owen is one of three out-of-state prospects in Nebraska's 2014 walk-on class, joining the Huskers after spending the 2013 season at Bridgton Academy in Maine. Owen is originally from Westchester, N.Y., and graduated from Somers High School in Lincoln, N.Y., in 2013. As a senior at Somers High, Owen made 61 tackles, including 45 solo stops, while adding three sacks and a pass breakup. His play helped Somers to a 10-1 record, before losing in the quarterfinals of the state playoffs. As a senior at Somers, Owen earned first-team Class A all-state honors on defense, and he was also named to the MSG Varsity All-Section 1 first-team defensive unit. Owen is the son of Richard and Charlyse Owen, and he was born on Dec. 18, 1995. Owen is related to former Nebraska offensive lineman Jerry Minnick, who earned All-America honors in 1952.

BRADY PELZER
WIDE RECEIVER | 5-11 | 170 | FRESHMAN

#26

Brady Pelzer was a standout performer on both sides of the ball at Bellevue East High School, and joins the Huskers as a receiver prospect. As a senior, Pelzer caught 38 passes for 628 yards and caught nine touchdown passes. He also rushed for 315 yards on just 40 carries and scored five touchdowns on the ground. Pelzer also saw action in the secondary for Coach Jerry Lovell's team and had 16 tackles, while adding an interception and four pass breakups. His play helped the Chieftans advance to the Class A state playoffs for the first time in nine seasons. Pelzer was an honorable-mention Class A all-state selection as a senior, and earned all-district honors. Pelzer was an academic all-state honoree in 2012. He is the son of Steve Pelzer, and was born on May 11, 1996.

GARRETT POPPEN
LINEBACKER | 6-1 | 215 | FRESHMAN

Garrett Poppen joins the Nebraska program as a linebacker prospect after starring on both sides of the ball at Giltner High School. Poppen recorded more than 225 tackles in his career for Coach Jeff Ashby, including 124 tackles during his senior season. Poppen also rushed for 1,150 yards and 17 touchdowns as a senior, and caught 23 passes, including two touchdowns. He also handled kickoff duties for the Hornets. His play as a senior helped Giltner to a 9-2 record and a trip to the quarterfinals of the Class D-2 state playoffs. Poppen was also a standout performer during his junior season in 2012, helping Giltner to a perfect 13-0 record and a state championship. Poppen totaled more than 1,600 rushing yards and had 24 rushing touchdowns, while also catching 61 passes with 13 touchdowns during his career. As a senior, Poppen was a second-team All-Nebraska defensive selection by the Omaha World-Herald, while earning first-team Class D-2 all-state honors from the World-Herald and Lincoln Journal Star. Poppen also earned all-district honors as both a sophomore and junior. He is the son of John and Kris Poppen, and was born on Oct. 9, 1995.

BRYAN REIMERS
TIGHT END | 6-5 | 200 | FRESHMAN

#45

Bryan Reimers is one of two players from Lincoln staying home to join the Huskers as members of the 2014 walk-on class. The 6-5, 200-pound Reimers lined up at wide receiver for Lincoln East and had 27 receptions for 596 yards as a senior, an average of 22.1 yards per catch. Reimers also hauled in 12 touchdown catches in 2013, helping the Spartans to an 8-2 record and a trip to the Class A state playoffs. Reimers was an All-Nebraska second-team pick by the Omaha World-Herald and a second-team Super State selection by the Lincoln Journal Star. Reimers also earned All-City honors from the Lincoln Journal Star. Reimers is the son of Bryce and Suzanne Reimers, and he was born on May 28, 1996.

AUSTIN ROSE
I-BACK | 6-1 | 215 | FRESHMAN

#23

Austin Rose is one of two Lincoln products in the Huskers' 2014 walk-on class, joining the Nebraska program after a standout career at Lincoln North Star High School. The 6-1, 215-pound Rose was limited by injury during his senior season, but still earned honorable-mention all-state recognition from the AP, Omaha World-Herald and Lincoln Journal Star. Rose put up big numbers for Coach Mark Waller in 2012, rushing for 1,403 yards and 22 touchdowns, while averaging better than 6.5 yards per carry. Rose helped the Navigators to a 7-3 record and a trip to the Class A state playoffs. Rose was also a defensive standout in helping North Star to one of its finest seasons in school history. Rose earned second-team Super State honors and first-team Class A all-state honors for his play in 2012. He was also named to the All-Heartland Conference team and to the Journal Star's All-City team. Rose was born on Oct. 6, 1995, and is the son of Deb Rose. Rose is the nephew of former Nebraska safety Mike Minter.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME PLAYERS AND COACHES

The University of Nebraska is well represented at the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame in South Bend, Ind. In 2013, Tommie Frazier became the 16th former NU player selected to stand alongside the six former Husker coaches inducted into the Hall (pictured at bottom). Frazier was officially inducted into the Hall of Fame in December of 2013. Before Frazier, the last Husker to be honored among the elite field was offensive guard Will Shields, who was a member of the 2011 College Football Hall of Fame Class. Former All-America tackle Ed Weir claimed the honor as the first Husker player enshrined, while coaches Fielding Yost and Dana X. Bible were also inducted the same year (1951). Coach Tom Osborne, inducted in 1998, is the most recent Husker coach enshrined in the hall.

LEGENDS

Head Coach | 1973-1997 | Record: 255-49-3 (.836, 6th all-time)

The words were inscribed on Memorial Stadium's northwest corner some 14 years before he was born; "Courage; Generosity; Fairness; Honor; In these are the true awards of manly sports." How fitting, that the field inside that historic stadium is now called Tom Osborne Field in honor of a man, who in 25 seasons, built a total program based on more than winning.

Osborne's coaching career came to a poetic end in the 1998 Orange Bowl. In his final game, the Huskers defeated No. 3 Tennessee, 42-17, giving him a share of a third national title in his final four seasons. The victory left Osborne as the first coach in college football history to retire as a reigning national champion, along with the nation's best active winning percentage (.836, 255-49-3), which ranked fifth all-time among Division I coaches.

Osborne guided the Huskers to back-to-back titles in 1994 and 1995, then capped his career by sharing the 1997 title with Michigan. Nebraska's back-to-back national titles in 1994-95 made Osborne the first coach to accomplish that feat since Bear Bryant in 1978-79. Under Osborne, NU became just the second school all time to post back-to-back perfect national championship seasons. In fact, Osborne's last five Nebraska teams put together the best five-year run in collegiate football history with an amazing 60-3 record.

Osborne-coached Nebraska teams captured 13 conference crowns and all 25 of his Husker teams won at least nine games and went to a bowl. Achievements of that magnitude earned Osborne an immediate ticket to the College Football Hall of Fame in December of 1998, after it waived the customary three-year wait for entrance into the hall. The Memorial Stadium field was re-named Tom Osborne field in 1998.

A Hastings, Neb., native, Osborne served Nebraska for three terms in the U.S. House of Representatives. Osborne served as Nebraska's Athletic Director from 2007 through 2012.

LEGENDS

BOB DEVANEY

Head Coach | 1962-1972 | Record: 101-20-2 (.829, 13th all-time)

One man tops the list of people responsible for the success of the University of Nebraska athletic teams – Bob Devaney. For 35 years he was the driving force behind the University of Nebraska championships, first as a Hall of Fame football coach (1962-72), then as Athletic Director (1967-93) and Athletic Director Emeritus (1993-96). Devaney retired in 1996 and lived in Lincoln until he passed away at the age of 82 on May 9, 1997.

Devaney's mark will remain forever. The memories of the storied national championship seasons of 1970 and 1971 will continue to inspire generations of Husker fans for years to come. His commitment to building one of the nation's best athletic programs is reinforced with every athletic and academic honor earned by Husker student-athletes.

From the time he took over athletic director duties in 1967, to his final year in 1993, his vigor, enthusiasm and administrative excellence earned him a reputation as one of the nation's outstanding athletic directors. Those characteristics helped make him a football coaching legend. A 1981 inductee into the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame, under Devaney's leadership Nebraska developed one of the nation's most successful all-around athletic programs.

During his 11-year stint as Husker football coach, Devaney's teams won 101 games, lost only 20 and tied two for an .829 winning percentage. His career mark of 136-30-7 (.806) ranked him as the nation's winningest active coach at the time of his retirement in 1973. Today, he ranks 11th on the all-time list, six spots behind the man he tabbed as his replacement, Tom Osborne.

In all, his Husker gridiron teams won eight Big Eight titles and two national championships (1970, 1971) and went to nine bowl games. He had three straight Orange Bowl wins, two Outland Trophy winners, a Lombardi Award winner and a Heisman Trophy winner. Twice his teams won four consecutive Big Eight titles, 1963-66 and 1969-72.

NATION-LEADING 17 NCAA TODAY'S TOP TEN AWARDS

The highest honor the National Collegiate Athletic Association can bestow on a student-athlete is The NCAA Today's Top 10 Award. The award is based not only on outstanding athletic accomplishments, but on excellent academic records and leadership ability in community and campus activities.

The University of Nebraska earned its NCAA-leading 17th Top 10 Award in January of 2014 when women's tennis standout Mary Weatherholt was recognized at the NCAA honors dinner. Weatherholt was the NCAA singles runner-up in 2013. She was Nebraska's first Top 10 honoree since 2008.

The Husker football program has nine of Nebraska's 17 Top 10 Award winners, most recently All-America rush end Grant Wistrom who was a 1998 honoree. Wistrom's selection gave Nebraska nine Top 10 honorees in the 1990s. Two Huskers received the award in both 1990 and 1991, the only times that a school had more than one student-athlete honored. Nine of Nebraska's Top 10 picks were football players, making the Husker grid program the most decorated in the country.

In the 1990s, six Husker football players were awarded the Top 10 honor, including Aaron Graham (1996), Rob Zatechka (1995), Trev Alberts (1994), Pat Tyrance (1991) and Jake Young (1990). Randy Schleusener (1981) was the first Husker to win the award, followed by Dave Rimington (1983) and Mark Traynowicz (1985).

Nebraska's success in the classroom also extends to other sports. Along with nine football players who have won the Top 10 Award, four Husker volleyball players (Sarah Pavan-2008, Virginia Stahr-1990, Janet Kruse-1992, Nancy Metcalf-2002), two men's gymnasts (Tom Schlesinger-1989, Patrick Kirksey-1991), one women's gymnast (Richelle Simpson-2005) and one women's tennis player (Weatherholt-2014) have also claimed the honor.

VARSITY LETTERMAN LIST

NOTE: The following list is as complete and accurate as historical records allow. Corrections and additions will be made if documentation is provided. In each entry, the year is listed for each letter won. For example in the listing for Willard Burnham, the years are 1924-26, meaning Burnham lettered in 1924 and 1926 but not in 1925. Lettermen lists are not available for the 1890, 1891 and 1895 seasons. Players are listed by hometown and the last position they played at Nebraska.

124 YEARS OF NEBRASKA FOOTBALL

Notes on the Associated Press Poll: The rankings indicated in all instances below are at game time, with Nebraska's to the left of the slash and the opponent's to the right. If a slash is alone, neither team was ranked at game time. Early-season games from 1936 to 1949 have no slash because the first polls in those seasons were not taken until after the season began. From 1936 to 1960 and 1968 to 1988, AP ranked the top 20 teams, from 1961 to 1967 the top 10, and since 1989, the top 25. The source for the weekly rankings from Oct. 19, 1936, through Jan. 3, 1984, is Football Rankings, College teams in the Associated Press Poll, 1936-1984, compiled by Lowell R. Greunke (Jefferson, N.C.; McFarland & Co., Inc., 1984).

COACH DR. LANGDON FROTHINGHAM (Harvard) 2-0-0 (.1000), 1890

A faculty member, Langdon Frothingham helped the first squad become one of only two in the history of NU football to go unscored upon, outscoring opponents, 28-0, in two games. Dr. Frothingham broke his leg while scrimmaging with the team in preparation for the Doane game and may have coached on the sideline with crutches.

COACH FIELDING H. YOST

(Lafayette, 1897) 8-3 (.727), 1898

Fielding Yost led the Huskers to an impressive 11-10 road victory over the Denver Athletic Club, a team described as "a gang of pros." He left NU to become head coach at Kansas the following season and later won a national championship as head football coach in 1901 at Michigan. He later became Michigan's athletic director in 1921 and is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame.

COACH W.C. "KING" COLE

(Marietta, 1902) 25-8-3 (.736), 1907-10
W.C. "King" Cole took over the reins after playing football under Fielding Yost at Michigan. Cole coached Nebraska to an 85-0 win over Doane in the last game on the field that preceded the Nebraska Athletic Field. His final season as coach marked NU's first unshared Missouri Valley Conference title. His last game as coach was a 119-0 win over Haskell, which still ranks as the most points a Cornhusker team has ever scored.

COACH EWALD O. "JUMBO" STIEHM

(Wisconsin, 1909) 35-2-3 (.913), 1911-15
Under Ewald O. "Jumbo" Stiehm's direction, Nebraska won or tied for the Missouri Valley Conference championship every season. His winning percentage of .913 ranks as the highest in school history. His teams recorded a 34-game unbeaten streak, the longest in school history. Also Nebraska's basketball coach, he was the only coach in Big Eight history to win football and basketball titles in the same academic year. He was the first year-round coach in school history, but he went to Indiana University after NU refused to increase his salary to $4,250.

Ernest E. Bearg won Nebraska's first Big Six title in 1928 when his team went 7-1-1. Despite fielding powerful teams during his four years, fans criticized him for not using strategy and deception, which eventually led to his resignation. Bearg also spent one year as men's basketball coach (1926) and posted an 8-10 record.

NEBRASKA IN THE POLLS

The Associated Press poll began in 1936, and Nebraska came in at No. 15 in the first-ever regular-season poll on Oct. 24. The Huskers finished with a No. 9 final national ranking that year. From 1936 through 1949, the AP polls did not come out until October. Beginning in 1950, AP polls were issued weekly throughout the entire regular season. Until 1964, all final rankings are based on regular-season finishes and do not include bowl game results. In 1965, the AP final rankings became post-bowl rankings (with the exception of 1966). In 1974, the UPI final ranking also became post-bowl, and since then all final rankings have included bowl results.

COACH DANA X. BIBLE

50-15-7 (.743), 1929-36

In eight seasons, Dana X. Bible's teams won six Big Six titles. He went back to his native state to coach at Texas after the 1936 season. Bible also served as Nebraska's athletic director from 1932 to 1936 and led NU to its only two conference men's golf titles.

1970 AND 1971 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS
THE DEVANEY ERA

COACH BOB DEVANEY(Alma, 1939) 101-20-2 (.829), 1962-72

Bob Devaney won back-to-back national titles in 1970 and 1971 and eight Big Eight crowns. He retired in 1973 with a career record of 136-30-7 (.806), which left him as the winningest active coach in the nation. In 1971, he was named coach of the year by the Walter Camp Foundation, the Football Writers of America, Football News and the Washington Touchdown Club. Devaney was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1981 and into the Orange Bowl Hall of Honor in 1976. His 11-year stint as head football coach is the second longest in school history behind Tom Osborne. He was Nebraska's athletic director from 1967 to 1992 and served as athletic director emeritus for four years, before retiring June 30, 1996. Devaney passed away on May 9, 1997.

COACH TOM OSBORNE

(Hastings, 1959) 255-49-3 (.836), 1973-97

Tom Osborne was hand-picked by Bob Devaney as his successor and served as assistant head coach in 1972. Osborne is credited as the offensive genius behind Devaney's national championship teams and served as a full-time assistant from 1967 to 1972. Osborne won back-to-back national championships in 1994 and 1995, and a third national title in 1997. During his 25 seasons, Nebraska won 13 conference championships and went to 25 consecutive bowl games, including 17 "major" bowls. His teams won nine or more games every year and 11 national rushing titles. His athletes won six Outlands, three Lombardis, one Heisman, one Butkus and one Johnny Unitas Award. He was the fastest coach in college football history to win 200 games, doing it in just 21 seasons, and the fastest coach to reach 250 wins. In his last five seasons, Osborne's teams posted a 60-3 record, the most wins in a five-year span by any team in collegiate history. He served as Nebraska's Athletic Director from 2007 to 2012.

COACH FRANK SOLICH

Frank Solich was named Tom Osborne's successor on Dec. 10, 1997. He guided NU to a 12-1 record, Big 12 Championship and No. 2 final ranking in the coaches poll in 1999. In 2001, Solich led the Huskers to an 11-2 record and an appearance in the BCS title game in the Rose Bowl. In 2003, Solich coached Nebraska to a 9-3 regular-season record, but did not coach NU in the Alamo Bowl, as defensive coordinator Bo Pelini served as interim head coach. Solich was a member of Bob Devaney's first recruiting class in 1962. As a fullback, Solich earned All-Big Eight honors in 1965 and was the first Husker to rush for 200 yards in a game.

COACH BILL CALLAHAN

27-22 (.551), 2004-07

Bill Callahan came to Nebraska less than one year after leading the Oakland Raiders to Super Bowl XXXVII. The 27th head coach in Nebraska football history, Callahan became one of just five coaches in history to return to college football after leading an NFL team to the Super Bowl. During Callahan's tenure, Nebraska shattered numerous school passing records. He led Nebraska to two bowl games and a Big 12 North title during his tenure.

COACH BO PELINI

58-24 (.707), 2008-present

The 28th Nebraska head coach, Pelini has won at least nine games in each of his first six seasons on the Husker sideline, joining Bob Devaney and Tom Osborne as the only NU coaches to accomplish that feat. Pelini's teams have won at least a share of a division title in four of his six seasons at the helm, including a Big Ten Legends Division crown in 2012. Pelini became Nebraska's head coach after five seasons as the most successful defensive coordinator in college football. Pelini also served nine seasons as an assistant in the NFL, winning a Super Bowl title with the San Francisco 49ers.

* Interim Chancellor

A former dean of the University of Nebraska College of Law (1983-98), Perlman has also served as interim senior vice chancellor for academic affairs at UNL (1995-96).

A Nebraska native, Perlman was raised in York, and earned a bachelor of arts in history and a juris doctorate from the University of Nebraska. During his law school years, he was editor in chief of the Nebraska Law Review and was elected to the Order of the Coif, a law honors society.

He joined the NU law faculty in 1967 after spending a year as a Bigelow Teaching Fellow at the University of Chicago Law School. He served on the Nebraska law faculty until 1974 when he joined the faculty at the University of Virginia Law School. He returned to Nebraska in 1983 when he accepted the deanship of the Nebraska Law College, a post he held until 1998 when he returned to the professoriate. He has also served as a visiting professor at Florida State University College of Law, the University of Puget Sound School of Law and the University of Iowa College of Law.

In 2011, Perlman was named an Honorary University Professor of Xi'an Jiaotong University, in Xi'an, China. This rare lifetime appointment entitles Perlman to privileges at the university, with which UNL has many institutional ties. Perlman also will occasionally lecture and teach at Xi'an Jiaotong University. The title is the highest honor the university awards to a foreign scholar, and recognizes Perlman as an accomplished scholar or professional of important international reputation. The award also recognizes Perlman for his significant efforts in globalizing UNL and Xi'an Jiaotong University through joint research and partnership degree programs.

His area of legal expertise lies in torts and intellectual property. He is a member of the Nebraska State and American Bar Associations and is a Life Fellow of the American Bar Association. Perlman is co-author of "Intellectual Property and Unfair Competition" (5th edition, 1998) and co-reporter for the American Law Institute's "Restatement of Unfair Competition" (1994). He serves on the Council of the American Law Institute, a leading national law reform organization and as one of Nebraska's Commissioners of Uniform State Laws. He previously served as a member of the NCAA Board of Directors and is past chair of the Bowl Championship Series Presidential Oversight Committee. He serves on the Board of Directors of the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce and is Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Nebraska Innovation Campus Development Corporation. He received the George Turner Award from the Nebraska State Bar Association for contributions to the legal profession and the Roger T. Larson Community Builder Award from the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce.

Perlman and his wife, Susan, an NU alumna, are the parents of two daughters. Anne, who earned degrees from UNL and the University of Nebraska Medical Center, practices medicine in Lincoln and is married to UNL alumnus David Spinar; they have three children: Will, Ava, and Marco, Husker fans all. Daughter Amie, who received bachelors and juris doctorate degrees from UNL, is a Nebraska assistant attorney general and is married to UNL alumnus Ron Larson; they are the parents of Caleb and Finn.

JOSEPHINE POTUTO, J.D.

Faculty Athletics Representative | 17th Year
Rutgers' Douglass (1967)

Josephine (Jo) R. Potuto, the Richard H. Larson Professor of Constitutional Law, has been Nebraska's faculty representative (FAR) at the NCAA and conference level since May 15, 1997.

NEBRASKA'S FACULTY REPS

1931-1946	— T.J. Thompson
1947-1958	— Earl Fullbrook
1959-1964	— Charles S. Miller
1965-1968	— Merk Hobson
1969-1970	— John R. Davis
1971-1982	— Keith L. Broman
1982-1997	— James O'Hanlon
1997-present	— Josephine Potuto

In 2002, Potuto was named Outstanding Faculty Athletics Representative by the All-American Football Foundation. From 2008-09 to 2011-12 she was president of the 1A FAR (FARs from FBS institutions). Among her NCAA positions, Potuto spent nine years (the maximum) on the NCAA Division I Committee on Infractions (chair her last two years) and currently substitutes when a member cannot serve. She was one of three Big 12 Conference representatives on the NCAA Division I Management Council, served on the NCAA Men's Gymnastics Championship Committee, and currently serves on an NCAA-wide (all divisions) committee to advise NCAA staff on student-athlete issues and educational programming for coaches, staff, and student-athletes.

A sports law expert, Potuto regularly lectures and consults on sports issues in general and NCAA processes in particular. She is an expert witness in litigation involving sports issues. She testified before the House Subcommittee on the Constitution regarding due process in NCAA infractions hearings.

In the past year she has appeared in media reports in the NY Times, LA Times, USA Today, Washington Post, CBSSports.com, and the Chronicle of Higher Education, among others. She has presented to the Knight Commission on Intercollegiate Athletics, the Texas Commission of Higher Education, NCAA regional conferences, law conferences and law firms, NACDA, and to universities and law colleges, including the Universities of Istanbul, Washington, Maryland, Oklahoma, Santa Clara, Baltimore and Mississippi.

Potuto is a past adviser to the Uniform Law Commissioners Committee to draft a sports agent statute, has drafted rules governing search and seizure and hearings for the Nebraska Racing Commission, and also has written on issues of gender equity in college athletics. She has authored numerous articles on sports law issues. She just completed an article on student-athlete use of their names/likenesses with an econometrician and tax professor.

Potuto delivered the 2012 Chancellor's Distinguished Lecture. She serves on the senate's intercollegiate athletics committee. She is a past member of the UNL academic senate and also served on Nebraska's NCAA site certification steering committee.

Potuto teaches constitutional law, procedure, federal jurisdiction, and sports law. She has been a visiting professor of law at the University of Arizona, Rutgers University, the Cardozo College of Law at New York's Yeshiva University, the University of Oregon, the University of North Carolina, and Seton Hall University. She has worked as an assistant prosecutor in both the Essex and Morris County (N.J.) prosecutor's offices.

Potuto was project director and a drafter of the Uniform Law Commissioners Sentencing and Corrections Act, as well as the drafter for the Nebraska Supreme Court Committee to Draft Criminal Jury Instructions. She is the author of three books. She was elected to membership in the American Law Institute, the Nebraska State Bar Foundation, and the Douglass Society.

Potuto earned her bachelor's degree in journalism at Rutgers' Douglass College, and her master's degree in English literature at Seton Hall. She earned her juris doctorate at the Rutgers Law College.

She is a member of the bars of Nebraska and New Jersey and is admitted to practice before the U.S. Supreme Court, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, and the U.S. District Courts for Nebraska and New Jersey.

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA BOARD OF REGENTS

James Linder, M.D.
Interim President,
University of Nebraska

The Board of Regents consists of eight voting members elected by district for six-year terms, and four non-voting student Regents, one from each campus, who serve during their tenure as student body president. The board supervises the general operations of the university, and the control and direction of all expenditures. The board also includes a corporation secretary who manages all records including agendas, minutes, notices, policies and bylaws. Those documents can be found on the web at nebraska.edu/board/.

The board meets regularly, primarily in Lincoln but also in Omaha and greater Nebraska. Persons wishing to provide information to the board or to appear before it should contact: Corporation Secretary, University of Nebraska, Varner Hall, 3835 Holdrege, Lincoln, NE 68583.

SHAWN EICHORST

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

SECOND YEAR | WISCONSIN-WHITEWATER | 1990

Shawn Eichorst was named Nebraska's 14th Director of Athletics on Oct. 4, 2012, by Chancellor Harvey Perlman. Eichorst leads a tradition-rich athletic program of 24 varsity intercollegiate teams, 600-plus student-athletes and more than 275 full-time employees. Nebraska's reputation as a world-class academic institution and its stature as one of the strongest and most balanced athletic departments in collegiate athletics supports Eichorst's top priority, which is to ensure all Husker student-athletes have the necessary support to succeed in academics, athletics and life.

FAMILY

» Wife: Kristin; Sons: Jack, Joseph and Bennett

EDUCATION

» B.B.A., Wisconsin-Whitewater (1990);
» Juris Doctorate, Marquette (1995)

EXPERIENCE

» Nebraska, Director of Athletics (2013-present)
» Miami, Director of Athletics (2011-12)
» Wisconsin, Deputy Athletic Director (2009-11)
» Wisconsin, Executive Associate Athletic Director (2007-09)
» Wisconsin, Senior Associate Athletics Director (2006-07)
» South Carolina, Senior Associate Athletic Director (2004-06)
» Wisconsin-Whitewater, Director of Athletics (1999-2003)

THE EICHORST FAMILY

Clockwise: Kristin, Shawn, Jack, Bennett and Joseph

Since taking over for the legendary Tom Osborne as Director of Athletics on Jan. 3, 2013, Eichorst has immersed himself in Nebraska's rich traditions. He has made nearly 300 public appearances, including nearly 200 speaking engagements in Nebraska. He serves on the Chancellor's Senior Administrative Team and regularly meets with campus administrators and deans. Eichorst's monthly radio show and Connecting on Campus column promote the university's academic and athletic successes, along with the academic and community achievements of Husker student-athletes.

Eichorst was also the first Director of Athletics to visit the Big Ten-based Committee on Institutional Cooperation (CIC) at its Champaign, Ill., headquarters. The CIC is a highly successful academic-based consortium of 15 schools, including all 14 in the Big Ten Conference. Nebraska is leading the Big Ten and the CIC in several areas, including the Digital Humanities and head injury research.

Under Eichorst's watch, Nebraska extended its nation-leading total of CoSIDA Academic All-Americans to 314, including seven in 2013-14. NU also increased its nation-leading total to 17 NCAA Top Ten Award winners, as Mary Weatherholt (women's tennis) earned the honor in 2014. A total of 279 Huskers were honored at the Student-Athlete Recognition Banquet, and 208 Husker student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten honors in 2013-14, an increase of 20 from 2012-13.

In 2013-14, Nebraska became one of only two NCAA institutions – and the first Big Ten program in history – to qualify for a football bowl game, and advance to NCAA postseason in the major team sports of volleyball, soccer, men's and women's basketball, baseball and softball. Nebraska was the only institution to win a postseason game in six of those seven sports.

The Nebraska football team completed its sixth straight nine-win season, while playing in its third consecutive New Year's Day bowl game, a win over Georgia. The volleyball team advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight in its first season at the Bob Devaney Sports Center. The Husker soccer team qualified for the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2005, and advanced to the second round after winning Big Ten regular-season and tournament titles.

The women's basketball team captured Nebraska's first-ever conference tournament title while earning an NCAA Tournament win for the second straight year. The Huskers also hosted an NCAA Regional at Pinnacle Bank Arena – the first time since 1993 that NCAA Tournament basketball came to Lincoln. The men's basketball team earned Nebraska's first trip to the NCAA Tournament since 1998, following a top-four Big Ten finish. The men's and women's basketball teams qualified for the NCAA Tournament in the same season for the first time since 1998.

The bowling team earned an NCAA runner-up finish, and the rifle team finished fifth at the NCAA Championships. The women's gymnastics program made the NCAA Super Six and earned a share of the Big Ten title. The men's gymnastics team added an eighth-place NCAA finish, while the wrestling team claimed 11th at nationals – its top showing at the NCAA Championships since 2009.

The softball team shared the Big Ten regular-season title and advanced to an NCAA Super Regional for the second straight season. The baseball team earned its first NCAA Tournament bid since 2008. It marked the first time in school history the baseball and men's basketball teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament in the same season.

The men's track and field team finished 12th at the NCAA Outdoor Championships, after finishing 17th at the indoor meet. The women added a 19th-place finish at the NCAA Outdoor Championships.

The Huskers produced 42 All-Americans who won 51 awards, including 29 first-team honors – NU's highest totals in more than a decade.

Nebraska ranked in the top 20 nationally in attendance in football (90,933, 9th), volleyball (8,175, 1st), men's basketball (15,419, 13th), women's basketball (6,161, 11th), baseball (3,241, 15th) and softball (963) in 2013-14. NU's football, men's basketball and volleyball attendances were all school records, and the Huskers extended NCAA-record home sellout streaks in both football (333) and volleyball (200).

Nebraska is focusing on improving the game-day atmosphere at every venue, including a $12.3 million upgrade of its wireless networks in and around Memorial Stadium in 2014. It is the largest wireless network system installation at a college stadium in history. The upgrade includes a new sound system, IPTV system installation and innovative smartphone applications.

In the summer of 2013, Memorial Stadium expansion increased capacity while adding the innovative Nebraska Athletic Performance Laboratory (NAPL) inside East Stadium next to the Center for Brain, Biology and Behavior (CB3). The men's and women's basketball teams became the primary tenants at Pinnacle Bank Arena, and the renovated Devaney Center became the home of the Husker volleyball, wrestling and men's and women's gymnastics programs.

The next major facility project is a world-class, $20.4 million Nebraska Soccer and Tennis Complex, located just north of the Devaney Center and Innovation Campus. When completed in 2015, the facilities will rank among the best in the Big Ten.

Eichorst came to Nebraska after serving as Director of Athletics at Miami in 2011 and 2012. During his tenure, Eichorst helped grow the academic reputation of an already sterling program with NCAA Top 10 recognition in Academic Progress Rates (APR) for five programs – football, baseball, men's diving, women's cross country and women's golf. Miami's Hurricane Club grew to more than 5,000 nationwide. A total of $19 million in student-athlete support was generated in 2011-12, and $14.2 million in capital gifts was raised for the Center for Athletic Excellence.

Eichorst hired legendary men's basketball coach Jim Larrañaga, and the Hurricanes advanced to the NIT second round. The women's basketball program posted the highest national ranking in school history (No. 5) and advanced to the NCAA second round. The women's tennis team advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight for the fourth straight season, and the baseball team made its 40th consecutive NCAA appearance. The women's soccer team posted the first NCAA Tournament win in history, and the volleyball team made its third straight NCAA Tournament trip.

Before heading to Miami, Eichorst was the Deputy Athletics Director at Wisconsin from 2009 to 2011. He was the Chief Operating Officer and oversaw the day-to-day operations (23 intercollegiate programs, 850 student-athletes, 320 full-time employees) under Director of Athletics and former Husker Barry Alvarez. Eichorst was involved in the design and planning of a new ice hockey and swimming facility, and the Student-Athlete Performance Center at Camp Randall Stadium.

At South Carolina, Eichorst oversaw daily operations of the department and supervised Lou Holtz's and Steve Spurrier's football programs and Ray Tanner's baseball program. The football team was bowl-eligible each season, and the baseball team competed in the 2004 College World Series. Additionally, he coordinated and supervised multi-million dollar facility projects, including a football training facility.

From 1999 to 2003, Eichorst served as the Director of Athletics at Wisconsin-Whitewater, which produced four top 10 percent NACDA Directors Cup finishes, one NCAA team title, two NCAA runner-up finishes and five individual national champions. The program also featured 11 CoSIDA Academic All-America selections, seven NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship winners and 74 All-Americans.

A native of Lone Rock, Wis., Eichorst was an all-conference defensive back, three-time letterwinner and 1990 football team captain for Wisconsin-Whitewater. He graduated magna cum laude in business from UW-Whitewater in 1990 and earned a law degree from Marquette in 1995. He practiced law in Milwaukee until 1999. He is a past member of the NCAA Division I Student-Athlete Reinstatement Committee and the State Bar of Wisconsin Board of Governors. He previously served as an assistant adjunct professor of law at Marquette Law School, where he taught classes in sports law. He serves on the Marquette University National Sports Law Institute Board of Advisors. In 2006, Marquette awarded Eichorst the Sports Law Alumnus of the Year award. He also is a graduate of the Sports Management Institute and serves on its Executive Committee.

NEBRASKA MEDIA SERVICES

NEBRASKA MEDIA RELATIONS

The Nebraska Media Relations Office is available to assist you with coverage of the Nebraska football program. The Media Relations Office is located on the third floor of the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex in the North end of Memorial Stadium.

For information regarding credentials, interviews, statistics, press conferences, etc., please call the Media Relations Office at (402) 472-2263, visit Huskers.com or e-mail Assistant Athletic Director for Media Relations Keith Mann (kmann@huskers.com), Associate Media Relations Director Shamus McKnight (smcknight@huskers.com), Assistant Media Relations Director Matt Smith (msmith@huskers.com) or Assistant Media Relations Director Jeremy Foote (jfoote@huskers.com). Below are guidelines for covering Nebraska during the season. Additions or changes to these policies can be found at Huskers.com/media.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Nebraska utilizes an on-line credentialing system. Directions regarding the application process will be sent to media members. Out-of-state media can contact Vicki Capazo in the Media Relations Office at (402) 472-2263 for assistance.

As a general rule, working space in the Nebraska Press Box is allotted on the following basis: (1) daily newspaper writers covering for next day publication; (2) sports editors of Nebraska daily newspapers; (3) radio personnel for broadcast originations; (4) press and TV working photographers; (5) official school student daily newspaper, one seat and/or sideline only; (6) approved special coverage as space allows. Visiting freelance and amateur photographers are not eligible for media credentials, except by approval of MRD.

MEDIA ACCESS

Memorial Stadium access for the media is at the Media Gate entrance on street level on the west side of the stadium. The working press area is on Level 6 (Don Bryant Media Facility) with the photo and television deck on Level 7. Level 3 (West Stadium Club) and Levels 4 and 5 (Skybox Suites) of the West Stadium and Level 7 of the North and East Stadium Suites are not open to the media or public.

Single-game media credentials can be picked up at Gate 10 on game days, beginning five hours prior to kickoff and must show a photo I.D. All credential holders must receive a wristband at Gate 10 to accompany their credential in order to be admitted into Memorial Stadium.

MEDIA PARKING

Parking at Memorial Stadium is always at a premium, with a limited number of spaces allocated to the media. Media parking is divided among several lots around Memorial Stadium. Early arrival is strongly suggested. No cars will be admitted to the primary media lot directly south of the stadium later than 90 minutes before kickoff.

Each media outlet will receive one complimentary parking pass. Media outlets will be charged for additional parking passes ($20/each). See page 206 for specific directions to assigned lots.

WEEKLY MONDAY MEDIA LUNCHEON

Each Monday during game weeks, Nebraska hosts a media luncheon. Press luncheons will be held on Level 6 of the press facility. A light lunch buffet is served at 11 a.m., followed by Coach Bo Pelini's weekly news conference at 11:30 a.m.

Requested Husker players will also be available pending class schedules. Generally, player interviews will be held after Coach Pelini's press conference until 1 p.m.; however some players may be made available before 11:30 a.m., depending on class schedules.

Media requesting Nebraska players for the press conference should do so by 2 p.m. Sunday to the Media Relations Office. Transcripts of Pelini's press conference comments will be available on Huskers.com.

Out-of-town media wishing to listen to the weekly news conference may do so via telephone. The dial-in number and weekly passcode may be obtained by contacting the Nebraska Media Relations Office (402) 472-2263 no later than 10 a.m. Monday morning. Lines are limited.

Media planning any live coverage of the press conference (television, radio, internet) must first request permission from the Media Relations Office.

INTERVIEW POLICY

During the season, Coach Bo Pelini is available in person for media interviews at the Monday news conference and on the field after practice on Thursday. Coach Pelini is also available each Tuesday on the Big Ten teleconference (11:24 a.m.). Please contact the Big Ten office at (847) 696-1010 for details. Any other interviews with Pelini must be arranged through the Media Relations Office at least one day in advance.

Nebraska players are available for interviews in person or by telephone on Monday during Nebraska's press conference and Tuesday after practice. Player interviews can occasionally be set up for other times with at least one day advance notice to the Media Relations Office. All requests for player and coach interviews must go through the Media Relations Office.

Media should contact Keith Mann regarding assistant coach interview availability.

No interviews are to be conducted in the locker room, training room, weight room or Nebraska Student Life Complex. Freshmen and redshirt freshmen are not available for interviews until they have participated in a game.

DAILY PRACTICES

During the season, practices are normally conducted either in Memorial Stadium, in the Hawks Championship Center, or on the Ed and Joyanne Gass Practice Fields northeast of the stadium, beginning at approximately 3:30 p.m. Practices are generally closed to the media and public. Media wishing to interview Nebraska players or coaches after practice should come to the designated location based on the practice site shortly before the end of practice. Media relations staff will escort media to the practice field at the conclusion of practice.

Photographers and videographers should contact media relations regarding days and times to shoot practice. Media are asked to remain on the sideline or behind the fence at Memorial Stadium during this time. When on the Gass practice fields, media may not stand between the two practice fields during this time. No interviews are to be conducted during this time period and these segments may not be aired or streamed live on television or the internet. Live practice reports of any kind are not permitted from the practice site (social media, radio, blogs, etc.). Media will be asked to leave the practice site to use their cell phones or mobile devices.

Contact the Media Relations Office for the exact time and location of each day's practice.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Nebraska's locker room is closed after games, both home and away, but Coach Bo Pelini and requested players will be available for interviews following a brief cooling-off period. For home games, only coaches, players and staff members will be admitted to the tunnel and locker room after the game, but Coach Pelini and requested personnel will be brought to the interview room (Ndumukong Suh Strength Complex). Admittance to the interview area will be by media credential only. Media should access the area via the door on the northeast corner of the Osborne Athletic Complex. For away games, the best available interview area will be used. Interview requests, home and away, will be taken by Keith Mann at the end of the third quarter. Non-requested players making significant plays in the fourth quarter will be added as needed.

Nebraska players and coaches will not do interviews on the field after the game.

The visiting locker room at Memorial Stadium is located underneath the South Stadium. The visiting team interview area is just off the main tunnel leading to the visitor's locker room.

Media planning to carry the press conference live should request permission from the Nebraska Media Relations Office before doing so. If media are planning to do live interviews on the field after the game, they should make advance arrangements with the Media Relations Office, as well as contact Scott Guthrie in HuskerVision (402-472-4645).

SIDELINE POLICIES

The Big Ten Conference maintains a strict sideline control policy in an effort to keep the playing area as safe as possible. All sideline photographers must have a photo vest and a photo pass, and both must be clearly visible. Vests will be issued beginning three hours before game time. Vests will be issued to media members with a photo pass who will be shooting still photos or video during the game. Media without a photo vest may access the sideline during pre-game and in the final five minutes of the game. Special exceptions to this also include interviews with special guests on the field at halftime, quarter breaks, etc. All other media should work from their assigned location on Level 6 or Level 7.

Those individuals receiving a photo vest will be asked to sign a waiver concerning the usage of photos at the time they check out the vests. Vests may be returned to one of four locations following the game: Nebraska post-game interview room, opponent post-game interview room, press box, photographers work area.

The Big Ten sideline control policy: (1) Only those photographers on assignment from a newspaper, magazine, television station or a participating institution, are given credentials. Each student publication may be limited to one press and/or one sideline photo pass. (2) Only those newspapers with Sunday and/or daily editions are eligible for sideline passes. (Special requests must be submitted to the Media Relations Director for review). (3) Cutline writers, equipment carriers, and/or other so-called "assistants" will not be allowed on the sideline. (4) Photographers must display their credentials (photo pass and vest) at all times. (5) University personnel are to be deployed on the sideline to ensure that all credentials are properly displayed. Those possessing bench passes (45) must remain inside the team bench area (between the 25-yard lines). (6) Photographers may not enter the bench area at any time. (7) Photographers are not permitted to congregate in the writers' section of the media facility during halftime, during or after the game.

A photographers work area is available on field level, just off the southeast corner of the playing field.

FACILITY USE RESTRICTIONS

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln has an interest in protecting its facilities, property and reputation associated with its intercollegiate sports. Therefore, no person shall be permitted to access or use the arenas, facilities and other University of Nebraska intercollegiate athletic venues without first securing the permission of the Director of Athletics or his/her designee. The only exception is an individual who records an image (e.g. photograph, videotape) for his/her non-commercial personal use. In no case shall any person be permitted to use these venues for the purposes of promoting the sale or manufacture of alcohol or tobacco or the promotion of any venture associated directly or indirectly with legal or illegal gaming or gambling.

TELEVISION, RADIO, INTERNET BROADCAST RIGHTS AND RESTRICTIONS

Nebraska, its opponent and the respective conference designate the broadcast rights for all games. No pregame coverage shall be permitted for two hours before the game without the express permission of the University of Nebraska, the Big Ten Conference and the broadcast rights holder. Live postgame interviews may not be aired while the television rights holder is still on the air.

Per the Big Ten Conference, a maximum of two minutes (2:00) of game video footage (without audio) may be utilized during the seven days following the conclusion of the game solely within regularly scheduled bona fide news programming distributed via television, and may not be distributed via the internet, wireless or other forms of media.

Any secondary use of any picture, photograph, audio description, video, film/tape, drawing or other description of a game taken or made by the accredited organization or individual to whom this credential has been issued (including, but not limited to use in delayed editorial or non-editorial advertising, sales promotion or merchandising) is prohibited without prior specific written approval of the Big Ten Conference. Nothing in these terms and conditions authorizes or allows bearer to violate any of the trademarks, copyright and other proprietary rights of the Big Ten Conference.

This restriction also includes highlights of games while in progress (live or recorded). Use of video highlights in any other manner or any media distribution platform without the advanced written permission of the Big Ten Conference is expressly prohibited. Any agency wishing to use film or video in any other manner must obtain written permission from the Big Ten Conference.

Local television stations may not originate a pre- or post-game show from inside Memorial Stadium.

Any blogs, tweets, live chats, social media posts, etc. from the game site should not serve as a substitute for, or approximate, play-by-play accounts of a game in any medium.

Non-originating radio stations or internet sites may not provide play-by-play coverage, live or delayed, but may provide short news updates provided such news update is one minute or less occurring no more than once per hour. No pregame coverage from the stadium shall be permitted for two hours before the game without the express permission of the University of Nebraska and the broadcast rights holder.

INTERNET/TELEPHONE

Media will have use of the Internet in the Memorial Stadium press box. A limited number of Ethernet ports are available in the press seating area and the photographer's area. Contact the Media Relations Office before the start of the season for information regarding cost of Ethernet ports at a specific seat. The Memorial Stadium press box is equipped with wireless internet. Media members who plan to use wireless internet should contact the Nebraska Media Relations Office in advance of the game for instructions.

Media members using wireless frequencies at Memorial Stadium will be asked to register that equipment in advance. Media will be prompted to complete a frequency coordination form when they fill out their on-line credential application. (Note: This does not apply to those registering for wireless internet access). Nebraska provides telephones for media use in the Memorial Stadium media facility. Any media sources that want to install a telephone in the media facility should contact Nebraska Telecommunications (402) 472-2000 at least two weeks before the game.

Information such as statistics, postgame quotes, play-by-play, etc., will be available online at Huskers.com. If arrangements are made in advance, postgame notes, quotes and game statistics may be e-mailed. Please contact the Nebraska Media Relations Office during game week or before the start of the game to request e-mail service.

THE HUSKER SPORTS NETWORK

The Husker Sports Network will continue the strong tradition of broadcasting excellence in 2014, as it brings Husker football to fans across the nation.

In the state of Nebraska, KFAB (1110 AM) serves as the Omaha affiliate and KLIN (1400 AM) serves as the Lincoln affiliate, while KRVN (880 AM) is a third affiliate that reaches around the state. The national coverage area is broad and includes Las Vegas, Seattle, Rapid City and Sioux Falls, S.D. All games will also be heard live on Huskers.com and SiriusXM Satellite Radio.

The Husker Sports Network, in its 20th year of producing and marketing the live broadcast of University of Nebraska Athletics, extended and expanded its agreement with the University on June 13, 2008. Under the agreement, IMG College's Husker Sports Marketing manages and markets all rights associated with the radio programming, Coaches' TV and radio shows, program sales, sponsorship inventory and publication printing rights.

IMG College is the leading collegiate multimedia, marketing and licensing/brand management company in America representing more than 200 of the nation's top collegiate properties including the NCAA and its 89 championships, NCAA Football, leading conferences, and many of the most prestigious colleges and universities in the country. Headquartered in Winston Salem, N.C., IMG College employs 700 people in nearly 100 offices throughout the United States. IMG College is the leader in capturing consumer devotion to college sports through partnership opportunities in multimedia rights, licensing, events and hospitality, marketing, stadium and arena development, stadium seating solutions, ticketing, sales, and consulting. IMG College produces nearly 30,000 hours of radio programming on the largest sports network in the country, manages nearly 5,000 hours of local television programming, is the leading publisher of college sports publications, and is the largest manager of university athletic websites. IMG College is a division of IMG Worldwide, a global sports, fashion and media business. For more information, visit imgworld.com.

Greg Sharpe, Matt Davison, Lane Grindle, Matt Coatney and Steve Taylor will bring another exciting season of football to Husker fans across the nation.

Sharpe returns for his seventh full season as the "Voice of the Huskers." He will host the Bo Pelini Pre- and Post-game Shows and the Countdown to Kickoff Show this year. Sharpe also serves as the "Voice of Husker Baseball" and as the host of the Coach Pelini Football Show, as well as the N'Side Nebraska Show.

Davison, a former Husker, joins Sharpe in the booth for his eighth season as a color analyst. A member of the 1997 national championship team, Davison co-hosts the Husker Game Day Pregame Show. He is also a color analyst for Nebraska men's basketball broadcasts and contributes to Sports Nightly.

The third member of the broadcast team is Grindle, who handles the Husker sideline, co-hosts Husker Game Day and handles the Locker Room Show, interviewing coaches and players after the game. Grindle also serves as a play-by-play talent for baseball and co-host for the Tim Miles TV Show.

Former Husker All-American quarterback Steve Taylor will co-host the Husker Game Day Show with Sharpe and will co-host Big Red Reaction. The final member of the broadcast team is Matt Coatney, who will host Big Red Reaction and helps anchor postgame studio coverage.

In addition to unmatched game coverage, Sports Nightly airs Monday-Friday during the year and features a weekly Coach Pelini and Husker assistant coaches' radio show that can be heard statewide on the network during the season.

All Nebraska games and coaches shows can also be heard on the internet at Huskers.com and on the Huskers App for iOS and Android devices.

THE BIG TEN CONFERENCE

Known as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten boasts a lineage of legendary names and an ongoing tradition of developing strong leaders. Even in its infancy, the conference established itself as the preeminent collection of institutions in the nation, where the pursuit of academic excellence prevailed as the definitive goal.

The history of the Big Ten traces back nearly 120 years to the Palmer House hotel in Chicago, where on January 11, 1895, then-Purdue president James H. Smart and leaders from the University of Chicago, University of Illinois, University of Michigan, University of Minnesota, Northwestern University and University of Wisconsin set out to organize and develop principles for the regulation of intercollegiate athletics.

At that meeting, a blueprint for the administration of college athletics under the direction of appointed faculty representatives was outlined. The presidents' first known action "restricted eligibility for athletics to bonafide, full-time students who were not delinquent in their studies." That important legislation, along with other legislation that would follow in the coming years, served as the primary building block for amateur intercollegiate athletics.

On February 8, 1896, one faculty member from each of those seven universities met at the same Palmer House and officially established the mechanics of the conference, which was officially incorporated as the "Intercollegiate Conference Athletic Association" in 1905.

Indiana University and the State University of Iowa became the eighth and ninth members in 1899. In 1908, Michigan briefly withdrew its membership, and in 1912 Ohio State University joined the conference, bringing its membership total back to nine. Upon Michigan's return in 1917, the conference was first referred to as the "Big Ten," and that name was eventually incorporated in 1897.

As the 1900s opened, faculty representatives established rules for intercollegiate athletics that were novel for the time. As early as 1904, the faculty approved legislation that required eligible athletes to meet entrance requirements and to have completed a full year's work, along with having one year of residence.

In 1901, the first Big Ten Championship event was staged when the outdoor track and field championships were held at the University of Chicago. The debut event marked what is now a staple of conference competition. Today, the Big Ten sponsors 26 sports, 13 for men and 13 for women, including the debut of men's ice hockey as an official conference sport this academic year. Beginning with the 2014-15 academic year, men's and women's lacrosse will be added as the conference's 27th and 28th official sports, furthering the conference's commitment to broad-based programming and providing opportunities to more student-athletes than any conference in the country.

One of the conference's proudest traditions began in 1902 when Michigan took on Stanford in the Rose Bowl Game. Although Big Ten teams only appeared in Pasadena twice before the Big Ten began annually sending a conference representative to the game in 1946, Michigan's appearance in 1902 cultivated a relationship that has endured for more than a century.

Coupling the academic goals set forth by the leaders of the charter members of the conference and their steadfast commitment to athletics, the conference instituted the Medal of Honor in 1915. It is awarded annually by each conference institution to a student of the graduating class who has attained the greatest proficiency in scholarship and athletics. It is the most prestigious honor a conference student-athlete can receive and celebrated its 100th anniversary in 2014.

In 1922, Major John L. Griffith became the conference's first "Commissioner of Athletics". Griffith was the first of five men to assume the role of commissioner in the conference's history, followed by Kenneth L. "Tug" Wilson in 1945, Bill Reed in 1961, Wayne Duke in 1971 and current commissioner James E. Delany in 1989.

After nearly 30 years as a 10-member conference, the conference consolidated to a nine-school league when the University of Chicago formally withdrew its membership in 1946. Michigan State College (now Michigan State University) was added to the Big Ten three years later, bringing the number of affiliated conference schools to 10 once again.

In 1955, the Big Ten formulated a revenue-sharing model designed to pool all football television rights of its members and share those proceeds equally. The conference and its members continue to utilize a revenue-sharing model, dividing media rights, bowl payouts and other profits among all conference institutions.

In one of Duke's first actions as commissioner, he oversaw the adoption of the Black Advisory Commission in 1972, designed to study conference programs and make suggestions which would further Big Ten objectives. The Advisory Commission enlists student-athletes to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations.

In 1981, the conference's presidents and chancellors endorsed a proposal that enabled universities to affiliate their women's intercollegiate programs with the conference, and the first conference championships for women were staged that fall. The Big Ten was the first conference to voluntarily adopt male and female participation goals after launching its Gender Equity Action Plan in 1992.

In December of 1989, the conference agreed in principle to invite Pennsylvania State University for membership. On June 4, 1990, the Council of Presidents officially voted to integrate Penn State into the conference, giving the Big Ten 11 members.

In 2004, the Big Ten implemented a pilot program of instant replay for college football. Following the season, the conference forwarded replay proposals to the NCAA regarding the future use of instant replay, where it approved country-wide testing in 2005. In 2006, the NCAA approved the use of instant replay for all conferences.

In 2006, Commissioner Delany announced the creation of the first conference-owned television network, a 20-year agreement with Fox Cable Networks to create what would become the Big Ten Network (BTN). BTN launched on August 30, 2007, and is now in its seventh year of operation. With more than 53 million subscribers in the U.S. and Canada - and more outside the Big Ten region than inside - BTN allows fans to see their teams compete regardless of where they live.

James E. Delany

On June 11, 2010, the Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors (COPC) approved a formal membership application by the University of Nebraska, expanding the conference to 12 institutions. Nebraska officially joined the Big Ten Conference on July 1, 2011.

The conference expanded its footprint further in 2012 when the COPC approved formal membership applications from the University of Maryland and Rutgers University on November 19 and 20, respectively. Maryland and Rutgers became Big Ten members for the 2014-15 academic year, giving the conference almost 9,500 student-athletes on nearly 350 teams in 42 different sports.

On June 3, 2013, the Big Ten announced that Johns Hopkins University had been accepted as the conference's first sport affiliate member. Johns Hopkins' addition in men's lacrosse only beginning with the 2014-15 academic year will give the Big Ten six institutions sponsoring the sport, allowing the debut of men's lacrosse as an official conference sport and building on the Big Ten's tradition of broad-based sports competition.

In the fall of 2013, the Big Ten opened a new conference headquarters and meeting center in Rosemont, Ill. The newly constructed building is located 10 minutes from O'Hare Airport and has been designed to fully service the needs of more than 100 Big Ten and Committee on Institutional Cooperation (CIC) related committees and coaches groups. Part of the new facility includes the Big Ten Experience - an interactive museum that will highlight all things Big Ten, from academics and athletics to high-impact alumni, history, traditions, highly-acclaimed campus architecture, and life-changing research.

Delany and his staff manage nearly 1,000 broadcast events, provide legislative and compliance services, manage 26 different sport championships and tournaments, provide staff services to over 400 coaching and administrative personnel on Big Ten campuses, and service media and fans needs and interests for information about the Big Ten Conference.

Nearly 120 years after its inception, the Big Ten remains a national leader in intercollegiate athletics on and off the field. Big Ten programs have combined to win nearly 340 team national championships and consistently take home individual honors for athletic and academic accomplishments, fulfilling the Big Ten's mission of honoring legends and building leaders.

BIG TEN CONFERENCE

BIG TEN CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

The fourth Big Ten Football Championship Game will be played on Dec. 6, 2014, at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis. The game will be televised to a national audience on FOX with kickoff set for 7 p.m. Central. The game will match the winners of the East and West Divisions, and the winner of the contest will be presented the Stagg Championship Trophy.

In 2011, the Big Ten Conference announced that Lucas Oil Stadium will host the first five football championship games through the 2015 season before the agreement was extended to 2021. Wisconsin won the first two title games, while Michigan State knocked off previously unbeaten Ohio State, 34-24, to win the 2013 title. Nebraska made its first Big Ten Championship Game appearance in 2012 and lost to Wisconsin.

While a member of the Big 12 Conference, Nebraska participated in the league title game six times, posting a 2-4 record. Nebraska's six title game appearances were the second-most in the 15-year history of the Big 12 Championship Game. Nebraska captured Big 12 crowns in 1997 and 1999, and was also the North Division representative in the game in 1996, 2006, 2009 and 2010.

2014 BIG TEN BOWL LINEUP

The Big Ten unveiled the largest and most diverse postseason lineup in conference history last summer, with 12 different bowl partners spread across the country beginning in 2014. The Big Ten's new bowl lineup will be highlighted by annual games against quality opponents from the ACC, Big 12, Pac-12, SEC, Conference USA and Mountain West in California, Florida, Michigan, New York, Tennessee and Texas, along with the opportunity to visit four other outstanding postseason venues as part of the College Football Playoff. The Big Ten's new bowl lineup will allow teams and fans to visit world-class cities while having the opportunity to experience 11 different NFL stadiums, along with some of the most iconic venues in the country, including Rose Bowl Stadium, Cotton Bowl Stadium and Yankee Stadium.

COMPLIANCE GUIDELINES FOR FANS

COMMITMENT TO COMPLIANCE

On behalf of the University of Nebraska student-athletes, coaches and Athletics Department staff, I would like to express my appreciation for your continued support of our entire athletics program.

The University of Nebraska is known for its loyal, passionate, and knowledgeable fans. It is this type of fervent support that not only assists Nebraska student-athletes in reaching their full potential on and off the playing field, but also draws the next generation of student-athletes to our campus. However, as a University of Nebraska booster, please remember that you are also required to know and follow NCAA regulations.

Our coaches, student-athletes, and Athletics Department staff members are knowledgeable about NCAA regulations because they receive on-going education. But, to truly attain the excellence the University of Nebraska strives for, we also need our supporters to be educated about these same regulations. In turn, you will be assisting us with protecting the eligibility and well-being of our current and future student-athletes.

Please review the information listed below, which includes some of the most important and frequently asked questions about NCAA regulations for boosters. Since this document cannot address everything you may need to know, I encourage you to contact our office with questions that may arise. Our staff can be reached at (402) 472-2042 or Compliance@Huskers.com.

Thank you and Go Huskers!

Jamie Vaughn, Associate Athletic Director for Compliance

NCAA PRINCIPLES

Institutional Control

It is the responsibility of the University of Nebraska to control its intercollegiate athletic program in compliance with the rules and regulations of the NCAA and the Big Ten Conference.

Responsibility

The University of Nebraska's responsibility for the conduct of its program includes responsibility for the actions of its staff members and for the actions of any other individual, booster or organization engaged in activities promoting the athletic interests of the institution.

Compliance

The University of Nebraska must monitor its program to assure compliance and to identify and report to the NCAA instances in which compliance has not been achieved. An institution found to have violated NCAA rules is subject to disciplinary and corrective actions as determined by the NCAA.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS FROM BOOSTERS

Am I a Booster?

Anyone who engages in the following is a booster for the University of Nebraska:

- Belongs to a University of Nebraska athletics booster club;
- Makes financial donations to the Athletics Department or a specific Husker team;
- Assists in the recruitment of prospective student-athletes;
- Employs, gives benefits to, or provides services to a student-athlete, a prospective student-athlete or the relatives/friends of either; or
- Promotes the University of Nebraska athletics program.

What is an "extra benefit"?

An "extra benefit" is any benefit provided to a student-athlete or a student-athlete's relatives or friends that is not authorized by NCAA legislation or available to the general student body. The following list is not exhaustive, but includes examples of "extra benefits" that jeopardize a student-athlete's eligibility:

- Free or discounted: food, merchandise, housing, tickets, repairs, haircuts, tattoos, golf/gym memberships, jewelry, etc;
- Use of a car, boat, or ATV; and
- Gifts, loans, money, or gift cards.

Can I contact prospective student-athletes (recruits) for the Huskers?

No. It is not permissible for boosters to contact recruits. This restriction applies to, but is not limited to, the following forms of contact:

- Face-to-Face Interaction;
- Phone Calls/Skype;
- Email/Text Messages; and
- Facebook, Twitter, and all other forms of social media communication.

Remember to ask before you act. Contact the Athletic Compliance Office by phone at (402) 472-2042.

The compliance fax number is (402) 472-6961 and the office can be reached by email at compliance@huskers.com.

THE DEVANEY SOCIETY

Achieving greatness in both the classroom and on the playing field has long been a goal of the University of Nebraska. Our nation-leading 314 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans (as of the start of the 2014-15 academic year) and 25 team national titles reflect the manner in which we strive to achieve to the highest level.

Rising costs have made funding these athletic scholarships increasingly difficult. To help offset the expenses, the University of Nebraska established an athletic scholarship endowment fund to honor Hall of Fame Football Coach Bob Devaney.

Follow in the footsteps of Coach Devaney and commit to the long-term success of Nebraska Athletics. We are sincerely grateful to those who committed to our future stability and established a Devaney Society Scholarship for male and female student-athletes.

The following scholarships have been established through the Devaney Society: Bill and Betty Cook Jr. Scholarship (football), Given by Bill and Betty Cook, Beatrice, Neb.; Harley and Marcia Bergmeyer Scholarship (football), Given by Harley and Marcia Bergmeyer, DeWitt, Neb.; Russell and Elouise Brehm Scholarship (football), Given by Russell and Elouise Brehm, Lincoln, Neb.; Donald Swanson Scholarship (football), Given by Donald Swanson, Lincoln, Neb.; Brook Berringer Memorial Scholarship (football), given by friends and family of Brook Berringer; Jake Young Memorial Scholarship (football), given by friends and family of Jake Young; Dennis and Connie Dailey Scholarship (football), Given by Dennis and Connie Dailey, North Platte, Neb.; Robert and Dorothy Metcalf Scholarship (football), Given by Robert and Dorothy Metcalf, Lincoln, Neb.; Lance and Betsy deStwolinski Scholarship (football), Given by Lance and Betsy deStwolinski, Omaha, Neb.; Richard and Peggy Herman Scholarship (football), Given by Richard and Peggy Herman, Omaha, Neb.; Jon J. and Marianne R. Tiebreaker Procedure (Nebraska - 7-1 in OT)

The tiebreaker that had been used since 1981 for Division I-AA, II and III championships and in certain I-AA conferences' regular-season contests went into effect in 1996 for all NCAA football games that were tied at the end of regulation.

An overtime period, untimed, consists of two possessions, one by each team beginning on the opponent's 25-yard line, and the game ends when the score is no longer tied after a complete period. Beginning in the third overtime period, teams that score TDs must attempt a two-point conversion. This rule went into effect in 1997.

Nebraska got its first taste of overtime in 1997, defeating Missouri, 45-38, in Columbia. NU added a 33-30 win in overtime at Colorado on Nov. 26, 1999, and a 27-24 win at Notre Dame on Sept. 9, 2000. The Huskers improved to a perfect 4-0 all-time in overtimes with their 27-20 double overtime win over Iowa State on Oct. 1, 2005. The win over the Cyclones marked the first overtime game in Memorial Stadium history. NU improved to 2-0 at home and 5-0 overall with a 39-32 overtime win over Kansas on Sept. 30, 2006. Nebraska's first overtime loss occurred at Texas Tech, 37-31 in 2008. Nebraska's last two overtime games have been road victories, including a 31-30 win at Iowa State on Nov. 6, 2010, and a 23-20 victory at Penn State on No. 23, 2013. Nebraska has scored at least a touchdown in six of eight overtime games.

Trailed After Three Quarters, Rallied to Win Game

Nebraska: vs. Penn State, Nov. 10, 2012 (Nebraska trailed, 23-20, after three quarters but rallied for 32-23 victory)
Opponent: at Texas, Oct. 27, 2007 (Texas trailed, 17-9, after three quarters but rallied for a 28-25 victory)

Trailed After Three Quarters and Rallied to Win Game in Lincoln

Nebraska: vs. Penn State, Nov. 10, 2012 (Nebraska trailed, 23-20, after three quarters but rallied for 32-23 victory)
Opponent: Texas, Oct. 31, 1998 (Nebraska led 13-10, after three quarters before Texas rallied for a 20-16 victory)

Tied After Three Quarters, Won Game:

Nebraska: at Michigan, Nov. 9, 2013 (Nebraska and Michigan were tied, 10-10, after three quarters before NU won 17-13)
Opponent: Georgia, Jan. 1, 2013 (Nebraska and Georgia were tied, 31-31, after three quarters in the Capital One Bowl. UGA won, 45-31)

Nebraska's Greatest Comebacks

Nebraska produced two of the biggest comebacks in school history in its first two Homecoming games against Big Ten Conference opponents. In its first home game against Ohio State on Oct. 8, 2011, the Huskers fell behind the Buckeyes 27-6 early in third quarter before rallying for 28 consecutive points in the game's final 23 minutes. NU trailed 27-20 midway through the fourth quarter before I-back Rex Burkhead scored on a 30-yard pass from Taylor Martinez to tie the score with 7:35 left. Burkhead completed the comeback with a seven-yard touchdown run with 5:10 left for a 34-27 Nebraska victory. In the 2012 Homecoming clash with Wisconsin, NU trailed by 17 points on two occasions, the last coming after a Montee Ball touchdown run with 10:29 left in the third quarter to give the Badgers a 27-10 lead. But NU closed the game with 20 straight points, including Brett Maher's game-tying field goal with 0:55 left in the third quarter and his game-winner from 41 yards out with 9:41 left in the game.

The Huskers have trailed by 10 or more points and rallied to win 43 times in history, including a win over Northwestern in 2013. In 2012, NU trailed by 10 or more points in the second half before beating Wisconsin, Northwestern, Michigan State and Penn State in a six-game span from Sept. 29 to Nov. 10.

NU's largest comebacks since 1965 are listed below, including the time the opponent scored to take its largest lead and the time NU produced the game-winning score.

Memorial Stadium History

Nebraska's continuing NCAA record of consecutive home sellouts reached 333 with eight home sellouts in 2013.

During that time, the historic stadium has gone through many transformations. In 2013, a major renovation on the East side of Memorial Stadium was completed, adding approximately 6,000 new seats. Each new seating area include dedicated restrooms and concessions areas. A new grand lobby, expanded concourse and additional first-aid areas also were added. Fans are greeted by a new grand entrance at Gate 20 complete with a statue of Hall of Fame Coach Bob Devaney. An exciting aspect of the expansion is the Nebraska Athletic Research Facility, where cutting-edge imaging technologies and research to better understand foundations of behavior that contribute to health, injury and disease from childhood obesity to college performance.

In 2006, more than 6,500 seats were added to the stadium's North end, along with a massive HuskerVision screen and Skyline Suites. The additions sit atop the Osborne Athletic Complex, which houses the Huskers' technologically advanced athletic medicine facility, massive weight room, and football locker room, football offices and administrative offices. The first phase of the project also provided the Huskers with a second indoor workout facility, the Hawks Championship Center.

In Nebraska's 300th consecutive sellout against Louisiana-Lafayette on Sept. 26, 2009, a then-school-record 86,304 fans watched the Huskers roll to a 55-0 win. A school-record 91,471 fans attended Nebraska's game against UCLA in 2013, and NU's average home attendance was a record 90,933.

NU's streak of consecutive sellouts started on Nov. 3, 1962, when 36,501 attended the Homecoming game against Missouri. The last non-sellout came Oct. 20, 1962, when NU and Kansas State drew 30,701.

In the fall of 1922, a drive for $430,000 in stadium construction funds was undertaken by faculty, students, alumni and friends of the University. The quota was over subscribed.

The stadium was named Memorial Stadium to honor all Nebraskans who served in the Civil and Spanish-American Wars; the 751 Nebraskans who died in World War I; the 3,839 in World War II; the 225 in Korea; the 422 in Vietnam; and those in Iraq. Construction was completed in a few more than 90 working days and Memorial Stadium was dedicated on Oct. 20, 1923, at the Homecoming game in which Nebraska was held to a scoreless tie by Kansas.

Inscribed on the four corners of the stadium are the following words, written by former UNL professor of philosophy Hartley Burr Alexander:

Southeast: "In Commendation of the men of Nebraska who served and fell in the Nations Wars."

Southwest: "Not the victory but the action; Not the goal but the game; In the deed the glory."

Northwest: "Courage; Generosity; Fairness; Honor; In these are the true awards of manly sport."

Northeast: "Their Lives they held their countrys trust; They kept its faith; They died its heroes."

As part of the continuing improvement of athletic facilities at the University of Nebraska, several major projects have been completed over the past eight decades enhancing the facility. The $1 million Hewit Center dining/study hall area was opened in March of 1985, underneath the West Stadium adjacent to the strength complex. The weight room and the Hewit Center were expanded and remodeled in 1989.

Before the fall of 1994, NU installed two 17 feet high, by 23 feet wide replay boards, now known to Nebraska faithful as HuskerVision screens. In 2006, one of the largest screens in a college venue was unveiled as part of the new construction project.

Following the 1997 season, construction began on a $36-million improvement project completed in 1999. The project included the Don Bryant Media Facility and 42 suites, each of which house 25 fans. Club seating rose from approximately 350 to 1,500 per game. The improvement project tripled the number of restrooms on both the East and West sides of the stadium, doubled the number of concessions in both East and West concourses and included concrete repair and waterproofing throughout the stadium. FieldTurf was also introduced at Memorial Stadium in 1999. The renovations raised the capacity of Memorial Stadium from 72,700 to 73,918. Capacity reached above 80,000 for the first time in 2006, and now approaches 90,000.

Memorial Stadium has been the home of the Huskers since 1923. Nebraska, which owns an impressive 397-119-13 record and a .763 winning percentage at Memorial Stadium, enters its 92nd home season at the historic stadium. Memorial Stadium has been sold out for an NCAA-record 333 straight games entering 2014.

91 Years In Memorial Stadium

For the past 91 years, Nebraska football teams have gladly called Memorial Stadium home with an impressive 397-119-13 (.763) record posted by the Huskers in their home since it was opened in 1923.

Under the Lights

Nebraska's first night football game was Nov. 30, 1951, at Miami's Orange Bowl when the Huskers lost to the Miami Hurricanes, 19-7. Ironically, NU's first night football home game came in the 1986 opener against another team from the "Sunshine State", Florida State. Nebraska is 79-33-3 all time under the lights, including 33-5 at home.

Memorial Stadium Improvements

A chronological listing of Memorial Stadium expansion and improvement from the original 31,000-seat structure built in 1923:

1946-Completed Schulte Field House (construction began in 1941, but was interrupted by World War II).

1964-South end zone section installed, making the stadium a horseshoe, raising capacity to 48,000

1965-Center portion of north end zone section added, raising capacity to more than 53,000.

1966-Both wings of the north end zone added, raising capacity to more than 65,000 and making Memorial Stadium into a bowl.

1967-New press box and guest section added.

1970-Installed new AstroTurf playing surface.

1972-South end zone extended, 9,400 seats added, raising capacity to 73,650.

1973-Athletic office building completed with dressing and training facilities for varsity football.

1977-Replaced AstroTurf and added new scoreboard over the North Stadium.

1981-New West Stadium weight room and new visitor's locker room in the North Field House.

1982-Expanded North Field House indoor practice area.

1984-Artificial All-Pro Turf installed.

1985-Completed Hewit Center (dining area/study hall) in West Stadium.

1989-Expansion of strength complex and Hewit Center.

1992-New AstroTurf-8 artificial turf installed.

1994-Installed Mitsubishi Instant Replay boards and completion of Michael Grace production studio (HuskerVision) in West Stadium. Remodeled Section 14 for disabled, reduced seating to 72,700.

1995-South Stadium training room remodeled and new interview room and player lounge completed.

1997-Groundbreaking began on a $36-million stadium improvement project to take place over a two-year period. East concourse was renovated with new restrooms and concessions and stadium lights were installed on the east side.

1998-Stadium was rededicated on April 24, and the football field was named in honor of Hall of Fame Coach Tom Osborne, who retired as the winningest active coach in college football with a 255-49-3 career record. Lights installed on the west side.

1999-Stadium Improvement project completed with 42 suites, club seating, stadium view lounge, new press box and renovated concourses, concessions and restrooms. Seating raised to 74,056. FieldTurf installed in August, making NU the first Division-I program to use the synthetic surface.

2000-Increased club seating reduces capacity to 73,918.

2001-Expanded team meeting room/players' lounge in South Stadium. Expanded HuskerVision and Hewit Center in West Stadium.

2004-Additional lockers added to South locker room to house entire football squad during construction of Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex on north end of stadium. North Field House torn down in summer 2004.

2005-Replaced FieldTurf, changing subsurface of field.

2006-Completion of the Osborne Athletic Complex and Hawks Championship Center on North end of Memorial Stadium. Addition of Skyline Suites and seating for disabled in North Stadium and addition of giant HuskerVision screen in North end zone. Tunnel Walk entrance of Huskers moves from South end zone to North end zone. Nebraska's football offices, locker room and administrative offices move from South to North Stadium.

2009-Addition of two HuskerVision boards on the North towers and upgrade of all HuskerVision screens to high-definition format.

2010-Addition of Student Life Complex in West Stadium. Expansion of Nebraska football trophy displays in North Stadium.

2011-Work begins on East Stadium Expansion in the spring of 2011. Approximately 6,000 seats will be added along with an athletic research facility. It opened for the 2013 season, raising Memorial Stadium's capacity near 90,000.

2013-Replaced FieldTurf at Memorial Stadium and East Stadium expansion completed.

► Nebraska saw the end of a 47-game home winning streak in 1998, with a 20-16 loss to Texas. The 47-game streak is the longest in school history and the fifth-longest in NCAA history, falling 11 victories shy of Miami's all-time mark of 58 consecutive home victories from 1985 to 1994. The Huskers followed the Texas loss with 26 straight wins at Memorial Stadium before a 27-24 win by the Longhorns in 2002.

► Nebraska owns a 155-23 record at Memorial Stadium in the past 26 years (1988-2013), and posted a 56-3 mark in the 1990s.

► Since 1980, Nebraska has posted a 199-30 record at Memorial Stadium. Included in that stretch are four of the seven longest home winning streaks in school history – a 47-game streak from 1991 to 1998; a 26-game streak from 1998 to 2002; a 21-game streak from 1981 to 1984; and a 19-game streak from 1988 to 1990.

► Nebraska has posted 40 unbeaten and untied home seasons, including nine since 1990 and 13 since 1980.

► Of Nebraska's 30 home losses since 1980, 11 have come against teams that finished the season ranked in the top six in the Associated Press poll, including two teams that won the national championship.

Series Notes: Nebraska and McNeese State will meet for the second time in 2014. The first meeting occurred at Memorial Stadium in 2002, with Nebraska posting a 38-14 victory. Quarterback Jammal Lord rushed for 218 yards against the Cowboys, the third-most ever by a Husker quarterback. McNeese State posted a 10-3 record in 2013 and qualified for the FCS playoffs. The Cowboys are the only FCS foe on Nebraska's future schedules. The 2014 season will mark the fifth straight year NU has faced an FCS opponent. The Huskers are 10-0 against FCS opponents since 1992.

Series Notes: The 2014 matchup between Nebraska and Fresno State is the second in a three-game series between the schools. The Bulldogs visited Lincoln in 2011, and will return to Memorial Stadium to open the 2016 season. The game will be Nebraska's second road contest in four seasons against a Mountain West school, after playing at Wyoming in 2011. This year's game at Fresno State will mark Nebraska's seventh all-time road game against a current member of the Mountain West, including four games at Hawaii and one each at Air Force and Wyoming. Nebraska's last regular-season victory in California was a 24-3 win at Cal in 1998.

Series Notes: Nebraska and Miami will meet in the regular season for the first time since the Hurricanes visited Lincoln in 1976. The teams have met 10 times overall with six of the matchups coming in bowl games, including five between 1983 and 2001. The winner of four of those five games won at least a share of the national championship. Nebraska has won all three meetings in Lincoln, while Miami holds a 4-1 advantage in Miami, including a 3-1 edge in four Orange Bowl matchups between 1983 and 1994. At least one of the two teams was ranked in the top four in the past seven meetings between the schools, and the series has featured four games in which both teams were ranked in the top six in the Associated Press Poll. Nebraska (twice) or Miami (twice) has been ranked No. 1 in the AP poll in four of the past five meetings. In addition to four meetings in the Orange Bowl, Nebraska and Miami also met in the 1962 Gotham Bowl in New York City and played for a national championship in the Rose Bowl following the 2001 season. Nebraska will make a return trip to Miami in 2015, marking the first regular-season matchup between the schools in the Sunshine State since 1951. With both Florida Atlantic and Miami playing at Memorial Stadium in 2014, this will mark the first time in school history Nebraska has played two opponents from Florida in the regular season in the same season.

Series Notes: The 2014 meeting will mark the second straight season Illinois has visited Memorial Stadium for Homecoming. Nebraska won the first meeting as Big Ten foes in 2013, winning 39-19 in Lincoln. Nebraska and Illinois did not meet in the Huskers' first two years in the Big Ten, but will now play every season as both are members of the Big Ten's West Division. Nebraska will make its first trip to Champaign since 1986 in 2015. NU owns an 8-2-1 lead in the all-time series with the Fighting Illini, including a 39-19 win last season in Lincoln. The only other meetings since 1953 came in 1985 and 1986 when the Huskers easily won both ends of a home-and-home series. One of the more memorable wins in the first half-century of Nebraska football was a 14-0 victory over Red Grange and the Illini on Oct. 3, 1925. It was the only time in Grange's career that he was held scoreless in a home game. NU's second-ever meeting with a Big Ten school came against Illinois with a 6-0 victory on Oct. 24, 1892. NU opened the series with four straight wins in Lincoln from 1892 to 1905. Illinois has never been ranked at game time in 11 meetings with NU.

Series Notes: Michigan State defeated Nebraska for the first time in eight tries in 2013. The schools will meet each of the next two years as cross-division opponents, but are then scheduled to meet only one time between 2016 and 2019. Nebraska's rally from a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit marked one of four second-half double-digit comebacks in 2012. The Spartans were held to 14 or fewer points in each of the first six meetings, including three points in consecutive meetings in 2003 and 2011. NU's win over No. 9 Michigan State in 2011 marked the second straight year the Huskers defeated a top-10 team in Lincoln. The 2003 Alamo Bowl victory was Bo Pelini's first win as a head coach, as he served as NU's interim head coach in that contest. Second-ranked Nebraska posted a 50-10 victory at Michigan State in 1995, in the Huskers' first trip to East Lansing.

Series Notes: Nebraska and Northwestern will continue to meet each season as members of the Big Ten West Division. The first three meetings as Big Ten opponents have have provided Nebraska's closest game each season (3, 1 and 3 points). Nebraska has rallied from fourth-quarter deficits the past two seasons, including winning on a Hail Mary pass at Memorial Stadium in 2013. The Hail Mary game-winning TD was the first such play in Nebraska history. Nebraska won 29-28 at Evanston in 2012, rallying from a 12-point fourth-quarter deficit. The comeback tied the largest fourth-quarter comeback in Nebraska history. Northwestern upset No. 9 Nebraska, 28-25, in Lincoln in 2011 in the first meeting as Big Ten opponents. The Huskers defeated Northwestern 66-17 in the 2000 Alamo Bowl. The game marked the highest point total by the Huskers in a bowl game. Nebraska's Dan Alexander rushed for 240 yards and two touchdowns to establish the Husker bowl game rushing record. Nebraska has been ranked in the AP top 10 in three of the last five meetings. Nebraska won the first meeting in series history, 12-0, in Lincoln on Nov. 27, 1902—the only shutout in series history. Northwestern posted a 19-7 victory in the first meeting between the two schools in Evanston on Oct. 3, 1931.

Series Notes: Nebraska and Wisconsin will begin playing every season, as both are now members of the Big Ten West Division. Nebraska played its first-ever game as a member of the Big Ten Conference at Camp Randall Stadium against Wisconsin on Oct. 1, 2011. The teams met twice in 2012. In the regular-season meeting in Lincoln, Nebraska posted the second-largest comeback in school history, twice rallying from a 17-point deficit for a 30-27 victory. Wisconsin defeated Nebraska 70-31 in the Big Ten title game at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis. Nebraska has been ranked in the top 25 in each of the last seven meetings with the Badgers, including five times in the top 10 from 1965 to 2011. Wisconsin won the first meeting between the two teams, 18-0, on Nov. 2, 1901. The Huskers reeled off three straight wins from 1965 to 1973 by a combined margin of 88-19. The first two meetings came under NU Hall of Fame Coach Bob Devaney, who led his 1965 Huskers to a 37-0 shutout of the Badgers. Nebraska completed a series sweep one year later with a 31-3 victory in Madison. Current Wisconsin A.D. Barry Alvarez was a linebacker on those two NU teams. The two teams met again in Lincoln in 1973, when No. 2 NU, under first-year head coach Tom Osborne, escaped with a 20-16 win. In the final meeting as non-league foes in 1974, Nebraska was edged 21-20 by the Badgers.

Series Notes: Minnesota ended Nebraska's 16-game win streak in the series with a 2013 victory in Minneapolis. The Gopher win ended a streak that dated back to the 1963 season, and included lopsided NU wins in the first two meetings as Big Ten opponents. The Huskers won 41-14 in Minneapolis in 2011 and 38-14 in Lincoln in 2012. In the 2011 win, Nebraska scored the first 34 points, giving Nebraska 145 consecutive points against the Gophers in three consecutive meetings. Before joining the Big Ten, Minnesota was Nebraska's most frequent opponent from the conference. NU posted back-to-back shutouts in the final two meetings in non-league games (1989, 1990), winning by a combined margin of 104-0. Although Nebraska put together a 16-game win streak, Minnesota leads the all-time series, 30-22-2. The first 14 of the wins in the Nebraska 16-game streak came under Hall of Fame coaches Bob Devaney and Tom Osborne by a combined score of 553-100. NU was 8-0 against the Gophers under Devaney (225-73) and 6-0 under Osborne (328-27). Nebraska posted five shutouts in the winning streak. Nebraska defeated the Gophers for eight consecutive seasons from 1967 to 1974, including NU national championship seasons in 1970 (35-10 at Minneapolis) and 1971 (35-7 in Lincoln). Minnesota's 1960 national championship team posted a 26-14 win over Bill Jennings' Huskers in Lincoln in the Gophers' previous victory in the series. The Gophers also beat the Huskers on their way to AP national titles in 1936 (7-0, Minneapolis), 1940 (13-7, Minneapolis) and 1941 (9-0, Minneapolis). Minnesota has never played Nebraska as the nation's No. 1 team, while the Huskers have entered the game with Minnesota as the AP No. 1 on three occasions (1971, 1983, 1984). In 1968, both teams were ranked at game time (NU 9, UM 17) for the only time in series history. Nebraska's 84 points against Minnesota in 1983 are the most scored by the Huskers during the modern era (since WW II). The 1983 offense racked up 790 total offensive yards - the third-highest total in school history, including 595 rushing yards. In the first 37 games in the series, which dates to 1900, Minnesota posted a 29-6-2 record and shut out the Huskers 12 times. The Gophers' last shutout came in 1941, which marked the second win in a 10-game winning streak by Minnesota. NU is 10-8 all-time against Minnesota in Lincoln, including 9-7 at Memorial Stadium.

Series Notes: Nebraska and Iowa began the Heroes Game tradition, with the first meeting as Big Ten opponents in 2011. Nebraska won the first two games in the series, winning 20-7 in Lincoln in 2011 and 13-7 at Iowa City in 2012. The Hawkeyes ended NU's five-game winning streak in the series with a 38-17 win at Memorial Stadium in 2013, the most points Iowa has scored in 44 meetings with the Huskers. The teams have met on the day after Thanksgiving the past three seasons, and are scheduled to do so through at least 2019. Nebraska has played on the Friday after Thanksgiving each of the past 24 years. No. 1 Nebraska rolled to a 42-13 win at Memorial Stadium in 2000 in the final non-conference meeting, a year after the No. 5 Huskers cruised to a 42-7 victory in Iowa City in 1999. NU had been ranked at game time in each of the previous eight meetings before 2013. The Huskers were 7-1 in those contests, suffering a 10-7 defeat to the Hawkeyes on Sept. 12, 1981. Nebraska held the Hawkeyes to 13 or fewer points in seven straight matchups from 1980 through 2012. NU is 14-3-1 all-time against Iowa in Lincoln, including 11-2 at Memorial Stadium. The first true home game in the series was played at Iowa City on Oct. 31, 1903, with Nebraska coming away with a 17-6 win. The previous 10 meetings had come on neutral fields in the Omaha/Council Bluffs area with the two teams battling to a 4-4-2 deadlock. Iowa has never been ranked at game time with the Huskers.

Series Notes: Indiana and Nebraska have not met as Big Ten foes in the Huskers' first three seasons in the conference, and are not scheduled to meet until 2016. Nebraska will travel to Bloomington in 2016, with Indiana heading to Lincoln in 2019. When NU joined the Big Ten, the two schools were originally scheduled to meet for the first time in 2015, but will not play until 2016 with the new East-West division setup and subsequent scheduling changes. The Huskers have won four straight games in the series, but the teams have not met since 1978. All four of those meetings came under Coach Tom Osborne, and the Huskers posted a combined margin of 190-43. Those victories snapped a 10-game NU winless streak in the series that dated back to a 13-7 win over Indiana at Memorial Stadium in 1940. Fourteen of the 19 games in the series have been played in Lincoln, as the Hoosiers have made more visits to Memorial Stadium than any other Big Ten team. They have also enjoyed more success, posting a 7-5-2 record in their trips to Nebraska. In fact, from 1940 to 1959, Indiana went 7-0-1 at Memorial Stadium.

Series Notes: Nebraska and Michigan are not scheduled to meet in the next four seasons with the Big Ten's new East-West divisional setup. The Huskers' have won back-to-back games in the past two seasons, giving NU the first winning streak in the nine-game series between the schools. Nebraska allowed just one Michigan touchdown in winning the past two meetings. The 2012 game in Lincoln was Michigan's first trip to Lincoln in 101 years and the first ever game between the schools at Memorial Stadium. Michigan's only other trip to Lincoln came on Nov. 25, 1911, when the teams battled to a 6-6 tie. The 2011 game was the first regular-season meeting between the two teams since first-year Nebraska head coach Bob Devaney led the Cornhuskers to a 25-13 victory over the Wolverines in Ann Arbor on Sept. 29, 1962. Between 1962 and 2011, the two traditional powerhouses split a pair of bowl matchups, with No. 5 Michigan defeating No. 7 Nebraska, 27-23, on Jan. 1, 1986, in the Fiesta Bowl following the 1985 regular season. The Huskers knocked off No. 20 Michigan, 32-28, in the largest bowl comeback in NU history in the 2005 Alamo Bowl. Michigan leads the all-time series with NU, 4-3-1, dating back to a 31-0 Wolverine win on Oct. 21, 1905, in Ann Arbor. Michigan leads the series 3-1 in Ann Arbor.

Series Notes: Nebraska played host to Ohio State in its first-ever Big Ten home game on Oct. 8, 2011. Nebraska traveled to Columbus in 2012, the first meeting in Ohio Stadium in 56 years. The teams will not meet in 2015 or 2016. Nebraska rallied from a 27-6 deficit for a 34-27 victory in 2011, marking the largest comeback in school history. The Buckeyes won the first two games in the series, a pair of meetings in the mid-1950s in Columbus, Ohio. In the first meeting, the No. 6 Buckeyes worked their way to a 28-20 victory over a Bill Glassford-coached Cornhusker club. In the only other meeting, Michigan grad Pete Elliott led his only Nebraska team to Ohio State in a 34-7 loss to the No. 8 Buckeyes.

Series Notes: NU and Penn State met as protected division cross-over foes the past three years, but are not scheduled to meet again until 2017 with the new East-West division setup. Nebraska has won all three meetings as Big Ten foes and has an overall four-game win streak to take a 9-7 series lead. Nebraska improved to 7-1 all-time in overtime games with its 2013 win in Happy Valley. The Huskers trailed 20-6 at halftime in 2012, before outscoring PSU 26-3 in the second half, including 12-0 in the fourth quarter of a 32-23 victory. NU's 17-14 win at Penn State in 2011 came in the first game in 46 seasons without Joe Paterno as the Nittany Lions' head coach. Both teams entered the game nationally ranked in five straight meetings between 1979 and 1983, with NU winning three of the five games. In 1979, No. 6 Nebraska rolled to a 42-17 win over No. 18 Penn State at Memorial Stadium. The following season, the No. 3 Huskers produced their first victory at Beaver Stadium with a 21-7 victory over the No. 18 Nittany Lions. In 1981, No. 3 PSU avenged the loss with a 30-24 victory at Memorial Stadium. The next season in Happy Valley, No. 2 Nebraska dropped a 27-24 decision to a Nittany Lion team that went on to win the national title. In 1983, No. 1 NU opened the season with a 44-6 victory over No. 4 Penn State in the Kickoff Classic in East Rutherford, N.J. Penn State won four of the first five meetings in the series, including a pair of shutouts in State College in 1920 and 1952. NU claimed its first win with a 19-0 shutout at Memorial Stadium on Oct. 21, 1950.

Game 1 | No. 18 Nebraska 37, Wyoming 34

SCORE BY QUARTERS	1	2	3	4	FINAL
Wyoming	7	7	7	13	34
Nebraska	10	7	14	6	37

Lincoln (Aug. 31) --- No. 18 Nebraska rushed for 375 yards and amassed 530 total yards on its way to a 37-34 victory over Wyoming for the Huskers' 28th consecutive season-opening win.

Playing in front of a school-record 91,185 fans at Memorial Stadium, Nebraska rolled up 375 yards on 63 rushes, including 114 yards from junior I-back Ameer Abdullah and 105 yards and a pair of touchdowns for sophomore I-back Imani Cross. Senior quarterback Taylor Martinez also completed 17-of-22 passes for 155 yards and three touchdowns, including a pair of scoring strikes to Quincy Enunwa.

Despite the impressive offensive totals for the Huskers, a pair of late NU turnovers allowed the visiting Cowboys to put a scare into the Big Red.

NU led 37-21 with the ball on the Wyoming 25 with just under seven minutes left in the game, but a Martinez pass was intercepted by Wyoming's Blair Burns and returned to the Wyoming 48. It took quarterback Brett Smith and the Cowboys just two plays and 24 seconds to find paydirt, as Smith hit receiver Jalen Claiborne to trim NU's lead to 37-27, after Wyoming's two-point conversion attempt was smothered by Husker defensive back Josh Mitchell. After another turnover, Smith struck quickly again, hitting receiver Robert Herron on a 47-yard touchdown pass just 29 seconds later to pull Wyoming within 37-34.

On NU's ensuing drive, Wyoming forced a three-and-out by the Huskers, who got a clutch 31-yard punt from Sam Foltz that was caught by NU's Kenny Bell at the Wyoming 6. Smith got a chance at the upset, but the Husker defense held Wyoming without a shot at the end zone to escape with the victory. Smith completed 29-of-43 passes for 383 yards with four touchdowns in a losing effort, although Ciente Evans and Stanley Jean-Baptiste each pulled down interceptions for the Huskers.

Overall, the two teams combined for 1,132 yards of total offense, as Wyoming finished with 602 total yards, including 219 yards on the ground. The Cowboys' total yards marked the eighth-highest mark against the Big Red in school history.

Lincoln (Sept. 7) --- No. 22 Nebraska's Blackshirt defense hauled in four interceptions, including two for scores, while Taylor Martinez threw three touchdown passes in a 56-13 win over Southern Miss.

Nebraska's opportunistic defense was the story, as Stanley Jean-Baptiste and Ciente Evans both returned passes for TDs, as the Huskers jumped out to a 21-3 first-quarter lead and never looked back. Nebraska turned four USM turnovers into 21 points in picking up its 10th straight home victory.

Nebraska finished the night with 479 total yards, including 285 rushing and 194 passing. I-back Ameer Abdullah led NU's ground game with 17 carries for 114 yards and touchdown runs of 3 and 37 yards. Martinez went 15-for-23 through the air for 170 yards and three scores in just over two and a half quarters of action.

While the offense enjoyed substituting freely and spreading the ball around with the lopsided win, the Blackshirts celebrated a strong effort. Nebraska's defense intercepted four passes, including a pair by senior Ciente Evans. Jean-Baptiste set the tone early, returning Allan Bridgford's pass 43 yards for a score on USM's first offensive series.

The Blackshirts held Southern Miss to 284 total yards, including 62 on the ground. In fact, USM had just four rushing yards until midway through the fourth quarter. In addition to the three combined interceptions by Evans (2) and Jean-Baptiste, Corey Cooper grabbed the first interception of his career for Nebraska.

The Blackshirts also notched nine tackles for loss on the day. Harvey Jackson led the Huskers with seven tackles, including a tackle for loss that helped thwart a late USM scoring threat.

No. 23 Nebraska	14	7	0	0	21

Lincoln (Sept. 14) -- In a tale of two halves, No. 23 Nebraska bolted to a 21-3 lead, but No. 16 UCLA closed with 38 unanswered points in the final two-and-half quarters to leave Memorial Stadium with a 41-21 victory over the Huskers.

Playing in front of the NCAA-record 328th consecutive sellout and the largest crowd (91,471) in Memorial Stadium history, the Huskers had their 14-game home non-conference winning streak snapped, along with their streak of 10-straight home wins.

Nebraska used defense and special teams to bolt to an early lead against the Bruins. On UCLA's second possession, Stanley Jean-Baptiste picked off a Brett Hundley pass and returned it 34 yards to give NU great field position. Moments later, Martinez found Quincy Enunwa for an 11-yard scoring strike.

Leading 7-3, NU went on a 17-play, 92-yard drive capped by another Martinez to Enunwa touchdown play, this time from 18 yards. In the second quarter, NU took advantage of a botched punt snap, as Randy Gregory tackled UCLA punter Sean Covington at the UCLA 26. Two plays later, Martinez found Kenny Bell on a 22-yard TD pass to push the Husker lead to 21-3.

The Bruins' high-powered offense finally found the end zone against the Blackshirts with 57 seconds left in the first half to trim the NU margin to 11 points.

The Huskers went to halftime with a 21-10 edge, but the second half belonged to Hundley and the Bruins, as UCLA scored touchdowns on all four of its third-quarter possessions to take control of the game. The sophomore quarterback finished 16-of-24 for 294 yards and three second-half touchdown passes. He also ran 19 times for 61 yards. Jordan James led the UCLA ground game with 105 yards and a touchdown on 22 carries. Overall, UCLA amassed 504 total yards, including 210 on the ground and 294 through the air. The Bruins rolled up 157 rushing yards in the second half.

Nebraska managed 326 total yards for the game, but just 130 in the second half, including just 43 yards on the ground after halftime. Martinez completed 21-of-35 passes for 203 yards and three touchdowns in the game. Abdullah led the NU ground game with 98 yards on 23 carries, while adding three receptions for 50 yards. But Martinez was thrown for minus-13 yards rushing on 10 attempts. No other Husker back managed 20 yards. Enunwa had three catches for 39 yards and two scores, while Bell led the Husker receivers with six catches for 68 yards.

Lincoln (Sept. 21) -- Tommy Armstrong Jr. and Ron Kellogg III led Nebraska in place of injured starting quarterback Taylor Martinez, and the Husker offense produced the biggest total offense day under Bo Pelini in a 59-20 victory over South Dakota State.

Armstrong earned the first start of his career and helped the Huskers amass 645 yards of total offense with the first 300-yard rushing/300-yard passing day as a team in school history. Armstrong completed 12-of-15 passes for 169 yards and a touchdown pass, while Kellogg was equally productive, completing 8-of-9 passes for 136 yards and a touchdown strike of his own. Armstrong and Kellogg engineered scoring drives on eight of their 10 offensive possessions.

NU finished with 310 passing yards and 335 rushing yards, led by Ameer Abdullah's 139 yards and a touchdown on 15 carries. Imani Cross added 60 yards and two scores on just 10 carries, while freshman Terrell Newby contributed 52 yards and two touchdowns on eight carries. Armstrong pitched in 38 yards on five totes. Senior Quincy Enunwa led the Husker receivers with six catches for 78 yards. Abdullah contributed three receptions for 46 yards, while Tyler Wullenwaber added a pair of receptions for 47 yards, including his first career touchdown.

While the offense was firing on all cylinders, the defense also made some significant contributions. The Blackshirts forced a trio of Jackrabbit turnovers, including defensive end Randy Gregory's first career interception and touchdown, which came after a 33-yard return early in the fourth quarter. Gregory finished with five tackles, including two for loss and a half sack.

Stanley Jean-Baptiste added his fourth interception of the season and a 15-yard return, giving him an interception in each of NU's first four games of the year. Jonathan Rose added a fourth-quarter fumble recovery for the Huskers, who held a high-powered SDSU offense to just three points in the final three quarters.

Lincoln (Oct. 5) -- Ameer Abdullah rushed for a career-high 225 yards and two touchdowns to lead Nebraska to a 39-19 Big Ten-opening win over Illinois on Homecoming at Memorial Stadium.

Abdullah carried the load throughout the day for the Huskers, powering a Nebraska rushing attack that amassed 335 yards on the ground. Abdullah carried 20 times, including a highlight reel 43-yard touchdown run on NU's opening drive of the second half to put the Huskers up 30-5. He also opened the scoring for the Big Red with a two-yard run on the Huskers' first drive of the game, to help spark a quick 17-0 NU lead.

Nebraska rolled up 521 yards of total offense against the Illini. Imani Cross added 76 yards and a touchdown run on 15 carries, while Terrell Newby pitched in 19 yards on four carries.

Quarterback Tommy Armstrong Jr. had another solid performance in his second career start, completing 8-of-13 passes for 135 yards and two scores. His four-yard pass to senior wide receiver Quincy Enunwa midway through the first quarter put the Huskers up 14-0. He added a spectacular 37-yard connection with junior wide receiver Kenny Bell in the third quarter to give the Huskers a 36-12 lead at the end of three quarters.

Enunwa finished the day with four catches for 80 yards, while crossing the 1,000-yard receiving mark for his career. Bell added four catches for 65 yards. Redshirt freshman tight end Sam Cotton added the first catch of his career, while fellow tight end Jake Long pitched in one catch for nine yards.

The Blackshirts provided a solid defensive presence, holding the Fighting Illini to just 10 offensive points until the final minute of the game. Illinois finished with 372 total yards, including 195 on the ground and 177 through the air. The Blackshirts held quarterback Nathan Scheelhaase to just 13-of-26 passing for 135 yards, while limiting Scheelhaase to just 11 yards on nine carries. Josh Ferguson carried 19 times for 114 yards and a score to lead the Illini, while adding eight receptions for 82 yards out of the backfield.

Redshirt freshman linebacker Michael Rose led the Husker defense with 11 tackles, while junior safety Corey Cooper added 10 stops with a TFL. Sophomore Randy Gregory wreaked havoc from his defensive end spot throughout the day with eight tackles, including a TFL and a quarterback hurry. Defensive back Ciente Evans also made plays all over the field, including forcing a fumble on the Illini's first drive that helped the Huskers jump to a 14-0 lead. Evans, who finished with four tackles, notched a sack among his two tackles for loss while adding a pass breakup and a quarterback hurry. Jason Ankrah added two tackles for loss and a sack, while pulling down an interception on a pass hurried by Evans in the second half.

West Lafayette, Ind. (Oct. 12) --- Nebraska's Blackshirt defense just missed its first shutout since 2009, as the Big Red rolled to a 44-7 victory at Purdue. Nebraska's defense was dynamic from start to finish, holding Purdue to just 216 yards of total offense, while recording five sacks and forcing a pair of turnovers.

Defensive end Randy Gregory led the Huskers with two tackles for loss - both sacks for a total of 28 yards lost. His second sack of Danny Etling went for 17 yards and a third-quarter safety that put NU up 30-0. Gregory added a second-quarter fumble recovery that Ameer Abdullah and the Husker offense converted into a 28-yard touchdown run on the game's next play. Abdullah powered the NU offense with his fifth 100-yard rushing game of the season. The junior I-back finished with 126 yards on 20 carries.

Nebraska amassed 435 yards of total offense, including 251 yards on the ground and 184 through the air. Tommy Armstrong completed just 6-of-18 passes for 43 yards on the day and managed just five rushing yards on four carries. However, he did score the game's first touchdown by leading the Huskers to paydirt on their first possession. Armstrong's three-yard touchdown run gave Nebraska a 7-0 lead just over five minutes into the game. It was the first of five rushing touchdowns on the day, including a pair of short blasts by sophomore I-back Imani Cross. His first plunge was a one-yard dive on fourth down to end the first quarter and give the Huskers a 14-0 lead. His second touchdown came from two yards out to put NU up 28-0 midway through the third quarter. Cross finished with 56 yards on 16 carries

Senior Ron Kellogg III produced a solid afternoon in Nebraska's two-quarterback rotation. Kellogg completed 10-of-13 passes for 141 yards, including a short touchdown pass to senior wide receiver Quincy Enunwa early in the fourth quarter. Enunwa led the Husker receiving corps with four catches for 72 yards, while redshirt freshman Jordan Westerkamp added career highs of three catches for 53 yards. Kenny Bell, Cethan Carter and Abdullah each added a pair of receptions for the Huskers, as NU finished 15-of-31 for 184 yards in the passing department.

In addition to Abdullah's 126 rushing yards, freshman Terrell Newby helped the Husker ground game with 10 carries for 61 yards, while King Frazier contributed three carries for nine yards and Nebraska's final touchdown on a two-yard blast with 50 seconds left.

Minneapolis, Minn. (Oct. 27) -- Nebraska's 16-game winning streak against Minnesota came to an end with a 34-23 loss to the Golden Gophers. The Huskers, who had not lost to Minnesota since 1960, slipped to 5-2 overall and 2-1 in the Big Ten. Minnesota improved to 6-2 overall and 2-2 in the Big Ten.

Taylor Martinez returned to the field for the first time since the UCLA game in mid-September and led Nebraska to scores on its first two drives. Martinez staked the Huskers to a 10-0 lead in the first quarter, but Minnesota slowed down the Husker offense for the next two quarters, surrendering just a 42-yard Pat Smith field goal with three seconds left in the first half.

During the same stretch, the Golden Gopher offense produced 27 points to take a 27-13 lead late in the third quarter. With their backs against the wall, Martinez and the Huskers responded with an eight-play, 72-yard drive capped by Martinez's three-yard touchdown pass to Sam Cotton to pull within seven. Nebraska continued to rally, as Martinez moved the Huskers 66 yards in nine plays before stalling, and Smith booted his third field goal of the day - this time a 37-yarder - to trim Minnesota's margin to 27-23 with 9:26 left.

The Nebraska defense got another stop on the next drive, and the Huskers got the ball back with just under six minutes left at their own 9. NU was unable to move the ball and a shanked punt gave the Gophers possession inside the Husker 35 with 4:32 left. Minnesota capitalized with 48 seconds left, as Philip Nelson side-stepped around the left side of the line on 3rd-and-goal into the end zone to give the Gophers the 34-23 final margin.

Minnesota outgained Nebraska 430-328 in total offense on the day, including 271-189 on the ground.

Ameer Abdullah led the Husker ground game with 165 yards on 19 carries for his sixth 100-yard rushing game of the season. Martinez was the only other Husker to rush for more than five yards, managing 16 yards on eight carries, including a 35-yard run on Nebraska's third-quarter scoring drive. But Martinez, who completed 16-of-30 passes for 139 yards, was also sacked four times on the afternoon.

Nelson led the Golden Gophers by completing 7-of-15 passes for 152 yards and one touchdown - a 33-yard connection with Derrick Engel on 4th-and-10 in the second quarter to give Minnesota the lead. Nelson added 55 rushing yards on eight carries and two more scores to produce 207 yards of total offense. David Cobb led the Minnesota ground game with 138 yards on 31 carries, while Drew Goodger led the Gopher air attack with 68 yards on three receptions.

Lincoln (Nov. 2) --Jordan Westerkamp's 49-yard touchdown catch on a Hail Mary heave from Ron Kellogg III gave Nebraska a 27-24 walk-off win in one of the most dramatic games in Memorial Stadium history.

In a game ruled for the final two-and-half quarters by the defenses, Kellogg led the Huskers 83 yards in the final 1:14, capped by his heroic toss to Westerkamp as time expired. Westerkamp hauled in his career-high fourth catch for his first career touchdown after the ball was deflected in a group of Nebraska and Northwestern players in the end zone. It also marked the second straight season that Nebraska rallied from a 14-point deficit to beat the Wildcats.

Nebraska took a 7-0 lead, as Tommy Armstrong Jr. capped an eight-play, 76-yard drive with a five-yard scoring run. Northwestern took control of the game, as Treyvon Green scored three consecutive touchdowns over the next 16 minutes, as Northwestern took a 21-7 lead.

Armstrong rallied the Huskers midway through the second quarter, engineering an 11-play, 77-yard drive capped by a three-yard touchdown pass to Quincy Enunwa.

Northwestern took a 21-14 lead into the halftime locker room, and neither offense could get untracked in the third quarter. Nebraska's Blackshirts made the biggest play of the third quarter, as defensive end Avery Moss picked off a pass and rumbled 25 yards for a pick-six touchdown to tie the score at 21. The defenses continued to dominate in the fourth, until Northwestern's Tyler Scott intercepted an Armstrong pass and returned it 29 yards to the Nebraska 7 with 2:25 left. After Northwestern's Kain Colter gained six yards on the first play of the ensuing drive, the Blackshirt defense stiffened, throwing Wildcats for losses on the next two plays to force a 21-yard Jeff Budzien field goal with 1:20 left.

Kellogg, who was unsuccessful in leading the Huskers to points on his previous drives in the game, opened the final drive with back-to-back completions to Ameer Abdullah. But an incompletion and a sack left the Huskers with 4th-and-15 from their own 24. After scrambling, Kellogg found Abdullah again, who made a few moves and finished the catch by lunging for a first down to convert.

Abdullah finished with three catches for 31 yards, all on the game's final drive. He also led the Huskers with 127 rushing yards on 24 carries for his seventh 100-yard rushing game of the season, pushing his season total over the 1,000-yard mark for the second straight year.

Nebraska's Blackshirts notched four sacks on the day among their 10 tackles for 54 yards lost. Ciente Evans led the Huskers with a career-high five tackles for 23 yards lost, including a sack, among his team-leading eight tackles on the afternoon. Corey Cooper added seven tackles, including a sack, while linebacker David Santos contributed six stops, as NU allowed only three points on Northwestern's final 11 drives.

Ann Arbor, Mich. (Nov. 9)— In a game dominated by the defenses, it was late heroics by Ameer Abdullah and Tommy Armstrong Jr. that propelled the Huskers to a come-from-behind fourth-quarter win in a 17-13 victory at Michigan.

With the victory, Nebraska improved to 7-2 overall and 4-1 in the Big Ten. The Huskers snapped Michigan's 19-game home winning streak and stayed within striking distance of Big Ten Legends Division leader Michigan State.

Abdullah's five-yard touchdown plunge off a forward option pitch from Armstrong capped a clutch 75-yard drive that took more than six minutes. Abdullah's second touchdown of the day gave the Huskers a 17-13 lead, and the Blackshirts made it hold up.

Abdullah's gutsy run after the catch capped NU's comeback and was his only reception of the day. The junior I-back was brilliant on the ground again, cutting his way to 105 yards on 27 carries for his eighth 100-yard rushing performance of the season.

Armstrong, who finished the day 11-for-19 for 139 yards through the air, was brilliant on the winning drive, going 5-for-7 for 59 yards. He hooked up twice with Kenny Bell for 38 yards on the 14-play march.

On Michigan's final drive, defensive end Randy Gregory made a key third-down tackle of Devin Gardner in the Michigan backfield, before defensive back Josh Mitchell helped break up Gardner's fourth-down pass with a minute left to give the Big Red another big win.

Gregory and the Blackshirts wreaked havoc on Gardner and the Michigan offense all day long, notching 15 tackles for loss and a season-high seven sacks. Nebraska's 15 TFLs went for 57 yards in losses, while the seven sacks threw Gardner back 43 yards, as Michigan was held to -21 yards rushing.

Gregory did the most damage for the Blackshirts, posting a career-high three sacks for 14 yards lost on Gardner. Zaire Anderson added a pair of sacks for 15 yards lost, while Thad Randle and Avery Moss also had one apiece.

While the Blackshirts made Michigan completely one dimensional in limiting the Wolverines to 175 yards of total offense, Abdullah powered the NU rushing attack. The Huskers finished with 128 yards on the ground, including 105 from Abdullah, while adding 145 passing, including 139 from Armstrong, who improved to 5-0 as the Big Red starter.

Senior Quincy Enunwa led the Big Red receivers with a career-high seven receptions for 69 yards, while Bell added three catches for 44 yards.

Nebraska jumped to a quick 10-0 lead at the end of the first quarter, before being shut out by the Wolverine defense for three full quarters until the game-winning score.

Michigan mustered a second-quarter field goal, before scoring on the opening drive of the second half to tie the score at 10. The Wolverines took a 13-10 lead on Brendan Gibbons' 40-yard field goal that hit the right upright and bounced through with 8:08 left in the game, but Nebraska marched down the field for the go-ahead score.

Lincoln (Nov. 16)--- Nebraska was unable to overcome five turnovers, all in its own territory, as No. 14 Michigan State clinched a share of the Big Ten Legends Division title with a 41-28 victory.

The Huskers rolled up 392 yards against the nation's best defense, but the five turnovers led to 24 Michigan State points, as the Spartans held the ball for 38:37 against the Huskers.

Ameer Abdullah and the Nebraska rushing attack pounded out 182 yards on 32 carries, including 123 yards from Abdullah. The Spartans, who allowed 43.4 yards rushing per game, were spliced by Abdullah, who became the first MSU opponent in 2013 to rush for 100 yards.

Jeremy Langford led MSU's offense with a career-high 151 yards on the ground and tied a career-high with three touchdowns. Quarterback Connor Cook was 15-for-31 for 193 yards and one score, while leading a Spartan offense that was 11-of-21 on third down.

The Husker defense did all it could, but ran out of steam after being on the field for nearly two-thirds of the game. Ciente Evans and David Santos each produced a pair of TFLs, as NU totaled eight on the day. Evans and Randy Gregory each came through with one sack, including Gregory's eighth sack during league play.

Michigan State took advantage of three first-quarter turnovers to jump out to a 10-0 lead before the Huskers regrouped. The Husker offense responded with a five-play, 75-yard touchdown drive. After Abdullah picked up a first down on a pair of runs, Armstrong connected with Sam Burtch for 26 yards, then ran for five yards and again found Burtch wide open for a 32-yard score. Burtch had career bests in both catches (5) and yards (86).

Trailing 13-7, Nebraska's fourth turnover of the half was costly, as MSU drove 22 yards after an Armstrong fumble to extend the lead to 20-7.

Nebraska fought back, as the Huskers pulled to within 20-14 after Imani Cross' 51-yard score on NU's first third-quarter drive. After another turnover led to a Spartan touchdown, Armstrong led the Huskers on an 11-play drive, capped by Kenny Bell's 38-yard touchdown grab to make it 27-21.

Nebraska had more chances to take the lead with a touchdown before Michigan State put the game out of reach. With 13:42 left on the clock, the Spartans put together a 10-play scoring drive that was extended on a fake field goal on 4th-and-1 from the Nebraska 27. Four plays later, Cook connected with Keith Humphery for a 27-yard touchdown on 3rd-and-13.

State College, Pa. (Nov. 23) -- Pat Smith's 42-yard field on Nebraska's first possession of overtime capped a strong special teams performance for the Huskers and gave the Big Red a 23-20 overtime victory over Penn State at Beaver Stadium.

Smith's 19-yard field goal with 4:29 left in regulation tied the game at 20, after it had appeared the Huskers would take a 24-20 lead on Ameer Abdullah's 62-yard touchdown run. However, Sam Burtch was called for a personal foul. Abdullah was credited with a 50-yard run, and the Huskers battled their way to the 1 before settling for Smith's 19-yard field goal. Smith added a 39-yard field goal with 1:11 left in the third quarter to send the Huskers to the fourth quarter with a 17-13 lead.

While Smith was clutch, Penn State place-kicker Sam Ficken played an equally huge role in a game that featured big plays, big momentum swings, missed opportunities and missed kicks.

Penn State struck first on Christian Hackenberg's two-yard pass to Adam Breneman with 0:33 left in the first quarter. PSU took a 6-0 lead, but Ficken's PAT hit the right upright and bounced out. That missed extra point loomed large at the end of regulation. The Blackshirts forced a three-and-out on PSU's first drive, setting up a 37-yard attempt for Ficken. His kick sailed wide right, setting up Smith's game-winner.

Smith was just one of the huge special teams performers for the Huskers. Kenny Bell answered an early third-quarter Penn State touchdown with a 99-yard kickoff return for a score. Sam Foltz added his best punting performance of his young career, booting eight punts for an average of 46.0 yards, pinning PSU inside its own 20 on four occasions.

Abdullah notched his 10th 100-yard rushing game of the season and his seventh straight in Big Ten play on the season. The junior rushed 25 times for 147 yards. Kellogg, who stepped in for starter Tommy Armstrong Jr., completed 20-of-34 passes for 191 yards, including a 27-yard touchdown strike to Quincy Enunwa to put the Huskers up 7-6 at halftime. The senior wide receiver finished with three catches for 42 yards on the day, while Jordan Westerkamp led the Huskers with five catches for 62 yards.

Kellogg's fumble occurred early in the third quarter on a 16-yard sack, and set the Nittany Lions up on the NU 8. Two plays later, Hackenberg cashed in the miscue with a seven-yard touchdown run to put PSU up 13-7 with 10:37. That Penn State lead lasted just 15 seconds, as Bell unleashed his 99-yard return.

After Smith's 39-yard field goal with 1:11 left in the third, which was set up by Ciente Evans' fourth interception of the season, the Huskers took a 17-13 lead to the fourth quarter. That lead was also short-lived, as Hackenberg atoned for his interception by hitting Jesse James for a 46-yard touchdown catch and run to give the Nittany Lions a 20-17 lead with 14:50 left in the game.

That was the last big play the Blackshirts allowed. Nebraska shut Penn State down on its final five possessions of the game, surrendering just three first downs.

Lincoln (Nov. 29) -- Nebraska produced more total offense than Iowa, but the Hawkeyes picked up their first win in Lincoln since 1943 with a 38-17 victory over the Huskers at Memorial Stadium.

Nebraska ended its regular season with an 8-4 overall record and a 5-3 Big Ten mark, while Iowa improved to 8-4 and 5-3 in the conference.

The Huskers outgained the Hawkeyes, 288-281, in a hard-hitting struggle. I-back Ameer Abdullah led the Huskers with a season-low 85 yards on 23 carries with one touchdown, despite playing little more than three quarters. Kenny Bell added seven catches for 67 yards to lead the Husker receivers, while Quincy Enunwa added three catches for 46 yards and NU's other touchdown.

Senior quarterback Ron Kellogg III completed 19-of-37 passes for 199 yards and a score in his first career start on Senior Day at Memorial Stadium. Starting in place of injured quarterbacks Taylor Martinez and Tommy Armstrong Jr., Kellogg threw interceptions on NU's first two possessions of the game before helping the Huskers get rolling late in the second quarter.

Nebraska committed three turnovers that Iowa converted into 14 points on the day. The turnovers and strong play on special teams gave Iowa a massive advantage in starting field position.

The Hawkeyes started seven of their 15 drives on Nebraska's half of the field. Five of Iowa's six scoring drives started inside the NU 42. For the game, the Hawkeyes had an average drive start at their own 45, while Nebraska's average start came at its own 22.

Iowa set the tone in the first quarter, intercepting Kellogg twice, before turning the second one into its first score of the day. CJ Fiedorowicz took a 10-yard pass from Jake Rudock with 16 seconds left in the first quarter to give Iowa a 7-0 lead.

Mark Weisman added a one-yard run with 5:15 left in the second quarter to cap a three-play, 41-yard drive that took just 1:09.

Trailing 14-0 late in the half, the Huskers put together an 11-play, 59-yard drive that resulted in a Pat Smith field goal with 0:31 left to put NU on the board headed to halftime.

Nebraska started the second half with the ball and built more momentum with an 11-play, 75-yard drive capped by Abdullah's five-yard touchdown run with 10:14 left in the third quarter.

Leading 14-10, Iowa answered with a 31-yard field goal from Mike Meyer to push the margin back to a touchdown, before closing the quarter with Rudock's 24-yard scoring strike to Kevonte Martin-Manley to extend the lead back to two touchdowns at 24-10 heading to the fourth quarter.

Nebraska struck early in the fourth quarter, before Iowa added two late touchdowns.

Jacksonville, Fla. (Jan. 1)--- Heroic efforts by Blackshirt defenders and the longest play from scrimmage in Nebraska football history helped the Huskers to a dramatic 24-19 victory over No. 23 Georgia in the TaxSlayer.com Gator Bowl at EverBank Field.

Nebraska, which secured its sixth consecutive nine-win season under Coach Bo Pelini, finished the 2013 campaign with a 9-4 record.

Senior wide receiver Quincy Enunwa capped one of the top receiving careers in school history with a career-high 129 yards on four receptions to earn TaxSlayer.com Gator Bowl MVP honors. Enunwa hauled in a pair of touchdown passes on the day, including a decisive 99-yard catch from sophomore quarterback Tommy Armstrong Jr. on 3rd-and-14 midway through the third quarter.

The game-winning pass play was the longest play from scrimmage in Nebraska football and college football bowl history. Armstrong dropped eight yards deep into his own end zone on third down, and unleashed a 50-yard strike to Enunwa, who took an immediate hit from a Georgia safety. Enunwa held onto the ball and bounced away from the contact, sprinting from midfield into the end zone untouched the rest of the way.

The touchdown catch was Enunwa's 12th of the season, breaking a 42-year-old school record of 11 touchdown receptions previously set by Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Rodgers in 1971.

The Husker lead grew to 24-12 and Georgia was jolted. The Blackshirts forced a three-and-out on UGA's next drive, and the Big Red hoped to add to the lead. Georgia quarterback Hunter Mason hit Todd Gurley on a 25-yard touchdown pass on the first play of the fourth quarter to cut NU's margin to 24-19 with 14:49 left.

While the Bulldog defense kept the Big Red offense quiet the rest of the way, the Blackshirts did the same. The young Husker defenders gave up 138 yards on the Bulldogs' final three drives, but no points to seal the win.

Nebraska produced 307 yards of total offense, including Armstrong's 163 yards on 6-of-14 passing. He threw two touchdown passes to Enunwa. Armstrong added 26 rushing yards on 10 carries.

Junior I-back Ameer Abdullah powered the Big Red ground game on a rainy day in Jacksonville, pounding his way for 122 hard-earned yards on 27 carries with one touchdown. It was Abdullah's 11th 100-yard rushing game of the year, tying a school record for the most 100-yard games in a season. Abdullah closed the season with 1,690 yards, which ranked as the fourth-best rushing total in the storied history of Nebraska football.

Husker senior defensive end Jason Ankrah sacked Mason twice for 21 yards, while also forcing a fumble that was recovered by Mason. Sophomore end Randy Gregory notched the other sack of Mason for seven yards, while adding a tackle for a three-yard loss. Safety Corey Cooper led the Blackshirts with a game-high 10 tackles - all solos - while linebacker Michael Rose added nine stops, and Josh Mitchell intercepted a pass and recovered a fumble.

Husker Football History

By Mike Babcock, Freelance Journalist

Fans celebrated by waving banners of old gold. "The score stood 10 to nothing in the state university's favor and great and loud were the yells that filled the atmosphere," a newspaper account said.

The date was Nov. 27, 1890. The state university was Nebraska, which had just defeated a team representing the Omaha YMCA. The game, composed of a 35-minute first half and a 43-minute second half, was played in Omaha. So began Nebraska's rich football tradition.

It was an abbreviated opening "season." Nebraska's first football team played only one other game, in February of 1891, an 18-0 victory against Doane College in Crete, Neb. Whether or not Dr. Langdon Frothingham, the team's "coach," was still at Nebraska when the team traveled to Crete is unclear. Frothingham, a new faculty member from Harvard, was made the coach primarily because he had brought a football with him. He returned to Boston in 1891, probably before that second game.

Nebraska didn't actually have a football coach until 1893, when Frank Crawford was hired for an amount reported to have been between $300 and $500. His salary included room and board. Crawford also played quarterback in at least one game during his brief tenure as coach.

Nebraska's first game against an opponent from outside the state was in 1891, when Iowa won a game played in Omaha, 22-0. The first victory against an out-of-state opponent came in 1892, when George Flippin led Nebraska past Illinois at Lincoln. The score was 6-0.

Flippin was the first African-American athlete at Nebraska and only the fifth black athlete at a predominantly white university. Because of Flippin's presence on the roster, Missouri refused to play a scheduled game with Nebraska at Omaha in 1892. The result was a 1-0 forfeit.

In the early years, Nebraska's football team had several nicknames, including Tree-planters, Rattlesnake Boys, Antelopes, Old Gold Knights (which didn't work well after the school colors were made scarlet and cream around 1900) and Bugeaters. The team was first called Cornhuskers in 1899. Charles "Cy" Sherman, sports editor of the Nebraska State Journal at the time, assigned the nickname.

Sherman, who later gained national prominence as the sports editor of The Lincoln Star, was known as the "father of the Cornhuskers" and was made an honorary member of the Nebraska letterman's club.

Nebraska was an independent football power in the Midwest by then, under the direction of Coach Walter C. "Bummy" Booth.

"Nebraska occupies a unique position in western football," a newspaper account in 1903 said. "Too strong to find fearful competitors, the Cornhuskers can almost weep with Alexander the Great because they have no more teams to conquer."

Booth coached Nebraska from 1900 to 1905, with his teams compiling a 46-8-1 record. In 1902, a team featuring Johnny Bender and Charles Borg went undefeated, untied and unscored upon. Booth's teams produced a 24-game winning streak - 27 counting exhibition victories against Lincoln High School. The 24-game winning streak stood as a school record until the 1995 season, when a 62-24 victory against Florida in the Fiesta Bowl game extended a Cornhusker winning streak to 25.

The streak reached 26 before ending at Arizona State in 1996.

Booth, a Princeton graduate, "raised Nebraska from a second-rate team among those of the Missouri Valley to a position where even the leaders of the Conference look upon her as an opponent to be feared," according to the university's student newspaper in 1905.

Booth's coaching success was soon overshadowed when Ewald O. "Jumbo" Stiehm was hired as coach in 1911. Stiehm's teams, the "Stiehm Rollers," were a combined 35-2-3 in five seasons. He remains the winningest football coach by percentage (.913) in school history.

The "Stiehm Rollers" won five Missouri Valley Conference championships and had a school-record 34-game unbeaten streak. In 1914, they were 7-0-1 and argued that they were deserving of a mythical national title. In 1915, they were even better, going 8-0 and again claiming the right to be called national champions. The Cornhuskers were considered to play in the Rose Bowl game after the 1915 season, but the university's athletic board voted to turn down any such invitation.

During Stiehm's tenure as coach, Nebraska produced its first official All-America players - Vic Halligan and Guy Chamberlin, "The Champ." Chamberlin, who came from Blue Springs, Neb., played two years at Nebraska Wesleyan before being enticed to transfer to Nebraska.

Stiehm left NU after the 1915 season because the university turned down his demand that he be paid an annual salary of $4,250 to serve as football coach and athletic director - he also coached the basketball team. The Cornhuskers quickly overcame his departure and continued to enjoy national respect. After Coach Fred Dawson's first team defeated Pittsburgh (coached by Pop Warner) 10-0 in 1921, an Eastern newspaper described the mighty Cornhuskers as "Mankilling Mastodons."

As with everything else in this country, Cornhusker football felt the profound effects of World War I. But the end of the war ushered in the Roaring '20s, a time not only of prohibition, flappers and Model T Fords but one in which Nebraska and Notre Dame regularly played football against each other. An 11-game series involving the schools began with a 20-19 Cornhusker victory in Lincoln in 1915 and ended with Nebraska's 17-0 victory at Memorial Stadium in 1925.

The Cornhuskers' only loss in 1921 was against the Fighting Irish, 7-0 at Lincoln. NU handed Notre Dame its only defeat in 1922, winning at South Bend, 14-6, and setting the stage for what was probably the greatest drama of Cornhusker football during the Roaring '20s. On Nov. 10, 1923, before what one newspaper called "the greatest crowd ever assembled in the Missouri Valley to witness a football game" at Memorial Stadium, Nebraska defeated Knute Rockne's "wonder team." The score was 14-7, and the Cornhusker star was Ed Weir, a sophomore from Superior, Neb., who would earn All-America recognition in both 1924 and 1925. Weir led the way to a similarly impressive 14-0 victory against Illinois and Red Grange in the 1925 season-opener at Champaign, Ill.

On Oct. 13, 1923, Nebraska played its first game in Memorial Stadium, which replaced a field that ran east and west just to the south of Memorial Stadium. The Nebraska Athletic Field had been used since 1909. It could accommodate, at most, approximately 10,000 fans, which wasn't enough, given the growing popularity of Nebraska football. The Cornhuskers defeated Oklahoma 24-0 that day in 1923. It would have been an appropriate way to dedicate the stadium. The problem was, the Cornhuskers' new home wasn't officially dedicated until a week later, with a scoreless tie against Kansas. A newspaper account attributed the tie to a "stadium dedication jinx." A year earlier, Nebraska had spoiled the dedication of a new stadium at Kansas by defeating the Jayhawks 28-0.

Dawson, whose teams won three Missouri Valley Conference titles, was succeeded as coach by E.E. Bearg in 1925. Four years later, D.X. Bible arrived.

Bible, who came from Texas A&M, wasn't Nebraska's first choice to replace Bearg. Nebraska tried to lure Rockne from Notre Dame. He declined and suggested the Cornhuskers approach Bible, who had turned A&M into a Southwest Conference powerhouse.

Bible coached the Cornhuskers from 1929 to 1936. His teams won six Big Six titles and featured a number of All-Americans, among them Ray Richards, Hugh Rhea, Lawrence Ely, George Sauer and Sam Francis. Bible's best team probably was the one in 1933, the year Sauer earned All-America recognition. The Cornhuskers finished 8-1, their only loss coming at Pittsburgh.

After the 1936 season, in which Nebraska ranked No. 9 in the first Associated Press poll, Bible left in the same direction from which he had come, accepting a job at Texas. Bible was quickly replaced by Major Lawrence McCeney "Biff" Jones, who had coached at Army, LSU and Oklahoma.

Cornhusker football was important to the state in the late 1930s. With the Great Depression coming to an end, it gave Nebraskans something in which to take pride. Bowl games are taken for granted by Nebraska fans now. The Cornhuskers made an NCAA-record 35 consecutive bowl trips from 1969 to 2003. But Nebraska had never been to a postseason bowl when Jones' fourth team accepted an invitation to play in the Rose Bowl game on Jan. 1, 1941.

The celebration that followed the acceptance of the school's first bowl bid lasted 24 hours in Lincoln, according to newspaper reports. University classes were canceled, and students stormed the state capitol, demanding that the governor lead the singing of the school song, "There Is No Place Like Nebraska."

The 1940 team featured All-Americans Warren Alfson and Forrest Behm. Though it lost, 21-13, to a Stanford team that featured quarterback Frankie Albert and the innovative T-formation offense, it retains a special place in Cornhusker history. Hall of Fame Coach Bob Devaney used to joke that he'd been in the state several years before he found out the Cornhuskers had lost the 1941 Rose Bowl game.

Jones left for military service after a 4-5 season in 1941, the first in a string of losing seasons that didn't end until 1950. After Jones' departure, Nebraska had six head coaches in the next eight years. Among the six was A.J. Lewandowski, a four-sport Cornhusker letterman who, at one time, served not only as head football coach but also head basketball coach, athletic director and athletic department business manager. One of the few bright spots, during an otherwise glum period, was Tom "Train Wreck" Novak, who earned All-America recognition as a senior on a 4-5 team in 1949. Novak's jersey number (60) was the first to be retired by Nebraska.

The 1949 team was the first to be coached by Bill Glassford, who produced three winning seasons in his seven years. Glassford's best team was the one in 1950, which featured Bobby Reynolds, a sophomore from Grand Island, Neb., who rushed for 1,342 yards and scored 157 points. The 1950 Cornhuskers were 6-2-1 and finished second in the Big Seven Conference.

Reynolds was hampered by injuries as a junior and senior and couldn't duplicate the offensive statistics that earned him national recognition and the nickname "Mr. Touchdown" as a sophomore.

Glassford's 1954 team also finished second in the conference and earned a trip to the Orange Bowl because Big Seven champion Oklahoma, in the midst of an NCAA-record 47-game winning streak, wasn't allowed to make a return trip to the bowl under a "no-repeat" rule. Nebraska, which had lost to Coach Bud Wilkinson's Sooners 55-7, didn't fare much better in Miami, losing to Duke 34-7.

Glassford resigned, after considerable controversy and a player revolt, following the 1955 season. Six losing seasons, the last five under Coach Bill Jennings, followed. Jennings was a popular assistant under Pete Elliott, who spent only one season as head coach.

Though Jennings' teams never produced winning records, they had a knack for dramatic upsets, the most notable being a 25-21 Homecoming victory against Oklahoma on Halloween in 1959. The victory ended the Sooners' record of 74 consecutive conference games without defeat. They had won 44 consecutive conference games.

The Cornhuskers opened the 1960 season by defeating fourth-ranked Texas in Austin, 14-13. But such upsets couldn't salvage Jennings' job, and he resigned after a 3-6-1 record in 1961.

Devaney was hired by Athletic Director William H. "Tippy" Dye after a search based on Dye's stated goals of Nebraska's being No. 1 in the nation in football and getting the best football coach in the country, regardless of who he was or where he was. Both goals were achieved.

Jennings was an excellent recruiter, and Devaney inherited talented players when he arrived from Wyoming in 1962. That was apparent from the beginning as Devaney turned the program around immediately. Despite a 47-8-0 record and five bowl appearances in his first five seasons at Nebraska, Devaney had detractors following 6-4 records in 1967 and 1968. The Cornhuskers' recruiting efforts fell off, and some boosters wanted Devaney and his staff fired.

In 1969, the offense was redesigned. The Cornhuskers went to an I-formation with a balanced line, at the suggestion of then-assistant coach Tom Osborne, and recruiting picked up because of the change in offensive philosophy. Nebraska began an NCAA-record streak of nine-win seasons in 1969 (which reached 33 before ending in 2002) and set the stage for back-to-back national championships in 1970 and 1971.

The Cornhuskers won their final seven games in 1969, including a victory against Georgia in the Sun Bowl, to initiate a 32-game unbeaten streak that didn't end until the first game of the 1972 season, Devaney's last year as head coach. He had planned to retire as coach after the 1971 season but was convinced to stay one more year to try to win an unprecedented third consecutive national title.

The first championship season, in 1970, came on the heels of a 17-12 victory against Louisiana State in the Orange Bowl. Nebraska went into the game ranked No. 3 in the Associated Press poll, but both teams ahead of the Cornhuskers lost that day. There was no such suspense in 1971. Nebraska began the season ranked No. 2 by the Associated Press and moved up to No. 1 after a 34-7 victory in its opener against Oregon. The Cornhuskers remained atop the AP poll all season, as they defeated second-ranked Oklahoma in what was, and still is, called the "Game of the Century" on Thanksgiving Day in Norman, Okla., and wrapped up the title by defeating second-ranked Alabama 38-6 in the Orange Bowl game on New Year's night.

Big Eight Conference teams finished an unprecedented first (Nebraska), second (Oklahoma) and third (Colorado) in the final AP poll for the 1971 season. The Cornhuskers' Larry Jacobson was voted the Outland Trophy winner. The 1971 Nebraska team is widely regarded as being among the best in college football history.

Cornhusker All-Americans became commonplace during Devaney's tenure as coach. Among the 18 who received such recognition were Johnny Rodgers, who won the Heisman Trophy in 1972, and Rich Glover, who won the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award that same season.

Devaney, who succeeded Dye as athletic director, picked his own successor as coach - Osborne. And the success continued, uninterrupted. Under Osborne, the Cornhuskers won or shared 13 conference championships and won national championships in 1994, 1995 and 1997.

The 1994 season began in late August at the Kickoff Classic and concluded with a dramatic, come-from-behind, 24-17 victory against Miami in the Orange Bowl game to clinch Osborne's first national championship. The season was full of memorable moments, including a much-publicized quarterback situation, with three different quarterbacks starting games during the season. At the start of the year, Tommie Frazier led the Huskers. But he was sidelined in midseason by a blood clot problem in his leg. In Frazier's absence, Brook Berringer became the starter. Berringer had problems of his own, suffering a partially collapsed lung, which led to walk-on Matt Turman taking his turn as the starter. Through it all, a dominating offensive line led by Outland Trophy winner Zach Wiegert, and a punishing defense carried the Cornhuskers and allowed them to claim the school's first national championship in 23 seasons.

In 1995, Nebraska became only the ninth major program to win back-to-back national championships since the Associated Press established its rankings in 1936. The Cornhuskers overwhelmed every opponent, including No. 2 Florida in the Fiesta Bowl game, with an offense that averaged 399.8 rushing yards per game and an aggressive and opportunistic defense.

According to the computer rankings of Jeff Sagarin, published regularly in USA Today, the 1995 Nebraska team was the best in modern collegiate history (post-1956). The 1971 Cornhuskers were a close second in Sagarin's rankings, and the 1972 team, despite finishing 9-2-1, was 10th.

The 1995 national championship might have been an unprecedented third in a row for Nebraska if Byron Bennett's 45-yard field goal attempt with one second remaining in the 1994 Orange Bowl game had been successful. The kick sailed wide left and heavily favored Florida State escaped with an 18-16 victory against a Cornhusker team that had gone through the regular season undefeated and untied.

A restructured defense, which included Butkus Award-winning outside linebacker Trev Alberts, helped put Nebraska in a position to play for the 1993 season's national championship.

The last time an Osborne-coached team had been in a position to win a national title was in 1983, when the Huskers began the season in the first Kickoff Classic ranked No. 1. After 12 consecutive victories, a missed two-point conversion at the end of the Orange Bowl game against Miami cost Nebraska the national title, 31-30. But Osborne's decision to go for two points, instead of settling for an almost-certain tie, earned him national respect. The 1983 team, nicknamed "The Scoring Explosion," featured a backfield that included the "Triplets" - Turner Gill, Mike Rozier and Irving Fryar.

Rozier set the school record for rushing yards in a season, gaining 2,148 to lead the nation, and was awarded the second Heisman Trophy in Cornhusker history. Offensive guard Dean Steinkuhler became Nebraska's third winner of both the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award in 1983. Dave Rimington won both awards (the Outland was his second) in 1982, playing for a team that probably was more balanced, overall, than the 1983 team. The 1982 Cornhuskers also finished with a 12-1 record, but their loss came early in the season, 27-24 to Penn State at State College, Pa. That Nebraska team was ranked No. 3 in the final national polls of both major wire services.

Nebraska won three consecutive Big Eight championships from 1981 to 1983 and shared the title with Oklahoma in 1984. The Cornhuskers entered the Big 12 as winners of the last five Big Eight titles and reached the first Big 12 Championship Game in St. Louis. Had they not been upset by Texas, they would have played for yet another national championship in the 1997 Sugar Bowl game.

Nebraska returned to the Big 12 playoff in 1997 and defeated Texas A&M for its first title in the new conference on the way to becoming only the second major college program since national rankings were established by the Associated Press to win three national titles in four seasons. Notre Dame won national championships in 1946, 1947 and 1949.

A 27-14 victory at Washington, which was ranked No. 2 or No. 3 in the nation depending on the poll, certified the Cornhuskers as national championship contenders.

Hall of Fame Coach Tom Osborne.

A 45-38 overtime victory at Missouri kept their title hopes alive. And a 42-17 victory against No. 3 Tennessee in the Orange Bowl boosted them to the top of the USA Today/ESPN coaches' poll.

The Missouri game was the most memorable. The Cornhuskers trailed 38-31 with 1:02 remaining, no timeouts and a first down at their own 33-yard line. Quarterback Scott Frost took them down the field in seven plays, all passes, the last deflected by Shevin Wiggins and caught by Matt Davison.

Davison's cradling of the ball in the end zone, with no time remaining, immediately went down among the greatest plays in Nebraska football history, along with Rodgers' punt return for a touchdown in the 1971 "Game of the Century" and Jerry Tagge's stretch for a touchdown in the fourth quarter of the 1971 Orange Bowl game to give the Cornhuskers their first national championship.

But the 1997 season's most significant event occurred on Dec. 10, when Osborne announced he would step aside after the bowl game, to be replaced by long-time assistant Frank Solich, a three-year Cornhusker letterman as a fullback for Devaney and a co-captain as a senior in 1965.

Osborne was head coach for 25 years, the longest tenure in school history. He was Nebraska's 25th head coach, not counting Frothingham, who was probably the "coach" of the 1890 team in name only. Under Osborne's direction, the program achieved remarkable success, exceeding any in its rich history. The Cornhuskers were 255-49-3 under Osborne, a winning percentage of .836. The 255 victories are the sixth-most all-time among major college football coaches. The winning percentage ranks fifth all-time. His achievements are such that the National Football Foundation waived its three-year waiting period so that he could be inducted into its Hall of Fame in December of 1998.

In Osborne's final five seasons, Nebraska was a combined 60-3.

"I want to make sure when I leave this program I leave it in the best shape I possibly can," Osborne said. "So I'm very anxious that anybody who is thinking about going to the University of Nebraska understands that there probably isn't a whole lot (that's) going to change. One guy's moving out. But in terms of the overall program, in terms of stability, in terms of our ability to get the job done, not much is going to change."

To that end, Osborne, with Athletic Director Bill Byrne's sanction, picked long-time assistant and former Cornhusker fullback Frank Solich as his replacement. Despite being beset by injuries, Solich's first team won nine games in 1998 to claim Nebraska's 30th consecutive bowl trip. His second team went 12-1, avenging its only loss to Texas in the Big 12 Championship Game and defeating Tennessee in the Fiesta Bowl game to finish No. 2 (ESPN/Coaches) and No. 3 (AP) in the national rankings.

The 1999 team may have been Solich's best, even though the 2001 team, led by NU's third Heisman Trophy winner Eric Crouch, played for the BCS national title in the Rose Bowl against a Miami team laden with NFL talent. The trip to Pasadena for the "granddaddy" of all bowl games was Nebraska's first since its first-ever bowl trip, following the 1940 season.

Defining plays in Crouch's Heisman Trophy dash included a 95-yard touchdown run against Missouri and a 63-yard scoring catch in a 20-10 upset of No. 2 Oklahoma.

Solich coached for two more seasons, making dramatic changes on his staff following a 7-7 record in 2002. His 2003 team went 9-3 in the regular season, before adding an Alamo Bowl win.

Despite going 58-19 (.753 winning percentage) in his six seasons at the helm of the Huskers, Solich was removed by first-year Athletic Director Steve Pederson following Nebraska's 31-22 win at Colorado on Nov. 28, 2003.

With Solich's departure, defensive coordinator Bo Pelini took the reins of the NU program for the Huskers' 2003 Alamo Bowl battle against Michigan State. Pelini's defense, which tied a school record by forcing 47 turnovers, including a school-record and nation-leading 32 interceptions and a nation-leading plus-23 turnover margin in 2003, silenced a high-powered Spartan passing attack in a 17-3 Husker victory.

Pelini's first stint as head coach lasted just one game. Pederson hired Bill Callahan, who had led the NFL's Oakland Raiders to Super Bowl XXXVII following the 2002 season.

Callahan was announced as NU's 27th head coach 41 days after Solich's removal. He brought the West Coast Offense to Nebraska, and after a 5-6 record in his first season in 2004, led NU to an 8-4 mark and a 32-28 win over Michigan in the 2005 Alamo Bowl. NU won the Big 12 North Division title under Callahan in 2006, finishing with a 9-5 record after a loss to No. 10 Auburn in the 2007 Cotton Bowl.

The Huskers continued to rewrite NU's passing records with quarterbacks Sam Keller and Joe Ganz, but Nebraska's historically dominant Blackshirt defense struggled in 2007. The Huskers lost six of their final seven games to finish 5-7. Pederson was removed as NU's athletic director in October, and Chancellor Harvey Perlman brought Osborne back as the Huskers' new athletic director. Osborne replaced Callahan, who had led NU to its first two losing seasons in more than 45 years, with a familiar face. Just eight days after Callahan was removed and just nine days after NU's season-ending 65-51 loss to Colorado, Pelini and his hard-hitting defensive style returned to Nebraska.

Osborne officially introduced Pelini as NU's head coach on Dec. 2, 2007, a day after Pelini's LSU defense helped the Tigers to the SEC title. Five weeks later, Pelini guided a swarming LSU squad to a win in the BCS National Championship Game.

"We were looking for someone who can inspire confidence and get players to play with great effort," Osborne said. "We also wanted our new head coach to understand our traditions, including the importance of our walk-on program and the importance of football in this state."

A new page in Nebraska history was turned with Pelini's hiring. The first chapter in that history resulted in a 9-4 season in 2008, that included a Gator Bowl victory over Clemson. Pelini's Huskers, powered by a stifling defense led by Outland, Lombardi, Nagurski and Bednarik award-winning defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh, won the Big 12 North in 2009. Along the way, the Huskers celebrated the NCAA-record 300th consecutive sellout at Memorial Stadium with a 55-0 shutout of Louisiana-Lafayette on Sept. 26, 2009. Nebraska also capped a 10-win season with a 33-0 win over Arizona in the Holiday Bowl. NU added a 10-win season and a Big 12 North title in 2010, after announcing it would be Nebraska's last season in the Big 12. Nebraska moved to the Big Ten Conference in 2011 and notched a fourth straight nine-win campaign. The Huskers finished 9-4 overall and played in the Capital One Bowl in Florida Citrus Bowl Stadium on Jan. 2, before adding a 10-4 campaign, another Capital One Bowl appearance and its first trip to the Big Ten Conference Championship Game in 2012. Nebraska completed its sixth straight nine-win season in 2013 with a Gator Bowl win over Georgia.

With 124 years and 1,262 games in its storied past, Nebraska hopes to continue to grow a lasting tradition of success in the Big Ten Conference in 2014.

1970 National Champions – 11-0-1

Early in the 1970 season, Jerry Murtaugh predicted Nebraska would win the national championship. Murtaugh was a senior linebacker and co-captain who, in just three seasons, set the Cornhusker career record for tackles. It took more than 30 years before Murtaugh's mark was finally surpassed by Barrett Ruud.

It was obvious that Murtaugh was capable of backing up whatever he said, and Murtaugh and the Huskers provided plenty of support for his statement on the field. Nebraska had been 9-2 the previous season, winning its final seven games, including a decisive 45-6 victory against Georgia in the Sun Bowl.

After the Sun Bowl game, Georgia coach Vince Dooley said the Cornhuskers hadn't belonged in El Paso, Texas. They deserved better competition than his team could provide.

Still, 1970 was a new season. And though Nebraska had several starters returning on offense, Murtaugh was one of only three defensive starters returning. Dave Walline and Jim Anderson were the others.

Besides, winning a national championship wasn't something to USC, in a rematch of the previous year's Cotton Bowl. And Ohio State drew Stanford in the Rose Bowl.

Nebraska's hopes of earning the AP version of the national championship were slim. Both Texas and Ohio State would have to lose, and the Cornhuskers would have to win. But it happened.

Notre Dame upset Texas 24-11, and Stanford staged a fourth-quarter comeback to defeat Ohio State 27-17. Nebraska learned of the latter result during the Orange Bowl's pregame warmups.

The Cornhuskers appeared ready to seize their opportunity, jumping ahead of LSU 10-0 in the first 13 minutes of the Orange Bowl. But the Tigers controlled the ball during the second and third quarters, scoring on a 31-yard pass on the final play of the third quarter to take a 12-10 lead.

Nebraska responded by driving 67 yards for the winning touchdown, scored by Tagge from one yard away with 8:50 remaining. Junior linebacker Bob Terrio, a junior college transfer who had arrived at Nebraska as a fullback, preserved the victory by intercepting a Bert Jones pass with 45 seconds left.

Notre Dame Coach Ara Parseghian argued that his team should be the AP champion because it had defeated No. 1 Texas. But NU was a decisive No. 1 in the final AP poll. "I was afraid Ara's comments might influence the voters, but I guess the writers are too smart to take some coach's word," Cornhusker Coach Bob Devaney said. "The writers knew who was best."

Nebraska also received an endorsement from President Richard Nixon, who proclaimed NU No. 1, to the delight of 8,000 fans at the NU Coliseum, on Jan. 14, 1971. Murtaugh and fullback Dan Schneiss, NU's co-captains, joined Devaney with Nixon.

It was just as Murtaugh had predicted.

over which a team had complete control. It would depend not only on being successful, but also on the votes of writers and broadcasters in the Associated Press poll or of selected coaches in the United Press International poll.

Two games into the season, Murtaugh's brash prediction became a longshot, at best. After opening with a 36-12 victory against Wake Forest, the ninth-ranked Cornhuskers played Southern California to a 21-21 tie at the LA Coliseum. The Trojans tied the score with 8:16 remaining, after a failed 21-yard field goal attempt, resulting from a poor center snap, kept Nebraska from putting the game away.

"We should have won the game," Johnny Rodgers said years later.

Rodgers was a sophomore in 1970, his first varsity season.

A tie at USC was certainly no disgrace. Coach John McKay's team was ranked No. 3. Nebraska even moved up in the next week's Associated Press poll. But No. 8 was still a long way from No. 1.

And the Cornhuskers' record had a blemish, no matter how slight.

Nebraska returned to Memorial Stadium to defeat Army 28-0 the next week, beginning what would be a 23-game winning streak and include not one but two national championships.

The Cornhuskers rolled through the Big Eight, moving up to No. 3 in the AP rankings after a 51-13 victory against No. 20 Kansas State in the next-to-last game of the regular season. Nebraska intercepted Wildcat quarterback Lynn Dickey a school-record seven times, and Cornhusker I-back Joe Orduna rushed for 105 yards and four touchdowns against what had been the conference's best defense.

Orduna, a senior who sat out the 1969 season as a medical redshirt, led Nebraska in rushing in 1970.

A week later, the Cornhuskers won the Big Eight championship outright by defeating Oklahoma 28-21 at Memorial Stadium. Though unranked, the young Sooners could have earned a share of the conference title with a victory. Nebraska had to come from behind twice during the game. Junior quarterback Jerry Tagge scored the winning touchdown, capping a 53-yard drive, with 7:42 remaining.

Nebraska finished 10-0-1, its first undefeated regular season since 1965, and ranked No. 3 in both wire service polls, behind two unbeaten and untied teams: No. 1 Texas and No. 2 Ohio State. The UPI didn't conduct a poll after bowl games, so Texas was its national champion for 1970.

The Cornhuskers were matched against No. 5 LSU in the Orange Bowl game on New Year's night. Texas played Notre Dame, which had been No. 1 until a late-season loss

1971 National Champions – 13-0

Nebraska's 1971 season came down to a single game at Owen Field in Norman, Okla., on Thanksgiving Day. At least, that's how it is most often remembered. The top-ranked Cornhuskers played No. 2 Oklahoma in what still is regularly regarded as college football's "Game of the Century."

The teams were undefeated and untied, and they included 17 of 22 first-team All-Big Eight players. Nebraska had the nation's top-ranked defense. Oklahoma had its most productive offense.

The cover of Sports Illustrated (Nov. 22, 1971) published the week of the game included photographs of Nebraska linebacker Bob Terrio and Oklahoma running back Greg Pruitt, nose-to-nose, beneath the headline: "Irresistible Oklahoma Meets Immovable Nebraska."

The game was equal to its buildup. Johnny Rodgers opened the scoring less than four minutes into the first quarter with a 72-yard punt return, and Rich Sanger finished it by kicking an extra point with 1:38 remaining, following a dramatic, 74-yard drive capped by Jeff Kinney's two-yard run.

Rodgers' punt return is among the most memorable moments of the game. But he also made a key play to keep the winning touchdown drive alive, improvising on a pass route to get open on third-and-eight, then making a diving catch of a Jerry Tagge pass for a 12-yard gain and a first down.

Cornhusker middle guard Rich Glover, who made 22 tackles that afternoon, put the finishing touches on Nebraska's 35-31 victory, deflecting a Jack Mildren fourth-down pass with barely a minute left.

Except for the Oklahoma game, Nebraska was never seriously challenged in its quest to repeat as national champion. The Cornhuskers overwhelmed 12 other opponents, including Alabama in the Orange Bowl, to earn a place among the best teams in college football history.

Coach Bear Bryant's Crimson Tide went to Miami undefeated, untied and ranked No. 2. The Tide left a 38-6 loser, providing proper payback for Nebraska's 39-28 and 34-7 bowl losses to Alabama following the 1965 and 1966 seasons. The first of those losses, in the 1966 Orange Bowl game, cost Coach Bob Devaney's Cornhuskers a perfect season and probably a national championship.

Although Nebraska averaged what was then a school-record 437.7 yards on offense, including a Big Eight-leading 179.3 yards passing, and ranked third nationally in scoring, averaging 39.1 points per game, it was defense that set apart the Cornhuskers – as the Sports Illustrated headline pointed out.

Nebraska ranked second in the nation in rushing defense (85.9 ypg), third in scoring defense (8.2 ppg) and fifth in total defense (202.9 ypg). The Blackshirts included seven first-team All-Big Eight selections, four players who would earn consensus All-America recognition during their careers and two Outland Trophy winners: Glover and tackle Larry Jacobson. Glover would win both the Outland and Lombardi awards in 1972. They were joined in the starting lineup by junior end Willie Harper, like Glover, a two-time All-American. John Dutton, an All-American in 1973, was a sophomore backup.

Besides Glover, Jacobson and Harper, the other first-team all-conference defenders were Terrio, Jim Anderson, Bill Kosch and Joe Blahak. Anderson, Kosch and Blahak played in the secondary.

Anderson and Tagge, one of five Cornhuskers on the All-Big Eight first-team offense, were the captains. Both were from West High School in Green Bay, Wis., as was starting monster back Dave Mason, a junior who had sat out the 1970 season as a medical redshirt.

The other first-team offensive players were Rodgers, Kinney, Carl Johnson and Dick Rupert.

The Cornhusker defense was opportunistic as well as immovable, contributing to a school-record plus-26 turnovers. Nebraska recovered 20 opponent fumbles and intercepted 27 passes.

Nebraska was No. 2 in the Associated Press preseason rankings but moved to No. 1 after opening with a 34-7 victory against Oregon at Memorial Stadium. Bobby Moore, now known as Ahmad Rashad, scored the Ducks' lone touchdown with just over three minutes remaining in the game.

Only three opponents scored more than one touchdown against the Cornhuskers. Oklahoma State and Kansas State each managed two touchdowns, and Oklahoma, of course, scored four. The only time all season that Nebraska even trailed during a game was against the Sooners.

The Cornhuskers opened conference play with back-to-back shutouts against Missouri (36-0) and Kansas (55-0), during a stretch in which they posted 12 consecutive scoreless quarters.

In addition to everything else, the Cornhuskers almost always had good field position because of the punt and kickoff returns of Rodgers, a key to their success, according to Tom Osborne, an assistant who designed and coordinated the offense.

"As great as that team was, take Johnny Rodgers out of there on kickoff and punt returns, and it probably wouldn't have gone 13-0," Osborne said.

Nebraska extended its winning streak to 23 games and its unbeaten streak to 32 games in 1971. Repeating as national champions "wasn't automatic," Rodgers said.

But going into the season, "we were pretty doggone confident."

Wingback Johnny Rodgers was a key to the Huskers' national title run in 1971. Rodgers made a name for himself as a junior in 1971, before winning the Heisman Trophy in 1972.

1994 National Champions – 13-0

Byron Bennett's 45-yard field goal attempt sailed wide left in the final second of Nebraska's 18-16 loss to Florida State in the 1994 Orange Bowl game. With that miss, an 11-game Cornhusker winning streak ended. And the run to Coach Tom Osborne's first national championship began.

Nebraska's focus for the 1994 season was finishing the business that had been left incomplete on the night of Jan. 1, 1994, in Miami. The actual process started with a 31-0 victory against West Virginia in the Kickoff Classic in late August, and it concluded with a come-from-behind, 24-17 victory against Miami, on the Hurricanes' home field, in the 1995 Orange Bowl game. To a degree, that game characterized the season.

An important subplot of 1994 involved the Cornhusker quarterbacks. Junior Tommie Frazier, a two-year starter, opened the season as if he might run away with the Heisman Trophy before being sidelined by blood

In many ways, Minter was to the defense what Frazier was to the offense. His loss was significant; a fact underscored during an unexpectedly close 42-32 victory against pass-happy Wyoming.

The Cornhuskers dropped to No. 3 in the AP poll after the Kansas State victory, before finally moving to No. 1 following the Colorado game. The Buffaloes came to Lincoln undefeated, untied and ranked No. 2 by the AP and No. 3 by USA Today/CNN. Nebraska was No. 2 according to the coaches. The Cornhuskers remained No. 2 in the USA Today/CNN rankings another week, before ascending to the top spot on the strength of a 45-17 victory over Kansas, despite a Penn State victory against Indiana.

Nebraska earned the voters' respect with an offense that featured one of the best lines in school history and a new 4-3 defense that allowed only 55 points in conference play. Led by linebacker Ed Stewart, a consensus All-American, the Cornhuskers ranked second in the nation in scoring defense, fourth in total defense and rushing defense and 10th in pass defense.

The offensive line included Outland Trophy winner Zach Wiegert at tackle. Along with winning the Outland, Wiegert was a consensus first-team All-American. His linemate Brenden Stai earned All-America honors of his own at guard.

Rob Zatechka, the other tackle, was a four-time academic All-Big Eight selection who graduated with a perfect 4.0 grade-point average in biological sciences. Along with Joel Wilks, the other guard, and center Aaron Graham, the only non-senior among the starters, the group was nicknamed the "Pipeline."

Nebraska led the nation in rushing, with sophomore Lawrence Phillips gaining 1,722 yards, the third-highest single-season total in Cornhusker history. He finished eighth in the Heisman Trophy voting.

Phillips, Graham, Wiegert and Stai all earned first-team all-conference honors on offense.

Stewart, Troy Dumas, Donta Jones, Barron Miles and Tyrone Williams represented the defense on the All-Big Eight first team. Stewart, Wiegert, Zatechka and Terry Connealy were the Husker captains.

A crowd estimated at 14,000 to 15,000 stood in line and braved frigid temperatures for an opportunity to cheer the Cornhuskers at the Bob Devaney Sports Center on their return from Miami.

"We didn't just win this for ourselves, we won this for the whole state of Nebraska," Connealy said.

clot problems in his right knee after the fourth game.

Frazier's misfortune represented an opportunity for junior Brook Berringer, who came off the bench to lead Nebraska to the Big Eight championship and the Orange Bowl game. Berringer was 7-0 as a starter, passing for 1,295 yards and 10 touchdowns, in what amounted to only eight full games. He threw just three passes in the first three games.

When Berringer was slowed by a partially collapsed lung, a problem that occurred in back-to-back games, sophomore walk-on Matt Turman stepped up and directed the Cornhuskers. Although Berringer had been cleared to play, Turman gained a 7-6 lead against Kansas State at Manhattan that ended 17-6.

Turman had come on to replace Berringer the previous week, directing Nebraska to 23 second-half points in a 32-3 victory against Oklahoma State in the Cornhuskers' Big Eight opener.

The quarterback sequence was somewhat similar in the Orange Bowl victory. Frazier, who had been included on the travel roster for the final regular-season game at Oklahoma (but did not play), started against Miami. Berringer replaced him and got Nebraska on the scoreboard in the second quarter, with a 19-yard touchdown pass to tight end Mark Gilman. Then Frazier returned to finish it and earn game MVP honors.

Nebraska trailed the Hurricanes 10-7 at halftime and fell behind 17-7 less than two minutes into the third quarter. But during the intermission, Osborne had described to the Cornhuskers the way the second half would go if they maintained their composure and continued to play smart physical Husker football. They did.

Afterward, Osborne's halftime speech was made public. It was eerily prophetic.

Even though Nebraska finished its business by going 13-0, it remained for voters in the Associated Press and USA Today/CNN polls to certify the Cornhuskers as national champions. Penn State also went through the season undefeated and untied at 12-0. The Nittany Lions argued to no avail.

Nebraska began the season ranked No. 4 by the Associated Press, moved to No. 1 after the Kickoff Classic, then inexplicably dropped to No. 2 following a 42-16 victory at Texas Tech. Sophomore safety Mike Minter suffered a season-ending knee injury during the game televised by ESPN.

1995 National Champions – 12-0

Tom Osborne's 23rd Nebraska team was arguably his best. The 1995 Cornhuskers were among the best in college football history.

Though such a sweeping assertion cannot be proven, it can be supported. Nebraska's 1995 national championship team was No. 1 on a list of the top major college teams since 1956. The list was compiled by computer analyst Jeff Sagarin, whose rankings are regularly published in USA Today.

The 1971 Cornhuskers were No. 2 according to Sagarin's power ratings. Both were well ahead of the other teams on the list, which also includes the 1997, 1972 and 1970 Huskers among the top 27.

Nebraska was never seriously challenged in 1995, as it extended a school-record winning streak to 25 games and repeated as national champion – something that has been accomplished only nine other times since the Associated Press initiated its national college football rankings in 1936.

The closest any opponent could come to the Cornhuskers was 14 points. But even that was deceptive.

Washington State trailed Nebraska 28-7 after three quarters, in the fifth game of the season. The Cornhuskers scored 20 points in the second quarter to overcome a 7-0 first quarter deficit.

After that, the outcome was never in serious doubt. The final score was 35-21.

Nebraska, which began the season ranked No. 2 by the Associated Press, didn't move to No. 1 until back-to-back victories against No. 8 Kansas State (49-25) and No. 7 Colorado (44-21). After completing a third consecutive undefeated and untied regular season and winning a fifth consecutive Big Eight championship, including four in a row outright, the Cornhuskers eliminated any doubt about their claim to a second consecutive national title by overwhelming No. 2 Florida, 62-24, in the Fiesta Bowl.

Despite the Cornhuskers' success, the 1995 season was one of mixed emotions, resulting from much-publicized off-the-field problems.

"It was a terrible year, and it was a great year," Osborne said after the Fiesta Bowl. "It was taxing. On the other hand, it was very gratifying to work with a group of players who had the kind of focus and drive to carry them through. That was the redeeming factor.

"There were times I was running on empty. I take my spiritual life very seriously. I relied on my faith more than I ever have. I was grateful for the sustaining strength that was there."

The star-crossed nature of the 1995 team was further underscored in the spring, when Brook Berringer, a quarterback who had just completed his eligibility, died in the crash of a light plane.

Osborne again had to turn to his faith to handle the tragedy.

"The Brook I knew, there was nothing he could have done better," Osborne said. "The length (of his life) was not what you would have liked. But the quality couldn't have been better."

Berringer, who had stepped in for an injured Tommie Frazier during the 1994 national championship season, accepted his role without complaint and contributed as a proven backup in 1995.

Frazier, fully recovered from the blood clot problems that sidelined him much of his junior season, set the Husker career record for total offense (5,476) and touchdowns produced (79), which were later broken by 2001 Heisman Trophy winner Eric Crouch. Frazier earned All-America recognition, finished second to Ohio State's Eddie George in balloting for the Heisman and received the most valuable player award in the Fiesta Bowl game.

Frazier, whose record in four years as a starter was 33-3, established himself among the best quarterbacks in Cornhusker history.

"I would say if I were to choose one player who has had the most impact on the outcome of the greatest number of games over the longest period of time since I've been at Nebraska, it would be Tommie Frazier," said Osborne, who began as a graduate assistant in 1962.

Under Frazier's direction, Nebraska's offense was even more productive than that of the "Scoring Explosion" team in 1983. The Cornhuskers ranked No. 1 in the nation in both rushing (399.8) and scoring (52.4) and No. 2 in total offense (556.3). The 1983 team was slightly better rushing the ball, averaging a school-record 401.7 yards, but it averaged slightly fewer points (52.0) and total yards (546.7).

Ahman Green, who began fall camp down the list on the depth chart, became the starting I-back and broke the school rushing record for a freshman. He gained 1,086 yards and scored 12 touchdowns.

Green would have broken the school scoring record for a freshman were it not for Kris Brown, the place-kicker. Brown, like Green a true freshman, scored 97 points – a school record for kicking.

In addition to Frazier, center Aaron Graham and rush end Jared Tomich earned first-team All-America honors. Graham also was a Cornhusker co-captain, along with tight end Mark Gilman, defensive tackle Christian Peter, safety Tony Veland and linebacker Phil Ellis.

Tomich, a junior who originally walked on, was among five Blackshirts who received first-team all-conference recognition. The other defensive players were Peter, linebacker Terrell Farley, rush end Grant Wistrom and cornerback Tyrone Williams. Frazier and Graham were joined on the All-Big Eight first-team offense by Green, tackle Eric Anderson and guards Chris Dishman and Aaron Taylor.

Rarely has college football seen such a team. Maybe never.

Quarterback Tommie Frazier directed Nebraska to back-to-back national titles, capped by a spectacular Fiesta Bowl performance.

1997 National Champions – 13-0

A pajama-clad Tom Osborne was packing for home in the early morning hours of Jan. 3, 1998, when he heard the news.

"By that time, I was wrung out enough that there wasn't much emotion left," he would say later that morning during a post-Orange Bowl game news conference.

His response to the news was typically low-key.

"Naturally, I was very pleased, very gratified," he said.

The source of his pleasure had been the announcement on ESPN - the television set in his room at the Sheraton Bal Harbour on Miami Beach had been tuned to the network "by chance," he said - that his 25th and final team had been voted the USA Today/ESPN Coaches national champion.

The Huskers, No. 2 going into the Orange Bowl game, had squeezed ahead of Michigan in the coaches poll on the strength of a 42-17 victory against No. 3 Tennessee.

The Wolverines retained the top spot in the AP poll.

"Being a coach, I know a little bit how they think," said Osborne, who was among those with a vote in the USA Today/ESPN poll. "They probably looked at the fact we were 13-0, and to be unrewarded in some way would be . . . I don't mean to say an injustice. But it wouldn't be a good thing."

No major college football team has gone 13-0 and been deprived of a national title. On the other hand, Michigan argued, no No. 1 team had ever won its bowl game and been dropped from the top.

The split title seemed a reasonable solution. That was Cornhusker quarterback Scott Frost's point immediately after the decisive victory against Tennessee.

"I can't see how any coach outside of the Big Ten or Pac-10 would vote for Michigan because if somebody from North Carolina, Florida State, wherever it might be, Notre Dame, coaches from there, if they were undefeated and won the Alliance bowl game, they would expect to share the national title," the senior from Wood River, Neb., said on the field, in front of CBS television cameras.

"It's been split before. It's OK to split it. It should be split."

Frost was well-versed on national championship history. The title had been split nine times previously since the coaches poll was established in 1950, most recently in 1990 and 1991.

Nebraska's first national championship in 1970 was split with Texas.

Cornhusker defensive tackle Jason Peter was less sharing than Frost.

"If you ask me, I don't think it should be a split title," he said after the Orange Bowl game. "I mean, we proved today that we're the best team in the country, without a doubt."

There probably wouldn't have been much doubt in anyone's mind had it not been for Nebraska's dramatic 45-38 overtime victory at Missouri in early November. The Cornhuskers traveled to Columbia with the No. 1 ranking in both polls but returned to Lincoln ranked No. 4.

That same weekend, Michigan went from No. 4 to No. 1 on the strength of a 34-8 victory against No. 2 Penn State, and Florida State, which subsequently lost to Florida, went from No. 3 to No. 2.

Michigan might have slammed the door on Nebraska's national championship aspirations with a more decisive victory against Washington State in the Rose Bowl game, but the door was open "at least a crack," Osborne told his team after it watched the Wolverines win 21-16 on New Year's Day.

Coaching the Cornhuskers to a third national championship in four seasons was a fitting conclusion to Osborne's Hall of Fame career. The National Football Foundation waived its three-year waiting period for induction, allowing Osborne to be enshrined alongside the game's greatest coaches without delay.

Nebraska became only the second major college football program since the Associated Press began ranking teams in 1936 to earn three national titles in four seasons. Notre Dame won titles in 1946, 1947 and 1949.

Peter and rush end Grant Wistrom, the Lombardi Award winner and two-time Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year, were the heart and soul of Nebraska's 1997 national champions.

"Those two guys, among some others, ramrodded that football team," Osborne said. "They decided a year ago they were going to come back and get the thing done. Their leadership was invaluable."

Peter and Wistrom earned All-America honors, as did offensive guard Aaron Taylor, the first Cornhusker to be named an All-American at two positions. He played center in 1996. Taylor was voted the Outland Trophy winner, with Peter being one of two runners-up.

Frost and I-back Ahman Green were among other key players on offense. Frost became only the 10th player in major college history to rush for 1,000 yards and pass for 1,000 yards in the same season, finishing with 1,095 and 1,237, respectively.

Frost's 2,332 yards of total offense were one short of the Nebraska's then-single-season record, set by Jerry Tagge in 1971.

Green rushed for 1,877 yards, which ranked second in the nation. His yards also placed him second on the Cornhuskers' all-time single-season list, behind 1983 Heisman Trophy winner Mike Rozier's 2,148 yards.

Every Cornhusker, from freshman Matt Davison, whose touchdown catch of a deflected Frost pass on the final play of regulation against Missouri kept the title hopes alive, to scout team players such as senior Doug Seaman, contributed in varying degrees to Nebraska's fifth national title.

The 1997 national championship team was "somewhere in between" the 1994 and 1995 national championship teams, according to Osborne. It was "probably a little more talented than '94, certainly not near as controversial as '95. That was nice," he said. "So it was just kind of a nice way to go."

"Great leadership on the part of the players, and I didn't have to do much."

He was being overly modest, of course. The record will attest to that.

Ahman Green rushed for an Orange Bowl record 206 yards, as Nebraska defeated Tennessee, 42-17, in the 1998 Orange Bowl. The victory gave Nebraska its third national title in the 1990s.

Nebraska's Most Memorable Games

In 124 years and 1,262 games, it's hard to single out the most memorable contests in Nebraska football history.

From the Huskers' first game in a 10-0 win on Nov. 27, 1890, over Omaha YMCA to their 35th consecutive bowl appearance in 2003, every game has something to remember.

The battles with Oklahoma; the heartbreaking losses to Penn State, Miami and Florida State; the 100-point wins over Creighton (102-0 in 1905), Haskell (119-0 in 1910) and Kearney State (117-0 in 1911); the early battles with Pittsburgh, Minnesota and Notre Dame; and the yearly bowl game battles, all have been sifted through by some of the most knowledgeable Husker fans.

Husker football historians Mike Babcock, former Lincoln Journal Star football beat writer Ken Hambleton and Sports Information Director Emeritus Don "Fox" Bryant, each picked 15 to 20 games that will be remembered for the next 124 years.

Here is the list.

Note: The games are in chronological order beginning with the 1923 win over Notre Dame but are divided into regular-season and bowl contests.

Huskers Tame the Four Horsemen Again

► Nebraska 14, Notre Dame 7 (Nov. 10, 1923)

The Huskers handed the legendary "Four Horsemen" a loss for the second straight season, dominating the famed foursome in a 14-7 victory in Lincoln. The season before, the Huskers won 14-6.

From 1922 to 1924, the "Four Horsemen" owned a 27-2-1 record with their only losses coming to Nebraska.

Coached by the legendary Knute Rockne, the Irish did not have an answer for the Huskers.

Dave Noble ran for a touchdown and caught a pass from Rufus Dewitz for another score, as Nebraska led 14-0 before Notre Dame scored a late touchdown against the Husker reserves.

Defense Shackles All-World Red Grange

► Nebraska 14, Illinois 0 (Oct. 3, 1925)

Nebraska traveled to Illinois and shut down Red Grange, one of the all-time greatest backs in college football history, in a 14-0 win.

The Huskers held Grange scoreless in a home game for the only time in his career to shock the college football world. It was the second straight season Grange did not score against the Huskers.

Frank Dailey intercepted a first-quarter pass by Grange and returned it 45 yards for a touchdown.

Another interception in the fourth quarter helped set up the game-sealing score. The Huskers gained possession at the Illinois 40-yard line and three plays later, a 14-0 lead was theirs. On first down, John Rhodes ran for 36 yards and scored from one yard out a play later.

Huskers Beat Defending Champion Gophers

► Nebraska 14, Minnesota 9 (Oct. 2, 1937)

In Biff Jones' first game as head coach, the Huskers used a spirited rally to defeat defending national champion Minnesota, 14-9.

Minnesota had been the Huskers' nemesis, winning 14 of 18 contests while the two teams played to two ties. The year before, the Gophers returned a punt 85 yards for a touchdown in the game's final minutes to earn the win.

Nebraska trailed 7-0 and 9-7 before the Huskers rallied in the second half. Trailing 9-7 and without starter Eldon McClravy, who some feared dead after suffering a skull fracture, Harris Andrews threw a 25-yard touchdown pass to William Callihan to put the Huskers ahead 14-9.

Huskers End Sooner Conference Dominance

► Nebraska 25, Oklahoma 21 (Oct. 31, 1959)

A massive underdog to an Oklahoma Sooner team that had not lost in 74 consecutive conference games, the Huskers stunned the nation by beating Oklahoma, 25-21, at Memorial Stadium.

Nebraska, which had not defeated the Sooners in 17 years, held off a last-minute OU comeback attempt when Ron Meade intercepted a Bobby Boyd pass in the NU end zone.

The win touched off a wild celebration. The Homecoming crowd stormed the field and tore down the goal posts, which were paraded around town. Pieces ended up at fraternity houses and on the front lawn of the governor's mansion. Chancellor Clifford Hardin canceled classes on Monday so students could have an extra day to celebrate.

Devaney's First Major Win at Nebraska

► Nebraska 25, Michigan 13 (Sept. 29, 1962)

In Coach Bob Devaney's second game at the helm of the Huskers, Nebraska marched into Ann Arbor, Mich., and defeated the Wolverines, 25-13.

The Huskers trailed 7-0 after the first quarter before 70,287 fans, then the largest regular-season crowd to watch a Nebraska football game.

After the nerves wore off, the Huskers dominated the contest in the second half. Entering the fourth quarter, the Huskers held a commanding 19-7 lead before Michigan scored to cut the deficit to 19-13. But the Huskers answered back. On a fourth-and-eight play inside the Michigan 30, Dennis Claridge completed a pass to Dick Callahan for a first down. On the next play, Bill Thornton rumbled 16 yards for a touchdown.

Rivalry Resumes Day After Kennedy is Shot

► Nebraska 29, Oklahoma 20 (Nov. 23, 1963)

The Huskers beat the Sooners 29-20 the day after President John F. Kennedy was killed in Dallas.

Officials from both schools did not want to play the game, but after discussions with NCAA and Big Eight Conference representatives it was decided the game would be played because Oklahoma had one game remaining and the Orange Bowl needed a representative.

All pregame festivities were canceled and a moment of silence honored the nation's fallen leader. The Huskers dominated OU, taking a 17-0 lead in the fourth quarter. Leading 17-7, NU scored two touchdowns in a 1:32 span to take a 29-7 lead. OU scored twice in the game's final two minutes.

Huskers win Game of the Century at OU

► Nebraska 35, Oklahoma 31 (Nov. 25, 1971)

In one of the most memorable games in college football history, the top-ranked Huskers earned a come-from-behind, 35-31, win at No. 2 Oklahoma on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 25, 1971.

Trailing 31-28 after Oklahoma quarterback Jack Mildren completed a 16-yard touchdown strike to Jon Harrison with 7:10 left in the game, Jerry Tagge methodically marched the Nebraska offense on one of the most impressive drives in school history.

Nebraska converted on three third downs, the final one when Jeff Kinney capped a 12-play, 74-yard drive on a two-yard plunge with 1:38 remaining to take a 35-31 lead. Oklahoma turned the ball over on downs and NU ran out the clock to preserve the win.

Osborne Defeats First Top-Five Team

► Nebraska 31, Alabama 24 (Sept. 17, 1977)

Coach Tom Osborne earned his first win over a top-five team, as the Huskers defeated Bear Bryant's Crimson Tide, 31-24, at Memorial Stadium.

With the contest tied, 24-24, following an early fourth-quarter touchdown by Tony Nathan, back-up quarterback Randy Garcia replaced Tom Sorley and drove the Huskers 80 yards for the winning score. Rick Berns' touchdown from one yard out gave the Huskers a 31-24 advantage with 7:12 remaining in the game.

Alabama's comeback chances ended with Jim Pillen intercepting two Jeff Rutledge passes to end Alabama drives in Husker territory in the final five minutes of the contest.

Huskers Beat No. 1 Oklahoma in Thriller

► Nebraska 17, Oklahoma 14 (Nov. 11, 1978)

Coach Tom Osborne picked up his first win over Oklahoma as the fourth-ranked Huskers defeated the No. 1 Sooners, 17-14, at Memorial Stadium.

The Huskers recovered six Sooner fumbles, including a Billy Sims mishandle on the Nebraska 3-yard line that Jim Pillen recovered with 3:27 remaining in the game to seal the upset win. It was the second time in as many possessions that Sims fumbled deep in Nebraska territory.

A field goal by Billy Todd with 11:51 left put the Huskers ahead 17-14. Rick Berns, who rushed for 113 yards and one touchdown, scored on a five-yard run in the second quarter, and I.M. Hipp scored on an eight-yard scamper in the third to provide the scoring for the Huskers.

Miraculous Catch Leads Huskers to Win

► Nebraska 45, Missouri 38, OT (Nov. 8, 1997)

A last-play miracle helped lead the Huskers to a win in the first overtime game in school history, as NU defeated Missouri, 45-38, in Columbia.

Trailing 38-31 with no timeouts, 1:02 left in regulation and 67 yards from a chance to force overtime, quarterback Scott Frost moved the Huskers down the field. On third down from the Missouri 12-yard line, Frost fired a pass that bounced out of wingback Shevin Wiggins' hands, deflected off Wiggins' foot past two Missouri defenders and was scooped up before it hit the ground by a diving Matt Davison as time expired.

In the overtime, the Huskers scored in three plays to take a 45-38 advantage. The Husker defense stuffed quarterback Corby Jones to end the game.

Sea of Red Invades Notre Dame Stadium

► Nebraska 27, Notre Dame 24, OT (Sept. 9, 2000)

The first regular-season meeting in more than 50 years of two of college football's most storied programs produced a game that Nebraska fans won't soon forget. Nearly 30,000 red-clad Husker fans made the migration east on Interstate 80 to South Bend and provided the visitor with unprecedented vocal support in the home of the Fighting Irish.

Nebraska jumped to a 21-7 advantage midway through the third quarter, but Notre Dame scored on a pair of long returns to forge a 21-21 tie and force an overtime session. The Blackshirt defense held Notre Dame to a field goal on its possession and quarterback Eric Crouch scored his third touchdown of the afternoon to send the throng of Husker fans home happy with a 27-24 victory.

Huskers Make Big Comeback in Big Ten Home Debut

► Nebraska 34, Ohio State 27 (Oct. 8, 2011)

Darkness had long since fallen, and the rain was falling steadily in Memorial Stadium in the Huskers' first-ever Big Ten home game. A hush had also fallen over the more than 85,000 strong after visiting Ohio State went up 27-6 early in the third quarter.

Then Lavonte David, Taylor Martinez and Rex Burkhead combined for second-half heroics to ignite the largest comeback in school history. David started the surge by causing and recovering a fumble to set up a Martinez touchdown. Martinez connected with Quincy Enunwa on a touchdown pass to cut the lead to 27-20 late in the third quarter.

Burkhead then sent the Memorial Stadium crowd into a frenzy with a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns to cap the biggest comeback in school history with a 34-27 victory and the Huskers' first-ever Big Ten Conference victory.

Nebraska's Most Memorable Bowl Games

1941 Rose Bowl

► Stanford 21, Nebraska 13 (Jan. 1, 1941)

Nebraska headed west for the first bowl game in school history, battling No. 2 Stanford in the Rose Bowl. The Huskers fell 21-13 in front of 92,000 fans, the sixth-largest crowd ever to see a Nebraska football game.

It was the Huskers' first game in California and marked only the third time a Big Six team advanced to a bowl game. A mass following of Husker fans, as well as the players, traveled by train to see the spectacle.

Stanford's "T-formation" offensive style kept the Huskers unbalanced in the second half, as the Indians overcame 7-0 and 13-7 deficits. Nebraska scored first on a two-yard run by back Vike Francis. After the Indians tied the game, Allen Zikmund scored on a 33-yard pass from Herm Rohrig. Stanford took a 14-13 lead on a Hugh Gallarneau 41-yard touchdown catch. The Indians added a score in the third on a Pete Kmetovic punt return. For playing in the contest, the Huskers received $140,916.

two-yard run to give NU a commanding 28-0 lead.

"I think Nebraska is one of the greatest, if not the greatest, college football team I've ever seen," Alabama Coach Bear Bryant said. "We were just soundly beaten by a better football team."

Alabama opened the game with a drive that ended when Joe Blahak intercepted a Terry Davis pass in the end zone. The Tide finally scored on a Davis three-yard run in the third quarter. Davis was knocked out of the game by the Husker defense in the fourth quarter.

For Devaney, the win marked his only triumph over Bryant in three tries. The Tide had defeated Nebraska 39-28 in the 1966 Orange Bowl and 34-7 in the 1967 Sugar Bowl.

1971 Orange Bowl

► Nebraska 17, Louisiana State 12 (Jan. 1, 1971)

The Huskers earned their first national title in school history with a heart-stopping 17-12 win over Louisiana State on Jan. 1, 1971, in the Orange Bowl.

LSU scored on a 31-yard pass from Buddy Lee to Al Coffee to cap a 75-yard drive as time expired in the third to give the Tigers a 12-10 lead heading into the final quarter.

The Huskers responded with a 67-yard, 13-play drive that ended when Tagge snuck in from the 1-yard line with 8:50 remaining in the game. The drive's big play came on a third-down-and-seven at the LSU 20 when Tagge completed a 15-yard pass to Jeff Kinney. Three plays later Tagge scored. On the ensuing possession, the Huskers partially blocked a Tiger punt and had a first down at the LSU 42, but after two first downs, Joe Orduna fumbled on the 12-yard line with 4:09 remaining to give the Tigers a final chance. Any comeback hopes temporarily ended when Willie Harper stole the ball from Bert Jones with 1:20 left. Nebraska lost the ball with 52 seconds remaining, but Bob Terrio intercepted a desperation pass to seal the Huskers' first title.

Nebraska was able to take over the top spot after No. 1 Texas and second-ranked Ohio State lost earlier in the day. Texas was voted No. 1 in the UPI poll, which was decided before the bowl game outcomes.

"The players were very elated that there was another door open," Coach Bob Devaney said. "Even the Pope would have to vote us No. 1."

1973 Orange Bowl

► Nebraska 40, Notre Dame 6 (Jan. 1, 1973)

In their final games as Huskers, Coach Bob Devaney left as a big winner and Johnny Rodgers scored four touchdowns and passed for another as NU beat Notre Dame in the 1973 Orange Bowl 40-6.

On the first play from scrimmage, Devaney threw a wrinkle at the Irish as Rodgers lined up as the I-back. He rushed for 81 yards on 15 carries, caught three passes for 71 yards and threw a 52-yard touchdown pass to Frosty Anderson.

The Huskers held a 20-0 halftime advantage before scoring 20 points in the third quarter to expand the lead to 40-0. Nebraska dominated the game with 560 yards of total offense. Notre Dame finished the game with only 207 yards.

► Miami 31, Nebraska 30 (Jan. 2, 1984)

Instead of playing for a tie and an almost guaranteed national title, the Huskers went for the win, attempting a two-point conversion that failed in the final minute as Miami stunned one of the greatest Husker teams ever, 31-30, at the Orange Bowl on Jan. 2, 1984.

Trailing 31-17 entering the fourth quarter, the Huskers mounted a furious comeback without Heisman Trophy winner Mike Rozier, who left the game in the third quarter with a badly bruised ankle.

Rozier's replacement, Jeff Smith, scored on a one-yard touchdown run with 6:55 left in the game to trim the deficit to 31-24.

On the Huskers' final drive, Turner Gill completed clutch passes to Irving Fryar (29 yards) and Ricky Simmons (19 yards) to advance the Huskers into Hurricane territory. On a fourth-and-eight play from the Miami 24-yard line, Smith took an option pitch from Gill and scampered 24 yards to the end zone.

Trailing 31-30, the Huskers went for a two-point conversion attempt, but Ken Calhoun deflected a Gill pass intended for Smith to end the comeback threat.

"This was a championship game and (Osborne) went after it like a champion," Miami Coach Howard Schnellenberger said.

Nebraska trailed fourth-ranked Miami by 17 points in the first half before pulling within three at halftime.

1972 Orange Bowl

► Nebraska 38, Alabama 6 (Jan. 1, 1972)

In a battle between the nation's top two teams, the Huskers annihilated the Crimson Tide, 38-6, on Jan. 1, 1972, and earned their second consecutive Orange Bowl victory and first unanimous national title.

Nebraska scored two touchdowns in the final 2:01 of the first quarter to blow the game open. Jeff Kinney scored on a two-yard touchdown run before Johnny Rodgers returned a punt 77 yards for a score to give the Huskers a 14-0 lead at the end of the first quarter.

The Husker onslaught continued early in the second quarter when Jerry Tagge scored on a one-yard quarterback sneak. Less than four minutes later, Gary Dixon scored on a

1994 Orange Bowl

► Florida State 18, Nebraska 16 (Jan. 1, 1994)

In a wild last-minute ending, the top-ranked Huskers finished just shy of claiming Coach Tom Osborne's first national title in the Orange Bowl, losing to No. 2 Florida State, 18-16.

After Scott Bentley kicked a 22-yard field goal with 21 seconds remaining, the Huskers returned the Florida State kickoff to the NU 45 with 15 seconds left. Tommie Frazier fired a second-down pass to Trumane Bell who raced 29 yards to the FSU 28-yard line. Bell was tackled and called timeout with one second remaining; however, the clock expired and Florida State fans and players stormed the field to celebrate a then-premature national championship. One second was put back on the clock, but Byron Bennett's 45-yard field goal attempt was wide left.

1995 Federal Express Orange Bowl

► Nebraska 24, Miami 17 (Jan. 1, 1995)

After suffering three Orange Bowl defeats to Miami in the previous 10 years, the Huskers enacted big-time revenge against the Hurricanes in a 24-17 come-from-behind national championship win on Jan. 1, 1995.

Entering the game as the nation's top-ranked team, the Huskers fell behind No. 3 Miami, 10-0, after the first quarter. Nebraska finally scored on a 19-yard pass from quarterback Brook Berringer to tight end Mark Gilman to pull within 10-7 with 7:24 left before halftime.

Miami increased the lead to 10 points in the third when Jonathan Harris scored on a 44-yard pass from Frank Costa.

The Huskers pulled within 17-9 when Dwayne Harris drilled Costa in the Hurricane end zone for a safety.

Nebraska battled back to tie the game at 17 with a Cory Schlesinger 15-yard touchdown run and a completed two-point conversion pass from Tommie Frazier to Eric Alford.

On the ensuing possession, Nebraska started its drive to the national title at its own 42 with 6:28 left in the game. On a key third-and-four play, Frazier scrambled 25 yards to the Miami 27. Three plays later, Schlesinger rumbled 14 yards up the middle for the game-winning touchdown.

"I don't feel any different or any more vindicated than when we played here last year," Osborne said.

The Huskers lost 18-16 to Florida State in the Orange Bowl with a shot at the national title the year before.

1996 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl

► Nebraska 62, Florida 24 (Jan. 2, 1996)

In what was supposed to be a battle of the best two teams in college football, the Huskers hammered Florida, 62-24, to win their second consecutive national title.

Entering the contest, the Huskers and Gators were the nation's only unbeaten teams.

Florida jumped out to a 10-6 advantage after the first quarter, but in the second, the Huskers, who had the nation's best offensive attack, came alive.

Nebraska scored 29 points in the 15-minute frame. Thirty-two seconds into the quarter, Lawrence Phillips began the scoring barrage with a 42-yard run.

The Husker defense contributed to the 29-point outburst on two occasions. Jamel Williams sacked All-America quarterback Danny Wuerffel for a safety and Michael Booker returned an errant Wuerffel pass 42 yards for a touchdown. Kris Brown added two field goals and Ahman Green scored on a one-yard run to highlight the scoring explosion.

In the third quarter, Tommie Frazier scampered 35 yards for a touchdown and had a highlight reel 75-yard run where he escaped the grasp of eight would-be tacklers.

Phillips scored on a 15-yard run in the fourth, and Brook Berringer scored on a one-yard run to complete the 62-point offensive effort and deliver the Huskers their second straight national title.

1998 FedEx Orange Bowl

► Nebraska 42, Tennessee 17 (Jan. 2, 1998)

In Tom Osborne's finale, the Huskers manhandled No. 3 Tennessee, 42-17, and earned a share of the national title. For the third time in four seasons, Nebraska earned a piece of the national championship.

Although Michigan had defeated Washington State in the Rose Bowl a day earlier, the Huskers still had a chance to get a share of the national title.

The Huskers drew first blood on a one-yard run by Ahman Green late in the first quarter. After Green's score, Nebraska never trailed the Volunteers.

Leading 14-3 at halftime, the Huskers turned things up by scoring 21 points in the third quarter. Quarterback Scott Frost scored on a one-yard carry and six minutes later, he scored from 11 yards out putting the Huskers ahead 28-3. Tennessee scored its first touchdown of the game to trim the lead to 28-9, before Green scored his second touchdown of the game on a 22-yard run.

Green finished the game with an Orange Bowl record 206 yards on 29 carries.

In the fourth, Frost added his third touchdown of the game on a nine-yard option keeper with 4:24 remaining.

Following the game at the team hotel, the Huskers were informed at 2:30 a.m. they had moved from second to first in the coaches poll and earned a share of the national title with Michigan, who finished first in the Associated Press poll. Nebraska edged the Wolverines by four points in the coaches poll to earn its third national title in four seasons and sent Osborne out as a national champion.

Nebraska's Heisman Trophy History

Mike Rozier
I-Back (1983)

The greatest running back in Nebraska history, Mike Rozier ran away with the 1983 Heisman Trophy. After finishing 10th in Heisman voting as a junior, Rozier brought home the award as a senior by setting a school record with 2,148 yards on 275 carries and a school-record 29 touchdowns.

Rozier averaged 179 yards per game, while tying an NCAA record by reeling off 11 straight 100-yard performances, including a career-best 285 yards on 31 carries against Kansas on Nov. 12, 1983. Rozier's effort against the Jayhawks was one of seven 200-yard games in his career.

Rozier helped the Huskers to the national title game in the 1984 Orange Bowl, losing to Miami, 31-30. Despite scoring 49 regular-season rushing touchdowns in his career, Rozier never ran for a score in three Nebraska bowl games. However, he did throw a 25-yard pass to Anthony Steels in the Huskers' 22-15 loss to national champion Clemson in the 1982 Orange Bowl and he hauled in an 11-yard touchdown reception from Turner Gill in NU's 21-20 win over LSU in the 1983 Orange Bowl.

The No. 1 pick of the USFL's Pittsburgh Maulers in the 1984 draft, Rozier was also the No. 1 pick of the Houston Oilers in the supplemental phase of the 1984 NFL Draft.

He was voted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2006.

Johnny Rodgers Wingback (1972)

Johnny "The Jet" Rodgers helped the Huskers win the first two national titles in school history in 1970 and 1971, before becoming Nebraska's first Heisman winner in 1972.

Rodgers owns Nebraska records for receptions (143) and receiving yardage (2,479) to go along with his 26 career touchdown catches.

A two-time All-American as a wingback, Rodgers was one of the top punt returners in college football history, racing to 1,515 career punt return yards and seven regular-season touchdowns. He added 847 yards and one score as a kickoff returner, and 745 career rushing yards with 11 touchdowns.

After winning his Heisman Trophy, Rodgers put his all-around game on display in a 40-6 win over Notre Dame in the 1973 Orange Bowl. Rodgers had a hand in all five of Nebraska's touchdowns against the Fighting Irish, rushing for three touchdowns, while adding one touchdown reception. He pitched in a 52-yard pass to Frosty Anderson for another score.

Rodgers was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2000.

Eric Crouch

Quarterback (2001)

Eric Crouch became Nebraska's third Heisman Trophy winner by earning a spot as one of the greatest rushing quarterbacks in college football history.

Nebraska's career total-offense leader from 2001 until Taylor Martinez surpassed the mark in 2012, Crouch's 7,915 yards included an NU career quarterback rushing record 3,434 yards in his four years as a starter. The first player in school history to lead the team in total offense four straight years, Crouch also passed for 4,481 yards to rank sixth in NU history.

As a senior, Crouch struck for a then-school record 2,625 total-offense yards, with 1,115 yards rushing and 1,510 yards passing, leading NU to the national title game in the 2002 Rose Bowl.

Crouch became just the third quarterback in NCAA history to rush for 3,000 yards and pass for 4,000 yards in his career. He also eclipsed the NCAA record for rushing touchdowns by a quarterback with 59, shattering fellow Heisman winner Mike Rozier's previous school record of 49 rushing touchdowns.

Crouch finished his career 35-7 as a starter, accounting for 88 total-offense touchdowns. In a win over California as a sophomore in 1999, Crouch tied an NCAA record by throwing for a touchdown, rushing for a touchdown and catching a touchdown pass in the same game.

Tommie Frazier won the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award in 1995, while finishing second in Heisman Trophy balloting. Frazier led the Huskers to back-to-back national titles in 1994 and 1995. Frazier was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2013.

All-Century Team

Nebraska's run of success in the 1990s capped a century of conference and national championships, award-winning players and Hall of Fame coaches in the Husker football program.

Hundreds of great players called Lincoln home in the 20th century, making the selection of a Husker All-Century team a difficult task. Nebraska fans did their best to identify the best of the best from the 1999 football season through April of 2000. The team was selected through an on-line poll at Huskers.com and nearly 10,000 Husker fans took part in the process.

The team is dominated by players from the Huskers' five national championship squads. Linebacker Tom Novak, Nebraska's only four-time all-conference selection, was the lone player chosen who played before the Devaney era. The overall top vote getter was Johnny Rodgers, who received a total of 14,467 votes at two positions (receiver and kick returner). The 1972 Heisman Trophy winner is joined by a star-studded offensive unit that features I-backs Mike Rozier and Roger Craig, fullbacks Joel Makovicka and Tom Rathman, wingback Irving Fryar and tight end Junior Miller. The offense is guided by quarterback Tommie Frazier, who led the Huskers to back-to-back national championships in 1994 and 1995. Frazier won the Johnny Unitas Award as the nation's top quarterback as a senior and had a career record of 33-3 as Nebraska's starting QB. The offensive line features five Outland Trophy winners, including two-time recipient Dave Rimington. Fellow Outland winners Will Shields, Aaron Taylor, Zach Wiegert and Dean Steinkuhler, along with All-American Bob Newton, join Rimington on the offensive front. Wiegert was the top vote-getter on offense, with nearly 8,000 votes.

The defense is led by a talent-laden front line, all of whom were first-round NFL Draft picks. Defensive tackles Jason Peter and Neil Smith and middle guard Rich Glover comprise the interior of the all-time Husker defense while pass rushing specialists Grant Wistrom, Trev Alberts and Broderick Thomas man the outside positions of the defensive line. A pair of run-stoppers join Novak on the linebacker corps, as Marc Munford and Ed Stewart were selected by Husker fans. Munford led Nebraska in tackles for three consecutive seasons (1984-86), while Stewart was a finalist for the Butkus Award in 1994. The secondary is made up of players from the 1990s, including 1999 All-Americans Mike Brown and Ralph Brown, the top vote getters at safety and cornerback, respectively. The duo is joined by cornerback Michael Booker and rover Mike Minter, a pair of defensive standouts on Nebraska's 1994 and 1995 national title teams. Wistrom was the top vote getter among defensive players with almost 7,000 votes cast.

Kris Brown was chosen as the starting kicker after he set the school record with 388 points from 1995 to 1998. Jesse Kosch earned the nod as NU's top punter, and the final member of the team is kick returner Tyrone Hughes.

College and Pro Football Hall of Famer Bob Brown became just the second Husker in history to have his number (64) retired. Brown, an All-America guard for Nebraska in 1963, had his jersey retired during the Colorado game in 2004.

Novak, Brown Honored with Retired Numbers

Following the 1949 season, the N Club voted to retire jersey No. 60 in honor of Tom "Train Wreck" Novak's stellar career with the Cornhuskers. Novak, the first Nebraska player to earn this honor, had been a four-time All-Big Seven choice and a 1949 All-American.

For 55 years, Novak was the only NU player to have the distinction of a retired number. In 2004, that finally changed as College and Pro Football Hall of Famer Bob Brown's No. 64 joined Novak's hallowed No. 60 among the permanently retired numbers at Nebraska. Brown, whose jersey retirement ceremony occurred during NU's game with Colorado in 2004, became the 16th player in Husker history to have his jersey retired.

All major national award winners at Nebraska automatically have their jerseys retired, but their numbers will still be available to active Huskers.

Nebraska's group of 17 players with retired jerseys certainly ranks among the most in the nation. Huskers who have earned the distinction of jersey retirement include three Heisman Trophy winners (Johnny Rodgers, Mike Rozier, Eric Crouch), eight Outland Trophy winners with nine awards (Larry Jacobson, Rich Glover, Dave Rimington (2), Dean Steinkuhler, Will Shields, Zach Wiegert, Aaron Taylor, Ndamukong Suh), five Lombardi Award winners (Rich Glover, Dave Rimington, Dean Steinkuhler, Grant Wistrom, Ndamukong Suh), one Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award winner (Tommie Frazier), one Davey O'Brien Award winner (Eric Crouch), one Butkus Award winner (Trev Alberts), Rimington Trophy winner (Dominic Raiola), one Chuck Bednarik Award winner (Ndamukong Suh) and one Bronko Nagurski Trophy winner (Ndamukong Suh).

Eric Crouch

Quarterback | 1998-2001
Omaha, Neb.

- ▶ 2001 Heisman Trophy
- ▶ 2001 Walter Camp Player of the Year
- ▶ 2001 Davey O'Brien Quarterback Award

In his final year as one of the best option quarterbacks in college football history, Eric Crouch won three major national awards, including the Heisman Trophy, Walter Camp Player-of-the-Year award and the Davey O'Brien quarterback award.

Crouch was one of a select few quarterbacks in NCAA history to rush for 3,000 yards and pass for 4,000 yards in a career, while joining a distinguished group of quarterbacks in NCAA history to rush and pass for 1,000 yards in the same season in 2001.

The Millard North graduate set the NCAA record for career rushing touchdowns by a quarterback with 59, including 16 or more in each of his three full seasons as the Huskers' starter. Crouch accounted for a school-record 88 total offense touchdowns in his Nebraska career, with 25 in his Heisman Trophy campaign. He shattered Nebraska's previous total offense record, finishing his career with 7,915 yards and a then-Big 12 record for rushing yards by a quarterback with 3,434 yards. He held NU's total offense mark until 2012, when Taylor Martinez surpassed Crouch's total.

In addition to the three major awards Crouch earned as a senior, he was also named national player of the year by The Sporting News and ABC among others. His highlight-reel career was capped by two signature plays during his senior year. Crouch eluded nearly every Missouri defender on a school-record 95-yard touchdown scramble in a Nebraska victory in Columbia. A month later he capped the Huskers' 20-10 win in a Big 12 showdown against Oklahoma with a 63-yard touchdown reception on a throwback pass from Mike Stuntz.

Crouch led Nebraska to the Bowl Championship Series national title game in the 2002 Rose Bowl against Miami. Against the Hurricanes, the All-American capped his career with 114 yards rushing on 22 carries to lead all rushers, while adding 62 yards on five completions through the air. Crouch played the bowl game with his degree in hand after graduating in December 2001. Crouch's jersey was retired during the fall of 2002.

The consummate leader, Crouch was one of five team captains as a senior, the first quarterback to earn the honor in a decade. He was drafted as a wide receiver in the third round of the 2002 NFL Draft by the St. Louis Rams with the 95th overall pick.

Crouch played one season for the Hamburg Sea Devils in NFL Europe, before playing the 2006 and 2007 seasons with the Toronto Argonauts in the CFL. He joined the Omaha Nighthawks prior to the 2011 season.

He lives in Omaha and also works in private business, while also serving as a college football analyst for the Big Ten Network.

Tommie Frazier

Quarterback | 1992-95
Bradenton, Fla.

- ▶ 1995 Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award

Tommie Frazier cemented his place in Nebraska football history by producing his best performances in Nebraska's greatest games. A four-year starter who regularly rose to the occasion, Frazier led the Huskers to back-to-back national titles in 1994 and 1995 and captured most valuable player honors in both championship games.

In 2013, he became the 16th Husker player in history to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

As a junior, Frazier returned from a seven-game absence caused by a blood clot to direct the Huskers to a come-from-behind win over Miami in the FedEx Orange Bowl. He engineered two touchdown drives in the fourth quarter to give Nebraska a 24-17 victory and its first national title in 23 years. The following season, Frazier rushed 16 times for an NCAA quarterback bowl-record 199 yards and two scores to lead NU to its second national championship in a 62-24 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl rout of No. 2 Florida. Frazier, who also completed 6-of-14 passes for 105 yards and a touchdown, helped the Husker offense establish NCAA bowl records for most rushing yards (524) and most points in a quarter (29 in the second, since broken by NU in the 2000 Alamo Bowl, 31 in the second).

Frazier ended his senior season ranked first on the team in total offense with 1,996 yards (178.7 per game), third in scoring with 7.8 points per game and second in rushing with 604 yards on 97 attempts. He also finished second in the Big Eight Conference in passing efficiency at 156.14, a figure that would have ranked sixth nationally if he had produced the required 15 attempts per game.

So apparent was Frazier's dominance in 1995 that eight organizations recognized him as a first-team All-American, including the AP, UPI, Walter Camp, Football Writers Association of America, American Football Quarterly, College Sports, Football Foundation and AFCA. Frazier became the first Husker ever to win the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, finished second in the Heisman Trophy voting, received the UPI's Player-of-the-Year and The Sporting News Offensive Player-of-the-Year awards and was a finalist for the Davey O'Brien, Maxwell and the Walter Camp Player-of-the-Year awards.

Frazier finished his career with a Big Eight-record 33-3 overall mark as a starter. He ranks No. 4 in school history with 43 passing touchdowns, while ranking fourth with 5,476 total offense yards and 79 touchdowns.

One of the 10 greatest college football players of the century according to Sport magazine, Frazier's No. 15 jersey was retired in the fall of 1996. Frazier was the head football coach at Doane College in Crete, Neb., in 2005 and 2006, and is now working in private business based out of Omaha.

Johnny Rodgers

Wingback | 1970-72
Omaha, Neb.

- ▶ 1972 Heisman Trophy
- ▶ 1972 Walter Camp Player of the Year

20

Johnny Rodgers, the 1972 Heisman Trophy winner, came to the University of Nebraska from Omaha Tech and became one of the most exciting players to ever play for the Huskers.

Earning All-Big Eight honors as a sophomore slotback and wide receiver in 1970, Rodgers blossomed as a national star in 1971 to help lead Nebraska to its second consecutive national championship.

It was Rodgers' sensational 72-yard punt return for the first touchdown that ignited the Huskers' thrilling 35-31 victory over Oklahoma in the "Game of the Century" in 1971. His 77-yard punt return touchdown against Alabama helped trigger the 38-6 Orange Bowl victory that sewed up Nebraska's second national title.

Capping a tremendous career with a fantastic final performance, Rodgers devastated Notre Dame in the 1973 Orange Bowl. In the most sensational finale ever for a Heisman winner, Rodgers moved into the I-back spot and blitzed the Irish with four touchdowns, runs of eight, four and five yards, and a 50-yard pass from quarterback Dave Humm. Rodgers passed for another, a 52-yard strike to Frosty Anderson. Rodgers' point total set an Orange Bowl record.

The top pass receiver and kick return man in Big Eight history, Rodgers owns 41 school records and seven conference records. He was named ABC/Chevrolet Offensive Player of the Year in 1972 and received a $5,000 scholarship. His jersey was retired at Nebraska following the 1972 season.

Few players in NCAA history have shown Rodgers' versatility. During his three-year career, in which Nebraska posted a 32-2-2 record, Rodgers gained a then-NCAA-record 5,487 all-purpose yards with a total of 6,059 including bowl games. His 13.8 career average was a national record for yards per touch. Rodgers was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame on Dec. 14, 2000, in New York.

Rodgers, who held NCAA records for punt return touchdowns in a career (seven) and most career kick return touchdowns (nine) for three decades, ranks as Nebraska's all-time leading pass receiver with 143 catches for 2,479 yards, and ranks seventh in points with 264 on 44 touchdowns in his career. His school records include most career all-purpose yards (5,586), most touchdown receptions in a season (11) and career (25) and most receiving yards in a career (2,479).

Rodgers lives in Omaha and is involved in community and public relations. The Johnny "The Jet" Rodgers National College Football Return Specialist Award was presented for the first time at a banquet in Omaha in April of 2012.

Mike Rozier

I-Back | 1981-83
Camden, N.J.

- ▶ 1983 Heisman Trophy
- ▶ 1983 Maxwell Award
- ▶ 1983 Walter Camp Player of the Year

Mike Rozier became Nebraska's second Heisman winner in 1983, when he rushed for a school-record 2,148 yards and 29 touchdowns. Rozier's 4,780 rushing yards are tops on Nebraska and Big Eight Conference career charts and his 52 touchdowns trail only fellow Heisman winner Eric Crouch. Rozier's jersey was retired at Nebraska following his Heisman Trophy season in 1983.

Rozier rewrote the Nebraska rushing and scoring record book, along with making a considerable dent in the Big Eight and NCAA books during a phenomenal senior season. Rozier was a first-round selection by both the USFL (first pick overall) and the NFL (second pick overall in the supplemental draft) after setting Nebraska's rushing records for attempts in a season (273) and career (668) and a then-school record for yards in a game (285 vs. Kansas). Rozier set Big Eight marks for yards per carry in a season (7.81) and career (7.16) and yards gained in four consecutive games (929 in his last four). He set the Nebraska and Big Eight marks with 29 touchdowns and 174 points in 1983, while his 49 career rushing touchdowns and 312 points trail only fellow Heisman winner Eric Crouch's 59 rushing touchdowns and 368 career points among position players in the Husker record book. All 29 of Rozier's touchdowns in 1983 came on the ground, setting an NCAA record, in addition to tying the NCAA record for total touchdowns.

His 11 100-yard games in 1983 tied yet another NCAA record, and his 1983 total of 2,148 yards is one of the top 10 marks in NCAA history. He was the second rusher in NCAA history to rush for 2,000 yards in a season. Rozier was Nebraska's first-ever NCAA rushing champion (179.0 yards per game) and its second national scoring leader (Bobby Reynolds was the first in 1950) with an average of 14.5 points per game. His career rushing total of 4,780 yards ranks among the top 10 in NCAA history. He also ranks 10th all time at Nebraska in total offense.

Rozier set another Husker record with 2,486 all-purpose yards in 1983, topping Johnny Rodgers' 1972 total of 2,011. Named All-Big Eight as a sophomore in 1981, Rozier began to dominate as a junior when senior Roger Craig was hampered by ankle injuries. He gained a then-Husker record 1,689 rushing yards in 1982 to vault himself into the national spotlight, earning All-America and Big Eight Player-of-the-Year honors, and finishing 10th in the Heisman voting. The New Jersey native won the conference player-of-the-week award six times in his final two seasons.

Rozier spent eight years in professional football, including seven seasons in the NFL. He spent six seasons with the Houston Oilers from 1985 to 1990, before closing his career with the Atlanta Falcons in 1990 and 1991. He began his pro career with the Pittsburgh Maulers in the USFL in 1984, and he played with the USFL's Jacksonville Bulls in 1985. He now lives in Camden, N.J.

Husker Retired Jerseys

Trev Alberts

Outside Linebacker | 1990-93
Cedar Falls, Iowa

► 1993 Butkus Award

One of the most decorated defensive players in Husker history, Trev Alberts became Nebraska's first Butkus Award winner in 1993, capping one of the finest seasons in history by an NU defensive player.

As a senior co-captain, the Cedar Falls, Iowa, native led the Huskers to an undefeated regular season and an Orange Bowl appearance against Florida State. The Big Eight defensive MVP, Alberts led the Huskers with 96 tackles, including 47 solo stops, and tied a school record with 15 sacks for 88 yards. He also had 21 tackles for 99 yards lost, three fumbles caused, one pass breakup and 38 quarterback hurries, all of which were team highs. He recorded eight double-figure tackle games and had at least one sack in nine games. In the final regular-season game, he dislocated his elbow, but returned to play in the Orange Bowl, where he had six tackles, including three sacks for 29 yards lost, and three quarterback hurries, earning defensive MVP honors in the Huskers' 18-16 loss to Florida State.

For his performance, Alberts was named a first-team All-American by every major publication and was named the Football News National Defensive Player of the Year, Big Eight Defensive Player of the Year and the Big Eight Male Athlete of the Year. His No. 34 jersey was retired at the 1994 Spring Game.

In 1992, Alberts totaled 73 tackles, including 11 tackles for loss, as he earned first-team All-Big Eight and second-team All-America honors. As a freshman in 1990, he was the Big Eight Defensive Newcomer of the Year, making 26 tackles, including four sacks.

Alberts set then-school records for tackles for loss with 45 (for 242 yards lost) and sacks with 29.5 (for 196 yards lost). He also had five fumbles caused, five recovered fumbles, six pass breakups and 69 quarterback hurries in his Husker career. His 248 tackles rank 11th on Nebraska's all-time chart.

Off the field, Alberts was equally decorated, earning the NCAA's highest honor, The Today's Top Six Award, in 1993. A three-time academic All-Big Eight honoree, Alberts earned postgraduate scholarships from the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame, NACDA Disney, the NCAA and the Big Eight. A CoSIDA Academic All-American in 1993, he graduated from Nebraska before his senior season.

Alberts was the fifth pick in the 1994 NFL Draft by Indianapolis and played for the Colts until 1996. He is currently Nebraska-Omaha's athletic director.

Dave Rimington

Center | 1979-82
Omaha, Neb.

► 1981 and 1982 Outland Trophy
► 1982 Lombardi Award

50

The only player ever to win the Outland Trophy in consecutive years (1981 and 1982), Dave Rimington is one of the most decorated offensive linemen in college football history.

The 6-foot-3, 290-pound center was a two-time first-team All-American in 1981 and 1982 and is one of just 16 Huskers to have his jersey retired. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1997, while his No. 50 jersey was retired by Nebraska in 1982.

A three-time first-team All-Big Eight choice from 1980 to 1982, Rimington was named the Big Eight Offensive Player of the Year in 1981, marking the only time in conference history that a lineman has earned the prestigious honor. During his career, the Omaha South grad helped the Huskers win back-to-back Big Eight titles in 1981 and 1982, as Nebraska led the nation in rushing during his senior season.

A four-year letterman and three-year starter, Rimington was named team captain and capped his senior season by winning the 1982 Lombardi Award. Also, a two-time first-team academic All-

American, Rimington was honored by the NCAA as a Top-Five Student-Athlete and was selected as a National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete in 1982.

He was also a three-time first-team academic All-Big Eight choice from 1980 to 1982.

Most recently, Rimington became the first Nebraska student-athlete in history to be inducted into the CoSIDA Academic All-America Hall of Fame. Rimington claimed that distinguished honor in July of 2004.

A first-round draft choice of the Cincinnati Bengals in 1983, Rimington played five seasons with the Bengals, and played two seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles before retiring in 1989.

Rimington is the president of the Boomer Esiason Foundation and resides in New York. In 2000, the first Rimington Award sponsored by the Boomer Esiason Foundation to honor college football's center of the year was presented to Nebraska center Dominic Raiola, whose jersey No. 54 was retired in 2002. The annual award is presented in Lincoln.

Husker Retired Jerseys

Dominic Raiola

Center | 1998-2000
Honolulu, Hawaii

► 2000 Dave Rimington Trophy

Dominic Raiola continued Nebraska's long line of outstanding centers by capping his three-year career with the first-ever Dave Rimington Award in 2000. A two-year starter for the Big Red, the 6-foot-2, 300-pounder from Honolulu was a two-time All-Big 12 selection and earned consensus first-team All-America honors in his final season as a Husker. Raiola's No. 54 jersey was retired in the fall of 2002.

A finalist for the Lombardi Award and Outland Trophy, Raiola earned unanimous All-Big 12 honors as a junior in 2000. He helped the 2000 Huskers to an NCAA rushing title (349.0 yards per game) and top-six rankings in both total offense (459.0 ypg, sixth) and scoring offense (41.5 points per game, fourth). He totaled 145 pancakes (knock-down blocks) as a junior, including a career-high 18 against Kansas, when he was selected as the ABC/Chevrolet Player of the Game. He also fueled Nebraska's 476-yard rushing effort in his final collegiate game in the 2000 Alamo Bowl win over Northwestern.

In 1999, Raiola became just the fifth Husker offensive lineman and third center to earn first-team all-conference honors as a sophomore, and the first Husker center to be so honored as a sophomore since Rimington in 1980. He led the team with 140 pancakes, and had seven double-figure performances on the season. He was selected to the Sports Illustrated All-Bowl Team after helping NU rush for 321 yards in the 2000 Fiesta Bowl win over Tennessee.

After redshirting in 1997, Raiola played in every game and started twice as a redshirt freshman. He was also the team's deep snapper on special teams and recorded four tackles (one solo) in 12 regular-season games and two more in the Holiday Bowl. Although he started only one regular-season game (the season finale against Colorado) and the Holiday Bowl against Arizona, Raiola finished fourth in pancakes with 76 and had four double-figure pancake games. He was the first Husker offensive lineman to start a game as a freshman since Rob Zatechka started once in 1991.

A two-time academic All-Big 12 selection, Raiola bypassed his senior year and was selected by the Detroit Lions in the second round of the 2001 NFL Draft, the 50th pick overall, and has played the past 12 seasons with the club, including 172 starts in 188 career games. He had a streak of more than 100 consecutive starts that ended in 2008, but he has since started 80 straight games over the past five seasons. He completed his 13th NFL season with the Lions in 2013. He is a teammate of fellow Nebraska Football Hall of Famer and retired jersey honoree Ndamukong Suh with the Lions.

Tom Novak

Center/Linebacker | 1946-49
Omaha, Neb.

► One of only two permanently retired jerseys in NU history
► NU's only four-time all-conference selection

One of Nebraska's legends during the first half of the 20th century, Tom "Train Wreck" Novak was one of the finest players in Nebraska history.

A two-way player for Nebraska in the late 1940s, Novak is Nebraska's only four-time all-conference selection on the gridiron, earning All-Big Six honors as a fullback/center in 1946 and 1947 before moving to center, where he was a two-time All-Big Seven honoree in 1948 and 1949. In addition, he also was a linebacker, who sparked fear into the hearts of opponents. In 1947, Novak's toughness earned him a spot on Notre Dame's all-opponent team, despite the fact the Huskers fell to the Fighting Irish, 31-0.

More than 60 years after his final game at Nebraska, Novak's name is still prevalent in Husker record books, as he is tied for third on the school's all-time interception list with 11. His five interceptions during the 1948 season remains a school record for linebackers.

An Omaha South High School graduate, Novak earned All-America honors for Nebraska following the 1949 season and later played in the 1949 East-West Shrine Game in Palo Alto, Calif., and the 1950 College Football All-Star Game in Chicago.

Novak's No. 60 was retired following the 1949 season, and was the first Husker to have his jersey number permanently retired in 2004.

He now shares that distinction at Nebraska with College and Pro Football Hall of Famer Bob Brown, who had his No. 64 jersey number permanently retired in 2004.

Novak, who was inducted into the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame in 1972, also was a three-year baseball letterwinner under Coach Tony Sharpe, helping the Huskers win Big Seven titles in 1948 and 1950.

Each year, the Tom Novak Award is presented to the Husker senior football player who "best exemplifies courage and determination despite all odds in the manner of Nebraska All-America center Tom Novak." The award is presented annually at the Outland Trophy Award dinner.

Novak passed away on Nov. 1, 1998.

Husker Retired Jerseys

Bob Brown

Offensive Guard | 1961-63
Cleveland, Ohio

- ▶ One of only two permanently retired jerseys in NU history
- ▶ Pro Football Hall of Fame (2004)
- ▶ College Football Hall of Fame (1993)

A unanimous All-American in 1963, Bob "Boomer" Brown used his massive size for his day and age (6-5, 260 pounds) and his relentless aggressiveness to help turn the Nebraska football program into one of the best in the nation.

Brown led Coach Bob Devaney's second Nebraska team to a 10-1 record and its first-ever Big Eight championship, the Huskers' first conference title since 1940.

Brown also played linebacker for the Huskers and recorded 49 tackles, a pass interception and two fumble recoveries.

Brown's accomplishments as a collegian led to his induction in the College Football Hall of Fame in South Bend, Ind., in 1993.

As a professional player, Brown was one of the most feared offensive tackles in the NFL. In his 10 professional seasons, Brown earned six trips to the Pro Bowl and was named first-team All-NFL seven times.

He was named to the NFL's All-Decade team during the 1960s, and was named the NFL/NFC Offensive Lineman of the Year three times.

Brown was selected by the Philadelphia Eagles with the No. 2 overall pick in the first round of the 1964 NFL Draft. He spent his first five seasons in the NFL with Philadelphia, before spending two seasons with the Los Angeles Rams and three seasons with the Oakland Raiders. He played in 126 career NFL games.

Brown's accomplishments as an NFL great were honored with his induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, in 2004.

Brown is one of just two Huskers to be enshrined in both the College and Pro Football Hall of Fame, joining Guy Chamberlin, an All-America end at Nebraska in 1915.

A graduate of East Technical High School in Cleveland, Ohio, Brown was the first African-American to earn All-America honors at Nebraska, and the first All-American to play for Devaney and the Huskers.

Brown, whose No. 64 jersey joins Tom Novak's No. 60 as the only two numbers permanently retired at Nebraska, is one of 17 Huskers to have his jersey retired. Brown's jersey was retired during the Colorado football game in 2004.

Offensive lineman Kurt Mann from Grand Island, Neb., was the last Nebraska player to wear No. 64.

Aaron Taylor

Offensive Guard | 1994-97
Wichita Falls, Texas

- ▶ 1997 Outland Trophy

The only Husker to earn All-America honors at two positions, Aaron Taylor captured Nebraska's eighth Outland Trophy following the 1997 season.

The seventh Husker to win the Outland, Taylor earned All-America honors at center in 1996 before moving to left guard in 1997. During his career, the Huskers were 49-2 (.961) and won four straight bowl games, including three national titles. His No. 67 was retired in 1998.

As a senior, he led the Huskers to a 13-0 record and the school's third national title in four years, finishing with a then-school record 137 pancake blocks. A co-captain, Taylor helped NU lead the nation in total offense, rushing offense and scoring offense in 1997. A consensus All-American, he was also a semifinalist for the 1997 Lombardi Award.

As a junior, Taylor finished with 113 pancake blocks in helping NU rank fourth nationally in scoring, fifth in rushing and 25th in total offense. He earned first-team All-America honors from Football News, Football

Writers and Walter Camp and was a first-team all-conference pick for the second consecutive year.

After serving as a backup as a freshman, Taylor moved into a starting role in 1995. He helped Nebraska win its second straight national title, aiding NU to a No. 2 national ranking in total offense and a Big Eight and school-record 52.4 points per game, bettering a mark that had stood in the record book since 1983. The Wichita Falls, Texas, native was a third-team All-American from Football News and earned first-team All-Big Eight honors from the AP and Football News. He is one of only six Husker linemen to earn first-team all-conference honors in three straight seasons.

Following his Husker career, he was drafted by the Indianapolis Colts in the seventh round of the 1998 NFL Draft. He played with the Colts and the Chicago Bears during the 1998 season. Taylor resides in Omaha.

Husker Retired Jerseys

Dean Steinkuhler

Offensive Guard | 1981-83
Burr, Neb.

- 1983 Lombardi Award
- 1983 Outland Trophy

Among the top offensive linemen ever to play at Nebraska, Dean Steinkuhler anchored a line that paved the way for the nation's leading rushing offense in 1983 before sweeping the top awards presented to linemen.

As a senior that season, Steinkuhler won both the Lombardi Award, which is presented to the nation's outstanding interior player, and the Outland Trophy, which goes to the top lineman in the country. He helped create holes for Heisman Trophy winner Mike Rozier, who became only the second player in NCAA history to rush for 2,000 yards in a season in 1983.

Steinkuhler's No. 71 jersey, along with Rozier's No. 30 jersey, was retired following the 1983 season, in which the Huskers rushed for an average of 401.7 yards per game, while also leading the nation in scoring, averaging 52.0 points per contest.

Steinkuhler was named to nearly every All-America list in 1983, giving his hometown of Burr (population 110) the distinction of being the smallest town at the time to ever produce a consensus All-American.

As a junior in 1982, Steinkuhler played side-by-side with three All-Big Eight selections (Dave Rimington, Mike Mandelko and Randy Theiss) before earning the honor himself the following year.

Following a stellar senior season, Steinkuhler became the highest-drafted Husker offensive lineman ever, when the Houston Oilers selected him as the second pick in the 1984 NFL Draft.

Steinkuhler played eight seasons with the Houston Oilers before retiring following the 1991 season. Steinkuhler followed fellow Husker Irving Fryar in the draft, marking only the second time in NFL history, and the first since 1967, that the top two players were from the same school.

Steinkuhler now resides in Syracuse, Neb. His son, Baker, was a starter at defensive tackle for the Huskers from 2010 to 2012. His older son, Ty, was also a defensive lineman for Nebraska until graduating in 2008. Ty spent the 2009 NFL season with the New York Jets.

Zach Wiegert

Offensive Tackle | 1991-94
Fremont, Neb.

- 1994 Outland Trophy

The anchor of the 1994 Husker "Pipeline," Zach Wiegert won the Huskers' seventh Outland Trophy, awarded to the nation's top interior lineman, following Nebraska's 1994 national championship season.

A consensus All-American, Wiegert led NU to its 11th NCAA rushing title and first national title since 1971. The Huskers averaged 340 yards per game on the ground as the Fremont, Neb., native led Nebraska with 113 pancake blocks in 1994. He even earned one first-place vote for the Heisman, ending up tied for ninth with 27 points. In addition to winning the Outland, he was a finalist for the Lombardi Award, a consensus All-American, the UPI Lineman of the Year and the Touchdown Club of Columbus Offensive Lineman of the Year. His No. 72 jersey was retired before the 1995 season.

With a perfect 2.0 grade against Kansas in 1994, Wiegert was Nebraska's nominee for Big Eight Offensive Player of the Week, the first time an offensive lineman was nominated for weekly conference honors since 1987, and was also the ABC/Chevrolet Player of the Game against UCLA.

In his 46-game career, Wiegert, a three-year starter at right tackle, gave up just one sack en route to earning All-Big Eight honors in 1992, 1993 and 1994. He became one of only six linemen and 20 overall players in NU history to earn first-team all-conference honors in three consecutive seasons. He earned second-team All-America honors in 1993, helping Nebraska to an undefeated regular season and an Orange Bowl appearance.

He was a second-round draft pick by the St. Louis Rams (38th selection overall) in the 1995 NFL Draft. He played with the Rams for four seasons from 1995 to 1998, and spent four more seasons with the Jacksonville Jaguars from 1999 to 2002. He closed his 12-year NFL career by playing his final four seasons with the Houston Texans from 2003 through 2006. He appeared in 145 career games with 137 NFL starts.

Wiegert returned to Nebraska following his NFL career and is the Midwest representative for Woodbury Corp., a real estate development firm that is participated in the growth of Lincoln's downtown as part of the city's Pinnacle Bank Arena project.

Husker Retired Jerseys

Larry Jacobson

Defensive Tackle | 1969-71
Sioux Falls, S.D.

► 1971 Outland Trophy

A standout on Nebraska's 1970 and 1971 national championship teams, Larry Jacobson became Nebraska's first major award winner, capturing the Outland Trophy following his senior season. Jacobson became the first of eight Huskers to win nine Outland trophies, symbolic of the nation's top interior lineman. Jacobson was also named the Knute Rockne Award winner in 1971, which was given to the nation's outstanding lineman.

Jacobson's No. 75 was retired along with Trev Alberts' No. 34 and Will Shields' No. 75 at the 1994 Spring Game, marking the only time in school history that three jerseys were retired at the same time.

As a senior, Jacobson recorded 73 tackles, including 28 solos, and added 12 tackles for 73 yards lost and an interception on his way to earning All-Big Eight and All-America honors. One of two All-Americans (along with Rich Glover) on the Husker defensive line in 1971, Jacobson helped the Blackshirts to top-five national rankings in rush defense (85.9, second), total defense (202.9, fifth) and scoring defense (8.2, third). Jacobson helped the Huskers to a 13-0 record and a second straight national title. He also was lauded for his efforts in the classroom, earning CoSIDA Academic All-America honors following his senior campaign.

Jacobson broke onto the national scene during his junior season, helping the Huskers to their first national title. The 6-foot-6 inch, 250-pound, Sioux Falls, S.D., native finished with 49 tackles, including 33 solos, nine tackles for 61 yards lost and a team-best three fumble recoveries.

One of three Huskers selected in the first round of the 1972 NFL Draft, Jacobson was the No. 24 overall selection by the New York Giants. He played with the Giants for four seasons before retiring following the 1975 campaign. Jacobson resides in Lincoln.

Will Shields

Lawton, Okla.

► 1992 Outland Trophy

One of a long line of outstanding offensive linemen at Nebraska, Will Shields became the fifth Husker to win the Outland Trophy, capturing the prestigious award following the 1992 season.

A consensus All-American and a Lombardi Award semifinalist as a senior, Shields helped the Huskers win national team rushing titles in three of his four seasons at Nebraska (1989, 1991 and 1992). NU's first scholarship player from the state of Oklahoma, Shields is one of only six Husker linemen to earn all-conference honors for three straight seasons.

Shields' No. 75 was retired at the 1994 Spring Game, along with Butkus Award winner Trev Alberts' No. 34 and the No. 75 jersey of former Outland Trophy winner Larry Jacobson. The ceremony marked the first time that three jerseys were retired at the same time.

As a senior, Shields received votes for Big Eight Offensive Player of the Year and earned All-America honors from Kodak, AP, UPI, Walter Camp and Football News.

During his junior campaign, he was a unanimous selection to the All-Big Eight team and a second-team All-American, helping the Huskers rank first in the conference in rushing offense and total offense.

Shields became the second Nebraska offensive lineman to play as a true freshman in 1989, appearing in nine games. In his second year, Shields became the first sophomore lineman since College Football Hall of Famer Dave Rimington to earn first-team all-conference honors for NU, helping the Huskers lead the Big Eight in scoring, rushing and total offense.

Following his collegiate career, Shields was selected by the Kansas City Chiefs in the third round of the 1993 NFL Draft. He spent 14 seasons as one of the most dominant offensive linemen in the NFL until retiring after the 2006 season. Shields earned a spot in 11 Pro Bowls and started more than 200 straight games in his brilliant professional career.

Shields was also one of the most active volunteers and community leaders in the NFL. He is the co-founder of the Will to Succeed Foundation with his wife, Senia. The foundation was organized to guide, inspire and improve the lives of abused and neglected women and children. For his remarkable work with charitable and community organizations, Shields was named the NFL Man of the Year in 2003.

Shields was chosen for induction into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2011. His son, Shavon, is a two-year starter for the Nebraska men's basketball team.

Husker Retired Jerseys

Rich Glover

Middle Guard | 1970-72
Jersey City, N.J.

► 1972 Lombardi Award

One of the finest defensive players in Nebraska and college football history, Rich Glover anchored the Husker defense during the early 1970s, helping Nebraska capture back-to-back national titles in 1970 and 1971 under Coach Bob Devaney.

A 1995 inductee into the College Football Hall of Fame, Glover was a three-year letterwinner, who earned consensus All-America honors in 1971 and 1972 and finished third in Heisman Trophy voting in 1972. The 6-foot-1, 235-pound middle guard is one of only 11 players in college football history to win both the Lombardi Award, which is given to the nation's top interior lineman, and the Outland Trophy, which is presented to the top lineman in the country, in the same season. He swept the awards in 1972, and his jersey (No. 79) was retired following the 1972 season.

As a senior, Glover earned Big Eight Defensive Player-of-the-Year honors, helping the Huskers to a 9-2-1 record and a 40-6 victory over Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl. He finished the season with 100 tackles, including 52 solos, and nine tackles for 41 yards lost, as the Huskers led the Big Eight in total defense and ranked in the top 10 nationally in total defense, scoring defense and pass defense.

A Jersey City, N.J., native, Glover played an instrumental part in the Huskers' 1971 national championship, earning All-Big Eight and All-America honors as Nebraska won its second straight national title with a 13-0 record. He is best remembered for his performance against Oklahoma in the "Game of the Century" when he made 22 stops in the Huskers' 35-31 victory over the second-ranked Sooners. In 1971, Glover led Nebraska with 92 tackles, including 46 solo stops, and 13 tackles for 73 yards lost. He saw limited action in 1970 as a sophomore, recording 19 tackles and three tackles for 13 yards lost.

Following his collegiate career, he was chosen in the third round (No. 69 overall) of the 1973 NFL Draft by the New York Giants. He played with the Giants for one season before joining the Shreveport Steamers of the World Football League in 1974. He finished his career with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1975 and 1976. Glover served on former Husker Tony Samuel's coaching staff at New Mexico through the 2004 season.

He returned to New Jersey to coach high school football. He has also established the All Access to Life Foundation.

Grant Wistrom

Rush End | 1994-97
Webb City, Mo.

► 1997 Lombardi Award

One of the most feared defenders in school history, Grant Wistrom was the anchor of the Husker defense during one of the most successful eras in college football. During his career, the Huskers compiled a 49-2 record from 1994 to 1997, winning three national titles in that span (1994, 1995 and 1997), becoming only the second program in Division I history to win three national titles in a four-year period.

A two-time first-team All-American, Wistrom became Nebraska's fourth Lombardi Award winner as the nation's top lineman following the 1997 season. Wistrom, who holds the school record for tackles for loss with 58.5 for 260 yards and ranks second with 26.5 sacks, had his No. 98 retired during the 1998 season.

As a senior captain, the 6-5, 255-pound Wistrom finished with 51 tackles, including 8.5 sacks and 17 tackles for loss, leading the Blackshirts in both categories on his way to earning Big 12 Defensive Player-of-the-Year honors. A finalist for the Bronko Nagurski Defensive Player-of-the-Year award, Wistrom helped the Huskers rank fifth nationally in total defense and second nationally against the run. He led Nebraska to a perfect 13-0 record and a share of the national title with Michigan.

In 1996, Wistrom was named the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year, helping NU to top-10 rankings in all four major defensive categories. A first-team All-American and finalist for the Nagurski Award, Wistrom finished third on the team in tackles with 75, while leading the Huskers in both sacks (9.5-48 yards lost) and tackles for loss (20-74).

A third-team All-American as a sophomore, Wistrom recorded 44 stops, including a team-leading 15 tackles for loss, as Nebraska went 12-0 and repeated as national champions. He also had four sacks, earning first-team All-Big Eight honors as NU ranked second nationally against the rush, fourth in points allowed and 13th in total defense. During his freshman campaign, Wistrom made his presence known, earning Big 12 Newcomer-of-the-Year honors in helping the Huskers to their first national title since 1971. He played in all 13 games, recording 36 stops and 4.5 sacks, as one of only two true Husker freshmen to see playing time.

Wistrom was a two-time first-team CoSIDA Academic All-American and became the 13th Husker to win the NCAA's highest honor, the NCAA Top Eight Award, in 1997. He also earned the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame Postgraduate Scholarship following his senior campaign and was the Big 12 Male Athlete of the Year for the 1997-98 season.

A first-round selection (No. 6 overall) by the St. Louis Rams in the 1998 NFL Draft, Wistrom played a reserve role as a rookie before earning a starting position in helping the Rams win the Super Bowl in 2000. He played six seasons in St. Louis from 1998 to 2003, before joining the Seattle Seahawks for the 2004, 2005 and 2006 campaigns. He led the Seahawks to Super Bowl XL, where he recorded a sack. He retired following the 2006 season. Wistrom was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in December of 2009.

Husker Retired Jerseys

Ndamukong Suh

Defensive Tackle | 2005-09
Portland, Ore.

- ▶ 2009 Outland Trophy
- ▶ 2009 Lombardi Award
- ▶ 2009 AP National Player of the Year

One of the most dominant defensive linemen in college football history, Ndamukong Suh earned his automatic jersey retirement from the University of Nebraska by capturing both the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award in 2009.

While Suh became the fourth Husker in history to claim the impressive double, that was just the tip of his 2009 hardware haul. The 6-4, 300-pound defensive tackle from Portland, Ore., also became the first Husker to win both the Bronko Nagurski Trophy and the Chuck Bednarik Award - both presented to the best defensive player in college football. Perhaps even more remarkably, Suh became the first defensive player in history to be named the Associated Press College Player of the Year, dating back to the award's inception in 1998. He was also the first Husker in history to win the AP honor.

The 2009 Big 12 Conference Defensive Player and Defensive Lineman of the Year, Suh was a unanimous first-team All-American and the winner of the Bill Willis Award. Suh, who finished fourth in Heisman Trophy voting in 2009, was also a finalist for the Walter Camp National Player-of-the-Year Award and the Lott Trophy.

As a senior, Suh led the Huskers in tackles for the second straight season, finishing with 85, including 24 tackles for loss. He also notched 12 sacks and an astonishing 26 hurries. He added an NU defensive tackle single-season record with 10 pass breakups, while adding three blocked kicks. His 15 career breakups were also a position record, while his six career blocked kicks ranked second among all players in NU history.

Suh finished his career with 57 tackles for loss to rank second in Husker history, just 1.5 TFL behind College Football Hall of Famer Grant Wistrom. Suh's 24 career sacks rank fourth on the NU charts.

In the 2009 Big 12 Championship Game against Texas, Suh led the Blackshirts with a career-high matching 12 tackles, including seven tackles for loss and a Big 12 title game record 4.5 sacks of Longhorn Heisman Trophy candidate Colt McCoy.

The Huskers finished with a 10-4 campaign in 2009, while the Blackshirts led the nation in both scoring defense and pass efficiency defense.

Following his career at Nebraska, Suh was chosen with the No. 2 overall pick in the 2010 NFL Draft by the Detroit Lions, becoming the 33rd first-round draft pick in Husker history. He was taken the highest of any NU player in the draft since fellow defensive tackle Neil Smith went No. 2 to the Kansas City Chiefs in 1988.

Suh produced an amazing rookie season in the NFL, starting all 16 games for the upstart Lions. He has earned first-team All-Pro honors in 2010 and 2013, and is a three-time Pro Bowl participant. He was also named the NFL Rookie Defensive Player of the Year by the AP in 2010.

He has started 61 games in his four NFL seasons, totaling 187 tackles, including 135 solos. He has also notched 27.5 sacks and broke up 12 passes, including an interception.

In addition to his success on the field, Suh was also a standout in the classroom and the community at Nebraska. He was a second-team academic All-Big 12 pick in 2009, and at the 2010 Nebraska Red-White Spring Game, Suh announced a $2.6 million donation to the University of Nebraska. The 2008 Nebraska Co-Lifter of the Year designated $2 million for improvements to NU's strength and conditioning program, and $600,000 to the College of Engineering to provide scholarships for aspiring engineers.

Nebraska Football Special Awards

Lifter of the Year

Ameer Abdullah
2012

Ameer Abdullah was honored as the 2012 Nebraska Lifter of the Year, an award given annually to the player who has shown the greatest dedication and improvement in the Huskers' strength and conditioning program.

Abdullah, a native of Homewood, Ala., captured the award for the second straight year, and gave a Nebraska running back the award for the fourth straight season.

Chamberlin Trophy

Jeremiah Sirles
2013

Offensive tackle Jeremiah Sirles was the recipient of the 47th annual Guy Chamberlin Trophy, presented at the Outland Trophy banquet in Omaha. The award was inaugurated in 1967 in memory of the former great Nebraska All-America football player who went to both the college and pro halls of fame. It is presented to the senior player who has shown by the play and contributions to the betterment of the University of Nebraska football squad that he has the qualities and dedication of Guy Chamberlin to the Cornhusker tradition.

Lincoln radio station KFOR donated the permanent trophy and each recipient receives a replica through funds contributed by the Chamberlin family and the Champ's many friends following his death in 1967. The Chamberlin Memorial Fund is administered by the University of Nebraska Foundation. Sportswriters and broadcasters who cover all Nebraska games vote on the award.

In his 14 years with the Kansas City Chiefs, 1992 Outland Trophy winner Will Shields earned 11 trips to the Pro Bowl. Shields, who helped the Huskers to three NCAA rushing titles during his All-America career, was a third-round draft pick by the Chiefs in 1993 and started more than 200 consecutive games for Kansas City before retiring after the 2006 season. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2012.

Nebraska's all-time leading tackler Barrett Ruud is part of one of the deepest family traditions in Husker history. Ruud's great-grandfather Clarence Swanson was an all-conference end at NU in 1921. Barrett's father, Tom, was an All-Big Eight linebacker and spent five seasons in the NFL, while Barrett's younger brother, Bo, was selected by New England in the sixth round of the 2008 NFL Draft.

Huskers in NFL History

Bob Brown (2004) is the most recent Husker in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Bob Devaney's first All-American at Nebraska in 1963, Brown spent 10 seasons in the NFL with the Philadelphia Eagles, the Los Angeles Rams and the Oakland Raiders. Brown (No. 64), who also had his jersey retired by NU in 2004, joined Tom Novak (No. 60) as just the only players in Nebraska history to have their numbers permanently retired.

Huskers in the Pro Football Hall of Fame (3)

Three former Huskers have earned places among the greatest football players of all time in the hallowed halls of the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

A legend at Nebraska, Guy Chamberlin became the premier end of the NFL during the 1920s. He was a player-coach on four NFL championship teams (1922-24, 1926). He concluded his six-year coaching record with a 56-14-5 (.780) record.

Chamberlin, who was affectionately referred to as "The Champ," earned All-America honors at Nebraska in 1915, before playing and coaching professionally from 1920 to 1927.

Roy "Link" Lyman pioneered a more sophisticated defensive play with a shifting, sliding style. He starred on four title teams (1922-23, 1924, 1933), and played on one losing team in 16 seasons of college and professional football.

Lyman, who played professionally for Canton, Cleveland, Frankford and Chicago from 1922 to 1934, lettered as a tackle at Nebraska in 1918, 1919 and 1921.

Nebraska's most recent addition to the Pro Football Hall of Fame celebrated his induction in 2004. Bob Brown, who joins Chamberlin as the only Huskers in both the College and Pro Football Halls of Fame, was the first All-American to play for Bob Devaney at Nebraska in 1963.

Brown spent 10 years in the NFL, including five seasons with Philadelphia, three with the Los Angeles Rams and two with the Oakland Raiders.

Huskers in the Super Bowl

Nebraska has had 54 former Huskers make 68 appearances in the Super Bowl dating back to Super Bowl II following the 1967 season. Huskers have appeared in 35 of the 48 Super Bowls, including each of the past 21 games.

Nebraska's 50 Bowl Games

1941 Rose Bowl

Stanford 21
Nebraska 13

Pasadena, Calif., Jan. 1, 1941 --- Nebraska was only the third Big Six team to play in a postseason bowl game, but the Cornhuskers made their first bowl trip a memorable one with an invitation to the granddaddy of them all - The Rose Bowl.

Under the warm California sun in Pasadena, Coach Biff Jones' Cornhuskers led Clark Shaughnessy's Stanford Indians twice in the first half, but fell victim to the innovative T-formation, 21-13. The Huskers took a 7-0 lead just six plays after the kickoff when fullback Vike Francis plunged over from the two. Stanford tied the count four plays later when Hugh Gallarneau bolted over from nine yards out.

In the second quarter, the Huskers took the lead again on a 33-yard Herm Rohrig-to-Allen Zikmund pass, but the Indians came back on Frankie Albert's 41-yard TD pass to Gallarneau for a 14-13 halftime lead. A 39-yard TD punt return by Pete Kmetovic iced the game for the Indians in the third quarter. The 92,000 fans on hand made up the largest crowd ever to see Nebraska play until the 2002 Rose Bowl (93,781).

1955 Orange Bowl

Duke 34
Nebraska 7

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1955 --- If Nebraska's first bowl bid was a memorable one, its second was one to forget. The 1954 Cornhuskers finished second behind Oklahoma in the Big Seven race and went to Miami under the no-repeat rule.

Making their first bowl appearance in 14 years, Bill Glassford's Cornhuskers trailed Duke's Blue Devils at the half, 14-0, but pulled within 14-7 early in the third quarter after a minus two-yard Duke punt. Halfback Don Comstock scored from the three to cap a 35-yard drive. After that, it was all Duke. Coach Bill Murray's Blue Devils rolled 65 yards to score on their next possession and added two more tallies in the fourth quarter to ice the game, 34-7.

1962 Gotham Bowl

Miami 34

New York, N.Y., Dec. 15, 1962 --- Playing under Coach Bob Devaney, Nebraska won its first bowl game in three tries, upsetting Miami and George Mira, 36-34, in the second and last of New York's now-defunct Gotham Bowl. Playing in Yankee Stadium before only 6,166 fans in freezing weather, the Huskers and Hurricanes put on one of the greatest bowl shows ever, trading scores in every quarter.

Willie Ross' one-yard plunge and Bill "Thunder" Thornton's subsequent two-point conversion run gave the Huskers a 36-27 lead just minutes into the fourth quarter. Mira, who passed for 321 yards, led a valiant comeback attempt but was thwarted by a last-minute interception by Husker guard Bob Brown.

1964 Orange Bowl

Nebraska 13
Auburn 7

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1964 --- Nebraska made its second Orange Bowl trip a happier one than the first with a 13-7 win over Auburn in the 1964 Miami classic. The Huskers evened their bowl record with the win and handed Bob Devaney his second bowl win in as many tries.

Husker quarterback Dennis Claridge broke the game open before most of the 72,647 fans had settled in their seats. On the Huskers' second play from scrimmage, Claridge bolted 68 yards down the sideline to put NU ahead 7-0. At the time, it was the longest TD run in Orange Bowl history. Moments later, Dave Theisen broke another Orange Bowl record with a 31-yard field goal. The record lasted until the second quarter when Theisen booted a 36-yarder to give NU a 13-0 halftime lead.

Auburn quarterback Jimmy Sidle almost brought the Tigers back, but Husker linebacker John Kirby batted a fourth-and-four pass away at the goal line with less than three minutes to go to preserve the win for Nebraska.

1965 Cotton Bowl

Arkansas 10
Nebraska 7

Dallas, Texas, Jan. 1, 1965 --- Coach Frank Broyles' Arkansas Razorbacks mounted an 80-yard fourth quarter drive against a previously impregnable Nebraska defense to down the Huskers, 10-7, in NU's first Dallas appearance. The Huskers had led most of the way in one of the greatest defensive battles in bowl history.

Arkansas opened the scoring on a 31-yard Tom McNelly field goal in the first quarter. Sophomore Harry Wilson then capped a 69-yard Husker march in the second quarter with a one-yard plunge to give Nebraska a 7-3 halftime lead. The Huskers held that lead until Bobby Burnett finished the Arkansas drive with a three-yard TD run with 4:41 left in the game. In the fierce defensive struggle, first downs were even at 11, and the Razorbacks held a slim edge in total offense, 176-168.

1966 Orange Bowl

Alabama 39
Nebraska 28

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1966 --- With the national championship riding on the outcome, Coach Bob Devaney's Huskers took on Alabama's Crimson Tide for the first time. Nebraska went into the game 10-0 and ranked third, while Alabama was 8-1-1 and fourth. Earlier in the day, top-ranked Michigan State lost to UCLA in the Rose Bowl and LSU knocked off No. 2 Arkansas in the Cotton Bowl to set up a national title game in the Orange Bowl.

Playing in Nebraska's first night bowl game, 'Bama won the title 39-28. The Tide led 24-7 at the half and the game was never in serious doubt, but led by the passing of Bob Churchich, the Huskers fought back and made the final score respectable.

1967 Sugar Bowl

Alabama 34
Nebraska 7

New Orleans, La., Jan. 2, 1967 --- Never one to duck a challenge, Coach Bob Devaney and his Huskers accepted a bid for a rematch with Alabama and Bear Bryant in the Sugar Bowl. It turned out to be a little too much of a challenge as No. 3 'Bama handed the No. 6 Huskers a 34-7 thumping.

The Tide rolled up a 17-0 first-quarter advantage and led at halftime, 24-0, behind the passing of Kenny Stabler. Sophomore fullback Dick Davis prevented a complete whitewashing with a 15-yard TD catch of a Bob Churchich pass on the first play of the fourth quarter for NU's only score. Churchich sparkled again against the Tide, completing 21-of-34 passes for 201 yards. With the defeat, the Huskers became just the second team in NCAA history, behind Alabama, to hold the dubious distinction of having lost in each of the four major bowls.

1969 Sun Bowl

Nebraska 45
Georgia 6

El Paso, Texas, Dec. 20, 1969 --- Golden-toed Paul Rogers booted a Sun Bowl-record four field goals - all in the first quarter - and Coach Bob Devaney's Huskers romped to a 45-6 win over Georgia in the 35th edition of El Paso's Sun Bowl.

Rogers booted FGs of 50, 32, 42 and 37 yards, and sophomore I-back Jeff Kinney added a TD run of 11 yards that gave Nebraska an 18-0 lead at the end of the first quarter, and the Huskers were never threatened. For his record-setting effort, Rogers was named the game's outstanding offensive player. The Big Eight co-champion Cornhuskers rolled up a 355-185 total offense advantage over the outmanned Bulldogs. Dan Schneiss led the Husker rushers with 63 yards, and Van Brownson completed 11-of-18 passes for 109 yards.

After two years away from the bowl scene, the Sun Bowl started an NCAA record run of 35 consecutive bowl appearances for the Huskers (1969-2003).

National Champions

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1971 --- Playing under the lights in Miami's Orange Bowl for the first time in five years, Coach Bob Devaney's Nebraska Cornhuskers won the first of two straight national titles by virtue of a 17-12 win over LSU and some fortunate circumstances.

Earlier in the day, top-ranked Texas was upset by Notre Dame, 24-11, in the Cotton Bowl, and No. 2 Ohio State was shocked by Stanford, 27-17, in the Rose Bowl. That left the door to the title wide open for No. 3 Nebraska. The Huskers responded by building a 10-0 first-quarter lead on a 25-yard field goal by Paul Rogers and a three-yard TD run by Joe Orduna. But a pair of Mark Lumpkin FGs and a 31-yard Buddy Lee-to-Al Coffee TD pass on the last play of the third quarter gave the aroused Tigers a 12-10 lead.

National Champions

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1972 --- It was supposed to be another "Game of the Century," rivaling Nebraska's 35-31 win over Oklahoma a few weeks earlier. The 12-0 Huskers were No. 1, the 11-0 Alabama Crimson Tide were No. 2, but the Orange Bowl had a dream game for a little less than a quarter.

The Huskers struck early on a two-yard TD run by Jeff Kinney before Johnny Rodgers broke the Tide's back with a 77-yard punt return for a touchdown on the last play of the first quarter. The Huskers added two more scores in the second stanza, and by halftime the Huskers left no doubt about who was No. 1, as Nebraska led 28-0. The Huskers continued to dominate and rolled to a 38-6 win, giving Nebraska a second straight national title and Coach Bob Devaney a satisfying first win in three tries over Alabama Coach Bear Bryant.

1973 Orange Bowl

Notre Dame 6

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1973 --- Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Rodgers went wild, scoring four touchdowns and passing for another, as the Cornhuskers became the first team to win three straight Orange Bowls, romping over Notre Dame, 40-6. In his last game as a Cornhusker, Rodgers was moved to I-back from his usual wingback position, and on the game's first play he took a pitchout for a 13-yard gain. It was a sign of things to come.

"Johnny R" capped his career by scoring on runs of eight, four and five yards and caught the Irish defense by surprise with a 52-yard TD pass to Frosty Anderson in the second quarter. He scored the last of his 50 career TDs (including bowls) when he caught a sideline pass from Dave Humm in the third quarter and scampered 50 yards to paydirt.

The contest marked the final appearance of Head Coach Bob Devaney on the Husker sideline, as he retired after the season with a 101-20-2 record and two national titles in 11 years at Nebraska.

1974 Cotton Bowl

Texas 3

Dallas, Texas, Jan. 1, 1974 --- Tom Osborne's Nebraska Cornhuskers broke open a tight contest in the third quarter with a pair of game-breaking plays to chalk up a 19-3 win over the mighty Texas Longhorns in the 1974 Cotton Bowl. The chilled New Year's Day crowd of 67,500 saw the Big Eight's runner-up and the Southwest Conference champion battle to a 3-3 tie at halftime, thanks to a brilliant Longhorn goal-line stand just before the gun.

But the Huskers were not to be denied and midway through the third quarter, safety Bob Thornton returned a Texas field goal try 41 yards to set up the clinching touchdown. Ritch Bahe got the final 12 yards on a reverse, and Rich Sanger kicked the point to make it 10-3. Four plays later, John Bell recovered a Texas fumble at the Longhorn 19, and three plays after that Tony Davis ripped in from the three to make it 16-3. Sanger kicked a 43-yard field goal with 8:09 left to complete the scoring.

Texas had scored first on a 22-yard field goal by Bill Schott in the wake of a Husker fumble, but early in the second quarter, defensive end Steve Manstedt picked up a Roosevelt Leaks fumble in mid-air and raced 65 yards to the eight. But a stiff Longhorn defense forced a 24-yard field goal by Sanger.

1974 Sugar Bowl

Nebraska 13
Florida 10

New Orleans, La., Dec. 31, 1974 --- Rallying from a 10-0 deficit, Nebraska scored three times in the fourth quarter to defeat the tough Florida Gators, 13-10. It was the Cornhuskers' sixth straight bowl victory.

From the start, it was an uphill climb for the Huskers. Florida scored once in the first quarter and kicked a field goal in the second, while holding Nebraska's usually strong offense to 138 total yards.

But in the second half, fullback Tony Davis, quarterback Terry Luck, kicker Mike Coyle and the Blackshirt defense led Nebraska to victory, even though the Huskers did not get rolling until the fourth quarter.

Freshman sensation I-back Monte Anthony scored the Huskers' first touchdown with 13:24 left in the game, when he ran straight up the middle for two yards and a score. Coyle's kick was good, and the Huskers trailed 10-7.

Davis set up Coyle's two deciding field goals with inspired running, as he picked up 126 yards on 17 carries, including the longest run of the game for 40 yards. For his performance, Davis was named the game's most valuable player, an award he also received in the Cotton Bowl the previous year. Coyle tied the score on a 37-yard boot with 7:13 left in the game, and his 39-yard kick with 1:46 left gave the Huskers the win.

1975 Fiesta Bowl

Arizona State 17
Nebraska 14

Tempe, Ariz., Dec. 26, 1975 --- Nebraska's record-tying six-game bowl win streak was snapped by Arizona State in the 1975 Fiesta Bowl, when the Sun Devils edged the Huskers, 17-14, before 51,396 partisan fans on ASU's home field.

The final blow came with 4:50 remaining in the game, when ASU kicker Dan Kush successfully booted a 29-yard field goal, breaking a 14-14 tie and capping a rally from a 14-6 deficit after three quarters.

Fighting to the very end, Nebraska took the ensuing kickoff and drove to the Arizona State 31-yard line with less than two minutes to play. The Huskers' next two plays were incomplete passes, but on third down, quarterback Terry Luck hit fullback Tony Davis with a pass at the ASU 21-yard line. Davis was hit hard by two Arizona State players and fumbled the ball. The Sun Devils recovered, killed the clock and claimed the 17-14 win.

Nebraska ended the 1975 season at 10-2 and ranked No. 9 in the country. The Huskers lost their last two games of the year to Oklahoma, 35-10, and Arizona State, which finished 1-2 in the final AP poll.

1976 Bluebonnet Bowl

Nebraska 27
Texas Tech 24

Houston, Texas, Dec. 31, 1976 --- In the most exciting bowl game of the year, the Nebraska Cornhuskers edged a determined Texas Tech team, 27-24, in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl.

Twice Nebraska rallied to overcome 10-point deficits. With Texas Tech ahead 17-7 and time running out in the second quarter, quarterback Vince Ferragamo moved the Cornhuskers 80 yards in less than two minutes to score on a 22-yard touchdown pass to Mark Dufresne. But Texas Tech running back Billy Taylor countered early in the third quarter with an 8-yard TD run to open the gap to 24-14.

Once again, the Cornhuskers started to work on the Texas Tech lead. I-back Rick Berns broke around the right end and dashed untouched 18 yards into the end zone to put Nebraska within three. The Huskers took the lead when Ferragamo connected with split end Chuck Malito for a 23-yard touchdown pass. Malito gained 107 yards on three catches to earn most valuable lineman honors in the game. Malito's touchdown, which proved to be the winning score, was set up by a partially blocked punt by defensive backs Ted Harvey and Kent Smith.

The final score was in doubt until defensive end Reg Gast recovered a Red Raider fumble with 1:34 left in the game. The fumble killed a Tech threat and allowed Nebraska to run out the clock.

1977 Liberty Bowl

Nebraska 21
North Carolina 17

Memphis, Tenn., Dec. 19, 1977 --- Quarterback Randy Garcia came off the bench in the fourth quarter to throw two touchdown passes and rallied Nebraska from a 10-point, fourth-quarter deficit to a 21-17 win over North Carolina in the 19th annual Liberty Bowl.

Garcia, who replaced starter Tom Sorley, first hit wingback Curtis Craig, who made a sensational diving catch, for a 10-yard touchdown with 10:51 left to cut the Husker deficit to 17-14. Garcia then threw a 34-yard scoring pass to Tim Smith with 3:16 left in the game to cap a rally that ended UNC's upset hopes.

The Tar Heels drew first blood early in the second quarter on a 12-yard scoring pass from Matt Kupec to tight end Brooks Williams. After the Huskers tied the game at 7-7 on a 15-yard touchdown run by fullback Dodie Donnell, Kupec threw a 10-yard scoring pass to fullback Bob Loomis late in the half for a 14-7 North Carolina lead at intermission.

Carolina upped its lead to 17-7 late in the third quarter on a 47-yard field goal by Tom Biddle, and the Tar Heels appeared to have the game well in control until Garcia's heroics brought NU back.

1979 Orange Bowl

Oklahoma 31
Nebraska 24

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1979 --- In the first-ever matchup of Big Eight teams in a bowl game, Nebraska just missed duplicating its 17-14 win over Oklahoma several weeks earlier in losing to the Sooners, 31-24, in the 45th annual Orange Bowl.

Nebraska got off to a fast start in trying for an unprecedented double over OU, driving 80 yards in 15 plays after the opening kickoff to take a 7-0 lead on Tom Sorley's 21-yard touchdown pass to Tim Smith. The Huskers then watched the revenge-minded Sooners score 24 unanswered points.

Nebraska's rally started with 9:12 left in the game when I-back Rick Berns capped a 78-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run that reduced the deficit to 31-17. A little more than a minute later, defensive tackle David Clark recovered quarterback Thomas Lott's fumble at the OU 42, and the Huskers were back in the game. Oklahoma's defense yielded 35 yards to the seven, but stiffened to stop I-back Craig Johnson on a fourth-and-one with 4:24 to go to seal the win. The Huskers did march 58 yards in 10 plays to score on a two-yard pass from Sorley to Junior Miller on the final play of the game.

1980 Cotton Bowl

Houston 17
Nebraska 14

Dallas, Texas, Jan. 1, 1980 --- Reserve quarterback Terry Elston threw a six-yard, fourth-down touchdown pass to Eric Herring with just 12 seconds left in the game as Houston handed Nebraska a heartbreaking 17-14 loss in the 44th Cotton Bowl game - another in a six-year string of incredible finishes in Husker bowl games.

Before a CBS national television audience and 72,032 fans on hand in Dallas' famous oval, the Huskers and Cougars battled tooth-and-nail for a full 60 minutes. The goal-line situation at the end was a fitting finale.

Nebraska struck first as I-back Jarvis Redwine scored on a nine-yard run late in the first period, but Houston came back to tie, 7-7, at halftime on an eight-yard Elston run early in the second period.

After a scoreless third period, Southwest Conference champion Houston took its first lead of the game, 10-7, on a 41-yard field goal by Ken Hatfield with 8:25 left in the game. The Huskers made little headway against the Cougar defense in the second half, but took advantage of a Houston fumble to drive 31 yards in six plays to take a 14-10 lead on Jeff Quinn's six-yard touchdown pass to Jeff Finn with 3:56 left.

The next 3:44 were all Elston, as the junior accounted for all but 11 yards in the Cougars' winning 66-yard drive, completing 5-of-7 passes for 45 yards, including three for crucial first downs, and rushing three times for 10 yards.

1980 Sun Bowl

Nebraska 31
Mississippi St. 17

El Paso, Texas, Dec. 27, 1980 --- A great passing performance by senior Jeff Quinn and a stout defensive effort enabled Nebraska to enjoy a successful return to the Sun Bowl by downing Mississippi State, 31-17.

The Huskers drew first blood just 2:30 into the game when, on the first play after MSU's Mardye McDole fumbled a Nebraska punt, split end Todd Brown scored on a 23-yard end-around. NU added 10 points in the second quarter on a 22-yard Kevin Seibel field goal and an eight-yard Quinn-to-Jeff Finn pass to take a 17-0 lead into the locker room at halftime.

MSU finally scored in the third quarter on a 47-yard field goal and appeared to be gaining momentum when Husker defensive end Jimmy Williams recovered a fumble at the Bulldog 25 to set up a two-yard touchdown run by Andra Franklin. The Huskers iced the game with a 52-yard Quinn-to-Tim McCrady pass late in the game. For their efforts, Williams and Quinn were named the outstanding players of the 1980 Sun Bowl.

Clemson 22
Nebraska 15

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1982 --- Coach Tom Osborne's Cornhuskers went into their 13th consecutive bowl game hoping New Year's magic would work the same wonders for them as it had for their Big Red counterparts 11 years earlier, and for a while, it looked like it would. First, Texas toppled No. 3 Alabama, 14-12, in the Cotton Bowl, and while fourth-ranked Nebraska battled top-ranked Clemson, Pittsburgh was knocking off No. 2 Georgia in the Sugar Bowl, leaving it up to the Huskers and Tigers to settle the national title.

The dream of a third national title in 12 years was not to be for the Huskers, as their own errors and standout performances by Clemson quarterback Homer Jordan and the Tiger defense gave the South Carolina school its first national title and a 12-0 season with a 22-15 victory.

The Tigers scored first on a 41-yard Donald Igwebuike field goal to take a 3-0 lead, but Nebraska came back with a bit of razzle-dazzle and took a 7-3 lead midway through the first quarter on a 25-yard TD pass from I-back Mike Rozier to wingback Anthony Steels.

For the next two-and-a-half quarters, it was all Clemson, as the opportunistic Tigers took advantage of Husker errors to score 19 unanswered points and led 22-7 after three periods. Early in the fourth quarter, the Huskers came back on a 26-yard scoring run and a two-point conversion by Roger Craig, cutting the margin to 22-15. But an eighth untimely penalty stopped another promising drive moments later, and the elusive Jordan ate up all but six seconds of the last 5:24.

1983 Orange Bowl

LSU 20

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1983 --- The 1983 Orange Bowl game between Nebraska and Louisiana State started out like the one-sided contest many had predicted. The Husker defense held the Tigers to three yards on three plays after the opening kickoff and forced a punt. Then the NU offense drove 51 yards in six plays to take a 7-0 lead on Mark Schellen's five-yard run with 4:03 gone in the game.

At that point, Murphy's Law went into effect. On the first play after Toby Williams intercepted an LSU pass at the Husker seven, Nebraska fumbled the ball away to set up a tying Tiger touchdown. The Huskers fumbled the ball away at the LSU 15, forced a punt and fumbled it at their own 45 to set up another LSU score. Then the Huskers threw an interception and were thankful to be down only 14-7 at halftime.

The second half did not start out any better, as NU missed a field goal and fumbled again to set up a field goal that gave LSU a 17-7 lead. But down 10 points, the Husker offense came alive, driving 80 yards in 12 plays to score on an 11-yard pass from Turner Gill to Mike Rozier, and going 47 yards in seven plays to regain the lead, 21-17, early in the fourth quarter on a one-yard run by Gill.

A dropped pass on a fake field goal prevented another score, and another interception set up an LSU field goal that cut the margin to 21-20. But the Husker offense sealed the win by eating up the final 5:05.

1984 Orange Bowl

Miami 31

Miami, Fla., Jan. 2, 1984 --- In one of the most exciting bowl games ever played, fourth-ranked Miami overcame Nebraska rallies from 17- and 14-point deficits and took the national championship away from the Huskers. The game was decided when strong safety Ken Calhoun knocked Turner Gill's two-point PAT pass out of Jeff Smith's hands with 48 seconds left in the game, preserving a 31-30 home-field win in the 50th Orange Bowl.

Behind rifle-armed freshman quarterback Bernie Kosar, the Hurricanes jumped to a quick 17-0 first-quarter lead and never trailed. The Huskers rallied to score two second-quarter touchdowns, then tied the game early in the second half on a Scott Livingston field goal, but Miami scored twice in a five-minute span later in the third period to put the visitors in a 31-17 hole.

Things looked blackest for Nebraska four plays after Miami's last score when Heisman Trophy winner Mike Rozier left the game for good with a badly bruised ankle. Junior I-back Jeff Smith came in to rush for 99 yards and two touchdowns, the second, a 24-yarder on fourth-and-eight, to get the Huskers within 31-30. Coach Tom Osborne eschewed the PAT kick, and a tie that would have assured Nebraska the national title, and decided to go for it all. But, thanks to Calhoun, Gill, Smith and Osborne came up just short.

1985 Sugar Bowl

LSU 10

New Orleans, La., Jan. 1, 1985 --- Senior quarterback Craig Sundberg closed out his career in grand style, as he led the Huskers back from a 10-0 first-half deficit to a 28-10 win over Louisiana State in the 51st annual Sugar Bowl.

Fired-up LSU scored on two of its first three possessions to grab the early lead, but after a rocky start, the Sundberg-led Nebraska offense roared to life to put 28 unanswered points on the board. Two of the Huskers' four touchdowns were set up by a defense that forced six Tiger turnovers, five of them interceptions, including four off LSU starting quarterback Jeff Wickersham.

Sophomore I-back Doug DuBose helped spark Nebraska with a 102-yard rushing effort, but it was Sundberg who provided most of the punch and was named the game's most valuable player. Starting for the first time since arm trouble knocked him out of the starting lineup at midseason, Sundberg completed 10-of-15 passes for 143 yards, threw for three touchdowns and ran for the go-ahead score on a nine-yard sprint 6:46 into the second half.

Sundberg's three touchdown passes tied a Nebraska bowl record. Two of those scoring tosses went to tight end Todd Frain, tying another NU bowl mark.

1986 Fiesta Bowl

Michigan 27
Nebraska 23

Tempe, Ariz., Jan. 1, 1986 --- After building a 14-3 halftime lead, Nebraska self-destructed in the third quarter and was never able to recover completely in dropping a 27-23 decision to Michigan in the Sunbist Fiesta Bowl.

The Huskers used a pair of second-quarter touchdowns by I-back Doug DuBose to take the lead, but a fumble on the third play of the second half set up a 21-yard Wolverine touchdown drive that cut the NU margin to 14-10. Nebraska fumbled again on the second play after the ensuing kickoff, setting up a 38-yard touchdown drive that put Michigan up for good, 17-14.

Nebraska's next drive stalled after one first down, and the Wolverines blocked Dan Wingard's punt, recovering it at the NU six-yard line. The Nebraska defense held, and a 19-yard Pat Moons field goal made it 20-14 Michigan, 8:18 into the second half. Later in the period, the Maize and Blue took advantage of two pass interference penalties to score another touchdown to build what proved to be an insurmountable 27-14 lead.

1987 Sugar Bowl

LSU 15

New Orleans, La., Jan. 1, 1987 --- Louisiana State had a 66-yard touchdown drive in the first three minutes of the contest and another 66-yard touchdown drive in the last three minutes of the game. In between, Nebraska dominated the Tigers by running off 30 unanswered points to post a 30-15 win in the USF&G Sugar Bowl, the Huskers' 25th bowl appearance.

Between those two Tiger drives, Nebraska gained 334 yards to LSU's 59, and had a first-down advantage of 22-3. The Huskers made a remarkable recovery from a disheartening loss to Oklahoma at the end of the regular season and posted Nebraska's fourth bowl win over LSU in as many tries and the third in five years.

Steve Taylor became the second Nebraska quarterback in three years to win the Miller-Digby Trophy as the Sugar Bowl MVP. He completed 11-of-19 passes for 110 yards and one touchdown and rushed 20 times for 63 yards and another score. Of Taylor's 173 total offensive yards, 90 came in two drives in which the Huskers went from a 7-3 deficit to a 17-7 lead.

1988 Fiesta Bowl

Florida State 31
Nebraska 28

Tempe, Ariz., Jan. 1, 1988 --- Florida State quarterback Danny McManus hit flanker Ronald Lewis with a 15-yard, fourth-down touchdown pass with 3:07 left in the game to give Florida State a 31-28 win over Nebraska in the 17th Fiesta Bowl. McManus' third touchdown pass of the afternoon capped a 97-yard touchdown drive by the Seminoles, who had taken over at their three-yard line with 6:58 to go when a fumble kept the Huskers from putting the game away.

It was a frustrating day for Nebraska, which jumped to a 14-0 first-quarter lead on a short drive set up by a Richard Bell punt return, and a 52-yard punt return touchdown by Dana Brinson. The Husker defense held FSU to just 82 yards on the ground, including only 28 yards by standout tailback Sammie Smith. But McManus threw for 375 yards, his career high by 100 yards. He was named the offensive player of the game, while Husker tackle Neil Smith earned defensive honors.

Even after Florida State took the late lead, the Huskers almost rallied, but Steve Taylor's 58-yard pass to Morgan Gregory that advanced NU to the Seminole two-yard line was called back because of a penalty.

1989 Orange Bowl

Nebraska 3

Miami, Fla., Jan. 2, 1989 --- Second-ranked Miami's quickness, particularly on defense, proved to be too much for sixth-ranked Nebraska as the Hurricanes dominated the Huskers, 23-3, in the 55th Orange Bowl Classic. Despite the win and a final 11-1-0 record, the Hurricanes were unable to lay claim to a second straight national title because of undefeated Notre Dame's 34-21 Fiesta Bowl win over West Virginia earlier in the day.

Although the Nebraska defense held the Miami offense to 354 total-offense yards, nearly 100 yards less than its season average, the Huskers never could get untracked against the Hurricanes' second-ranked defense. After leading the nation in rushing at 382.3 yards per game during the regular season, NU managed only 80 yards rushing against Miami and finished with 10 first downs.

Nebraska needed a career-long 50-yard field goal by Gregg Barrios to capitalize on its only serious scoring threat. Early in the third quarter, Tahaun Lewis picked off a Steve Walsh pass and returned it 31 yards to the Miami 37. After Ken Clark gained 16 yards to the 21-yard line, Steve Taylor was sacked for a 13-yard loss, and the Huskers had to settle for Barrios' field goal, which prevented Nebraska's first shutout since the 1973 season.

1990 Fiesta Bowl

Florida State 41
Nebraska 17

Tempe, Ariz., Jan. 1, 1990 --- Fifth-ranked Florida State rode the arm of quarterback Peter Tom Willis and the talents of a bevy of quick, talented receivers to a 41-17 win over No. 6 Nebraska in the 19th Sunkist Fiesta Bowl.

The Huskers had the lead twice in the first half, 7-0 after driving 69 yards for a touchdown on their first possession, helped by a 41-yard Mike Stigge-to-Mark Dowse pass on a fake punt, and 10-7 on a Chris Drennan field goal early in the second period.

From then on, it was all FSU. The Seminoles scored touchdowns on five of their next seven possessions to build a 41-10 lead at the end of three quarters. In the process, Willis had the best passing day ever against NU in a bowl game, completing 25-of-40 passes for 422 yards and five touchdowns. The total topped the previous high against the Huskers (375 by the Seminoles' Danny McManus in the 1988 Sunkist Fiesta Bowl), and the five touchdown passes were the most-ever against NU at the time.

For the second straight year, the Huskers faced a bowl opponent that was probably the best team in the nation, but had virtually no hope of winning the national title because of untimely defeats early in the year. FSU lost its first two games in 1989 to Southern Mississippi and Clemson, then roared back to win its last 10, including a 24-10 victory over eventual No. 1 Miami.

1991 Citrus Bowl

Georgia Tech 45
Nebraska 21

Orlando, Fla., Jan. 1, 1991 --- Despite a second-quarter rally, Nebraska was unable to overcome a 21-0 deficit as the Huskers fell to undefeated Georgia Tech, 45-21, in the Florida Citrus Bowl. The Yellow Jackets finished 11-0-1 with the victory and edged Colorado for the UPI national title, while the Buffaloes, who had beaten NU, 27-12, in November, claimed the AP crown.

Two freshmen gave Husker fans a ray of hope after Tech took a three-touchdown lead. All-Big Eight tight end Johnny Mitchell hauled in a 30-yard touchdown pass from Tom Haase, then I-back Derek Brown sprinted 50 yards to cut the margin to 21-14 with 5:07 left in the half. But that was as close as Nebraska would get, and running back William Bell's two fourth-quarter touchdowns sealed the Huskers' fate.

Mitchell finished the game with five receptions for an NU bowl record 138 yards, while Brown rushed for 99 yards, and Haase came off the bench to complete 14-of-21 passes for 209 yards and two touchdowns.

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1992 --- No. 1-ranked Miami, playing on its home field for at least a share of its fourth national title in nine years, used overwhelming team speed and a smothering defense to blank Nebraska, 22-0. It was the Cornhuskers' first shutout defeat in 221 games since the 1973 season.

The win left the Hurricanes 12-0 on the season with a split national title, joining a 12-0 Washington team that beat Nebraska, 36-21, at Lincoln in September. The Hurricanes were No. 1 in the Associated Press poll, while the Huskies claimed the top spot in the USA Today/CNN Coaches poll. It was the second straight year for a split title, and for the second straight year Nebraska, 9-2-1, lost to both teams involved, having been defeated by Colorado and Georgia Tech the previous season.

Miami held Nebraska to 82 rushing yards after the Huskers had won the NCAA rushing title in the regular season at 353.2 yards per game.

1993 Orange Bowl

Florida State 27
Nebraska 14

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1993 --- Florida State jumped to a 20-0 lead in the second quarter and never looked back in a 27-14 win over the Huskers in the 1993 Orange Bowl.

The Seminoles struck first in the opening quarter and scored 20 unanswered points before split end Corey Dixon caught a 41-yard bomb from Nebraska quarterback Tommie Frazier with 1:31 remaining in the first half to end the Seminoles' run.

Nebraska had missed on two field goal opportunities, while Florida State was good on two attempts. After Nebraska stalled on its first possession of the second half, the Seminoles put together an 85-yard drive to go up 27-7. That would prove to be FSU's last score, as the Husker defense forced the Seminoles to punt on all of their five remaining possessions and limited the potent offense to 102 total yards from that point.

Frazier connected with tight end Gerald Armstrong on a one-yard pass with 10 minutes remaining in the fourth quarter to pull within 13, but threw two interceptions as No. 3 FSU held on for a 27-14 victory.

The No. 11 Huskers were slowed by five fumbles and turned the ball over three times after leading the nation in turnover margin during the regular season. Dixon had a career-best day with 123 of Nebraska's 146 receiving yards. He also ran 35 yards on a reverse to earn MVP honors for Nebraska. Trev Alberts was NU's leading tackler with a career-high 14 tackles. NU was limited to 144 yards rushing after leading the nation in that category during the regular season.

NU dropped to 9-3 on the season and finished 14th in the final polls, its 24th consecutive year finishing in the AP top 25. FSU finished second to Alabama in the polls.

1994 Orange Bowl

Florida State 18
Nebraska 16

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1994 --- Nebraska entered its 25th consecutive bowl undefeated and ranked No. 2 by AP, but No. 1 in the USA Today/CNN Coaches poll. FSU held the AP No. 1 rank and was second by the coaches. However, NU was considered a sizeable underdog in the contest.

After a punt return touchdown by Nebraska's Corey Dixon was called back, FSU scored first when freshman Scott Bentley hit on a 34-yard field goal. Nebraska took the lead when a tipped pass from quarterback Tommie Frazier found sophomore Reggie Baul for a 34-yard score. Bentley followed with a 25-yard field goal, cutting the Husker lead to 7-6. In the third period, FSU scored on a one-yard William Floyd run and followed with a 39-yard field goal by Bentley for a 15-7 lead. Freshman Lawrence Phillips came in for the injured Calvin Jones, and on the first play of the fourth quarter scored on a 12-yard run.

Set up by Phillips' 17-yard scamper and Frazier's 32-yard sprint to the 4-yard line, NU kicker Byron Bennett kicked a 27-yard field goal with 1:16 remaining. But FSU Heisman winner Charlie Ward orchestrated a successful drive from the FSU 35. On second down from the 5-yard line, Bentley kicked a 22-yard field goal with 21 seconds left to give FSU an 18-16 lead.

From the NU 43, Frazier hit tight end Trumane Bell for a 29-yard gain and called time out with one second remaining. Bennett set up for a 45-yard field goal as officials cleared the field of those who thought the game was over, but his kick was wide left. Nebraska outgained FSU 389-333, and held the nation's No. 1 offense to one conversion on 12 third-down attempts. Frazier was Nebraska's MVP, matching Ward yard-for-yard with 283 yards of total offense.

1995 Orange Bowl

Nebraska 24
Miami 17

National Champions

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1995 --- Behind a pair of fourth-quarter touchdown runs by fullback Cory Schlesinger, No. 1 Nebraska defeated third-ranked Miami, 24-17, in the FedEx Orange Bowl to capture its first national title since 1971. The title was the first for NU Head Coach Tom Osborne, whose teams fell just short in the 1982, 1984 and 1994 Orange Bowls.

After spotting the Hurricanes a 10-0 advantage at the end of the first quarter, the Huskers got on the board as Brook Berringer found tight end Mark Gilman for a 19-yard touchdown to cap a five-play, 40-yard drive, cutting the UM lead to 10-7 at halftime. Miami extended the margin to 17-7 when Hurricane quarterback Frank Costa completed a 44-yard touchdown pass to Jonathan Harris just five plays into the third quarter.

On Miami's next possession, the Husker defense, ranked among the best in the nation all season, turned the momentum of the contest, as Dwayne Harris sacked Costa in the end zone to make the score 17-9. In the fourth quarter, Schlesinger capped a two-play, 40-yard drive with a 15-yard run to pull NU within 17-15. Tommie Frazier, who entered the game on the previous series, found tight end Eric Alford in the end zone for the two-point conversion to tie the score.

After forcing a three-and-out on Miami's next possession, NU marched 58 yards on six plays before Schlesinger's 14-yard score gave the Huskers a 24-17 lead. Kareem Moss ended any Hurricane comeback hopes with an interception, before Frazier ran out the clock to give the Huskers their third national title in school history.

1996 Fiesta Bowl

Nebraska 62
Florida 24

National Champions

Tempe, Ariz., Jan. 2, 1996 --- In one of the greatest performances in college football history, top-ranked Nebraska became only the second team ever to post perfect back-to-back national championship seasons with its 62-24 victory over No. 2 Florida in the 1996 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. The 38-point margin was the second largest in a No. 1 vs. No. 2 showdown.

The Huskers trailed 10-6 at the end of the first period before striking for 29 unanswered points in the second quarter. Lawrence Phillips' 42-yard score gave NU a 13-10 advantage. On Florida's next possession, Jamel Williams sacked Danny Wuerffel for a safety. Nebraska capitalized on the ensuing possession as freshman Ahman Green scored from one yard out. After Kris Brown's field goal made it 25-10, Michael Booker intercepted a Wuerffel pass and returned it 42 yards for a touchdown, giving the Huskers a 32-10 cushion. Brown's second field goal of the quarter extended the lead to 35-10 at halftime.

In the second half, NU quarterback Tommie Frazier ended all hopes for a Gator comeback, scoring a pair of touchdowns to give the Huskers a 49-18 lead. Frazier, who rushed for 199 yards en route to MVP honors, raced 35 yards for the first score and capped the evening with his second touchdown, a scintillating 75-yard scamper as he broke seven tackles. NU rushed for an NCAA bowl-record 524 yards in the performance and held Florida to minus-28 yards on the ground.

1996 Orange Bowl

Nebraska 41
Virginia Tech 21

Miami, Fla., Dec. 31, 1996 --- Nebraska used strong performances from I-back Damon Benning and quarterback Scott Frost to down 10th-ranked Virginia Tech, 41-21, at the 1996 FedEx Orange Bowl.

The sixth-ranked Huskers picked up their third straight bowl victory, as Benning rushed for 95 yards and scored on touchdown runs of 33 and six yards on his way to MVP honors. Frost completed 11-of-22 passes for 136 yards, while rushing for 62 yards and two touchdowns.

After the Hokies jumped ahead 7-0 on a Jim Druckenmiller touchdown pass, the Huskers responded on their next possession, as Kris Brown's 25-yard field goal early in the second quarter cut the Hokie lead to 7-3. Nebraska took the lead on its next possession, as Frost capped a three-play, 45-yard drive with a five-yard touchdown run to give the Huskers a 10-7 advantage. The NU defense pushed the margin to 17-7 after rush end Mike Rucker sacked Druckenmiller and forced a fumble that defensive tackle Jason Peter picked up and raced 31 yards for a touchdown.

The Hokies would not go away quietly though, as Druckenmiller threw a pair of touchdown passes, closing the gap to 24-21 midway through the third quarter. Nebraska finally extended its lead, as Benning's six-yard touchdown gave NU a 31-21 lead heading into the fourth quarter. In the final quarter, the Husker defense held the Hokies on a pair of drives in NU territory, while the offense added to its lead on a Brown 37-yard field goal and a 22-yard touchdown run by Frost with three minutes left, clinching the victory.

1998 Orange Bowl

Nebraska 42
Tennessee 17

National Champions

Miami, Fla., Jan. 2, 1998 --- One of the most successful eras in college football came to an end as the Huskers defeated Tennessee, 42-17, in the 1998 FedEx Orange Bowl to win a share of their third national title in four seasons. NU was first in the coaches' poll, while 12-0 Michigan earned the AP crown. The win was the final one for NU Head Coach Tom Osborne, who announced his retirement preceding the contest and finished with a record of 255-49-3 in 25 seasons.

In a showdown between two of the top offenses in the nation, the Husker defense would steal the spotlight early, forcing a pair of Vol turnovers that led directly to touchdowns. Quarterback Scott Frost triggered the first NU touchdown, completing three passes for 63 yards on the drive, including a key third-down pass to Sheldon Jackson for 25 yards that led to Ahman Green's one-yard touchdown run. NU jumped ahead 14-0 on Shevin Wiggins' 10-yard touchdown run, set up by Lance Brown's fumble recovery deep in Volunteer territory.

Leading 14-3 at halftime, the Husker offense began to show its dominance, scoring on all three of its third-quarter possessions. Frost, who rushed for 60 yards and threw for 125 more, capped a 12-play, 80-yard drive with the first of his two touchdowns. After a UT punt, Frost extended the Husker lead to 28-3 on an 11-yard touchdown run to cap a 74-yard drive. After a Tennessee touchdown cut the NU lead to 28-9, Green put the game out of reach by scoring on a 22-yard run late in the third quarter to make it 35-9. Green rushed for an Orange Bowl-record 206 yards and two touchdowns, including 159 yards in the third quarter alone. Overshadowed in the offensive effort was a defense that held UT quarterback Peyton Manning to a season-low 134 yards in the air and forced three turnovers.

1998 Holiday Bowl

Arizona 23
Nebraska 20

San Diego, Calif., Dec. 30, 1998 --- Kelvin Eafon's one-yard touchdown run with 6:08 remaining lifted fifth-ranked Arizona to a 23-20 victory over No. 14 Nebraska in the 1998 Culligan Holiday Bowl, ending the Huskers' four-game bowl winning streak.

In a wild fourth quarter that saw three lead changes, the Huskers rallied from a 16-13 deficit as quarterback Eric Crouch connected with tight end Tracey Wistrom for a four-yard touchdown to give the Huskers a 20-16 lead with 10:55 remaining. Crouch, who finished with 193 yards through the air, was 4-of-5 passing on the drive for 69 yards.

Arizona, which finished fourth in the final AP poll, came right back on its next possession, driving 68 yards on nine plays, capped by Eafon's touchdown. UA quarterback Keith Smith, who earned offensive player-of-the-game honors, kept the Wildcats' drive alive, rushing for a pair of first downs to set up Eafon's touchdown. NU had a final opportunity to regain the lead, driving to the UA 46-yard line before Chris McAlister's second interception of the game sealed the win for the Wildcats.

Trailing 9-0 in the second quarter, the Husker defense forced a pair of Wildcat turnovers, leading to 13 points, as Nebraska took a 13-9 halftime lead. Loran Kaiser's fumble recovery set up a 25-yard field goal by Kris Brown, cutting the Wildcat lead to 9-3. On the Huskers' next possession, Crouch found wingback Shevin Wiggins for a 44-yard touchdown that gave the Huskers a 10-9 advantage. On the ensuing kickoff, Billy Legate forced a Wildcat fumble deep in UA territory, leading to Brown's second field goal of the half as time expired.

The loss overshadowed an outstanding performance by rush end Mike Rucker, who had seven tackles, including six solo stops, four tackles for loss and two quarterback hurries to earn defensive MVP honors.

2000 Fiesta Bowl

Nebraska 31
Tennessee 21

Tempe, Ariz., Jan. 2, 2000 --- No. 3 Nebraska defeated No. 6 Tennessee, 31-21, in the 2000 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl to finish the season 12-1 and ranked No. 2 in the AP poll.

The Huskers started quickly, scoring on a Dan Alexander seven-yard touchdown run on NU's first possession and increased the lead to 14-0 on a 60-yard punt return by wingback Bobby Newcombe late in the first quarter. A Josh Brown 31-yard field goal and a UT touchdown in the final seconds of the half gave the Huskers a 17-7 halftime advantage.

After the Vols closed to within 17-14 early in the third quarter, the Huskers responded by marching 96 yards in nine plays. Fullback Willie Miller set up the Husker touchdown with a career-long 47-yard run to the UT 13-yard line. Nebraska scored on the next play, as Crouch connected with tight end Aaron Golliday for a 13-yard touchdown pass to give the Huskers a 24-14 lead. Crouch earned offensive MVP honors, completing 9-of-15 passes for 148 yards and a touchdown, while rushing for 64 yards on 17 carries.

Nebraska put the game out of reach with a 10-play, 99-yard drive, capped by Correll Buckhalter's two-yard touchdown run to give the Huskers a 31-14 lead. Alexander led Nebraska's ground game with 108 yards, as the Huskers finished the game with 321 yards against the nation's seventh-best rush defense.

In the final game for NU Defensive Coordinator Charlie McBride, the Blackshirts held the Vols to just 44 yards rushing and forced two interceptions, including one by defensive MVP Mike Brown, who finished with seven tackles. All-America cornerback Ralph Brown and Carlos Polk led NU with eight tackles each.

2000 Alamo Bowl

Nebraska 66
Northwestern 17

San Antonio, Texas, Dec. 30, 2000 --- The Nebraska offense saved its best game of the season for last, dominating Big Ten co-champion Northwestern, 66-17, in the 2000 Alamo Bowl. The 66 points were an NU and NCAA bowl record, along with the Huskers' nine offensive touchdowns.

Nebraska got off to a quick start, as the Huskers scored on their first possession. Dan Alexander capped the drive with a 15-yard touchdown run, just a part of his Alamo Bowl and NU bowl-record 240 rushing yards. As a team, the Huskers had an Alamo Bowl-record 476 rushing yards.

The Wildcats came right back, as quarterback Zak Kustok marched down the field before Tim Long ended Northwestern's drive with a 44-yard field goal. Another Northwestern score made it look like the game was going to be close with NU trailing, 10-7. But Nebraska had a different plan.

Quarterback Eric Crouch started NU's NCAA bowl-record tying 31-point second quarter with a 50-yard touchdown run. NU then scored 24 straight points before Northwestern's Damien Anderson ran for a 69-yard score. Bobby Newcombe's 58-yard touchdown reception gave NU a 38-17 halftime lead.

The NU defense went on to shut out the Wildcats in the final two quarters. Free safety Dion Booker had a career-high eight tackles, while rush end Kyle Vanden Bosch had a career-high six quarterback hurries, seven tackles, with three tackles for a loss, and two pass breakups.

A 21-point third quarter, including Matt Davison's 69-yard touchdown reception, put NU ahead 59-17. Place-kicker Josh Brown tied the NCAA bowl record for extra-point kick attempts (9) and extra-point kicks made (9).

2002 Rose Bowl

Miami 37
Nebraska 14

Pasadena, Calif., Jan. 3, 2002 --- Playing in front of a sellout partisan Nebraska crowd, the Huskers fell to Miami, 37-14, in the 88th annual Rose Bowl and the BCS national championship game.

Miami came out strong from the start and gained 472 yards of total offense, including 362 yards passing by quarterback Ken Dorsey. The victory capped Miami's perfect 12-0 campaign under first-year head coach Larry Coker. The Huskers, who finished the year with an 11-2 mark, were held to a season-low 259 yards, including 197 on the ground.

The Hurricanes opened the scoring, capitalizing on a trio of first-half Husker turnovers. Miami converted the miscues into 14 points, helping the Hurricanes build a 34-point halftime lead. Nebraska forced a Miami turnover on the Hurricanes' second possession of the game, but Heisman winner Eric Crouch fumbled on the ensuing series at the NU 49.

The turnover would prove costly, as Dorsey connected with wide receiver Andre Johnson for a 49-yard touchdown seven seconds later to give the Hurricanes a 7-0 lead. The Hurricanes marched 86 yards in five plays early in the second quarter to extend their lead to 14-0.

On Nebraska's next possession, Crouch was intercepted by James Lewis, who returned the pass 47 yards for the score. Miami increased its lead to 34-0 at the half as Dorsey connected on touchdown passes to tight end Jeremy Shockey and a second strike to Johnson.

Fullback Judd Davies got Nebraska on the board late in the third quarter with a 16-yard TD run to cut the lead to 34-7. The Huskers closed to within 20 points after DeJuan Groce returned a Miami punt 71 yards for a touchdown with more than 14 minutes remaining. Miami's Todd Sievers kicked a 37-yard field goal to account for the final 37-14 margin.

2002 Independence Bowl

Mississippi 27
Nebraska 23

Shreveport, La., Dec. 27, 2002 -- Nebraska's DeJuan Groce tied an NCAA record with his fourth punt return touchdown of the season, but the Huskers saw their season end with a 27-23 loss to Ole Miss in the 2002 MainStay Independence Bowl. The loss left NU with a 7-7 record, ending its streak of winning seasons at 40 straight.

Groce gave NU a 17-7 lead with a 60-yard punt return in the second quarter, but NU managed just 97 yards and two field goals in the second half. Nebraska jumped to a 10-0 lead in the game's first 17 minutes, as Josh Brown connected on a 29-yard field goal in the first quarter before Jammal Lord found freshman tight end Matt Herian for a 41-yard touchdown strike 1:22 into the second quarter.

Ole Miss quarterback Eli Manning cut the Huskers' lead to 10-7 with an 11-yard touchdown pass to Kerry Johnson midway through the second quarter before Groce's punt return put the Huskers up 10. Toward Sanford scored from one yard out to pull the Rebels within three, 17-14, at the half.

In the second half, the teams exchanged field goals before Sanford's second one-yard scoring run gave the Rebels a 24-20 edge. The Huskers cut the lead to 24-23 on Brown's third field goal before the Rebels got a 43-yard field goal by Jonathan Nichols with 4:39 remaining.

NU's I-back tandem of Dahrran Diedrick and David Horne combined for 152 of NU's 266 rushing yards, as Diedrick led NU with 88 yards on 12 carries, while Horne finished with 65 yards on 15 rushes. Senior rush end Chris Kelsay was chosen as the Defensive MVP, recording 1.5 sacks for nine yards among his three tackles for loss.

Ole Miss became the first Southeastern Conference team to down NU in a bowl game since Alabama did it twice in the mid-1960s. Nebraska had won its previous 11 bowl games against SEC teams.

San Antonio, Texas, Dec. 29, 2003 -- Behind a stifling defense and a record-setting day by I-back Cory Ross, No. 22 Nebraska picked up its 10th victory of the year with a 17-3 win over Michigan State in the 2003 MasterCard Alamo Bowl.

Under Interim Head Coach Bo Pelini, the Blackshirts recorded five sacks and intercepted three passes to hold the Spartans to three points.

Nebraska, which improved to 10-3 with the win, held MSU without a touchdown and just 174 total yards, more than 200 yards below its season average. Trevor Johnson and Demorrio Williams each had two sacks, as the Huskers harassed Michigan State quarterback Jeff Smoker the entire game.

While the Blackshirts kept MSU in check, Ross did the offensive damage, rushing for 138 yards and two touchdowns on a school-record 37 carries. Ross, who broke the 100-yard mark for the third time in the last four games of the year, scored on touchdown runs of 2 and 6 yards, as NU built a 14-point halftime lead.

While Ross accounted for 138 of NU's 229 yards on the ground, offensive MVP Jammal Lord was solid through the air, completing 8-of-17 passes for a career-high 160 yards, as he out-threw Smoker, who was 21-of-39 for just 156 yards.

The Spartans came right back on their second possession, going 48 yards on 10 plays to set up Dave Rayner's 46-yard field goal to tie the game with 3:53 remaining in the quarter.

The Husker defense forced its first turnover when Daniel Bullocks intercepted Smoker at the NU 36-yard line. The Huskers quickly took advantage, as Lord found Isaiah Fluellen for a 58-yard pass deep in MSU territory. Ross then scored two plays later from two yards out, giving the Huskers a 10-3 lead. Fluellen caught a career-high four passes for 84 yards, while Ross Pilkington caught three passes for 70 yards.

The Huskers struck in the final minutes of the first half, as NU went 80 yards in just three plays to take a 17-3 lead. Lord, who carried 10 times for 79 yards, broke a career-long 66-yard scamper on the first play of the drive to the MSU 14-yard line. Ross capped the drive with runs of 8 and 6 yards, putting NU ahead 17-3.

2005 Alamo Bowl

Michigan 28

San Antonio, Texas, Dec. 28, 2005 --- Nebraska produced its greatest bowl comeback in school history, overcoming a 28-17 deficit with less than nine minutes left on its way to a thrilling 32-28 victory over No. 20 Michigan in the 2005 MasterCard Alamo Bowl.

Nebraska battled back and forth with the Wolverines, jumping out to a 7-0 lead after a 52-yard touchdown pass from Zac Taylor to Terrence Nunn.

Michigan answered with a pair of Chad Henne touchdown passes, before Taylor responded with another strike to Nate Swift to tie the game at the half.

Jordan Congdon kicked his school-record 19th field goal of the season to give NU a 17-14 lead midway through the third quarter, before Henne struck again with his third touchdown pass. He added a seven-yard touchdown run to give the Wolverines a 28-17 lead early in the fourth quarter.

Cory Ross, who earned MVP honors after rushing for 161 yards on 28 carries, led Nebraska back with a 31-yard touchdown burst with 8:08 left. Taylor then hit Todd Peterson for the two-point conversion to trim Michigan's lead to 28-25.

On Michigan's first play of the ensuing drive, linebacker Adam Ickes forced a Jason Avant fumble that was recovered by linebacker Corey McKeon to give the Huskers the ball at the Michigan 48. The Huskers were unable to capitalize, but Blake Tiedtke forced another fumble on the Wolverines' next drive that was recovered by Ola Dagundaro at the Michigan 17. Three plays later, Taylor hit Nunn with a 13-yard touchdown strike to give NU the lead with 4:29 remaining.

The game was not decided until a bizarre final play that began at the Michigan 36 and ended at NU's 13 after a completed pass and a wild series of laterals. Titus Brothers made the game's final tackle of Tyler Ecker after a 62-yard run.

2007 Cotton Bowl

Auburn 17
Nebraska 14

Dallas, Texas, Jan. 1, 2007 --- In a classic defensive struggle, No. 10 Auburn managed the only points of the second half on a 42-yard John Vaughn field goal in the third quarter to defeat No. 22 Nebraska, 17-14, in the 2007 AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic on New Year's Day. The Huskers fell to the Tigers despite surrendering just 178 total yards, as both Auburn touchdowns came in the first half on drives of less than 15 yards following NU turnovers.

Nebraska was in position to tie or win the game late in the fourth quarter after senior linebacker Stewart Bradley recovered an Auburn fumble at the Tiger 42 with 5:24 remaining in the contest. The Huskers drove to the Auburn 27 before facing a fourth-and-11 at the AU 30. NU elected to go for it, but Zac Taylor's pass intended for Frantz Hardy was incomplete. NU's field goal attempt would have been from 47 yards out and the longest Husker field goal of the 2006 season was just 40 yards.

Marlon Lucky led the NU offense with 88 yards rushing on 25 carries, while adding a team-leading six receptions for 67 yards to account for 155 of NU's 230 yards. Brandon Jackson added seven carries for 38 yards and a score to help the Huskers, while Taylor completed 14-of-26 passes for 126 yards and one touchdown with one interception.

Bradley ended his career on a solid note by leading the Blackshirt defense with a team-high seven tackles, including a sack and his fourth-quarter fumble recovery. Jay Moore added six tackles, including one of NU's five sacks and eight tackles for loss. Corey McKeon, Andre Jones and Ola Dagunduro each added five tackles and a TFL in a stout defensive effort.

Nebraska scored on its opening possession, going 80 yards in 15 plays capped by Nate Swift's 13-yard scoring reception. After short scoring drives following NU turnovers put the Tigers ahead 14-7 early in the second quarter, Jackson reeled off a 20-yard run for the tying score with nine minutes to play in the first half. Vaughn posted the winning points in the third quarter, handing NU its fourth loss to a top-10 team on the year.

2009 Gator Bowl

Clemson 21

Jacksonville, Fla., Jan. 1, 2009 --- Nebraska scored on four consecutive third-quarter possessions to twice rally from an 11-point deficit. The Blackshirts capped a dominant effort with a late defensive stand, as the Huskers came back for a 26-21 victory over Clemson in the 64th annual Konica Gator Bowl at Jacksonville Municipal Stadium on New Year's Day.

The Huskers' comeback was keyed by an outstanding effort from the defense. Nebraska held Clemson to just 210 yards, including only four yards rushing. All 21 Clemson points came off Husker turnovers, while NU forced two Tiger turnovers that led to six crucial points in the five-point win.

After trailing 14-3 at halftime, Nebraska erupted for 20 points in the third quarter. A Tiger third-quarter touchdown pushed the lead to 21-10, but from there it was all Nebraska. The Huskers gained a lead they would not relinquish with 1:40 remaining in the third period. After taking the lead, the defense limited Clemson to three plays or fewer on five straight drives. In the second half quarterback Joe Ganz threw a touchdown pass to Todd Peterson while Alex Henery connected on three field goals.

Ganz, who was named Gator Bowl MVP, finished 19-of-36 for 236 yards passing and two touchdowns. Peterson was Ganz's favorite target, as the Grand Island native hauled in four passes for 96 yards. Quentin Castille added a career-high 125 yards rushing on 18 carries, as Nebraska totaled 361 yards.

2009 Holiday Bowl

Arizona 0

San Diego, Calif., Dec. 30, 2009 --- In one of Nebraska's most dominant bowl performances, the No. 20 Cornhuskers capped a 10-win season by posting their first-ever bowl shutout with a 33-0 whitewashing of No. 22 Arizona in the 2009 Pacific Life Holiday Bowl at Qualcomm Stadium.

NU's 33-point victory margin was its largest in a bowl game since a 49-point win (66-17) over Northwestern in the 2000 Alamo Bowl. It also challenged a 39-point (45-6) win over Georgia in the 1969 Sun Bowl, a 38-point win over Florida in the 1996 Fiesta Bowl and a 34-point victory (40-6) over Notre Dame in the 1973 Orange Bowl.

Led by All-American defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh and Holiday Bowl Defensive MVP Matt O'Hanlon, the Blackshirts surrendered just 109 total offense yards (63 rush, 46 pass) and just six first downs.

Offensively, NU piled up 396 total yards, including 223 rushing and 173 passing. The Huskers also controlled the time of possession, 38:12-21:48.

Alex Henery and Niles Paul gave NU big advantages on special teams, as Henery went 4-for-4 on field goals, while burying three punts inside the Arizona 20. Paul, who was the Holiday Bowl Offensive MVP, added 94 return yards, including a 49-yarder on a kickoff. Paul also hauled in a Nebraska bowl-game record 74-yard touchdown reception in the third quarter to finish with four catches for 123 yards and 237 all-purpose yards.

2010 Holiday Bowl

Washington 19
Nebraska 7

San Diego, Calif., Dec. 30, 2010 --- Nebraska struggled to find its offensive rhythm against an inspired Washington defense in a 19-7 loss to the Huskies in the Bridgepoint Education Holiday Bowl at Qualcomm Stadium.

With the loss, the Huskers finished with a 10-4 record for the second straight season, while Washington closed the year with a 7-6 mark while winning its final four games.

NU managed just 91 rushing yards as a team, led by Rex Burkhead's 39 yards on 12 carries and Roy Helu Jr.'s 34 yards on 11 carries. Helu closed his career as NU's No. 4 all-time leading rusher with 3,404 yards, including 1,245 yards in 2010. Martinez gained 66 yards, but lost 43 yards to net just 23 yards for the game. Martinez completed 7-of-9 passes for 53 yards with one touchdown, but also threw an interception on the night. Cody Green finished the game 3-for-12 through the air for 45 yards.

Washington turned the tables on NU by amassing 268 yards on the ground, including 177 yards on 34 carries from Chris Polk. The Huskies stretched their lead to 17-7 early in the third quarter on a 25-yard touchdown run by quarterback Jake Locker, who added 83 rushing yards on the night.

While the Huskies found success on the ground, Locker continued to struggle against the Blackshirt secondary, completing just 5-of-16 passes for 56 yards. In NU's 56-21 win at Seattle on Sept. 18, Locker completed just 4-of-20 passes for 71 yards with two interceptions.

However, the Huskies didn't need a successful passing game in the Holiday Bowl thanks to a hard-nosed defense, a strong running game, solid execution and perfect ball security. The Huskies committed just three penalties for 30 yards, and did not fumble or throw an interception in the game. Nebraska committed 12 penalties for 102 yards, fumbled three times with one lost, and threw one interception. NU's penalties and yardage were the most by a Husker team in their 47 all-time bowl games.

Nebraska did not record a sack in the game. Senior defensive end Pierre Allen led the Blackshirts with eight tackles, including seven solos with one tackle for loss, while Lavonte David and Jared Crick both added seven tackles (all solos) with one TFL apiece. David pushed his season total to 152 tackles, breaking linebacker Barrett Ruud's previous NU single-season tackle record of 149 in 2003.

2012 Capital One Bowl

South Carolina 30
Nebraska 13

Orlando, Fla., Jan. 2, 2012 --- No. 20 Nebraska jumped to a 13-9 lead at the end of the first quarter, but No. 9 South Carolina scored the game's final 21 points in the Huskers' 30-13 loss in the Capital One Bowl at Florida Citrus Bowl Stadium.

Nebraska ended its 2011 season with a 9-4 overall record (5-3 Big Ten) to cap the Huskers' fourth consecutive nine-win season under fourth-year coach Bo Pelini. The Gamecocks finished with an 11-2 overall record to set a school record for most wins.

Nebraska struck first when sophomore quarterback Taylor Martinez connected with freshman Kenny Bell on a 30-yard touchdown pass to give NU a quick 6-0 lead. But Brett Maher's extra-point attempt was blocked and returned for two points by South Carolina's Stephon Gilmore. The block ended a streak of 159 straight PATs for NU, and the return was the first against the Huskers since Colorado in 1991.

South Carolina took its first lead on quarterback Connor Shaw's one-yard plunge to cap an 11-play, 55-yard drive to give USC a 9-6 edge.

Nebraska answered on the ensuing possession when Ameer Abdullah burst across the goal line from one yard out to give NU a 13-9 lead with 3:33 left in the first quarter.

NU's defense stymied South Carolina the rest of the first half, and the Husker offense had success moving the ball on the Gamecocks. Nebraska twice drove into scoring position before turning the ball over to end both threats. South Carolina took the lead for good on Shaw's 51-yard Hail Mary pass to Alshon Jeffery as time expired in the half. Jeffery finished with 148 receiving yards before being ejected along with NU defensive back Alfonso Dennard.

The Huskers opened the second half by driving to the USC 8, before the march stalled and a missed field goal left NU without points again. The defenses dominated the rest of the third quarter, before the Gamecocks took control on a Shaw to Kenny Miles scoring pass with 12:25 left made it 23-13. Miles added a three-yard touchdown run to produce the final margin.

2013 Capital One Bowl

Georgia 45
Nebraska 31

Orlando, Fla., Jan. 1, 2013 --- No. 23 Nebraska hung tough with No. 6 Georgia for three quarters, but a pair of Bulldog touchdown passes in the fourth provided the margin in the Huskers' 45-31 loss in the Capital One Bowl at Florida Citrus Bowl Stadium.

Nebraska finished 2012 with a 10-4 record that included a 7-1 Big Ten mark and a Legends Division title. Georgia, the SEC runner-up, finished with a 12-2 mark.

Senior I-back Rex Burkhead led Nebraska with 140 yards and a touchdown on 25 carries, while adding four catches for 39 yards and another score in his final game. Burkhead, who produced his 14th 100-yard game, closed with 3,329 career rushing yards. His 357 rushing yards on 76 carries in four bowl games were both NU records.

Nebraska's running attack rolled up 239 yards against Georgia, including 46 yards from junior quarterback Taylor Martinez, who pushed his season total to 1,019. He became the fourth Husker quarterback to produce a 1,000-yard campaign. He also connected on 16-of-27 passes for 204 yards and two touchdowns, finishing his junior year with 2,871 passing yards. His 3,890 total yards on the season set a Nebraska record.

The Huskers ended the day with 443 yards of total offense against the Bulldogs, but Georgia responded with 589 yards of its own, including 427 yards and five touchdown passes from quarterback Aaron Murray. Running back Todd Gurley added 125 yards and a score on the ground to lead a UGA attack that managed 162 rushing yards.

Georgia jumped to 9-0 lead before Martinez's 14-yard touchdown pass to Jamal Turner put the Huskers on the board. Just 27 seconds later, linebacker Will Compton gave NU a 14-9 lead with his 24-yard interception return for a touchdown with 4:15 left in the first quarter. The Husker lead lasted just 11 seconds, as Murray connected with Tavarres King on a 75-yard touchdown strike. UGA pushed the lead to 23-14 early in the second quarter, before NU responded with 10 straight points to take a 24-23 lead to halftime. Burkhead scored his second touchdown to push the Husker margin to 31-23 with 9:42 left in the third, but the Bulldogs outscored NU 22-0 the rest of the way.

2014 Gator Bowl

Nebraska 24
Georgia 19

Jacksonville, Fla., Jan. 1, 2014 --- Nebraska returned to the win column in bowl games with a 24-19 victory over No. 22 Georgia at the TaxSlayer.com Gator Bowl at Jacksonville's EverBank Field.

The victory allowed Nebraska to finish the season with a 9-4 record that included a 5-3 Big Ten mark. Georgia finished the season at 8-5.

The NU offense was paced by receiver Quincy Enunwa and I-back Ameer Abdullah, while the Blackshirt defense was tough in the red zone against a talented Bulldog offense.

After a scoreless first quarter, Georgia opened the scoring with a second-quarter field goal, but Nebraska quickly responded. Cornerback Josh Mitchell recovered a fumbled UGA punt and NU converted the miscue into a touchdown on a five-yard pass from Tommy Armstrong Jr. to Enunwa. The rest of the half featured a Pat Smith field goal for NU, sandwiched by two Georgia field goals after the Bulldogs drove deep into NU territory.

Leading 10-9 at the half, Nebraska quickly added to its lead in the third quarter. Mitchell intercepted a pass on Georgia's first offensive series. The Huskers then marched 38 yards in seven plays, capped by a one-yard TD run from Abdullah to provide a 17-9 lead. Georgia added its fourth field goal of the day to slice the lead to 17-12, before Nebraska took control with the longest offensive play in school history.

Backed up at its own 1 and facing a third-and-long, Armstrong connected with Enunwa at midfield and the wideout broke a Georgia tackle and sprinted the rest of the way for a school-record 99-yard touchdown. The score gave NU a 24-12 advantage with less than five minutes remaining in the third quarter.

Georgia cut the lead to 24-19 with a touchdown pass on the first play of the fourth quarter. The Bulldogs drove inside the Nebraska 20 twice in the final five minutes, but both times the Blackshirts held on downs to preserve the win.

Abdullah led the NU running attack with 122 yards, while Enunwa caught four passes for 129 yards and two TD and was named the Gator Bowl MVP.
